

NZZ 28.10.09 In a scientific chronicle, one fact which makes weather forecasting difficult: cumulus reflect the solar rays and reduce the earth warming. Unfortunately the importance and the variations of the cumulus layers are little known. In the same scientific section: In May 2009, presentation of the "Ida" primate fossil, nearly complete and dating 47 million years. Animated controversies in the scientific milieu caused by new perspectives on the origins and the fate of primates. What should be certain, is that there existed at the time a greater number of proto-apes. (In other words, science has got a future, provided scientists survive the next few centuries!)

RENAISSANCE CATHOLIQUE 7.11.09 – Aymeric Chauprade on globalism: "From the 18th Century onward, Free Masonry built the frame of the first globalist revolutionary project. This secret society had for ambition to govern the masses through a new aristocracy, regenerated, and brings to bear with all its power the political principles of liberalism via Britain and its former colonies in America, with the goal of dominating the world. "– In the same issue, Bruno Gollnisch: "First, the Eurocrats try to impose a free circulation of people and their assets on a global scale, which leads to a politics of extra European immigration on a large scale, to a massive de-industrialisation of European countries (some economic sectors such as textiles, mining, electronics have simply disappeared) and pressures are put on recalcitrant nations (Poland, Ireland, Malta) to accept abortion in the name of the circulation of services!"

LECTURES FRANCAISES. Jacques Villemonais presents and analyses the book by Jean Montaldo "Open letter to the financial bandits" (Albin Michel 2009). Those bandits have ruined investors to the tune of some 50 000 billions Euros, higher than the cost of both world wars. As to the subprimes (risky credits) in the years 2000, the "Countrywide Financial" (55 000 employees, 735 branches) placed some 450 000 loans per annum for an astronomical amount of 75 billion dollars (...) The system was holding thanks to ridiculous increase in housing." And Montaldo mentions the BNP-Paribas: "In September 2007, instead of being limited to the US where everything started, it is the entire planet which begins to be ravaged by the shock of the subprime credits and their derivatives, bundled together and spread in proportions defying the most elementary common sense. (...) The bankruptcy of Lehman Bros, on 15th September 2008, showed with a glaring clarity, that the fate of world economies was at the mercy of hidden mathematical formulas, totally disconnected from real life. The author revues the failures of US banks and their aftershocks on French banks and concludes. It is good to remember here the Masonic formula "Solve et coagula" "(destroy and rebuild) . For the destruction one must say that financial globalisation did a good job. One must now fear the reconstruction through political globalisation. (this 14 pages article is worth a thorough study)

RECHT + FREIHEIT N 7/8/09 reproduces the speech of President Ahmadinejad before the UN General Assembly on 23.9.09. His diagnostics is irrefutable: "It is absolutely clear that the present world situation cannot last. (...) The machinery of a world economy without brakes, with its unjust structures has come to an end. (...) The time is past when a few individuals could define arbitrarily what democracy and freedom should mean, while considering themselves as the holders of these values, though they are the first to violate them, and, while playing the role of judges and executors of the judgment, they condemn states truly founded on the will of the people." (and the Iranian president proposes a string of measures to preserve peace and the legitimate rights of people)

RECHT + FREIHEIT No.7+8/09 Editorial: " Everything seems to indicate that the wheel is beginning to turn again, after having stopped at the moment of WWII ." (Right) – Max P.Morf: " More than ever in the last few years, democracy and freedom are pushed forward. (...) Those beautiful phrases are hiding a totalitarian project: world government. And for what purpose? " Dissolve the races by mongrelization, make families disappear by promoting sexual aberrations and eliminate the nations by forming great blocks without borders (EU, Alena, Mediteranean union)."

LE PAMPHLET No 390. Claude Paschoud, concerning the freedom of thought and religion: Only, "You are risking a prison sentence, if your studies have incited you to doubt the reality of homicide gas chambers, because the holocaustic religion has become the only religion in the XXI century to which it is obligatory to adhere." – And Max the Impertinent concerning the interdiction of minarets in Switzerland: " Max, as far as he is concerned, sees in that decision, the manifestation of the legitimate exasperation of a people who has come out of its slumber– for once– rather than the others; a people still peaceful but nonetheless irritated to see its country progressively bound to the globalist multi–culture by political and media felons NZZ 21.11.09 : “Every week, 50 to 60 children travelling alone and youths from all over the world are demanding asylum in Sweden. As a lot of municipalities are refusing to offer transit accommodation, the government has threatened to change the law.” We are dealing with refugees from Somalia and Afghanistan. Malmo, with its large population of immigrants, is lacking in space.” The Minister Billstrom announces measures concerning accommodation in transit. (The Swedish rulers, at the forefront of globalism, are overtaken by the consequences of their policies).

MILITANT No 613 Editorial : Even if helped by their NATO vassals, the US cannot cope. Iraq is not pacified and the departure of the Western occupation army, which will happen sooner or later, will allow free rein to the chaotic elements. Afghanistan sees its people rejecting with force, the occupation army, those same peoples who successfully chased away the British and the Russians, those seeing without displeasure the difficulties of the Western coalition multiply.” (a remarkable lucid conclusion) . On page 12: “European nationalists, including those in Russia, must use every mean at their disposal to stop the criminal activities of the globalist technocrats who have facilitated for decades an extra European immigration which will turn our continent into a “grey humanity” . (absolutely essential) No 614 Editorial : “It has been clear for a long time that it is ultra liberal capitalism which has facilitated migratory invasion with the only purpose to employ a cheap labour force.(...) Racial identity is the only way of preserving national identity; without that, there will not be in the near future, a French nation.” (Bravo!)

UNHABHANGIGE NACHRICHTEN 12/09 is rejoicing about the Swiss vote on minarets and states: “ The hypocritical pretext of “tolerance” opens the gates to massive alien immigration coming especially from the Islamic world. – Concerning the war in Afghanistan: “ The engagement of the German Army in that country has been prolonged by one year on the basis of 4500 soldiers.” And UN reminds us of the setbacks of the Russians in that country.” Mrs. Merkel, are you opposed to the exigencies of Obama? This war is that of the US: it is about geo–political power and has nothing to do with peace.(...) . Bring our soldiers back from this mad escapade, before their returns in coffins downloaded from cargo–planes”.

SANS CONCESSIONS No55–56–57 Marie Pererou replies to arguments according to which “the Holocaust, true or false, belongs to the past: “If indeed “ all that belongs to the past” , why then talk about it constantly?” As to Poland, the official pretext, “ one could not give a hoot about it; (...) the real objective of the war was the destruction of national socialism (...). This truth appeared: a first time on 5th September 1939, when England torpedo–ed the ultimate attempt of Italian mediation in order to find a solution to the impasse; a second time on 17 September 1939 when the democracies refrained from declaring war on the USSR which committed the same “crime” as the Reich, namely invading Poland; a third time when on 7 October 1939, the democracies rejected Hitler’s peace offerings. (...) Armed conflict ended in 1945, but ideological war, it is evident, is not limited to the material world. It will last as long as the enemy has not been crushed in spirit. (...) And the enterprise carries on today: commemorations, incessant recalls, criminal cases against octogenarians, duty of Memory, hunting down of heretics...Proof that the war has not ended.” .– In the same issue, the main article (145 pages) refutes point by point the book “L’horror nazie” of J.P.Dikes.

MINUTE 2.12.09 US. The biggest town of Michigan state , Detroit, does not bury its dead any more. The town does not have the means anymore! Poverty has reached such a level that corpses are piling up inside a giant freezer at the town main morgue. Unable to pay for funerals, families do not claim anymore the remnants of their beloved.” With an unemployment rate of 28% (!!) Detroit is at the forefront. – The geo politician Yves Marie Laulan, interviewed on the Swiss vote on minarets; “ The Swiss vote resounded like a thunder clap. One can only read and listen to the farmyard cackle of the Left. They have discovered that the king is naked, that the people is in complete disagreement with what they have been proposing and for them it is an insufferable revelation.” (the decisive factor is that, with the right to initiative and referendum, in Switzerland, the citizen have the right to express “ politically incorrect opinion” anonymously through the ballot.)

RIVAROL 4.12.09 Jerome Bourbon concludes a study " Immigration and insecurity" by the question which demolishes the basis of globalism: " How do you fight immigration and crime when there are no borders anymore?" – 11.12.09 concerning the anti-minarets Swiss vote; " The successful initiative of the UDC has in fact realised what the masters of the "orthodoxy" fear most : a return to free expression." (...) As to the medias which, like RMC, Le Figaro or L'Express, have opened a forum on the Swiss vote, they were submerged by comments favourable to our neighbours." In Germany , judicial persecution against old men, does not stop at the Demyanshuk case. "At the same time, the case against Nederlander Henrich Boere, aged 88 who belonged at the time to a unit of Waffen SS, opened on 25.11.09 in the town of Aix-la-Chapelle. – 24.12.09 Bruno Gollnisch, lucid : " The fundamental problem is no more the minaret than the burqa in France: it is that of massive immigration and the bad conscience of the Europeans" – Unemployment is reaching 13,4% in Turkey. "Europe can therefore expect a very strong wave of immigration".

L'UOMO LIBERO No 68 – Pierre Sella . " Through the world control of information medias, the demoplutocracies canalize the electoral cattle in the chosen direction. It forces , even in their exterior politics, nations to obey the internationalist power. Those are therefore condemned to participate in private conflicts of no interest to themselves. (...) They must mobilise against "terrorism" , defined as such by the strongest who is himself the real terrorist." And Sella denounces the regimes which are pushing "equalitarian and anti-racist ideologies" .

DERNIERE MINUTE. –FRANCE 63 millions inhabitants in the last census. Where do they come from? What do they look like, what is their belief? The statistics are not allowed to mention that. – ITALY. In Rosarno in Calabria, hundreds of migrants revolt, burning cars, vandalising buildings and pelting police with stones. NETHERLANDS. State of siege in the little town of Culemborg! Fights between young Moluccans migrants and Moroccans.! (those responsible wanted immigration, now they have it)!

THOUGHT MAKES US FREE! The Swiss Bernhard Schaub publishes a 4 pages tract on thought police. Here are some extracts;

"Uneasy, the European is finding out with surprise that the taboos of "political correctness" are spreading more and more. All kinds of muzzling laws reduce the citizen to silence and the grotesque mandate of arrest of the EU finishes his intimidation....)

"In other words, a part of contemporary history is excluded from the scientific domain, therefore from debates, to place it in the domain of religion, a sort of world religion which , in Germany, is visibly taking the aspect of a semi-official state religion."

"Like "official science" , German courts have the habit of never examining if the accused has some ground for his argumentation. The judge never request for any proof, and if the accused attempts to expose his point of view, he commits a new crime, and so does his lawyer! A judicial monstrosity! The facts of genocide of millions by gas chambers is accepted as "notorious" and the court must only decide if the accused is really a negationist of this notoriety – and fix the penalty. (...)

" But slowly voices are rising which want to put an end to that charade. After Martin Walser who, some 10 years ago, made a critique of the "Auschwitz bludgeon" . the former constitutional federal judge Wolfgang Hoffman –Riem declares: " As a legislator, I would not penalise the negation of the holocaust." And on 10.6.08, the "SudDeutsche Zeitung" cites a declaration from Winfried Hassemer, ex-vice president of the Federal Constitutional Court: " I am not a partisan for the penalisation of holocaust negationism." (...) In 2007 Professor Schachtschneider (from Erlangen University) (...) declared:" A country is not free, if speech is suppressed by heavy sentences."

RUSSIA – NZZ 17.12.09 NATO is looking for help in Moscow for its intervention in Afghanistan. The general secretary visiting Russia, wants to ameliorate the atmosphere . (that is something which says a lot on the new balance of forces) – Due to the growing number of unemployed, Prime Minister Vladimir Putin wants to reduce the official number of aliens. In 2010, some 1,3 millions less foreigners , will be allowed to work in Russia, about a third less.

IRAN NZZ 21.12.09 Death of ayatollah Montazeri. Iranian opposition loses one of its representatives.

MIDDLE EAST – 20 MINUTES 15.12.09 " The Ashkenazi great Rabbi of Israhell, Yona Metzger, visited yesterday the mosque of a Palestinian village which was burnt down a few days earlier. He condemned firmly this act of vandalism." – NZZ 16.12.09 British court order for the arrest of Tzipi Livni (former minister of foreign affairs.) Indignant protestation in Israhell. (would Israhell's business turning sour in Britain?) –Le Nouvelliste 29.12.09 Peace takes a knock. Israhell announced yesterday the construction of 700 new apartments in East Jerusalem"

MUZZLING LAWS AND DEMOCRATIC TYRANNY

ECRITS DE PARIS No 724 Paul Craig Roberts, for adjunct secretary of the Treasury in the Reagan administration; " On 16 October 2004, President Bush signed the law of the Israhellish lobby, Global Antisemitic Review Act. This law grants the Department of State in the US the duty to keep watch on anti-semitism around the world. (...) This law signify the end of freedom of speech, of freedom of enquiry and of the first amendment of the Constitution: any fact or truth touching Israhell will from now on be forbidden. (...) In order to maintain the minds in a veritable stronghold, the lobby institute the definitive tactic of calling anti-semitism anything which displeased Israhell (...) To put people in jail because they ask a historical question, is the ultimate folly of our time. (with the setbacks of the White House, this repression is bound to weaken, but it does benefit from an inertia effect)

GERMANIA 1.11.09 One of our correspondent reminded us that the Nuremberg Tribunal, created by the Allies to condemn the German leaders, was not unanimous among the Americans. Senator Robert Taft disapproved of the participation of the US in the trials, a parody of justice which will stain forever US honor. – Judge Harlan F. Stone (Chief Justice of the Supreme Court) called at the time the Court, a lynching. – US Judge Edward van Roden mentioned the numerous cases of torture inflicted to Germans prisoners of the US. More facts to add to others to help history.

LE TEMPS 16.11.09 reminds its readers of an important revisionist victory. The Geneva legal medicine practitioner Francois Naville, having examined the corpses in the Katyn pits attributed to the Germans, concluded to a Soviet crime. As we know, " the Russians added the massacre of Katyn to the accusation acts of Nuremberg. (...) It is only the disappearance of the Iron Curtain which put to rest the controversy. Today, thanks to documents handed over to Poland by Mikhail Gorbachev and later by Boris Yeltsin, we know that the dead of Katyn are part of three groups of 21 857 Polish prisoners of war eliminated in spring 1940. The decision was signed by Josef Stalin, Viacheslaw Molotov and Anastas Mikoyan" (acted upon!)
