ELECTION RESULTS

Skull and Bones, Skull and Bones:
If you're bewildered, don't feel alone.
Who cares if it's Junior Bush or Kerry/Kohn?
It's the same sad sick Illuminati game,
Four more years of just the same.

Skull and Bones, Skull and Bones:
Our "free election" was quite a show.
It's "reality TV", or don't you know?
Talmud-Vision must have done its work,
Because the "average voter" is such a jerk!

Skull and Bones, Skull and Bones:
Wars for oil and the safety of Zion,
Let loose the Judeo-American lion.
The "Super Power" will have its way --
Unless there really is a judgment day!

Skull and Bones, Skull and Bones:
Lets all hail the new Bush Caesar.
In Tel Aviv, he's a Kosher crowd pleaser.
Have a happy Hanukkah and a good New Year,
And have a strong drink of holiday cheers,
For it's Skull and Bones for four more years.

The politically correct holiday gift. Don't leave home without it!

A 22-YEAR VETERAN CONGRESSMAN EXPOSES ISRAEL'S LOBBY: REP. PAUL FINDLEY DARES TO SPEAK OUT—AGAIN—ON DVD

By Mark Farrell

Not too long ago, I had the distinct pleasure of meeting Paul Findley, a former U.S. Congressman who served America for 22 years on Capitol Hill. He is, in my opinion, one of America's greatest politicians to have ever existed. In the history books of the future, he most assuredly will be written about with great esteem. He has been one of the few voices of reason during America's current predicament, the Iraq War, which may quickly expand to WWII in the Mid-East. In case you're not familiar with Rep. Findley or his politics, let me tell you about this maverick. He was a politician who undauntedly squared off with the hundreds of political action committees that put Israel's best interests ahead of America's. It is not something easily done. Those who are familiar with this matter must realize the eventual consequences with taking such a course. Findley's refusal to follow America's unwritten Israel-first policy goes a long way in my book.

There have been others who have opposed America's Israel-first policy. In recent times, we've seen Sen. Ernst Hollings, Congressman James Moran, Gen. Anthony Zinni and even third-party presidential candidate Ralph Nader. What sets Rep. Findley apart from these other courageous and patriotic men is that he made more than quick, passing comments about Israel's virtual dictatorship over America's Congress. While Findley unquestionably promoted America's best interests--and possibly Israel's interests too if the two happened to coincide--he did not promote Israel's interests over America's. Consequently, he became known as Israel's "number one enemy." And the Israel-first lobby sent money from every state in the union to get Findley out of office. They succeeded with that.

Rep. Findley was not so easy to forget. Some time after he was unseated, he sat down and wrote a book that everyone in America should read: "They Dare to Speak Out: People and Institutions Confront Israel's Lobby." It sold hundreds of thousands of copies and, more recently, was again updated and re-published in 2003. In this well-documented book, he explains, as only a Congressman could, how Washington is truly run. While Rep. Findley's book is truly remarkable with respect to the amount of research involved, I've always thought that there is a problem with it: Not everyone has time to sit down and read. As Findley himself told me, "My book has sold hundreds of thousands of copies, but I can't prove that many of them have actually read it." I thought it would be a good idea to have him share his own experiences in Washington--and the dangers that we face as a result of Israel's influence--on video.

It was with that thought in mind that I wrote to Findley some time back about my idea to make a short documentary, with him as the key figure, exposing Israel's lobby.

It was a bright sunny day when I met Rep. Findley for the filming session. Talking with Findley, I was extremely impressed with his keen intellect and his ability to recall all the dirty, little details of how Israel manipulates America's Congress. Without question, the man is a genius. He is certainly many mental levels above most the typical pro-Israel drones who occupy Capitol Hill.

The interview with Findley went extremely well. He told everything you might expect--and perhaps a bit more--about how the Israeli lobbyists influence America's Congress. He spoke about the USS Liberty--what should have been considered an Act of War--when Israel torpedoed, bombed, machine-gunned, and napalmed an American ship, murdering 34 of them and injuring close to 200. He told of the strong-armed tactics, as well as the cajoling, that Israel uses to get its way on Capitol Hill. Findley went into detail about all the sordid facts that every American needs to know. It was an honor to interview him, and one that I--and hopefully all the Israel-firsters out there--will not soon forget.

Working with several hours of footage, I put highlights of the interview on the DVD. I also used some video overlay of various things related to it while Findley was speaking. I show video clips from Jenin, Deir Yassin, and other areas where America's Israel-first policy has caused people considerable hardship, not to mention the harm to the U.S.'s image worldwide.

I'm selling the DVDs of the Findley interview for $18.00 each, postpaid. It's menu-guided, with scene selection. It's roughly an hour long. It is available in DVD format for a home entertainment center (DVD+R), for a computer's DVD player (type DVD-R, providing you have the software to play it), and on a standard videocassette if need be. You can order it by writing to me at the following address with a money order:

Mark Farrell POB 141243
Cincinnati OH 45250-1243

If you put the video on TV--such as PBS or the Cable-Access Network--I'll refund the cost of one video (with proof on your part). I'd like to see the message get out there: America-first, not Israel-first. I think this documentary is something that could help inform America about the true reason why over 1,000 of our servicemen have died in combat in Iraq: to serve Israel's interests and no other.

YASSER ARAFAT: THE PASSING OF A MAN AND THE PASSING OF AN ERA

One of the most spectacular and memorable actors has left the great stage of world events. A truly polemical and polarizing character, Yasser Arafat ruled as a political sheikh over the Palestinian liberation movement. Moreover, he acted as a virtual sole proprietor of tens of millions of dollars, Euros, Swiss Franks, gold, and ???, unaccounted for, that are rightly the property of the Palestinian people. French law assigns his entire estate to his wife, Suha. Suha, a Christian, has been away from her husband for over three years, but now seems to be rearing her head as a power to be reckoned with. How all of this plays out shall surely be most interesting. The succession of a unified Palestinian Authority will be difficult at best. The old Al-Fatah godfathers will have plenty of competition, not only from within their own ranks, but from powerful rival groups like Hamas. Arafat's death offers a new opportunity for peace and a Palestinian state. But both the Zionists and the Palestinians have a poor record for any meaningful successes. Abba Eban once said, "The Palestinians never miss an opportunity to miss an opportunity." We must remember the past, but also, hope for the very best.

Our photo montage above and below shows several Arafat images, beginning with the younger revolutionary, some interesting caricatures, ending with more recent shots of Arafat and Suha.

TOMORROW WE RISE

By Tony Boland

The time is now,
I don't know the reason why,
The truth is about to unfold,
To learn, the lions of disobedience must grow bold.
Tell them not how,
Nor show them the way,
Everyone must learn in his own way.
Tomorrow we rise,
The new day must dawn,
Let us draw down the power,
Of the lightning and the sun.
The time is right,
We must act before it is too late,
We must not lose the opportunity,
To end Zionist hate.

"THUS I DO SWEAR"

By Yancy Ames

Everyone wants to make an issue out of the Ten Commandments. Should they be allowed on public property or not? But why should anyone worry about such nonsense when the government media and economy of the United States are controlled by those taking a much more sinister oath?

"I pledge allegiance to the flag of Israel and Jewish state for which it stands. I demand that every elected official put the interests of Israel above the interests of America, that American foreign aid and tax dollars to Israel be never ending and that American armies be used to attack Arab nations displeasing to Israel. I pledge to spy for Israel and to surround all U.S. administrations with advisors and high officials whose loyalty is to Israel. I pledge that no Israeli Prime Minister shall ever be captured and indicted as a "war criminal" like Sadaam Hussein. I vow that any Jewish axe murderers shall enjoy asylum in Israel and that Jonathan Pollard shall one day be paroled to his real country. I demand that America shall be converted into a Third World country while expelled Palestinians shall continue to rot in the desert. I promise social ostracism and instant career destruction for any who dare oppose organized Jewish influence on American society. I insist on holy "gas chamber" worship and mandatory Holocaust education for brainwashed Americans. I demand that they First Amendment to the Constitution be repealed and that all honest historical researchers who expose Israel's brutalization of the Palestinians and the historic Jewish role in history's greatest crime, communism, be prosecuted for "hatred" against God's Chosen People. I insist that an American Israel Public Affairs Commissar (A.I.P.A.C.) be appointed to stand guard over every politician, publisher and newspaper editor in the United States to prevent open rebellion. By the Gods, this I do swear."

"WITH IRAQ NO THREAT, WHY INVADE A SOVEREIGN COUNTRY? THE ANSWER: PRESIDENT BUSH'S POLICY TO SECURE ISRAEL."

FOREIGNERS OWN HALF U.S. DEBT, TIPPING POINT UNCLEAR

<http://www.reuters.com/financeNewsArticle.jhtml?type=bondsNews&storyID=5874706> Washington, Aug 4 04 (Reuters) - Data showing foreigners own half the U.S. debt has raised concerns about a possible tipping point for America's reliance on foreign capital, though the U.S. Treasury Department sees little risk from the holdings. Foreign holdings accounted for just 20 percent of U.S. debt in 1993 but they have swelled in recent years as Asian banks loaded up on U.S. Treasuries, seeking to depress their currencies against the dollar to boost exports. Some see the high foreign holdings level as a vulnerability. "It shows you the increased dependence of the U.S. on foreign capital. It certainly is a risk factor going forward," said Stefane Marion, assistant chief economist at National Bank Financial. "It is very difficult to tell at one point we are at the tipping point. But we are getting closer," Marion said.

OFFICIALS: JEWISH EXTREMISTS MAY CRASH PLANE ON TEMPLE MOUNT

By Jonathan Lis, Yuval Yoaz and Nadav Shragai

Israeli security officials have recently become increasingly concerned that right-wing extremists might be plotting an attack on the Temple Mount in Jerusalem to derail Israel's planned withdrawal from the Gaza Strip. The Shin Bet security service and the police are preparing for a number of possible terror attack scenarios at the sacred Old City site. Possible actions included an attempt to crash a drone packed with explosives on the Temple Mount, or a manned suicide attack with a light aircraft during mass Muslim worship on the Mount. Other possibilities include an attempt by right-wing extremists to assassinate a prominent Temple Mount Muslim leader, perhaps from the Waqf Islamic trust.

Israeli security sources speculate that the assassination scenario might be chosen, even though it would not cause mass injury or damage to the Al-Aqsa mosque or the Golden Dome shrine. The aim of the Temple Mount attack conspiracy, they said, would be to carry out a visible provocation that sparked violent confrontation in the territories.

'ISRAELIS ARE A NATION OF SPIES AND DRUG DEALERS'

By JPost.com Staff, 5-9-4

The Jerusalem Post "Israelis are a nation of spies and drug dealers", according to New Zealand immigration officials speaking to the Jewish Agency treasurer Shai Hermesh upon his arrival there, reported Army Radio Saturday. Hermesh and his assistant were detained and searched by airport officials for 3 hours after their arrival in Auckland in spite of the fact that Hermesh presented a diplomatic passport. The immigration officer at the airport explained his actions saying the two raised suspicion due to their arrival from a terror-inflicted country and last month's arrest of two Israelis suspected of being Mossad operatives.

RABBI: NO GUILT FOR KILLING 'UNBELIEVERS'

"It is permissible for the Israel Defense Forces to attack in the course of warfare a civilian population that is ostensibly innocent of wrongdoing. The law of the Torah is to have mercy upon and save our civilians and our soldiers, and this is the true morality of the Torah of Israel, and one should not feel guilt out of the morality of unbelievers."

Rabbi Dov Lior, Chairman of the Council of Rabbis of Judea, Samaria and Gaza, issued May 18 as a formal ruling of Jewish rabbinic law. Quoted in "Settler Rabbi: Killing Civilians Permitted," Forward (NY), May 28, 2004, p. 5

GERMANY TO DELIVER TWO SUBMARINES TO ISRAEL CAPABLE OF CARRYING NUKE WARHEADS

Sept. 9, 2004 - Payvand's Iran News German Defense Minister Peter Struck has finally given green light for the delivery of two submarines to Israel which are also capable of carrying nuclear warheads, IRNA reported from Berlin. "We are certainly prepared to help Israel in the acquisition," the minister said Thursday in an interview with the economic daily Handelsblatt. Berlin halted unexpectedly last November the delivery of two German-made 'Dolphin' submarines to Israel, citing fears of a new arms race in the Mideast region. The center-leftist German government coalition also expressed deep concerns after Israel modified three other German submarines with nuclear warheads. Germany built and delivered at no cost the three submarines for Israel in 1999 and 2000. German arms exports to Israel reached some 900 million dollars between 1998 and 2001. www.payvand.com/news/04/sep/1076.html

MEXICO: BUYING ARMAMENTS FROM ISRAEL

MEXICO BUYS MISSILE LAUNCHERS FROM ISRAEL

The Mexican Navy announced yesterday that it has bought from Israel two fully operational Aliya class speed boats capable of launching 5 Gabriel missiles each. Naval Captain Arturo Flores Gil told the Mexico City "La Jornada" newspaper that Mexico had paid Israel 60 million dollars for the two naval missile launchers and 10 missiles, capable of being outfitted with nuclear warheads. Why would Mexico spend such large sums of money for weapons at a time when countless of Mexicans have no tortillas nor frijoles to eat and are being force to migrate to the USA? Captain Arturo Flores Gil said that the highly sophisticated weapons are needed to protect the 360 PEMEX oil rigs in the Campeche oil fields that produces 83% of the nation's oil. Pres. Vicente Fox Quesada of the Partido Accion Nacional (PAN) has been increasingly criticized for the disproportionate number of Jews in his administration and for taking large sums of money from Jewish groups in the USA during his campaign.

ROMAN PRIEST INDICTED IN 'RITUAL' MURDER

A Roman Catholic priest has been indicted on an aggravated murder charge in the slaying of a nun 24 years ago. A grand jury met to consider the charge against the Rev. He was long a suspect in her death. The nun's body was discovered in a chapel at Mercy Hospital, covered by an altar cloth. Investigators have described it as "ritualistic" slaying that has the Toledo Diocese looking into claims of satanic sex abuse by priests. <http://www.cbsnews.com/stories/2004/04/26/national/> www.tompaine.com/blog.cfm?startRow=1&blogrow=2#blog9464 The second most influential Jew in America – after Paul Wolfowitz – has broken his silence and sharply attacked the policies of Israel's government. Rabbi Eric Yoffie, the president of the Union for Reform Judaism said the government's settlement policy endangers the future of Israel as a Jewish and democratic state. Yoffie went as far as warning that Israel is becoming an apartheid state, something most peace activists say has already happened. For its part, the Bush administration decided to give Israel a slap on the wrist for its illegal settlement activity, by reducing its loan guarantees to Israel this year by nearly $290 million, a paltry sum when compared with the $3 billion in direct economic and military aid Israel receives each year from the United States.

PROMINENT AMERICAN RABBI SPEAKS OUT

WILL ISRAEL DROP 5,000 BOMBS ON IRAN?

Some U.S. officials acknowledge privately that the Bush administration is split on how to react to Iran's apparent intention to obtain nuclear weapons, with some advocating forceful military action...An attack of that scope would take two to three days of continuous airstrikes. Intelligence assessments suggest Israel would drop at least 3,000 precision-guided munitions.

www.newhousenews.com/archive/wood092304.html

WASHINGTON – Amid growing concern that Israel might launch a pre-emptive strike against Iran's budding nuclear program, the United States is moving ahead with the transfer to Israel of 5,000 heavy, precision-guided bombs, including 500 "earth-penetrating" 2,000-pound bombs designed for use against underground facilities. The $319 million arms transfer, proposed by the Bush administration June 1, went ahead after Congress took no action during its 30-day review period ... The deal is being financed from this year's $2.16 billion military assistance grant to Israel. The transfer also includes 2,500 2,000-pound Mark-84 bombs, 500 1,000-pound Mark-83 bombs, 1,500 500-pound Mark-82 bombs and live fuses. All the bombs are being fitted with the Joint Direct Air Munitions (JDAM) kit using inertial guidance and beacons from U.S. military Ground Positioning Systems satellites for deadly accuracy.

WASHINGTON'S SECRET NUCLEAR WAR

Sept. 14, 2004 – Illegal weapons of mass destruction have not only been found in Iraq but have been used against Iraqis and have even killed US troops. . . Thousands of DU shells and bombs have been used in Yugoslavia, Afghanistan and – both during the 1990-91 Gulf war and the ongoing conflict – in Iraq. "They're using it now, they're using it in Falluja, Baghdad is ~~is~~ a-block with DU – it's all over the place," says Maj. Doug Rokke, Dir. of the army's DU project in 1994-95. . . DU has a "half-life" of 4.5 billion years, meaning it takes that long for just half of its atoms to decay. . . Only 467 US soldiers were officially wounded during the 1990-91 Gulf war. But according to Terry Jemison at the US Department of Veterans Affairs (VA), of the more than 592,560 discharged personnel who served there, at least 179,310 – one third – are receiving disability compensation and over 24,760 cases were pending in September 2004. This does not include personnel still active and receiving care from the military, or those who have died. And among the 168,528 veterans of the current conflict in Iraq who have left active duty, 16% (27,571) had sought treatment from the VA by July 04. . . Dr. Jenan Ali, a senior Iraqi doctor at Basra hospital's College of Medicine, says her studies show a 100% rise in child leukaemia in the region in the decade after the first Gulf war, with a 242% increase in all types of malignancies.

The director of the Afghan DU and Recovery Fund, Dr. Daud Miraki, says . . . "Many children are born with no eyes, no limbs, or tumours protruding from their mouths and eyes," Some newborns are barely recognizable as human, he says. Many do not survive. . . Full story: mindfully.org

KUWAITI PROF: JEWS TAMPER WITH KORAN

Michael Freund, The Jerusalem Post, Sept. 20, 2004
A leading Kuwaiti religious scholar has accused Jews of "manipulating" the text of the Koran by deleting various passages and then distributing the revised versions to unsuspecting Muslims. "Jews have been plotting against Muslims using various means," said Dr Mohammad Abdulrazek Al-Tabtabaei, Dean of the College of Sharia and Islamic Studies at Kuwait University. "They did not stop until they reached the point where they have been damaging the holy book by changing and deleting verses with the aim of hiding the truth," he said, according to a report in the Kuwaiti Arab Times newspaper. At-Tabtabaei asserted that an unidentified Jewish group has expunged some 50 verses from the Koran, all of which relate to Jews, and is now seeking to distribute the modified volumes via the Internet. "Any person who comes across such a copy of the Koran and discovers the alterations should immediately tear and burn it," he said.

COURT CERTIFIED 'ANTI-SEMITIC' HISTORIAN DAVID IRVING'S MOM WAS JEWISH

THE REVISIONIST, VOL. 2, NO. 2, P. 122, MAY 2004

GERMAR RUDOLF <http://vho.org/tr/index.html>

...Herr Munnier inquired about this in disbelief, but David Irving happily confirmed it; yes, his mother was Jewish, but he was never interested in this fact, nor was he raised within the Jewish tradition. He therefore never considered it to have any relevance. Thus, according to orthodox Jewish tradition, David Irving is a Jew, plain and simple.

The interesting question...Why was it not raised during Irving's libel case against Lipstadt? I bet all sides knew that an atheist Jew (Irving) was fighting against orthodox Jews (Lipstadt, van Peij, and others). It was, and continues to be, a case of Jewish in-fighting, if you wish to label it that way.

Of course, Holocaust promoters can have no interest in advertising that the "main exponent" of "Holocaust Denial" is a Jew. Oy vey, what a publicity disaster that would be! (Even though Irving is, strictly seen, not even a Holocaust revisionist, but merely a benevolent observer.)

At the end of the day, one can argue that it doesn't matter what heritage Irving's mother had, at least not in regard to where the historical truth is to be found. But for many individuals it might make a difference in their personal attitude toward revisionism.

For me personally, this is only an interesting, curious, ironic footnote, the most interesting aspect being the reaction of others to this revelation. -Germar Rudolf chp@vho.org

PUTIN: WHY NOT PRICE OIL IN EUROS?

October 25, 2004 – President Vladimir Putin said Thursday Russia could switch its trade in oil from dollars to euros, a move that could have far-reaching repercussions for the global balance of power – potentially hurting the US dollar and economy and providing a massive boost to the euro zone. . . . "Putin's putting a big card on the table," said Youssef Ibrahim, managing director of the Strategic Energy Investment Group in Dubai and a member of the US Council on Foreign Relations, . . . "In the context of what is happening worldwide, this statement is very important" . . . A move by Russia, as the world's second largest oil exporter, to trade oil in euros, could provoke a chain reaction among other oil producers currently mulling a switch and would further boost the euro's gradually growing share of global currency reserves. That would be a huge boon to the euro zone economy and potentially catastrophic for the United States.

CHINA DUMPS DOLLARS FOR OIL AND GOLD

October 21, 2004 – Like Britain a century ago, the United States has greatly over-borrowed in an effort to control access to the world's energy supply and at the same keep its domestic economy firing on all cylinders. As competition for diminishing oil resources threatens US dollar hegemony over world oil transactions, expect to see increased Chinese political and military presence in the Middle East. The presence of Chinese PLA troops in Sudan, in our opinion, marks the middle kingdom's entrance into the Great Game. China's next move could come in the form of massive dollar devaluation when they decide to unload their supply of accumulated greenbacks. China just recently released six billion of those greenbacks for its purchase of Noranda Mining – Canada's biggest mining company. Keep your eyes open for stepped-up greenback dumping by China in exchange for natural resources such as oil-bearing properties or perhaps more mines. We predict that in the near future, Saudi princes will decide to denominate some of their oil transactions in Yuan (or at least something other than dollars) and invest their profits into shares of China Mobile or PetroChina instead of Citigroup. GLOBAL POLICE STATE AGENDA CREATED USING 9/11 AS AN EXCUSE

The Totalitarian countries have quietly introduced RFID chips in their paper currencies: Canada's new new $20 bill, the new US$20 bill, and the new Euros all contain RFID chips; if you put them in the microwave for 3 seconds you can see the chips fry! Full story: 911review.org

THE SAME PEOPLE WHO RAN THE CHINA OPIUM TRADE FOR HUNDREDS OF YEARS HAVE BEEN RUNNING THE COCAINE WAR AGAINST AMERICA

Leela Publishing, October 24, 2004: They use the same methods, the same plan, same table of organization... and are financed by the same international bankers. In the 17th, 18th and 19th centuries the China Opium Trade was financed by the Sassoon banks and associated British banks. The Sassoon bank was a Jewish bank originally based in Baghdad, which dominated Middle East banking and Egyptian and Turkish banking. The Sassoon family was heavily intermarried with the Rothschilds, Warbergs and other western Jewish international banking families. They have always resided primarily in London. As Britain expanded first to India, then to Burma, Indochina and China, the Sassoon banks followed, opening the dominant banks in each area.

The Sassoon (and associated British banks in China) did not attempt to distribute the heroin and opium in China. They merely financed and controlled the British importers, and the Chinese organized crime bosses who controlled the distribution. The distributors were Chinese organized crime gangs, called "Triads". The Triads were identical in their operations to the American organized crime gangs who have been peddling cocaine and "crack" in the American inner cities for decades. The international bankers don't dirty their hands (nor risk their necks) by getting anywhere near it, though it is their financing and "money laundering" which makes the drug trade possible. And they create the situation which provides the supply of drugs. In British India they had stimulated and controlled the production of opium and its transportation to Hong King, Shanghai and other Chinese ports. In Latin America more recently they created the violence (the 1948 "Bogotazo") which destabilized Colombia, so it could not resist the armed invasions of the drug barons. And they provided the hidden financing and money laundering facilities which were essential for the drug trade. Their hidden financial and political influence undermined the efforts of Latin politicians who tried to stop coca production and its transportation in Bolivia, Peru, Ecuador, Panama and elsewhere. (Manuel Noriega was one of those unfortunates). Those of you who have read "Barry and the Boys" (Hopsicker) and similar exposes of the drug connections to the U.S. political establishment, are aware of how the drug traffickers operate with the hidden protection of U.S. Presidents, Senators, High Officials, CIA, etc. George H. W. Bush and Bill Clinton are only a few accused of complicity in it. The repetition of similar criminal strategies, similar political abuses and manipulations, similar unnecessary wars and similar deceptions of the voters, proves the existence of a hidden conspiratorial power which uses the same proven methods against us over and again across the ages.

DID ISRAELI SECRET AGENTS KILL OVER 300 IRAQI SCIENTISTS?

By Mustafa Amara 2004-10-30 <http://207.44.245.159/article7199.htm> More than 310 Iraqi scientists are thought to have perished at the hands of Israeli secret agents in Iraq since fall of Baghdad to US troops in April 2003, a seminar held in Cairo has found. ...said they had detected an organized campaign aimed at "liquidating Iraqi scientists" in the past 18 months and most of them pointed the finger at the Israeli secret police service, the Mossad. The Ahram Center estimated that nearly 17,000 Iraqi scientists working in various fields of knowledge have fled the country since the US-led invasion. In Baghdad, interim government officials refused to comment. However, the Ministry of Higher Education and the Ministry of Science and Technology said their figures tally with those mentioned, particularly regarding the number of Iraqi scientist been killed so far. © Azzaman

DIALOGUE

An Essay By Douglas Nelson

In one recent discussion I had with a liberal friend the topic of abortion came up. His comment to me was, why should I, as a pro-constitutionalist, conservative Christian, be allowed to force my views on his lifestyle choice by making abortion illegal? Rather than polarizing the conversation with my personal beliefs, I simply asked him, in a non-confrontational way, if he thought it fair that I should be forced (at the threat of gunpoint) to pay for someone else's abortion. When he said no, I asked him in an earnest manner how he would solve the dilemma. After he got his say in, I went on to explain my views.

In another conversation, I had a black man come up to me and accuse me of being a racist. Without feeding into his diatribe with either confirmation or denial, I nicely asked him if he liked to listen to black music, and eat soul food, and live and hang out with other blacks. I then asked him if that made him a racist.

In both of the above conversations, I practiced several techniques. One is that I did not become reactionary. Nor did I make it about "me" versus "you". I did not try to convince the other person that I was right and he was wrong. And I did not accept the labels placed on me. I may not have made converts of either, but I did make them to understand me a little better. Now that they don't hate me as much and respect me a little, maybe I can set an example. What I'm trying to say is that if we want others to listen to what we have to say, we must make them first want to listen. In order to have dialogue we must first know the subject and understand why we believe or feel strongly about certain issues. To have a truthful, informed discourse requires research, not just a cursory overview. We must do more than just learn talking points. Put down the TV remote (and turn off Jerry) and go to the library. Buy a good dictionary with word history. Invest in an older encyclopedia set. Today we have been blessed with a wealth of information free for the taking (or at least at very little cost). We should take advantage of the situation and use it in a proper manner to further our cause. And let our cause be just.

YANKEES ARE BLIND TO BLUNDERING BUSH

By Eric Margolis

[While the election is over and Bush is in for four more years, Margolis' comments are certainly more appropriate than ever!]

Toronto Sun, October 17, 2004. Why do so many Americans still support George W. Bush after all those damning revelations about Iraq? That's the question I'm invariably asked when abroad. Former presidential candidate Pat Buchanan, in his superb, must-read new book, Where the Right Went Wrong, provides some answers.

"In 2003," he writes, "the U.S. invaded a country that did not threaten us, had not attacked us and did not want war with us, to disarm it of weapons we have since discovered it did not have." White House assurances that U.S. troops would be greeted in Iraq with flowers were as laughable as its pledges Mideast peace and democracy would ensue. Chief U.S. arms inspector Charles Duelfer's recent, 960-page report contradicted almost every Bush administration prewar claim about Iraq, which were used to justify an illegal war that has killed 20,000 Iraqis and more than 1,000 Americans, caused 14,000 U.S. casualties, and will soon have cost $200 billion US -- when Washington can't even supply flu vaccine. No administration official has accepted blame for this needless conflict, lying to Congress and the public, blundering into a no-win war, condoning torture, and provoking worldwide disgust at the once admired United States. Either the self-proclaimed "war president" and his men committed the worst set of blunders overseas since Vietnam, or they lied the nation into an imperial war to grab oil and boost Israel's fortunes.

Republicans don't care. Amazingly, a recent CNN/USA Today poll showed 62% of Republicans still believe Iraq was behind 9/11. This is after a flood of contrary evidence and Duelfer's report. How can Republicans remain so blinkered? Part of the fault lies with the sycophantic national media, which collaborated with the Bush administration in whipping up war fever. The media still are not telling people the truth about Iraq, Afghanistan, or the so-called war on terrorism.

The media utterly failed to remind Americans that Bush, who loves to play war leader, actually claimed Iraqi drone aircraft were poised to fly off ships in the North Atlantic and bombard America with germs. Bush should have been laughed out of office for believing and promoting this comic-book nonsense. Many Republicans simply don't see what the rest of the world does. So what if Iraq was no threat? Don't bother these golf club Rambos with details. They're delighted to see the U.S. pounding Arabs in revenge for 9/11. Bush's core Republican support lies in the suburbs and Bible-belt rural areas, where many people rely on TV sound bites for their world view, and have little understanding of history, geography or foreign affairs. This is the new "dumbed-down Republicans Party," fertile ground for nationalist hysteria, religious extremism, and anti-foreign xenophobia.

SURPLUS-TURNED-DEFICIT

Buchanan identifies the real secret of the Republican Party's current success: "Cut taxes and don't let the Democrats outspend us." No matter that Bush's policies have created millions of jobs in China instead of the U.S., or that he turned a $236-billion US surplus into a $521-billion deficit. His tax cuts and spending win elections. As the real president, v-p Dick Cheney, observed to a horrified U.S. Treasurer Paul O'Neill, "deficits don't matter." This kind of liberal-left Democrat economic voodoo used to be anathema to Republicans.

Today, there's no real conservative party left in Washington, says Buchanan. Only in tax-cutting do Republicans still hew to their principles. Otherwise, they are just like the wildest-spending liberal Democrats.

"Historically, Republicans have been the party of conservative virtues -- balanced budgets, healthy skepticism towards foreign wars, fierce resistance to the growth of government power. "No more," Buchanan says. "To win and hold office, many have sold their souls to the very devil they were baptized to do battle with." As for Bush's vow to wage unceasing war on America's enemies around the globe, Buchanan quotes President James Madison: "Of all the enemies to public liberty, war is perhaps the most to be dreaded, because it compromises and develops the germ of every other. No nation could preserve its freedom in the midst of continual warfare."
