

THE MASTER OF DECEPTION

I don't give you the news—I tell you how to think about it. —Michael Savage

Brigands have boarded a luxury airliner. Their plan is to gather up all the valuables on board before destroying the engines and parachuting to safety. The operation is well planned and the hijackers manage to seize the cockpit without raising much suspicion since the majority of the passengers—especially those in first class—are busy enjoying themselves with plenty of drinks, music, movies, sports telecast and so on. The last thing on their minds is that they could be in mortal danger; after all, everybody knows America is the greatest airliner in the world. Therefore, when news comes over the speakers that the flight will be delayed due to unstable weather conditions, it is received with a general ease and many pay no attention at all since such things are just another part of air travel. However, once those on board begin to realize that what they were told would be a short flight is now long overdue and thus may affect their various personal engagements, they become impatient. Some even notice that though the speakers keep repeating weather bulletins and advising passengers to be prepared to land, the plane is not circling a landing zone but speeding straight into darkness...

Beautiful attendants of both sexes begin lavishing lucky passengers with fancy drinks and tastier treats, but most folks are just simply absorbed in the entertainment flashing across their screens. Even coach appears to be quite the party and everybody seems to be having a good time. Others though become anxious and make animated inquiries into what's going through the mind of a pilot who speaks in tongues and why nobody can explain the cause of the strange sounds emitting from the cockpit. A few hot heads even discuss going to have a look for themselves... Meanwhile, in the process of rounding up the luggage and crippling the control panel, the hijackers have caught wind of the growing spirit of audaciousness spreading among their victims and quickly order it quelled. The pilot—their man inside—sequesters a few of the airline's more obedient customers and explains to them—very briefly—that the crew is unfortunately experiencing difficulties with the control panel but that all will be well so long as everybody remains calm and for this important mission Great Americans will be required to ensure that all those on board continue to believe in the Greatness of America. Those selected are proud to be entrusted with such an honor and take to their task with all the enthusiasm of passengers who couldn't have imagined a better flight than one where they're seen chatting with the pilot of America in such turbulent times...

Back in coach however, big trouble is brewing as mysterious characters without tickets have incited the crammed quarters to a belief that the lack of comfort is caused by rich folk who stole all the good seats. Out of nowhere an unknown man claiming to be a pilot has appeared to declare that he will fly the plane and lead his fellow travelers into first class where they belong. The situation has grown tumultuous. Not to be deterred, the Great Americans confidently assure any passenger who'll listen that the situation will be fixed once they've managed to convince those on the left side of the aisle to understand how great it is to fly American. But America is obviously in an uproar and some say it's bound to crash. The frightened passengers are no longer so sure that it's such a great time to be an American, especially those seated in the middle section fearing the potential of being thrown out of their seats...

These Great Americans would never relinquish the privilege of hearing themselves on the speakers of the world's greatest airliner just because they're complete phonies hooked on powerful prescription drugs. Realizing that the passengers apparently require a little more by the way of persuasion than mere constant reminders of a bad actor that once flew the plane, the Great Americans organize a freedom concert hoping that a flatulent display of patriotism will drown out the increasingly alarming threats being hurled from malcontents in coach screaming for a seat change... The formerly irritating beeping sound has become a blaring siren. The Great Americans are still babbling about an expanded email campaign, when suddenly—through flashing lights—a swart security officer appears to announce that for precautionary reasons and for everybody's own protection, all personal belongings will be collected for safekeeping with the flight crew. What before was only whispered is about to be shouted: perhaps those thought of as crazy extremists an hour ago may in fact be the only hope for survival! Hearing this, the Great Americans go into overdrive frantically urging cooperation with strange-looking crewmen in the name of the Greatness of America... but America is miles off course, almost out of fuel, and heading for Catastrophe...

The political success of this movement towards global government is to be found in its accordance to the principle that the most effective way to eliminate opposition is to neutralize its leadership, especially the most vocal. Any banter about a so-called Fairness Doctrine threatening to silence the so-called last bastion of free speech in America serves all too well for those blowing hot air on the radio, because as this essay will expose, no voice on regulated airwaves speaks for the true interests of White America—at best they may seem to be. Us White men despise the 'news' because every single day is a renewed attack on our manhood, and while it is true that only morons and fools depend on morning rags that come soaked in mendacity or gesticulating creatures on television to keep up with the schmooze, what we hear on our radio differs from what they read in print or watch on television only by the deeper degree it is authorized in a thoroughly firewalled American media.

In the front rank will stand organs of an official character; they will always stand guard over our interests, and therefore their influence will be comparatively insignificant. In the second rank will be the semi-official organs, whose part it will be to attract the tepid and indifferent. But in the third rank we shall set up our own, to all appearances opposition, who our opponents will believe is their own and will show us their cards...

Only confused young housewives with husbands in Iraq are susceptible to that creep Sean Hannady and even the White construction worker crowd is tired of being jerked-off by the bimbo. The result of permitting only one man in radio to, "see and know everything", is that those refusing to board a perceptibly doomed flight 77WABC are still willing to fly according to regulations. Michael Savage built up what he affectionately describes as a "99% angry White male audience" by screaming what they thought no one in the media is allowed to say anymore. At first they imagine they've stumbled on some lucky small-timer blowing hard for his fifteen minutes; they've never heard the name Michael Savage so logically they assume he's insignificant, until they're inundated by a constant stream of the same dire opinions they themselves have felt inside for so long; and when Savage says: I know what you're feeling, how come I don't hear this anywhere else? I'm the only independent conservative in the media. I am dissent. My name is dissent. I'm in such a rage over what's happening to my country I feel like I want to kill somebody! —they're hooked, and this infatuating man becomes to them what he is to literally millions of angry White men in America: Master of Reality.

But the force for which Michael Savage struggles to conserve is tragically misconstrued by American White men who so highly esteem him. The myth of his independence from the government-media complex he so often criticizes is based on nothing more than his own assertion. How's it possible for one man alone to form the only independent thought in nationally syndicated radio? Answer: it's not possible; but this Jew is independent alright—of America. Though he broadcasts out of San Fran-sicko, his home station is based in New York City, 710WOR—channeling American Zionism. Attentive listeners to the Savage Nation understand that when Michael Savage shares a personal experience he is usually intimating his underlying mission. One particularly noteworthy story told by Doctor Savage recalls a time prior to his career in radio when he was uncertain of what to do with himself during a vacation to Israel. He explained how he seriously entertained the idea of remaining in the chosen land until a rabbi friend adamantly instructed: Michael, you must not stay here; and when Savage asked why not, the rabbi simply replied: because you will start a revolution. The rabbi then advised his highly influential brother Jew to remain in Diaspora. Sometime thereafter a consecrated Michael Savage became the premier mashpiah to the conservative bulwark of American sovereignty.

Those producing ratings for talk radio are to be trusted about as much as the liars distorting the census. Rush Limbaugh would lose $\frac{3}{4}$ of his audience if he were forced to dish out his pomposity after supper, when of course, most small-minds are off watching sports. With their upbeat posture and catchy bumper tunes, daytime politicos provide entertainment to a broad audience looking primarily to distract themselves from work. We never gather at high noon to discuss the state of the nation—men talk politics after supper. The evening slot attracts the serious listener, because if someone is listening to talk radio after supper, chances are they're not bogged down in the Entertainment World and this fact alone drastically increases their resistance potential. The Savage Nation is by far the number one radio broadcast in America and that's why special arrangements are made to keep the name Michael Savage un-mentioned in the mainstream—including radio—otherwise he'd lose his luster and the anger he captivates would probe deeper into the firewall.

Who exactly is this Israeli rabbi friend of Michael Savage? Do they remain in contact today? Savage maintains that he has no support from Israel and regards the country itself only from the standpoint of a simple observer. The Jew relies on our superficiality in order to conceal the true nature of his activities. It may very well be that Michael Savage has no official attachments to the Israeli government but a spiritual connection he does have indeed, and therefore the most compelling. Tom Metzger also has no formal connections to the American government yet can anybody honestly say that his life is not invested on behalf of what he believes are the best interests of the American people? In a February 2008 broadcast some Negro preacher phoned the Savage Nation to profess the belief that the world will be governed from Jerusalem by God's Chosen People whether the rest of the world likes it or not—because it's written in the Bible. And Michael Savage couldn't help but to enjoy this terrifying revelation...and for this we can't blame him; the racist knows exactly where this Jew's allegiance lies: with his own race.

No one shall with impunity lay a finger on the aureole of our government infallibility. The pretext for stopping any publication will be the alleged plea that it is agitating the public mind without occasion or justification while those attacking us will also be organs established by us, attacking exclusively points that we have pre-determined to alter...

What makes Michael Savage radio's master of reality? Answer: Savage is the only voice we can find on the AM band that refers to vermin who should be outside the Holland tunnel at 4am wearing fishnet stockings for what they are. We're way past the point of calm discussion and his eloquent anger is a compelling attraction in an age when, as Doctor Dissent would put it, the good are spat upon and the no-good lauded. Of course he touches the hot topics lesser phonies are paid to avoid, it's what secures his position on the last frontier of regulated media. For instance when the man who cracked the DNA code again pointed out something as obvious as the grass being green and the sky blue, Savage bragged about being the only one in the media to touch it. But he only held it long enough to catch attention, and then quickly dropped the subject before the conclusion had to be drawn; and not because his switchboard was swamped with furious Negroes as he let his gullible audience assume; the phone lines were certainly jammed but with 99% angry White males hoping that a glaring truth was finally about to be authenticated by someone in the media. How many White people, regardless of their political bent, can honestly say they believe human biology plays no part in the perennial achievements of White Europeans as compared to the historical failings of Black Africans? So then what does this unanimous judgment demand in our approach to the question of our own Black communities and more in particular, intermarriage? The subject is recurring and the undermen loom increasingly menacing with each passing day, but since most people are followers and even more constantly doubt themselves, by having his call-screener forward every straggler of a Black conservative who phones the program, this master of deception is able to relegate the consensus to a tarried question in the mind of individuals.

Conservatism failed to conserve what mattered most because cheap brown laboring consumers have replaced America's more complex White Aryan constituency. The firewall was set to where the debate could only be lost; as in: we don't care whether you're white, black, yellow or green, just be legal, just learn English, darn it, just become an American! — as if the capacity to scribble on application forms and bark English somehow transforms Asiatic refuse into bona fide Americans. The world well knows American manhood comes in one color, so the debate isn't about language or legality; otherwise every human specimen wandering the planet is an eventual American. Conservative hucksters employ the term "illegal alien" because it appeals to our racial instincts, all the while denying any racial connotation. It's really quite disgusting. But the question of what exactly legalizes an alien is deemed unacceptable to these supposed guardians of our free speech, because talk radio's 'politically incorrect' may only express what's politically correct; otherwise they wouldn't be on the radio. The Australians they kept telling us were toughening up on immigration have apparently cracked down so hard their rural communities are now in flames. The grass isn't greener on the other side because they've been fed the same malarkey. Controversial debates have left the ordinary man supporting the Iron Heel in its alleged effort to stamp out what it created. The duped are doomed to helplessly watch Homeland Security and Immigration Enforcement transmogrify into a vicious maelstrom called Integration & Assimilation that White men too busy on the hunt for mammon, fixated on a ball, obsessed with sex, or caught up in the patriotic swindle haven't noticed whirling into every corner of our Northern World.

Conservative Talk Radio has been kept strong—and will likely continue to be, at least for the foreseeable future—because it curtails the American Right at large. Savage himself has made frequent admissions to this effect, voicing in particular that his program, contrary to what his opponents assert, offers people an outlet for their rage and he is therefore in fact preventing eruptions of violence among the populace. And therein lays the problem. Savage carefully creates the illusion that his most fierce opposition comes from radicals on the Left, and by constantly lambasting liberalism makes the impression that he himself is more extreme than the general position of his audience. But Michael Savage knows damn well he's not talking to a bunch of liberals. Like the slimy little editor with curly hair who shreds 90% of his mail as too 'inappropriate' to publish in a newspaper, Savage rigs his switchboard to firewall the swelling call for WAR. We've heard all the worn-out lines about what if it was a Whiteman who did this or said that—we're sick of it! Had McCain been photographed standing beside Tom Metzger it would have brought to his campaign exactly the kind of legitimacy us people have been waiting for because we're absolutely fed up with being the only definable target on the battlefield of America.

Where is the enemy we can hate unreservedly? According to Savage it can't be muslims; otherwise he wouldn't constantly feed his audience the soothing opinion of moderate detractors. Everybody's had it with these God damn muslims and under honest leadership would long ago have been incited to raze their mosques and throw the whole bloody lot behind barricades of police who equally hate them. Un-checked, this desert mind-virus will continue to metastasize until its slave horns subdue entire populations. Savage refuses to take a definite stance on this problem and his willingness to battle with CAIR is actually counter-productive because it keeps our life-or-death struggle on a legal plane where we can only lose. The self-sacrificing Jew and peace-loving Arab are magnified anomalies that will be nowhere to be found once everybody is forced to confront the bitter realization that greedy Semitic usurers have bled America dry and left its people exposed to fanatical bomb-strapped Asiatics hunting for 'Jews' in suburban shopping malls. Black conservatives may be good guys but they won't be around when armed niggas in stolen SUVs storm lake front communities within a tank of gas from the 'hood, nor will there be any hard-working Mexicans when the injuns everybody thought were just here to work show the television credulous that life in Brasilia is not all beaches and bikinis. The Jews at WorldNetDaily are the alleged vanguard of free speech in America and north of the border it's the same scenario with Jews like Mark Styne and Ezra Levant 'battling' a Human Rights Commission itself erected by their partners-in-crime, over frivolous complaints from Arab provocateurs. And Michael Savage gearing up to take on the Fairness Doctrine—are we now supposed to believe that a Jew will defend our right to free speech when Jews are responsible for strangling it in the first place? Semitic types make up less than 5% of the North American population yet certainly more than 50% of those involved in the courts with issues of free speech and human rights. Is it all just coincidence, or legitimacy to Anti-Semitism?

The attacks upon us will also serve another purpose, namely, that our subjects will be convinced to the existence of full freedom of speech and so give our agents an occasion to affirm that all organs which oppose us are empty babblers, since they are incapable of finding any substantial objections to our orders...

Where does Michael Savage lead his dedicated following by endlessly repeating that there's a great media bias but he's the only exception? The media is the enemy within—next question already. We gain nothing by continually verifying what has been plainly obvious for decades. The reason there's less field work conducted by network agents is that it's becoming increasingly dangerous for enemies of the people to barnstorm through town championing the cause of villains in order to systematically portray good folks as ignorant rednecks. The entire media is a criminal organization and each and every one of its members guilty by association. If Savage, a man who sees and knows everything, truly had the best interests of his listeners at heart, he wouldn't lead them to yearly announcements of his intention to remain a do-nothing on their radio, but to a call to arms because the period for dialog is over and the time to engage our enemies yesterday. He'd take the heat and move his struggle to where the opposition is active and his empty allusions to this only serve to keep his loyal following enthralled. Doctor Savage is too sharp to believe that anything but immediate insurgency can cure his fatal prognosis. In other words, he fully understands that only an armed insurrection by angry White police gaining control of local governments thereby leading to mutinies in the Armed Forces demanding full decentralization and the succession of All-White city-states in the Northwest and Deep South is the only hope of overcoming our grave predicament. Michael Savage fancies himself as the architect of a coming American Nationalist Party, which, according to him, shall profess non-racist nationalism. But how'll this be possible when no one but armed angry White men show up to his party? Savage may be razor sharp, but he's certainly not the only one who sees the storm. Regardless of what his conscious intentions may be, the imperative of this strange man is to keep our enemies undefined. If Tom Metzger had the attention of this unctuous Hebrew's 99% angry White male audience for a single segment! We're not White Supremacists, so-called neo-Nazis and skinheads; and we are not simple hate-mongers. We don't play dress up and march in the streets and we don't believe in this sick empire; we don't want our sons dying in foreign wars for an insanely intolerant Church of Internationalism; we respect the diversity of humankind because we expect our posterity to retain the physiognomy of their forbearers; we love our Race and Culture and we're prepared to die for it. If Tom Metzger was able to broadcast the views of the White Separatist Movement through a nationally syndicated radio program, what portion of 10 million angry White men would agree that it's time to stop defending so-called conservative values that preserve an illegitimate government and start sticking up for the White Race?

We shall have a sure triumph over our opponents since they will not have at their disposition organs of the media in which they can give full and final expression to their views and we shall not even need to refute them except very superficially...

It takes more than emotional manipulation to fool the Whiteman; therefore, ZOG initiates a propaganda campaign that appeals to our common sense. Make it simple: picture the scum of your own city converging downtown among hoots and hollers from the most obnoxious left-wingers screaming blue murder. What actual impact could such a sordid spectacle have on powerful men dictating policy in a far-off chosen land? Then ask yourself what affect it has on your own mind to see all the trouble-makers in your own backyard fraternizing together burning a certain flag? The versicle of Conservative Talk Radio declares we must stand with Israel! And in turn the donkeys bray: the terrorists want to kill all Jews and Christians so if we don't support Israel they'll come for us next (remember that there are allegedly less than 15 million Jews but certainly over a billion Christians.) Every time the Children of Israel skirmish with the pseudo-Hebraic mestizos surrounding them, we witness the same bunch appear in droves to, as the media always puts it, "condemn the actions of Israel", and from Paris to San Francisco the urban centers in every Aryan Nation become the scene of wild protest. The Whiteman sees all the varmint plaguing his own community clustered together in fits of rage; social misfits, pink mafiosi, green-haired freak-shows, welfare bums and every kind of unhealthy immigrant gather to denounce a state we know most couldn't even spell let alone point out on a map. Common sense suggests that the object of their disapproval must at least be doing something right! Michael Savage has a pet scenario he presents his captive audience whenever he feels them about to waver in their blind support of Jewry: if you had to be dropped either among Palestinians or the Jews, who would you choose—exactly, then you support Israel. But when the Jew speaks truth he is covering up a lie.

Quite obviously a lot of money goes into organizing these massive world-wide protests so what exactly is the objective of investors who can only be all too aware of the fact that the fetid theatrics of a sniveling horde in Paris and a rag-tag collection of paupers in San Francisco will have virtually no effect on the cabal in Israel? The Left claims their intention is to show the “rest of the world” that “the people of the world” stand with the Palestinians who are just trying to live in peace. But who is to be shown and by whom? The White family watching the six o’clock news views these manifestations with nothing but disgust since there’s little to distinguish between images of swart fanatics calling for the destruction of Israel and the same hostile crowds screaming for the death of America. The subjective thinker fully understands that no matter who’s involved in a conflict, air strikes on civilian targets are necessary if the opposing insurgency resorts to using the roof tops of schools and hospitals to launch its mortars. Furthermore, the Israelis killed in the initial clash—which is always perpetrated by what appears to be barbaric Palestinians—are also civilians. Of course innocent civilians are killed. If human rights were at the heart of the issue as the Left would like to have us believe, certainly the trials and tribulations of the wretched Palestinians would take a back seat to the unspeakable horrors occurring in Central Africa effecting a much larger human population. If the question concerned land rights the few million poverty stricken Arabs in Palestine would have long ago filtered into neighboring Arab states since day to day economic survival always wins out over the ideas that bind people to land. Besides, for the amount of money self-hating Jews invest in Palestine each Arab detained in the Gaza strip could be living the life of Riley in Egypt.

Do the promoters of these televised protests believe that menacing imagery will cause Europeans and Americans to hate and fear third worlders? Are volatile manifestations within Europe and America incited to intimidate the Aryan Nations into conceding further political concessions to global government? A propaganda campaign designed to retain Western military support for Israel? Are these rallies a convenient way for Western Jews to keep the immigrant communities under Jewish leadership? It is difficult to draw any single conclusion. Organization of this magnitude makes perfect sense to somebody. For us Goyim, essentially what matters is that all this craziness is being stage-managed by the pest of World Jewry. Therefore our thinking must proceed from this fundamental recognition, because regardless of whether it’s direct involvement from moneyed Zionists adhering to the protocols or the activities of the sinful Jews of Hollywood in keeping with that certain foreboding Biblical prophecy Savage so often refers to that perhaps we may never fully comprehend, the undisputable fact is that large hordes led by apostate Jews are collecting in our streets demanding the tearing down of apartheid walls. Thus the well-being of our own communities is placed in jeopardy and it is all being induced by a blood-related people of less than a single percent of the world’s total population who sit in extraordinary seats of influence and power and possess an inhuman portion of the planet’s wealth that is drastically out of proportion with their small numbers. These facts cannot be disputed, nor can their implications be conveniently swept aside with cries of racism.

The Jew tolerates anti-Semitism only when it is capable of being managed, or, even better, when it can be incorporated into his own diabolical machinations (as we’ve seen with the holocaust denial). The so-called New Left—a term that has come to merely connote those approaching questions of the political strictly from a purely emotional point of view—is incapable of combating Zionism because it refuses to fight with the only weapon able to defeat World Jewry: racism—a word they’ve made an immediate stopper to any argument. Every attack against Jewry in the media is prefaced with the statement: I’m not anti-Semitic; just against the state of Israel; and any such contention only gets as far as the haughty conservatives who opened their arguments against an alien invasion by claiming not to be racist, just against third world immigration. Those of us who understand the inner workings of Jewry can't get near the mediums controlled through so-called media standards. One must admit that ZOG is masterful in the art of propaganda, because the result is that all publicly expressed opposition to Jewish domination is fully contained. National Socialism has proven itself to be the only effective deterrent to the tyrannical policies of the Children of Israel yet try showing up at one of these rallies preaching the Fuhrer's message and see how fast you wind up under arrest or beneath the ignorance of an unthinking herd.

Those fools who will think they are repeating the opinion of their own camp will be repeating our opinion or any opinion desirable for us. In the vain belief that they are following the organ of their party they will, in fact, follow the flag we hang for them...

As fools continue to sing a moldy tune pretending American GI's liberated Europe, Europeans begin to feel the crunch of a lost WAR. It's absolutely amazing how seemingly intelligent people completely disregard the implications of current events in Europe to unthinkingly parrot such an outrageous Lie. Though a swift punch in the face is fully deserved, a few pointed questions can put them back on their heels: would France be the scene of African rape and pillage under Vichy administration? Was Vidkun Quisling a canary to the Nordic people when today 85% of sex crimes in Scandinavia are committed by foreigners? Would there be London-istan had England expelled that egomaniac Winny the Pooh and allowed her people to accept the Fuhrer's offer of unconditional peace despite the fact that it was the British government who declared war in the first place? Would Mussolini's Italy be an extension of Africa? Would urban Dutch be attacked for speaking their Low German if Holland today was Deutschland instead of a dumping ground for dangerous migrants? Would Poland be set to open her legs to the joys of rabid asymlanten if she were a German province instead of a Euro-market? Were the lives of a few million thieves worth the price of Europe and ultimately Aryan humanity?

Blue Monday laments Obama's neo-Marxist revolution; blowhard Tuesday it's back to the rise of Nazism. There is no headway to be gained arguing with the Jew, because each session his same lost argument begins anew. What sense does it make to compare the current political situation in America to an uprising where the lower middle-class stepped over an effete aristocracy that had led its nation to ruin? Though Savage has confessed that the present revolution besieging America is what developed the Soviet Union, he persists in using the terms 'Marxist' and 'Nazi' inter-changeably; and by blending the two retards recognition that violent revolution is the natural outcome of racial chaos; one way or the other: separation or assimilation; true multiculturalism or the schizophrenic uniformity of race-mixing humanitarianism. The Jew dangles half-truths to keep up his swindle. While belittling the intelligence of his audience by endlessly repeating that he has a PhD, Savage constantly reminds his listeners that Adolf Hitler was in fact a socialist, yet he refuses to elaborate on the differences between national and international socialism for obvious reasons.

The revolutions in Germany and Russia were born of polar opposites, the fundamental difference being that National Socialism was organized by native Europeans whereas the spirit of Marxism was produced by racial outsiders; in the Third Reich races alien Europe were the object of repression while in revolutionary Russia under the Red Terror, everybody was a potential victim, even some Jews. Put simply, what the Nazi Party envisioned was a Europe re-aligned on ideals still practiced in Amish-type communities, tailored to modern standards. What distinguishes individual members of a consanguineous society is the meritocracy which the leadership principle of National Socialism embodies. Of course the question of what and what not makes a racially homogenous population is highly debatable and may always be, but only someone not being true to themselves can deny that, for instance, the tall, thin, long-skulled, blond-haired, blue-eyed, pale-skinned Norseman is biologically distinct and inherently superior to squat, blue-black African pygmies. Lone wolves may come together to form the wolf pack, but a kennel of dogs will never materialize in the wild but only under the domesticating hand of man. The numerous subspecies of the canine are kept unique by their mutual repulsion; the wolf becomes a dog only by compulsion—temptation or physical force—in the wild he remains the wolf. International Socialism of the Marxist variety attempts to embrace heterogeneous populations. The compelling force of the Global Village is mammon and its guardian the Jews, who through the tolerated disguise of religion conceal their ethnic independence, which is why the Jew Savage is always careful to omit any reference to his race as anything more than a religious community like any other. The power of man's imagination allows him to rise above the Animal Kingdom and even beyond our earthly sphere; however, his imagination is all too often the death of him. All men are definitely not created equal, and to predicate the legal foundations of human civilization on this false premise demands Nature's ultimate retribution. The greatest curse to humankind is the human being. Michael Savage often quotes the great Roman orator Marcus Cicero, though curiously enough has never mentioned the latter's most profound insight which is entirely anti-Semitic in its conception: time destroys the speculation of man, but confirms the Judgment of Nature.

Though unfortunately at this point it can only be wishful thinking, who would be victimized in the event of a National Socialist awakening in America? Obviously the cantankerous mestizos would have to be chased back to their cesspools and the all-destructive browning of America immediately called to halt. The White population would be given large incentives to bear children and that wrecker of families, miscegenation, would cease. Of course those working to subvert these sane initiatives would quickly find themselves branded as the traitors that they are and ruthlessly suppressed—meaning all the seditious vermin we constantly hear about from Savage would finally get theirs: Wall Street, Hollywood, CNN, the ACLU, ACORN, Amnesty International, HumanRightsWatch, CAIR, NAACP, MediaMatters, Moveon.org, Southern Poverty Law Center, La Raza, Code-stink...the whole rotten infestation violently rooted out with an iron fist and exterminated where need be—is there really any other way?—though of course only the most determined White liberals would share the persecution, since they are, contrary to what the media induces us to believe, only a small segment of White America. Michael Savage points out that many Christians were targeted by the Nazis—indeed! Most active White liberals are ecumenical Christians. While White America is under attack from every angle with our posterity facing extinction, the Church has somehow managed to keep its fangs buried deep in the necks of well-meaning Aryan families, sucking them dry both spiritually and materially. The despicable African charity ads preying on the financially and emotionally destabilized, should tell you all you need to know about the state of that race-mixing religion.

In short, the Third Reich sought to leave future European posterity a vast Switzerland...but Europe was treacherously betrayed and now a half century later this Teutonic Tragedy is beginning to fully manifest; without a doubt, Europe is a confluence point for the sewage of the turd world. America was rewarded the same prize. In layman's terms, the species which created this marvelous Nordic World—so-called Western Civilization—is no longer governing it. Biologically, the shift occurred at the event human history records as World War 2. This is no secret to the Jew. In a well-circulated post-war Israeli publication entitled Holocaust, he openly states, though of course in his peculiarly Jewish way, “the Nazis believed the great wars of the twentieth century were the culmination of a millennia struggle between Aryan and Semite for hegemony over planet Earth”; and that, “should the Aryan fail to establish his supremacy, the world was doomed to deteriorate in the hands of the Semite.” We couldn’t put it better ourselves.

If already now we have contrived to possess ourselves of the minds of the goy communities to such an extent that they’ve come to look at world events through the colored glasses of those spectacles we are setting astride their noses; if already now there is not a single state where there exists for us any barriers to admittance into what goy stupidity calls state secrets: what shall be our positions once we’re acknowledged as supreme lords...

When Savage says borders, language, culture; what he really means is omnipresent checkpoints and a lingua franca in the Kingdom of David. The iconoclasm of Hollywood and the greed of Wall Street are the marks of American Jewry. Michael Savage is most explosive when railing against Jewry; his dumping on White liberals and greedy White men whose names don’t end with a vowel always seems to come after he loses his temper with his backsliding clansmen; Penn, King, Blitzer, Walters, Boxer, Feinstein, Schumer, Spector, Ginsberg, Bader Ginsberg, Albright, Greenspan, Soros, Goldman&Sachs, Madoff, and loiyers from Brooklyn are some of his favorite targets; and by the very fact that these names are referenced far more than any others among the enemy within proves that it is this world of the Jews which the Pharisee Michael Savage struggles with... “The media is riddled with Jews! The Bible warns us of these Jews! These are the Jews who worshipped the Golden Calf!”...when he rages against this depravity and declares that Nature abhors a vacuum, he is clearly apprehensive to the advent of an Aryan Fascist reaction to the Jewish daemon; but if he gives it another inch he’ll have to confront the mile... Jews here, Jews there, Jews everywhere! Savage muses over the Jewish money-changer who runs the world’s economy; a Jew made-off with 50 billions; the Jew with an oxymoronic name who says no to White construction workers; a Jewish half-bright lobbying for Dubai; and that worldly old Jew who actually had the audacity to go before the cameras to speak the words New World Order... when Savage says ‘they’; they didn’t learn from the terrible lessons of Marxism; they thought Fabian socialism would work in England; the forces of evil won’t stop until you’re chattel—he’s referring to his ubiquitous brother Jew.

Oh that I had in the wilderness a lodging place of wayfaring men; that I might leave my people and go from them! For they be all adulterers, an assembly of treacherous men. And they bend their tongues like their bow for lies: but they are not valiant for the truth upon the earth; for they proceed from evil to evil... Curiously enough, it is in Michael Savage’s favorite book of the Bible where the prophet Jeremiah speaks this unbridled Truth. Anti-Semitism is most pointed when it comes from the mouths of the Jews themselves where can be found some of the most profound insights into the parasitic quality of Judaism. This sort of bizarre hyper-individualism we often see displayed by so many Jews is deeply rooted in their character; remember that the Jews themselves are almost always, in some distant form or another, a product of mixed blood; Judaism and the rabbinical teachings force them to conform to the rigid Semitic character. Michael Savage may very well love America, but his species is incompatible with it, because as 4000 years of history will testify, permitting Jews to exist in an Aryan Nation is akin to unleashing piranhas in a tank of goldfish.

As the Jew relies on the use of falsehoods like the Eskimo depends on warm clothes, at the end of the day, Savage is left with no choice but to heap it all on the Wasp establishment. But who can break through the firewall to let his minions hear wait a minute Mike, yesterday you said that the CIA was a solid organization when it was filled with stone cold Wasps and only ruined by diversity and you spoke about how Chicago needs another Elliot Ness and the Untouchables and only a fraction of the names you mention among the enemy within are Anglo-Saxon. Is it really "racist White liberals" who are trying to snuff out the Whiteman? Is liberalism a mental disorder that will destroy America or has it been artificially induced by alien elements? The fact of the matter is that the English-speaking world is suffering the same fate that befell every other civilization infiltrated by the serpent that always seems to emerge as a victim from somebody else's spoiled backyard.

We are more susceptible to the Great Mendacity than we are to mere little falsehoods because we ourselves are accustomed to telling only small lies—we can hardly imagine someone having the audacity to promulgate a Big Lie. Today whenever a Nazi is quoted in the media the author is always a Jew. When he said that if you keep repeating a lie eventually people will believe it, Doctor Goebbels was referring to that parasitic race whose very existence is based on deception. The Jew is the Great Master of Lies. If you refuse to believe the Truth you're only deluding yourself and you'll never get past merely obsessing over symptoms to confront what's evidently a disease. Make no mistake about it: Michael Savage is the Enemy Within.
