

THE WRITING IS ON THE WALL

The worldly personality of Barry-Hussein enters the stage in the final phase of an overall scam which is unequivocally the complete economic, political, and cultural subjugation of America by those Children of Israel and their fellow travelers in the Bedouin slave-keeps—hence, marshalling the urban hordes of change to fulfill the treacherous initiatives of the previous administration. The façade of Bush conservatism formed the cover ZOG required to break the U.S. Constitution with dual legislation; had an apparent lefty been at the helm in the years following 911, certainly the Whiteman would have been far more reluctant to renounce his forefather's constitution for an undefined war on nameless terror. Our stupid public continues to be inundated with economic news and issues of foreign policy—in which it has no say whatsoever anyway—because the new administration is geared to setting America's domestic affairs in order. We all certainly recall the vehement street protests demanding the last spokesperson be hanged as a war criminal, but the reality is that George W. Bush was never in danger of facing any such thing. The masters of the left had no intention of removing an administration carrying out the objectives of ZOG. By inciting the anarchistic cry for impeachment, they furnished the fodder required by their partners on the right to rally hawkish White men to the, commander-in-chief. But all talk of Bush and Chenny being brought up for war crimes dissipated in the masturbatory lead up to November '08; being completely forgotten upon orgasm for Obama, who, once in office, conveniently ended a question that had produced countless articles, speeches, and investigations, simply by issuing an ambiguous statement.

It is no secret that on the triumph of America's first so-called African-American president, the Jews of Hollywood were caught showering themselves with great hosannas for the success of their late-nineties campaign to familiarize Americans with the idea of a Blackman in the White House. As it is the general consensus that Hollywood is the greatest propaganda machine in the history of man, every still thinking Whiteman of somewhat high-standing in this late country must view the recent terror-thriller phenomenon with grave concern. Because the producers are now familiarizing Americans with the next program of the ZOG agenda, and you can read the writing on the wall when primetime fantasy projects scenarios suitable to the Iron Heel showing U.S. soldiers in Iraq recruited by Fascist elements in the highest echelons of Corporate America to carry out stateside political assassinations while nefarious White men with shaved heads are smuggling weapons of mass destruction into American ports. The reason that the 24 character is uncovering, what Barry-Hussein—without deference to Allah—calls, “a vast and far-reaching network of violence and hatred”—behind which always seems to appear ambiguously motivated evil blue-eyes with clear plans to kill American civilians, is that great purges within the state political structure and United States Armed Forces, is definitely on the immediate horizon. Behind the intense media scrutiny of the late Bush era was a carefully suppressed storyline that will eventually be surfacing. The real threat to the last administration emanated from men with much sounder roots in America than a rotten Busch in Texas: the Bush-Chenny gang was almost put to the wall at the point of bayonets sometime in 2006; but military coups seldom move beyond preparation without gaining the support of the rank and file. Dealing as we are with the insanities of ZOG, happenings in the Entertainment World can offer news-seekers much better insight into the actual political situation in America than anything that passes for official news. Starkwood stressed the importance of its role in keeping America safe; remember that this nation was founded by private armies—we used to be invited to the Oval Office all the time... but there's a New Administration and you are the Terrorist.

When it becomes necessary for us to strengthen the strict measures of secret defense we shall arrange a simulation of disorders or some manifestation of discontents finding expression through the cooperation of good speakers. Round these speakers will assemble all those sympathetic to his utterances. This will give us the pretext for domiciliary prerequisites and surveillance on the part of our servants from among the goyim police...

The real conspiracy behind 911 is to be found in that word immigration. A progressive Clinton Administration imported the Bedouins —Bedouins did what Bedouins do—and sure enough there suddenly became a pressing need for the massive intelligence apparatus consolidating unprecedented civil authority to Washington in less than a decade. The traitor George Bush exploited the old patriotic American spirit, cajoling the citizenry into supporting what was carefully termed an on-going effort to guarantee the security and prosperity of the nation, which of course in reality meant that the Constitution would by necessity rescind during an endless and unjustified security build-up. The conservatives, of course, were all for it and immediately defended every act of repression from the un-American; and while they occasionally bitched that it's not necessarily a war, just a vast police action, they never failed to end their rants by calling attention to the fact that it's only a small minority of extremists causing all the trouble and that the majority of muslims are, just like us. They even produced the soothing opinions of good America-loving Islamists just so that everybody kept things in proper, perspective. But the people were left alone with their thoughts because the media gave all expressed opposition to the war exclusively to the obnoxious left, and nobody was able to demand explanations to the dire questions in the back of everybody's mind: how many names are on this so-called national anti-terror watch list? We're being told that there aren't yet 5 million Islamists in North America—what portion is on the list? What about the oriental costumes proliferating unchecked in our streets? Why are more and more mosques being built? Why is the media pretending that immigration is only a secondary issue? Why the hell did my grandma get frisked by a mean black bitch before boarding her plane when the man wearing a turban strolled right by? How many names on this list of terrorists are not muslims? Who is responsible for this madness? Answer: the same folks who issued student visas to ragheads reared from childhood on death to the infidel. Smartasses still cackling about remote control jets and hidden explosives simply reflect the typical American nincompoop staring at too many screens and not enough text:

"In Spain... they invite their kinsmen, the Arabs, to come over from Africa, and, not of any ill-feeling but simply because they hope to profit thereby, they betray their noble protector; under the Islamic Kalifs they then acquire gradually an even larger share in the government; "...they concentrated", their great supporter the historian Heman, writes, "the intellectual and the material powers altogether in their own hands"; the prosperous Moorish state was, it is true, thereby intellectually and materially ruined: but this was a matter of indifference to the Jews, as they had already obtained as firm a footing in the Christian state of the Spaniards which was bound to take the place of the Moorish one; "the moveable wealth of the land was here absolutely in their power; the heritable property they gradually made theirs by usury and the purchase of mortgaged estates of nobles. From the offices of Secretary of State and Minister of Finance downwards, all the offices which had to do with taxes and money were in Jewish hands. Through usury almost all of Aragon was mortgaged to them. In the cities they formed the majority of the wealthy population." Excerpt from literary persona non grata Houston Stewart Chamberlain, Foundations of the 19th Century—1899

It is interesting to note that among the North African hordes who conquered Spain in the 8th century, the Arabian Semite, though highly influential, was comparatively thin to mulattoid Berbers; similarly today, we see a numerically small Semitic element at the head of an African-Asiatic blend making up the so-called Arab communities in the West. Every time Global Media spotlights Islamic affront to American Jewry—i.e. headlining the firebombing of some defunct Synagogue in the Bronx—Jews and Saudis split the bargain on another storied Manhattan tower—because Aragon and America are interchangeable to these God damn parasites. Anybody taking the time to investigate real estate holdings in this country will quickly discover that not only are the manors of Colonial America mortgaged to Wall Street speculators—men of the same breed who erected that city of sin in the desert where the inheritance of over 400 years was squandered within a few generations—but the communities that once defined our upper middle-class are also in financial ruins. The Wasp Establishment that's alleged to be running the country is broke—with it falls America. Although it can no longer be concealed that Labor is in the process of being returned to serfdom, with every working-class family televised exiting the 'burbs, 'TV' makes certain you also see pitiful brown people being kicked out of homes they never owned in the first place. Global Media bravely reports an engineered home real-estate market collapse but refuses to divulge the obvious culprits, namely, their darlings in the ACLU, ACORN, NAACP, and the Southern Poverty Law Center. As a rule of thumb that school of subversion undermines only loosely termed systems; the government is the problem but never the working subsidiaries, unless of course, they happen to guard White interests, which unfortunately, is an oxymoron. The coming suburban vacancy question will find its solution in the depths of Central Africa, where the American Hussein shall solve unspeakable horrors in the Darfur by unleashing the problem on the American mid-west.

In our programs one-third of our subjects will keep the rest under observation from a sense of duty or the principle of volunteer service to the state. It will then be no disgrace to be an informant... Our agents will be taken from all ranks of society; in essence a police body only with the power to observe; verification will depend on a responsible group of trusted officials while the arrests will be conducted by municipal authorities or Special Forces...

The deceivers of talk radio continue to insist that Obama lacks the qualifications for office by constantly reiterating a political career which only confirms just how qualified the former Chicagoland community organizer actually is! Since the plan to enslave White America required leftist histrionics to accompany every alleged patriot act on the part of that asshole W. Bush, the actual equipping of the stateside Red army—which will be filled with a bunch of niggers and spics, by the way—was assigned to the incoming administration. Barry-Hussein is displaying his expertise in the art of political activism with great skill because while the constant call-your-congressman-and-demand-America-be-kept-safe advertisements have disappeared, the Obama camp is busy organizing volunteer, "civilian national security forces", to be, quote, "just as powerful, just as strong, and just as well-funded as the military."—with little more than a peep from that loud-mouthed how-dare-the-government-take-away-our-civil-liberties crowd. The United States Department of Homeland Security was not created to supervise an Arab-American community brought into existence by the United States Department of Immigration and Refugees. From his experience shuddering under its prototype, Solzhenitsyn describes what we can expect daily life to be like in the coming North American Union: "...you are arrested by the meter man who has come to read your electric meter. You are arrested by the bicyclist who runs into you on the street, by a railway conductor, a taxi driver, a savings bank teller, the manager of a movie theatre, anyone can arrest you, and you notice the concealed maroon-colored identification card only when it's too late." In America that card will be bright green.

By every indication new Attorney General Holder typifies the men working to keep America safe from acts of terror, or rather, eliminating any hindrance to what brother Obama is trying to get done for the New America. While it is doubtful that Eric has ever read the Koran, let alone studied it, you can bet your last dollar he's more than familiar with the complexities of America's domestic racial problems as defined by the literature of the 1960s. There is no "shift in policy" for talk radio phonies to be analyzing—it's only distraction—because this cross-breed is merely another spokesperson appointed to address what originates in the Jewish brain of his predecessor; and the same goes for little miss Napolitano now giving her ugly face to the cameras since the real work is accomplished. Two swart Michaels now unseen, remain among the most dangerous Hebrews in America—with crack Viper Squads at their disposal, ready to, quote, "quash any domestic terror threat in any region of North America within an hour". The riddle is simple: what did the Semitic tribe plundering 14 trillion dollars from the Treasury while removing the progeny of Colonial America from their homes and forcing their fair children to rut with mongrels regard as the greater threat to their operations, Semitic Islam, which their cohorts in the media so adamantly insist is a religion of peace, or a latent White Aryan Resistance struggling to safeguard regions their clansmen in Hollywood constantly portray as inhabited by a bunch of red-neck idiots counter-productive to the New America? After all, every time some stateside Asiatic screams Allah ak-bar and murders White people, DHS spokespersons automatically rule out terrorism as a motive, yet God forbid a noose happens to turn up on some tenured hybrid's doorstep. Thus Eric Holder is a suitable man to be reminding recalcitrant White men that terrorism crosses all religious and ethnic lines.

Historically, the revolutionary excrescence wrought by cultural derision has a tendency to erupt when the flower of the nation's manhood is being shredded at the front while the scum collects at home. America will be no exception to the rule. Thanks to affirmative action on the part of American Jewry, young White men are being excluded from the job market at an ever increasing rate. Caught between anger and frustration, many turn to the specious sanctity of the military. Don't buy the hocus-pocus Armed Forces ads; the moron operating the camera is bound by strict protocol to incorporate into each frame as much diversity as possible. It would almost be comical if it wasn't our tragedy that whenever he's addressing the public on any issue related to the military, Barry-Hussein appears surrounded by bitches and mongrels modeling battle fatigues. The Whiteman's Burden is the one department that will always remain immune to those unfair hiring practices. While the best of our boys—natural leaders in their own small communities—are mutilated on ZOG projects keeping oil in the desert ground, or maimed chasing opium dealers in oriental mountains, villainous darkies with court deferrals get stateside posts and access to our girlfriends. The glib Barry promised mothers that, once elected, he would, "bring home our troops", and Hussein followed through by immediately authorizing tens of thousands more Aryan sons for duty in no-man's-land. Quietly one hundred thousand more are in the process of being in-scripted... Any promise of an eventual troop pull-out is a mirage, much like the Clinton-era military cuts were supplemented by the black budget. Despite all the rhetoric, nothing has changed; it is clearly intensifying. This repulsive bastard who can never be wrong will eventually issue the draft and all those without criminal records between 17 and 35 will be forcibly removed from their homeland while all we'll get from Global Media is more make-believe about how poor Leroy from the south side of Chicago got drafted into whitey's military and now can't push crack to support a family drawing whitey's welfare anyway.

The intensification of armaments and the increase of police forces are essential for the completion of our plan. What we have to get at is that there should be in all the states of the world, besides ourselves, of course, only the masses of the proletariat, a few millionaires devoted to our interests, police and soldiers...

The simple observer makes the mistake to assume that civil unrest is a deterrent to all. No, the consequence of social upheaval lies outside the sphere of personal concern to the individual members of ZOG and the revelers in its fraternity. The Middle East is in permanent chaos with little ramification to the oil pirates flying into an airport also serving as a military base followed by a safe helicopter ride to an equally guarded palace. The rich squat on golden toilet bowls while the masses stink under the desert sun. The only difference in America will be the terrain. The tangible result of the Global War on Terror is a heightened intelligence infrastructure focused on securing the pathways of the Internationally Protected Person through our own deteriorating landscape. How many people do you know struggling just to remain in their homes are associated with that caste of vermin whose shifty eyes distinguish a Wasp from Shiite or a Kurd only by the greater mobility and potential to pose a nuisance afforded by the former?

Though it is not unwise to keep up with world events, your focus had better be here—not over there—because those frightening images you see flashing across your six o'clock screen will soon be before your naked eyes. Tragically, when the hour strikes for a true display of American patriotism, those most eager will be stuck far beyond their home frontiers, abandoned by the lies they thoughtlessly believed in. No mom can experience true pride at the fact that her boy died thousands of miles from home soldiering for ZOG, but we love every White Aryan Mother who gives her son to WAR.
