Dear Eric,

There is no danger I will be sending any money to Zundel, or Rimland. For one thing I do not have enough for myself. If I could find sponsors I would use the funds for the many projects I have planned. I have no intention to work at anything other than something allowing me to fight full time. I will not take a day job although I am considering starting to paint to try to earn some money but I'm sure there must be something I can do like open a bookshop. I am trying to find backers and am talking to many people. I will have to get a car and have received many invitations around Europe. Petrol is really expensive here though. Twice the USA price!

I thought that Canadian heritage book was very interesting. The Genesis of the mediterranean white race is quite complicated and there are different versions. Kemp has an interesting take on it.

Its a pity I have no few resources, ink and internet time otherwise I would send his book.

Whatever the truth, splitting the white race is not politically intelligent and the reds are always trying it.

Yes the northern ones should be the aesthetic pole. They are it, especially the Hallstadt nordics. Eg Max Von Sydow the actor

There is an excellent site www.nordish.com

For me the defining question is "Do they strongly identify with our civilisation or not?". From experience more than 1/8th outside and they can't be trusted and do not possess white instincts.

Whites on the border; marginals, are less likely to be affected by the guilt prop and more likely to feel threatened. They will be either totally red or totally for us.

Of all the nonwhites those from Madagascar seem the least modernised the least hateful. They seem quite innocent. The nonwhites have had to be taught to hate the whites by the media.

One defence mechanism of the people here, or perhaps they have always been a bit like that, is to be cold and distant. Its a coping mechanism when you can't tell them where to go. I would consider a big reason why the Sicilians, Greeks and Russians are the way they are with certain unwhite manners adopted is because of the lack of intellectual nazism in the past when people faced oriental threats.

The Serbs one meets here are very tough. The poor frenchies can't compete. I mainly meet older people and don't go to race mixed bars where the people of my generation are to be found.

I personally think Turkey must be destroyed. People adapted by changing their nature to counter the outsider. We are seeing the same effect on the manners of all Europeans. I was trying to leaflet today and found things very hard here in comparison to Ireland.

I stood outside the cathedral in a constant stream of German tourists. I certainly need to learn German. As usual here curious and suspicious mongrels and nonwhites took more of an interest as they could sense my reluctance to give them stuff. They are good when it comes to intuition and instinct. The only friendly interest I got was from a Roma beggar. There seems to be a lot of variation among the gypsy folk, but generally they are morose, insolent and useless. The response isn't worth the risk and I will end up drawing the commies attention to me.

When I was a college we had an Italian communist who looked almost semitic and if I had his photo I would guess most would confound him with the arabs. People like him are put on the frontier of the civilisation and have to choose.

Certainly among the french one sees many with traces. Interestingly one often finds such in nationalist activity.

How people identify themselves is the key.

One Dutch woman was taking my leaflets but as soon as she realised what they were about she quickly handed them back in pavlovian horror.

I don't have the resources to start anything in Ireland so I need to find supporters here first . But it is not easy.

To become a political reality white nationalism needs to be as broad and inclusive as possible but with the proviso that emigration follows a valve system north to south and west to east in Europe.

The Albanians are fine in Albania but frankly they are an impoverishment also.

I talked to one Albanian who called skinheads twisted and he told me how Germans fought to keep him and American soldiers from German woman. He was a harmless Albanian though and worked with Portugese on the building sites. In England many are involved in organised crime and run many brothels.

Southern and Eastern Europeans have been hardened and counter-orientalised.They have lost the stupid innocence of the north western group :the race-islanders as I call them.America was colonised by race-islanders and they had no defencive anti-oriental layer and so the Jews marched right in.

We see the odd aspects of the north and east and forget that these is all part of an elaborate defence system. And against our own natures these defences exist.

Nazism and White nationalism must provide and intellectual short cut. All whites would be impoverished if all had to become like Sicilians to deal with the universal invasion.Let us keep our nature but for ourselves.

People here will need a severe physical shock to wake up ,meanwhile they are afraid to talk to anyone .Many do recieve suffering but become more degraded by it not more alert because of the absense of any real source of info.

The FN is too tame for the average person and he can't understand the trimmed ideology. I think in France and Germany there is no choice but in places like Ireland or Italy or Britain there is no need for trimming .

The English have been exposed to a savage materialism for centuries and one can see the difference in them. They are more hypocritical and so forth .There are very few gentlemen left and their character has coarsened.

The most intelligent and beautiful woman I ever met was a stunning tall blonde Anglo-Irish Biochemist .She didn't respond to my email and most of my college friends refuse to communicate with me.She got maximum points in the leaving cert exam .Its primarily a cultural thing but cultural becomes genetic unless the process is reversed.

Many read up though.Few email me.

I was very indignant when at college when I had all the brains ,although not really an exam performer, to see that woman go off with guys just because they had money and boats and all those things.I was always interested in the subject and found the system a curse.One of my friends kept telling me that maths was not for me and that I should go back to writing . He was right .But of course there would be no place for me in any arts faculty etc.This I understood and it was why I was a refugee in mathematics .Eventually I was put in a situation by discovering that Irving was right and that explicit lies were being taught .I remember when Irving came I could not believe it . I had lost faith in human intelligence before hand.

I hated this inverted society but did not yet understand its workings .

One of the leaflets I gave out at university was one telling them to drop out that lies were taught etc. It was well writen and people agreed with it but asked me what choice did they have and that I could not provide them with a job.

I am convinced that if we could put enough local pressure on one university so that the academics were more afraid of their students ,then the holocaust would collapse there and the domino effect would set in.

All these cowards if they spoke they would have nothing to fear . Their own base character , their lack of breeding makes them born slaves .

I will be meeting people before long to discuss my party with them.

There is a film "Is Paris burning?"

well the suburbs are burning . The wogs are on a rampage. Sarkozy even calls them scum. The media is calling this a vote winner . The media is using racial feeling carefully managed to get this Jew elected president, despite his scary eastern looks.

Judging from my limited experience with a sicilian girl it was clear that sexual morality is perforce different amongst southern Europeans than northern ones. She would need a firm hand and here where men have no rights she cannot get it.

The Athenians were strict with their women and I suspect there is a lot of continuity genetically.

Many people here are of Polish ancestry .

I have a massive pile of unfinished writing to do and many projects. I think I need to move to a country where one can organise more openly. Northern Italy near Germany would be an idea.

I am fed up with life on the margins of society .

I have a feeling that there is a law of conservation of human stupidity and if we could turn these cowards and cretins about they would be a discredit to our ideas at the beginning. Only by breeding quality into them can we make decent men of them again. But then if the media spell was broken perhaps health could reassert itself quickly.

My best student is half basque .The youth here are spared the ubiquity of the drug ecstasy one finds in Britain and Ireland. I could certainly see the damaging effects of that on people I knew.

White nationalism in a european context is perforce a bit different. Its hard to convince many conservatives and traditional nationalists .Its more a natural thing in America and most of your white population is northwestern white. Europe is more triangular and there is a lot more diversity among whites.

I have a hard time persuading Irish to think sensibly about the north and the British.

I would guess that all genes aren't as significant racially. The key ones are the ones that determine personality.

The race cleans itself to an extent after an incident of adulteration and as long as there is very little input from outside ,undesirable traits will be bred out .Incidental genes like blood type aren't selected for in the same manner. There must exist such cleaning mechanisms because 5% of Europeans have blood type B for example.

Race is not yet scientifically understood.

Clearly we see more adulteration in populations on the frontier but always there is a minimum standard upheld .

As long as a nation has a western culture then a minimum genetic quality will be more or less enforced by that society on itself.

I think scientific models could be made with computer simulations.

The Green movement has been totally hijacked by the reds. The reds outnumber us a lot and most white nationalists I meet are disguising themselves ,waiting for the day things fall apart , instead of practising entryism themselves.

The reds have an easier task as evil always does and are more easily united.Destruction is easier than construction.

If I started a group for Free speech that admitted arabs I could fast build a group in France as long as I was very careful and stayed in the backround.That would be pointless. I don't think the ones here as colonists can be made use of.The amount of arabs with a mind is rather small and they have been filled with a hatred of whites.

One of my friends was a soldier in south africa and is now drinking alot and seems to be going mad.

He refused to do anything to help me apart from offering drinks and I don't drink much. He didn't like discussing any subracial differences between whites and wanted to be as universalistic as possible,even to the extent of using decent blacks.If revolution comes to south africa it will be in the form of a coalition between the remaining whites and the Zulus.Whites are incapable of acting openly in their own self interest because they need some "holy" nonwhites to bless them first.

If all the people like him did what they could instead of whinging then we would have nothing to fear.The Jews know this and each does what it can.Lustinger claims to be a Catholic archbishop while openly declaring he is a Jew.

People in Ireland bet on a jew for pope last time so that shows they have some idea who rules the world.

The perception of their power needs to be dented and then all th cowards will hop on them as soon as they smell weakness.

The simple folk are capable of registering same /different but without the control of the education system to teach them they have a hard time grasping the new ideas.Its different in the USA where whites are more similar and less divided.Here the cowards always have some excuse to hand to wheel out .Oh the boche! etc

I was thinking of making a "we are all prussians " badge .I will do a rough idea and show it to people who can make such things.That there is no organised day for this kind of thing shows the infancy of the cause.

A justice day for whites.

Keanu Reeves ,the actor in the matrix is an example of a mongrel who is not evident to the average person but who looks indistinct and not from any region one can think of .He is part Korean or something.

One can understand the genesis of the ashkenazi Jews .A semblance of white appearance is selected for but the oriental character remains.They bob their heads back and forth like schizophrenics and these people have nuclear missiles pointed at us!

There must be mathematics to mass psychology. The more links in an idea ,the exponentially less people can grasp it.I'm sure models can be constructed. Science is stunted at the moment . If we can't keep our ideas to ourselves what the point in doing it.The more we invent the more powerful our enemies become.

It would be dangerous to develop such a science seeing as only the jews have the wherefore to make us of it.

LETTER 21

An Irishman Objects to Irish Republican Link

Hi . I am from Ireland and noticed you put a link to the Republicans at the bottom of the "Blood and Honour" interview.

The shiners are totally Red and very irritating. When David Irving tried to speak in Cork the Sinn Feiners were there with all the far left groups to protest against him. They are also a major obstacle against the setting up of an anti-immigration party in Ireland.

DAVE NOONE

[C.P.: Again, this discussion went on for several weeks, and again, we became friends. Most recent message:]

I very much like your satires, which are certainly some of the best things on the Internet.

I have been trying to get something going in Ireland for years, but so far we have not succeeded.

You do meet these strange people in Ireland that tell us to all speak Irish, and never mind all the blacks arriving. The shiners' ideology is starting to fall apart, and I feel that they confuse their rackets and Mafia stuff with their country. I understand why you mention them, though. There is certainly a parallel with the Arabs, who flounder about in ideological confusion in a similar way.

Some of them are actually nationalists in the real sense, just not too bright. I think there are a lot of mysteries about the movement... Here's me talking about the latest news:

<http://www.exterminationist.com/IDV.wav>

DAVE NOONE
25 OCTOBER 2005

Mr. Noone can be contacted at: reveducorg@yahoo.com

Excerpts from my replies:

The most obvious answer to your message is that the link at the end of the Blood and Honour Interview is not to Sinn Fein, but to a site about Irish Republicanism generally. I don't believe that men like Thomas Ashe, Terence McSwiney, Padraig Pearce, James Connolly, etc.. many of whom died before the Russian Revolution, can be called "reds" in the modern sense of the word. Modern Irish Republicans are probably Marxists without exception, but it is also true that they form part of a tradition which is centuries old, and which is uniquely Irish. What is most important to me is that they are the only white people in the world today with any courage. That is what is important. I have had no contact with Sinn Fein for at least 12 years for the reasons you mention. I could write an essay on their hypocrisy and lack of logic. Perhaps I will. I suspect that the Irish have derived their support and philosophical inspiration wherever they could get it; in past centuries from the French, in some cases from the Germans, and later from the Marxists. I am anti-Marxist and anti-Communist. I am not necessarily opposed to moderate socialism. Please see also my reply to a person named Tony Cavanaugh (Letter 6), and another guy named Gerard M (Letter 17). What Sinn Fein knows about revisionism or niggers (since you mention immigration) would fit up an ant's ass. If they are out there protesting David Irving then they are stupider than I thought. I note that in Southern Ireland Sinn Fein only get about 1% of the vote.

One of the defects in the Irish character is that, historically, they have always tended to think that as long as you can be heroic and poetic, you don't need to be intelligent. For example, the 1798 rebellion was a total disgrace and the Robert Emmett fiasco was not much better. The Irish often exhibit a level of incompetence and recklessness which defies belief. But they never give up. If other white people had 1% of the courage and determination of the Irish we would not be in the sewer the way we are. The Irish are an extraordinary race of people. They are superb cultural organizers: anywhere in the world, wherever you find the Irish, you find Irish folk dancing, music, political activities, everything, absolutely everything. I admire the Irish more than any other race of people except for the Japanese, with whom they have much in common: chiefly, courage.

To the Irish, 1920 is like yesterday, and a thousand years is still in memory. The Americans can't remember what happened last week. The Irish generally, and Sinn Fein in particular, are masters of every form of political activity and every form of propaganda: poetry, song, the graphic arts, you name it. The actual content of Sinn Fein propaganda is less important than the format. They get people to run for office at the risk of their lives, where you can't get whites to stand up against immigration elsewhere, where nothing can possibly happen to them. They say, "oh well, I don't want to get involved, I might get on a list or something, what would my neighbours say, etc. etc. blah blah blah". Excuses for cowardice. Many people have been killed running for office on the Sinn Fein ticket. Also, there is no alternative, it's the only game in town if you are a Republican. Too bad. Arthur Griffith, one of Sinn Fein's original founders, was consistently anti-Jewish. The idiots who followed him have absorbed all the Marxist crap. I suspect that Gerry Adams is insincere. I think Ireland will end up like Italy: the Mafia also started as a nationalist organization: the courts and police were controlled by foreigners, so no "real man" ever went to the police. Omertà = manliness. I think Adams thinks war is bad for business and there is more money to be made laundering the money from criminal activity ostensibly engaged in for idealistic purposes, but really, just for money. I don't trust somebody who says he is a Marxist but wears shirts and suits that obviously cost hundreds of pounds.

In the American Civil War the Irish fought on both sides. An extraordinary race of people, as I say. I have admired them for 20 years and more. Most of the people I speak to agree with me. Please see <http://www.framingfox.com/> for some good Civil War art, including specifically Irish Civil War Art. Of course, I prefer the term War Between the States or Secession War; a civil war is a struggle for control of a common government. The 1861-65 conflict in the US was a war of independence: another proof of American (or Northern) hypocrisy: America can declare its independence from the British Empire, but the Southern States can't do the same. Sinn Fein is just as bad: Ireland can declare its independence from Britain, but the Six Counties can't declare their independence from Ireland. Sinn Fein even say, "self-determination does not mean secession". Horseshit. Of course, the story is all very different where ETA and the Basque Countries are concerned, they can declare their independence from Spain, even though they have never been treated anything like the Irish. The Spanish government have even refused to hold a REFERENDUM on Basque independence. I think they could hold it and win.

... Finally, if the overwhelmingly Protestant areas of Ireland wanted to retain their independence, fine, but they would have to import all their food from Britain. So they had to hog as much farmland as they could possibly control through gerrymandering. Also, I get sick of hearing the Brits tell us they need Belfast because it helped them fight Hitler etc, via American convoys to Belfast to Britain.

The British and the Americans have destroyed the world. Britain can interfere in Ireland because a few loyalists might be mistreated in a united Ireland, but Germany can't intervene in Poland because of verified, proven atrocities, repeated provocations, threats to declare war, partial and full mobilization and repeated refusals to negotiate (Letter 13). All the Germans wanted was a highway and railway across the Corridor, and a return of Danzig to the Reich. They didn't even want a plebiscite in the Corridor at first. It is also horseshit to think that Britain entered the First World War to save Belgium or to prevent the port of Antwerp from falling into the hands of the Germans. The British are always talking about ports. They set up Kuwait to prevent the Germans from having an outlet to the sea via Baghdad (the Berlin to Baghdad Railway, originally a British idea; the British only opposed it when the Germans started to build it); I think Kuwait is a perfect parallel to Ulster and Belfast: Kuwait is part of Irak.

Expecting niggers to learn Irish is the height of insanity. You notice, niggers almost never settle in the Basque countries because they are afraid they might get killed, plus Basque is too difficult. It's like Spain, in Catalunya the Catalans hate the Spanish and want their independence but any nigger, Paki, queer, etc. who speaks Catalan is wonderful. Same in Luxembourg. They are obsessed with making everybody speak Luxembourgish. It's because they're too cowardly to admit that there is an ethnic or racial component to nationality. It's the result of Jewish propaganda.

... The link is also relevant because in my court case I threatened to go on hunger strike like Bobby Sands. This is the real reason for the link and the photo. All the revisionists are getting arrested, so the day of reckoning is drawing closer. We'll see what happens. That's the real reason for the link to <http://irelandsown.net/>. The fact is I derive more inspiration from that site than from anything else. Especially Thomas Ashe, Terence McSwiney, all the hunger strikers.

The only good thing is that Bush has proven that the unexpected is still possible.

If you promise not to murder me or kneecap me I wouldn't mind meeting you some time. My own family came from Ulster or Southern Ireland in 1695 or 1755; my great-great-grandfather was an Admiral in the War of 1812. That's when the British burnt Washington. We ought to invite them back for a return performance, maybe put Bush's head on a pike.

... The Americans are what the French call "pompiers pyromanes": firemen who set fires. They want to be worshipped and loved for solving all the world's problems, but they CAUSE most of the world's problems: for example, Communism. America (or at least the North) has not been threatened by a foreign enemy not of its own making since the War of 1812. Communism was, and is, a Frankenstein Monster "Made in the USA". Same with Islamic "terrorism", to the extent that it has any reality at all. The present generation of Americans has brought shame upon America that can never be effaced. But it is my fault for being surprised. Americans have always acted that way. The last Americans with any honour were the Confederates...

Another question, the most serious of all, is: why the hell is Marxism the only ideology that motivates people to action? Marxism is the greatest ideological and practical failure in world history...

MADE IN RUSSIA - THE HOLOCAST

Someone emailed me to say that they thought that the photo of the african eating the arm that is found on many websites is a photomontage. I don't know . I found it online. Someone should develop software that will give a probability read on photos. A photo "lie detector".

Help is needed. We need help with this site to maintain it and to expand it. We need more people to link to it. Recently there has been a big increase in downloads from it and we need materials to develop more audio and video for it . Simple things like scanners and printers are also lacking . We need thousands of blank CDs and DVDs so we can distribute an entire library of books to people all at once. There are many little things you can do. Email or ring if you want something assigned to you . Countless works need to be translated. Look at the internet ,there is a vast amount of important stuff that has never been translated into the major European languages. Just take www.revilo-oliver.com for example. We got some feedback from Limerick recently and someone was leafletting there . This site is a bit different from my other one. This one is more of a general space for western culture. Resistance is something that grows exponentially. The more you do the more others will. There are countless people who agree with us but who are keeping their heads down and waiting for their moment.

The subhumans the Jews have imported will start the race war that will sweep them both away. Rioting near Paris is out of control. Jew Sarkozy dosen't mind the savages burning White's cars and raping girls but he knows they are a threat to the juden republic when they behave like this and is quick to send in white police to break their bones. Sarkozy has a really sinister big brother look and the media is building him up to be the next president of France.

Chirac famously claimed that Europe's roots were as much muslim as christian!

LIBERATION.FR : samedi 29 octobre 2005 - 09:15

De nouvelles violences urbaines consécutives au décès de deux adolescents jeudi ont éclaté à Clichy-sous-Bois vendredi soir, une balle réelle ayant notamment été tirée sur un véhicule de CRS.

"Un fourgon (où se trouvaient des CRS) a fait l'objet d'un tir", a indiqué au cours d'un point de presse le directeur départemental de la sécurité publique Jacques Méric. Plus de 400 fauteurs de trouble au total ont eu maille à partir avec les forces de l'ordre, a-t-il précisé.

Deux-cent cinquante à trois cents policiers et gendarmes ont été déployés sur les lieux. Sept policiers ont été légèrement blessés, et neuf personnes ont été placées en garde à vue. Vingt-neuf véhicules et dix poubelles ont été incendiés, apparemment avec l'aide d'hydrocarbures selon les pompiers de la Brigade des Sapeurs-Pompiers de Paris, qui ont déclenché le plan "trouble urbain" vers 21h15. Les pompiers sont intervenus une quarantaine de fois. Le préfet Jean-François Cordet s'est rendu sur place.

Les troubles se sont principalement déroulés dans le quartier du Chêne-Pointu, qui avait déjà été jeudi soir le théâtre de violents affrontements entre jeunes et forces de l'ordre. La ville s'était embrasée à la suite du décès de deux adolescents de 17 et 15 ans, Ziad et Banou, morts électrocutés après s'être introduits dans l'enceinte d'un transformateur EDF. La rumeur s'était répandue que les deux jeunes s'étaient réfugiés dans cet endroit à la suite d'une course-poursuite avec la police, ce qui a été démenti par la préfecture. Les troubles de vendredi ont commencé peu après 21 heures. Selon Joaquin Masanet du syndicat de policiers UNSA, environ 80 jeunes du Chêne-Pointu s'en sont pris à des CRS "en mission de sécurisation" et ont commencé à jeter des projectiles et des cocktails molotov sur les forces de police, avant de tirer un coup de feu contre un véhicule où se trouvaient des CRS. "Nous avons essayé de négocier avec certains jeunes mais ils avaient la volonté d'en
