

Over on Stormfront Jewtree engages in desperate damage limitation exercises but the jig is up. Censorship is always a sign that people are up to no good. Jewtree (Andy Robertson) has been a conduit for Jew money to Stormfront and the BNP in return for Neocon type ideological changes. Michael Hoffman's criticisms appear justified.

WHEN DID STORMFRONT UK BECOME A BNP SITE

I have been going through the threads on SFUK and some things are at you attack the BNP or ask questions about them that are too close to being bared from SFUK. WHY? Ok stonecold went on a bit but if you do should i say pointing out, all the BNP had to do was answer the question what happened to the £7000 answer shut him down, Wrong answer. It's not the first time i have seen this happening, it seems that you are not unless it is trivial. The whole point of SFUK is that all people have the right to express their views. Unless it is racist and personal or vindictive and offensive you should be allowed to express your views.

To Mr X,

on the subject of the BNP. To control pest species scientists sometimes breed neuter examples and release them in the wild. These mate but don't breed. The result is a drop in population. The idea is to create a neuter type that looks like a WN but isn't politically a threat to the Jews.

Echoing Neocon prop is why I now call the BNP the British Neocon party. You were surprised when I told you that Stasi people like Marcus Wolfe are now working in the American government. The Anglo countries are the center of the Jewish imperium. Germany still has to be occupied and while the Germans in the West are completely rotted by Jewish memes the ones in the former commie half are going to be the seed from which our new Germany will grow.

I believe this is the Jew strategy behind Johnjoytree, the infamous funder of the BNP and Stormfront who is censoring people there and trying to shift the attention of the less bright White nationalists away from the Jews towards the Muslims(the Jews number one enemy). Politics is activity in relation to power. Reganism and Thatcherism were supported by our morons. Thatcher used immigration as an issue and jingoistic nationalism also.

If you don't address the Jewish question your not engaging in real political activity, on our behalf anyway. You engaged in anticommunist activity in eastern Europe in the 80s. This was at the same time as it had become PC to be anticommunist. Just as its PC to be anti-Islam today. Communism was of no more use to the Jews and so it was Reagan and Thatcher who took on the role formerly played by the communists, that of decoloniser. Russia was stripped of its colonies. You can rationalise anticommunism more easily as there were at least some good points to the fall of communism but I can't see the slightest benefit for us in following the Jew line here and helping them conquer the rest of the world. The Jews are our enemy. This clash of civilisations is a bad idea. This has been a theme with you and I remember you in favour of the Iraq war. Things are bad enough now. If this war really takes off then whats left of free speech will vanish as the Jews get all kinds of emergency laws passed. Those Hezbollah defend us. The Jews want WW3 and the end of free speech. Lets not echo their prop thank you. I can't please everyone and come up with something to appease every strange permutation. If you believe its good that ragheads are dying, even when they are geopolitically defending us, then I don't know what I can say to persuade you. If the BNP continues with the present course I am sure they will reach a point where even a loyal helper like yourself is disgusted with them. David Irving has done more singlehandedly to shake the system than the BNP has done with all its thousands of flag waving types. We have seen a series of crusades for Jewry, WW2 and now Iraq. The Zionists badly want Iran. Why help the Jewish crusade? Why confuse ordinary Brits as to the nature of their real enemy? Why don't they just shut up instead of having filth like Barnes write articles or them?

You yourself drew my attention to Jewtree. He is the nexus between Jew money, BNP and Stormfront sellout and I even caught him encouraging Irish republicanism. He is a clear enemy agent who has wormed his way in publicly to Stormfront. The enemy has a kosher line for everyone to follow, why is the BNP following the one set out for them? Are we expected to forgive the Jews just like that, for the tens of millions killed by them, so that Nick can get a few moron's votes and a little fatter? There is presenting things optimally to the public and selling out. Griffin's stuff on his site attacking far better men than himself like Arthur Leese are not tolerable. The BNP has made itself a laughing stock with this Zionism and given the left a real reason to hate them. As you say Griffin's opponents might not be much either. I am not a familiar with the details of the British scene as you are. Maybe the present islamophobia generated by the media could be milked by nationalists but the BNP seem to use every event as a excuse for greater sellouts. They seem like a clone of the conservative party and no matter what they say they will still be called Nazis. Barnes and the BNP site attack the basis of White Nationalism. We are all conspiracy theorists etc. The Barnes article is also a shift towards loyalism with its advocacy of the bombing of southern Ireland. As you point out the BNP does suppress Loyalism internally while using billy boys. Support for Israel also moves the BNP out of the National democratic bracket and away from parties like the FN and NPD etc and into the Neocon bracket alongside the Conservative party. The system will make use of race. Norman Tebbit said that Enoch Powell's favourite speech wasn't racist. Similarly the conservative party said on its posters that it wasn't racist to oppose immigration. The lines developed by the opposition to oppose the symptoms of the system will be used by the system if those lines don't puncture the ideology. So people should never say that it isn't racist to oppose immigration. Never be defensive. It could be that pragmatic politics in a totalitarian society just isn't possible. The bullshit is at least as oppressive as the niggers so I don't see the point in condoning those who add to the pile of bullshit. The British Neocon Party can't be both for us and for them, they have made their choice, the leadership anyway. We can't grant a dual identity. If you radiate hostile memes then you will be categorised accordingly.

If the BNP is the best Britain can come up with (Barnes:"I support Israel a hundred percent") then Britain is fucked and I suggest all healthy English, Scots and Welsh go and move to Russia or somewhere. Poland is nice and totally White. Go there to visit. It will boost your morale.

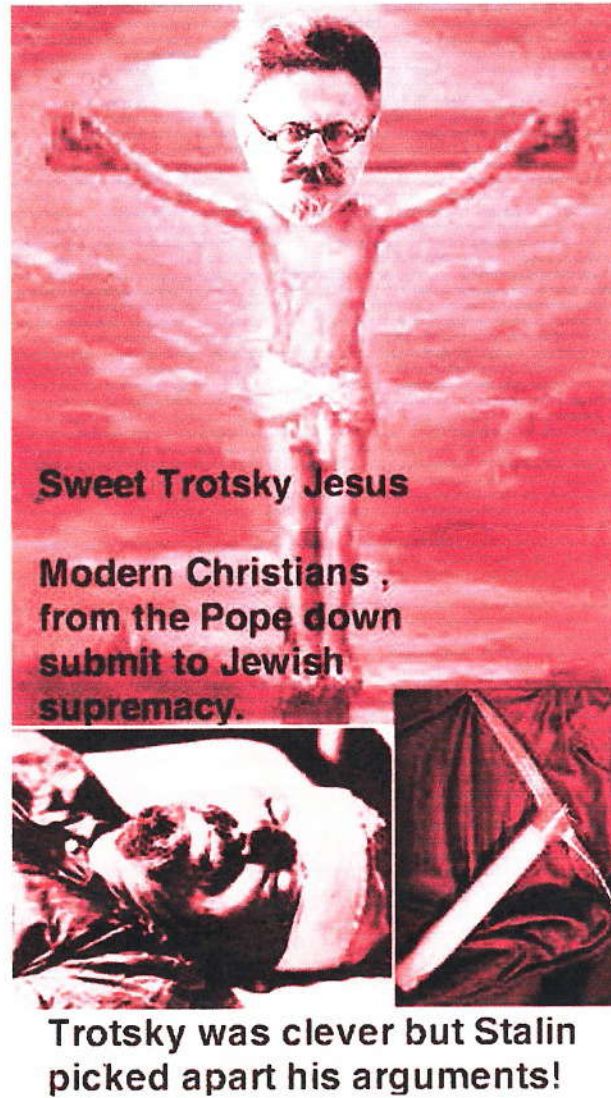

'Now Spartacus explain to me how you are going to lead a rebellion against the Romans not only without criticising the Romans but indeed writing apologetics for them! You even attack our allies against the Romans! Also how can you lead a slave revolt if you refuse to remove the chains from the slaves?'

I cannot appease all our legions of defective conservative semi racist types like the clerofascists , who think the Pope is just playing a clever game with those Jews .He is really on our side , yeah right!

In the nineteenth century British colonists believed in Christianity and spread it around the world. Today British neocolonialists believe in the Holocaust and are spreading a holocaust around the world.

Many healthy films we saw as kids are no longer shown on TV that often. Remember Heidi? When was that repeated?

I reread Beau Geste recently. Certainly Paris needs French Foreign legion forts to defend against the maurauding Algerians. Disabled people are set on fire in Paris if they can't run fast enough. They should make this an event at the "special olympics".

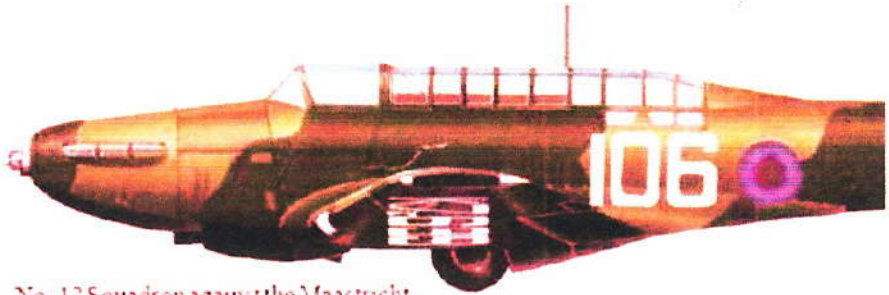

Today the Foreign Legion is mainly Russian. The book is like something from two thousand years ago, rather than from less than a hundred. The ideals of noble self sacrifice, of making a "beau geste" are utterly beyond modern degenerate Whites, who have so absorbed Jew memes that most of the world can no longer tell the difference between them.

The arabs etc. won't assimilate and we must thank them rather for burning the Frenchies cars and teaching them the lesson that race exists. The worst enemies of the French are rather the school teachers etc. the future fodder for the guillotine.

Fairey Battle

Envisaged as a replacement for the famous Hawker Hart and Hind light bombers of the early and mid-1930s, the Fairey Battle was selected as the cornerstone of the rapidly-expanding RAF and was intended to equip the large number of light bomber squadrons during the latter part of that decade. When the war started, however, the Battle was already obsolescent and was particularly vulnerable in the context of German Blitzkrieg tactics. Before the opening of the great German assault in the West on 10 May 1940, 10 Battle squadrons (Nos 12, 40, 88, 98, 103, 105, 142, 150, 218 and 226) had been sent to France to support the British Expeditionary Force, and were committed to action in the face of overwhelming enemy air superiority. Already unescorted daylight bombing operations had resulted in heavy losses (as early as 30 September 1939 four out of five No. 150 Squadron Battles had been shot down in a single raid), and although escorts had been provided during the winter, little could be done to protect the slow bombers when the storm burst in the spring. Carrying no more than four 113-kg (250-lb) bombs at an operating speed of about 278 km/h (160 mph), the Battles were sent against key river bridges being used by enemy armoured columns advancing through Belgium. In an attack by

No. 12 Squadron against the Maastricht bridges, carried out in the face of heavy Flak and fighter opposition, almost all the bombers were shot down, the RAF's first Victoria Crosses of World War II being awarded posthumously to Flying Officer D E Garland and Sergeant T Gray. Four days later 71 Battles from Nos 12, 103, 105, 150 and 218 Squadrons were assembled for an attack on German pontoon bridges in the Sedan area; no fewer than 40 aircraft failed to return. The survivors of the squadrons were withdrawn from France, but several of them, based in England, continued to attack German-held ports on the Channel Coast until the threat of invasion receded. Thereafter the Battle was relegated to training and target-towing duties, many being shipped to Canada where they served with air gunnery schools.

The Battle was an anachronism and Fairey Battle of No. 100 Sqn as it appeared Abingdon. The Battle was extremely vulnerable due to its sluggish performance, and its its shortcomings should have been anticipated long before the traumas of May 1940. It was, after all, powered by the same engine as the single-seat Hurricane, yet with a crew of three and 60 per cent heavier when fully-equipped, it was sent against single-seat fighters of twice its performance and expected to defend itself with only two rifle-calibre machine-guns.

'Perkins, I'm asking you to lay down your life. We need a futile gesture at this stage – it'll raise the whole tone of the war. Get up in a crate, Perkins... pop over to Bremen... take a shufti... don't come back. Goodbye, Perkins. God, I wish I was going, too.'

'Goodbye, sir. Or is it... 'au revoir'?'

'No, Perkins.'

This tale of the waste of the lives of these British pilots. Good Dna wasted that now Britain desperately needs now that the real danger to its existence has arrived, reminded me of those lines from the "Aftermyth of war" by comic genius Peter Cook in Beyond the Fringe.

Mythology contains much truth . The story of the Minotaur tells us how Aryans ideas replaced Med/semitic type ideas on crete. The Minotaur resembles the Moloch of the other side of the mediterranean .

Someone should prepare such a commentary on the bible. David kills Goliath with a sling .Only a semitic mentality could celebrate the cowardly killing of a man by the bringing of the equivalent of a gun to a knife fight.

Arabs are notorious for carrying cut throat razors which they will pull on surprised Aryans who thought they had only entered a fist fight.

The Jews teach from their mythology . We must start to from ours but lack numbers of suitable people . We need to create White cultural teachers in numbers. I will write more but I need help to do so.

Iranian President Mahmoud Ahmadinejad: "Death to Israel"

Following are excerpts from an interview with Iranian President Mahmoud Ahmadinejad, which aired on the Iranian News Channel (IRINN) on August 2, 2005

Mahmoud Ahmadinejad I hereby declare that this sinister regime [Israel] is the banner of Satan. It is the banner of the Great Satan. All it does is to implement the orders of the criminal America and England. They think that the peoples are the same as they were 100 years ago. They are not aware that things have changed in the world. Today, all the peoples have awoken. The Iranian people is the standard-bearer of this awakening for all the peoples. As we can see, from the southernmost point in South America to the easternmost point in Asia, all the people are shouting a single cry. With placards in their hands and clenched fists, they shout: Death to Israel.

Crowd Death to Israel!

Death to Israel!

White Nationalism is in a chronic state with people wasting their time with things like the Bnp and Stormfront which are not real forms of resistance. Even before Johnjewtree bought off Don Black to let Stormfront be used as a not so crypto neocon vehicle, most of the people on it were duds who did little real activism. The Jews power even allows them to infiltrate and bend such things to their use. Ahmadinejad and the Iranians have come far but you still see Chomskyite meme traces in his ideas.

We need Iranian speakers and activism over there to build co-operation against our real enemy the Jew.

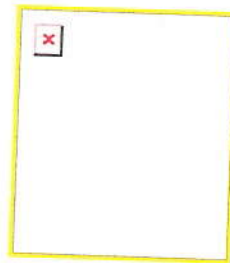

We need your help to defend free speech and to educate the public . We have very limited resources .

Irish Examiner Thursday, January 27, 2005 "The website is run by an organisation called Revisionist Education Organization. The group, believed to have only a small number of members, is based in Cork, and has distributed leaflets and conducted recruitment campaigns in Dublin.

"The website is an insult to Jewish people and other people. It is a permanent form of incitement to hatred," said Philip Watt of the National Consultative Committee on Racism and Interculturalism (NCCRI).

He said legislation should be brought in to outlaw such websites. Mr Watt was concerned Holocaust denial wasn't a crime in Ireland and said it should be. "
