THE JUDICIAL MURDER OF JESUS – THE ULTIMATE "WHO DONE IT?" STORY By Harrell Rhome, Ph.D, S.T.D. (cand.), Ed./Pub.

This blockbuster movie was predicted to be a flop, but it already is the biggest box office draw in cinematic history. Jewish pressure groups (ADL, JDL, et al) all over the world are trying to prevent this film from being shown, but all this has accomplished is to make more and more people want to see it. Mel made the movie based on the four Gospel accounts, with some scenes enhanced through the visions of 18th century mystic, St. Anna Katerina Emmerich. After failing in their objections to the Gospel accounts, and with denouncing the film as "anti-Semitic", the "Passion Bashers" are now denouncing it for being ultra violent, but this ploy too, thankfully, has fallen on deaf ears. Without exaggerating, it may be fair to say that this is one of the most memorable pictures ever made.

But all of this begs the question of what, really, is all the controversy about? Readers of our "Revisionist Observer" newsletter and other publications know that, for decades now, Jewish groups and "liberal Christians" have proposed bowdlerizing and censoring the four Gospels, esp. the Gospel of John, esp. detested by the "chosen tribe". But why? The following lines are taken from the unfortunately now out-of-print book, Mullins' New History of the Jews (1968) and is perhaps the best answer to the question. It is presented with thanks and greatest respect to Mr. Eustace Mullins, one of the best and most informative authors to ever deal with "the Jewish question".

"THIS IS YOUR HOUR AND THE POWER OF DARKNESS."

Jesus greatly offended both the Jews of the priestly caste, the Sadducees, and the Talmudic caste. "Having spurned the Devil, Jesus now went into the towns and preached against the Synagogue of Satan, the Pharisees and scribes [lawyers] who comprised the Elders of Zion, and whose lives were devoted to evil. He said, Matthew 23:13, 'But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For ye shout up the kingdom of heaven against men; for ye neither go in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering to go in.' Jesus continued his criticism of Jewish hypocrisy, saying Matthew 23:27-28, 'Woe to you scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For ye are like unto whited sepulchers [tombs], which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness. Even so ye outwardly appear righteous unto men, but ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.' When the Elders of Zion heard that Jesus was preaching these words to the multitudes, they met and planned to kill Him. St.

John 7:1, 'After these things, Jesus walked in Galilee: for He would not walk in Jewry, because the Jews sought to kill Him.' 'The Jews sought to kill Him.' How can anyone believe that Christ was a Jew, after reading these words in the Bible? [We'll save that topic for another time, but even a cursory reading of the Gospels, especially St. John's, will likely bring you to this conclusion.] Jesus went to the Temple of the Jews, and overturned their money tables, for the Temple was merely their stock exchange, and their religion was gold. They traded before the idol of Baal, the Golden Calf. Jesus went into the Temple, and preached to the scribes and Pharisees, who were amazed at His courage. At last, the Elders of Zion could stand no more of this, and, plotting in secret, they resolved to make a complaint to the Roman ruler and to have Jesus executed.

Jesus knew that all of this was taking place, and He was praying in the Garden of Gethsemane when the soldiers came to take Him away. When He was brought before the Elders of Zion, He said, Luke 22:53, 'When I was with you in the Temple, ye stretched forth no hands against me: but this is your hour, and the power [authority] of darkness.' With these words begins the Passion of Jesus Christ, the greatest moments in the soul of man.

This is your hour, and power of darkness, He said to the Jews, and so can each of us say, in this terrible time of crisis and Jewish power, This is your hour, and the power of darkness. But the light of Christ will shine forth again, and the darkness will pass away."

[Mullins' New History Of The Jews, pp. 45-46.]

When we read these words [and there are many more in the Bible], it is easy to see why the Jewish ruling castes had to get rid of this Galilean upstart. And we can, hopefully, observe as Edgar J Steele recently said, "A vast and violent storm is rising up in the distance, a storm that will sweep away Jewish control in Western civilization as surely as it was swept away in pre-WWII Germany...and for precisely the same reasons."

SO, "WHO DONE IT"? WELL, IT'S REALLY NO MYSTERY!

To say that the Jewish powers of the day had no role in the trials and execution of Jesus is totally without merit and ignores the Gospel accounts as well as common sense. Moreover, other events in history speak to the matter, especially the Spanish Inquisition and the witch trials in Europe and early America. In both instances, the Church (Catholic and later the Protestants) is blamed, yet in both instances, the Church never actually killed anyone. Civil authorities, not the Church, carried out the jailing, torture and eventual executions. But this was never, ever considered a just ground for exonerating the Church, for it was, indeed, the ecclesiastical authorities who instigated the whole matter. Almost no one lets them off the hook. In ancient Palestine, it was essentially the same deal – the Jewish priestly caste and the Pharisaic Talmudists did not torture or execute Jesus. In old Palestine and Medieval Europe, the ecclesiastical cliques and cabals were the enablers and the perpetrators – no one, then or now, must stand in the way of their protocols of power.

But when it comes to the matter of the "chosen tribe", apparently these same conclusions must not apply. It would be "anti-Semitic" don't you know? The movie portrays the guilty parties quite clearly, and this is the main reason why it is considered "anti-Semitic" and why they are working so hard to suppress and it, a strategy that has utterly failed. (Latest est. = $250+ million gross.)

My dear, dear readers – please go see "The Passion of the Christ"! Then, read (or re-read) the Gospels and come to your own conclusion.

BRITISH JEWS WANT 'PASSION' BANNED

LONDON, Feb. 28 (UPI) -- Some British Jews have called for "The Passion of the Christ" to be banned after watching Mel Gibson's controversial film at the first British screening. Following Thursday's viewing in London, angry Jewish Britons claimed the film's sickening scenes of cruelty were anti-Semitic and likely to incite racial hatred against them, London's Sun reported. "The glorification of violence and bloodshed and reinforcement of medieval stereotyping of the Jewish people are extremely dangerous," said Neville Nagler, director general of the Jewish Board of Deputies. "It would have been better if this film had never been made," Nagler said. Leading rabbi Yitzchak Schochet was aghast after watching the film, echoing concerns about anti-Semitism already made by Jews in the United States, where the film was released Feb. 25. "The content was deplorable, filled with grotesque blood-letting," Schochet said. "The idea of the priests standing there smiling as Jesus was crucified is fatally flawed. This film should not be shown. I hope they ban it." The film officially will be released in Britain on March 26.

JEWS GROUP SAYS "PASSION" IS ACT OF TERRORISM

WASHINGTON D.C. (Capitol Press) - A prominent Jewish organization has denounced Mel Gibson's "The Passion" as an act of terrorism and can prove the movie violates the Patriot Act. Jews Against Anti-Semitism, a recently formed Washington D.C. based defense league for Jews, has issued a press release pointing out sections of U.S. law, which are being violated by Mel Gibson's film. "Clearly there are laws on the books which have outlawed the inciting of riots or acts civil disobedience which endanger human life. Mel Gibson's movie will incite violence against Jews and put the lives of million of Jews in danger" said Rabbi David Feldman, a spokes person for Jews Against Anti-Semitism. According to Rabbi Feldman "Under Section 802 of the 2001 USA Patriot Act, any crime which endangers human life is defined as an act of domestic terrorism. Mel Gibson's incitement of anti-Semitism is a civil disobedience crime which endangers human life and under the Patriot Act "The Passion" is an act of domestic terrorism". The USA Patriot Act was signed into law by President George W. Bush shortly after the September 11th terrorist attacks in New York and Washington D.C. in order to protect Americans from terrorism. "We are hereby calling on Attorney General John Ashcroft, the Dept. of Justice, Homeland Security Secretary Tom Ridge and the Dept. of Homeland Security to arrest Mel Gibson as a terrorist, confiscate all prints of "the Passion", confiscate all materials related to the film as "terrorist paraphernalia" and shut down every terrorist hate site on the internet supporting the film" said Rabbi Feldman. The Justice Dept. and the Dept. of Homeland Security have yet to respond to the inquiries made by Capitol Press regarding this story.

CHRIST WAS THE FIRST PALESTINIAN

By Yancy Ames

Was Christ the first Palestinian? That is the obvious implication of Mel Gibson's "The Passion Of The Christ" for any viewer capable of making comparisons with the present day. The high priests of World Zionism today are the same merciless thugs as in the time of Pontius Pilate. The Palestinian people are brutalized, tormented and crucified the same way that Christ was brutalized, tormented and crucified two thousand years ago. There was no fault in Jesus of Nazareth; he merely claimed to be the Saviour. There is no fault in the Palestinian Arabs; they merely oppose the creation of a Godless Caiaphas state on their land. Pontius Pilate declared that he could "find no fault in this man". His latter day imitators, their campaign coffers full of Zionist gold, classify suicide bombers as lower than the life of Barrabas, their preferred hero. Jesus of Nazareth referred to the Pharisees as "whited sepulchers, pleasing on the surface but full of iniquity and falsehood within". The world is full of "Judeo-Christians", those who preach the name of Jesus but do the bidding of Caiaphas-Sharon. His bulldozer is their crucifix.

THE PASSION by Edgar J. Steele

The Passion of Christ operates simultaneously on many different levels, therefore it isn't surprising that it draws different reports from different people. As a piece of entertainment, this film is not a movie so much as it is an experience. I didn't expect anything like the way this film took hold and refused to let go until well after the closing credits. Think about your very first roller coaster ride...now, imagine it going on for two straight hours.

"Bad trips" on LSD result from the eleven-hour forced introspection that the drug creates. Most cannot stand to look that closely at themselves, certainly not for that long. That's why Leary and company were getting complete cures of psychotics after five or six guided LSD trips, of course, before the government stepped in and outlawed the drug. Well, this movie is like being on acid for two straight hours, only the subject isn't yourself, it is Jesus Christ.

The Passion gripped me like nothing I've ever seen. Maybe it's the subject matter, which occupies such a special position in Western civilization. Surely, it must be that. Watching this movie is like watching a horrible auto accident take place in slow motion, up close and personal, right before your eyes. You want to look away, but you can't. You know how it must end, yet still you hope, somehow, some way, it will be different.

It was surreal to emerge into the glitz of a theatre lobby afterwards. A long walk down a dusty road after the credits should have been included in the price of admission. Nobody from the audience was speaking, other than in hushed tones. Everybody seemed to sense that something truly significant had just taken place.

I want to shake Mel Gibson's hand and thank him for making this very important motion picture. There is no question in my mind that this is one of the best written, directed, acted and filmed movies I have seen. The Academy Awards should be cancelled this year altogether. To have other movies jockeying for awards alongside this one, which so clearly is in a class by itself, seems obscene. Yet, I will be surprised if this film gets even a single nomination, considering who controls Hollywood.

Violent? No. Nothing like what is standard fare for America's teenagers, such as Halloween or so many other slasher movies or, even, Gladiator, the huge hit from two years ago. What insults the senses about this movie is not so much what is being done to Christ throughout, as the reality that people actually did this sort of thing to one another, let alone the Savior.

Religious propaganda? No, there is no danger of being converted during this movie.

Anti-Semitic? Only in the minds of some Jews. Only Jews could expect Gentiles to hold them responsible today for the acts of their forbears two thousand years ago. However, some of the rhetoric I have heard coming from the likes of Abraham Foxman this week is reminiscent of the impression left by The Passion's Jewish elders, I must confess. It must really be genetic. I actually had one Jew email me that, "He (Jesus) had it coming." Imagine. Why does it (everything, that is) always have to be about the Jews? The only thing Anti-Semitic about The Passion is the furor being created over it by the Jews! If only they knew when to shut up. I've said it before. Let me say it again, as the Jewish reaction to this film more than amply demonstrates: Anti-Semitism is a disease - you catch it from Jews.

It is okay, in fact it is de rigueur, for Hollywood's Jews to produce filth like The Last Temptation of Christ, a trashy piece of total fiction, yet a production like this, hewn faithfully from the four main Gospels, is somehow not acceptable. It is okay to desecrate the memory of Christ, but don't you go hinting that Jews are anything other than God's gift to the world. The real problem with Christians is a sincere belief in Jesus' admonition to turn the other cheek. The Chosen certainly have no such proscription for themselves.

See this exceptional movie. See it now in a theatre with lots of other people so that you can experience the majesty of how differently this film affects people. See it this week so that its opening week gross through Saturday night goes through the roof and sends a message to the troglodytes in Hollywood. See it by yourself first, then see it again with your children. Be there for them throughout this very disturbing film. It will hurt you to watch them experience it, but, as they say, it hurts so good.

MEL GIBSON DEFENDS FATHER OVER HOLOCAUST ACCUSATIONS

www.ananova.com/news/story/sm_862322.html?menu=news.latesthea

Mel Gibson has defended his father over claims he is a Holocaust denier. Hutton Gibson has publicly doubted that six million Jews died during the Second World War. In an interview with Reader's Digest, Braveheart star Mel said he would not hear any criticism of his father. "My dad taught me my faith and I believe what he taught me. The man never lied to me in his life," he said, when asked about Hutton's controversial comments. "He lost his mother at two years of age. He lost his father at 15. He went through the Depression. He signed up for World War Two, served his country fighting the forces of fascism. Came back, worked very hard physically, raised a family, put a roof over my head, clothed me, fed me, taught me my faith, loved me. "I love him back. So I'll slug it out, until my heart is black and blue, if anyone ever tries to hurt him." Asked directly if he believed the Holocaust happened, Gibson replied: "I have friends and parents of friends who have numbers on their arms. The guy who taught me Spanish was a Holocaust survivor. "Yes, of course. Atrocities happen. War is horrible. World War Two killed tens of millions of people. Some of them were Jews in concentration camps. In the Ukraine, several million starved to death between 1932 and 1933." In an interview with The New York Times, Hutton Gibson told a reporter he doubted the scale of the Holocaust. "Go and ask an undertaker or the guy who operates the crematorium what it takes to get rid of a dead body," he said. "It takes one litre of petrol and 20 minutes. Now, six million?" Both father and son are devout followers of the "traditionalist Catholic" faith.

TO STAND IN THE PATH OF THE SYNAGOGUE By Yancy Ames

What is the difference between the Jews screaming for Christ's blood and Ariel Sharon screaming for Arab blood? No difference at all. The average Palestinian is no more a "terrorist" than Christ was a terrorist. There is no fault in a people who simply want back the land which was stolen from them. The Palestinian attacked, threatened and harmed no one – until he was evicted and thrown into the desert. That crime was committed by the Jew – not by the Arab. The Arab did not travel to Warsaw and Vilna and proclaim his "right" to rebuild the pyramids there. The Arab did not retain the British Foreign Secretary to pronounce that an Arab "national homeland" should be created in the Jewish Pale of Settlement – provided, of course, that nothing should be done which might prejudice the "civil and religious rights of the existing non-Arab population". The Arab is as blameless as Jesus – his only sin is to stand in the way of the synagogue.

JEWISH LEADERS UPSET AFTER VIEWING 'PASSION'

By RANDY KENNEDY www.nytimes.com/

Two of the nation's most prominent Jewish leaders said yesterday that they had watched recent versions of Mel Gibson's unreleased movie "The Passion of the Christ" and found it anti-Semitic and incendiary in the way it depicted the role of the Jews in Jesus's death. One said he was angered that a scene he and other Jewish leaders had found particularly offensive remained in the version of the movie he saw, though Mr. Gibson had once said publicly he would remove it.

The leaders — Rabbi Marvin Hier, dean of the Simon Wiesenthal Center in Los Angeles, and Abraham H. Foxman, the national director of the Anti-Defamation League in New York — have been critical of the movie during the last year as scripts and versions of the film have leaked out. But until recently neither man had seen the movie because Mr. Gibson and his company, Icon Productions, had declined to provide them with a copy or to allow them into special screenings. Rabbi Hier said yesterday that he had seen a version of the movie provided to him several weeks ago by a friend, whom he would not identify. Mr. Foxman said that he saw the movie on Wednesday night, sneaking into a screening for pastors and other religious leaders held at a large church near Orlando, Fla. Mr. Gibson answered questions after the screening, Mr. Foxman said. While it is not known whether the version either man watched will be the final cut, Rabbi Hier and Mr. Foxman said they were angered and saddened that Mr. Gibson, despite his insistence that the movie is not anti-Semitic, had included many scenes that place the blame for the Crucifixion squarely on the Jews, not the Romans. Mr. Foxman said that he respected Mr. Gibson's religious convictions and believed that artistically "he is a genius," but felt that the film, at least in the version he watched, would fan anti-Semitism and would set back the dialogue between Jews and Christians by decades. "Do I think it will trigger pogroms? I don't think it will," he said. "But will it strengthen and legitimize anti-Semitic feelings? Yes, it will." Rabbi Hier said he was "horrified" by the movie, which he said depicted all Jews, except those who were Jesus's followers, as villainous, with dark beards and eyes, "like Rasputin." A spokesman for Mr. Gibson, Alan Nierob, said he would not comment on the criticisms, other than to say, "The filmmakers completely respect these gentlemen's right of freedom of expression, and expect the same in return." He said that Mr. Gibson was still working on the film and was unavailable to comment. The film is to be released nationwide on Feb. 25, which is Ash Wednesday. Mr. Foxman said that in one scene in the version he watched, the Jewish high priest Caiaphas calls down a kind of curse on the Jewish people by declaring, of the Crucifixion: "His blood be on us, and on our children." In the Gospel of St. Matthew, Chapter 27, Verse 25, the only place in the Bible in which that statement appears, it is said to come from a crowd of Jews shouting for Jesus's death. The message of that passage, that the Jew people were guilty of deicide, was repudiated by the Second Vatican Council. Mr. Gibson practices a traditionalist form of Roman Catholicism that does not recognize the changes of Vatican II. In an article in The New Yorker last year, Mr. Gibson said he had decided, with some regrets, to cut the scene in which the high priest makes the statement. If he had left it in, he told the magazine, critics of his depiction of the Jews would "be coming after me at my house; they'd come to kill me."

But in the version of the movie that Mr. Foxman saw, a version that is also being screened for specially selected audiences in Chicago and Dallas, the scene remained. Rabbi Hier said the scene was not in the version he saw several weeks ago. Rabbi James Rudin, senior inter-religious adviser for the American Jewish Committee, saw the movie in August in Houston at a screening for Jewish and Christian leaders, and then saw it again on Wednesday, when he openly attended the screening near Orlando, at Calvary Assembly in Winter Park. He said it was "highly disturbing" to discover that the scene depicting the verse from Matthew, which was not in the version he saw in August, had been re-inserted. He said that even the most noxious Passion plays omit that verse, which he called "the religious taproot for what has become the blood libel, and collective guilt and the charge of deicide against the Jews." Mr. Nierob said that the film was being edited and that he did not know if the version being screened for large groups around the country was close to the final version or whether the scene involving the high priest would be kept. The movie's distributor, Newmarket Films, says it plans an initial release on 2,000 screens and has called the flood of ticket requests "a tsunami." Mr. Foxman said that at the Winter Park screening audience members were asked to sign an agreement that, according to a copy he read to a reporter over the telephone, required them to keep confidential their "exposure, knowledge and opinions of the film" and of a question-and-answer session with Mr. Gibson. But the agreement, as read by Mr. Foxman, added that "pastors and church leaders are free to speak out in support of the movie and your opinions resulting from today's exposure to this project and its producer." Foxman said he did not sign the agreement. He said he had initially felt bad about sneaking into the showing, but later changed his mind. "I decided yesterday, 'Why am I uncomfortable? Let him be uncomfortable,'" he said, referring to Mr. Gibson. "For him to say, 'You can only see it if you love it?' I felt it was my moral duty to see it."

CHRIST AND "THE JEWS" - MODERN-DAY

REPLAY? NEWSFLASH - www.MiddleEast.Org - Washington - 14 November 2003:

Increasingly uptight over the battle with Mel Gibson over his Christ film, American Jewish groups are 'reassessing', realizing first that they are losing and second that they have in fact helped assure Gibson a much larger audience for his upcoming movie at the worldwide box office. Now let's hope just maybe some of the more courageous and reasonable Jewish leaders are thinking...hmmm...if only Abe Foxman, the ADL's top attack dog, could be finally tripped up and pushed out rather than others being sacrificed up...maybe then some good could come of all this! Just as George Soros finally said in public last week, the Israelis and the Jews themselves are creating much of today's "anti-Semitism" (i.e. "anti-Jewishness for cause").

This is getting a little too reminiscent for comfort of times past -- all the way from the Jewish leadership in Jerusalem at the time of Roman rule and Christ's crucifixion; to the European Pale, the Dreyfus trial, and Herzl's birth of 'Zionism' to finally make the Jews a 'normal' people. Herzl's "Jewish State" bears little resemblance to modern-day Israel/Palestine -- surely he would be aghast. And with General Sharon commanding the Jewish forces world Jewry bears little resemblance to what those who set up the major international Jewish institutions -- Nahum Goldman, David Ben-Gurion, and Philip Klutznick -- had in mind. Surely they too would be aghast.

There might even be some further courageous souls who might start pointing out that the whole mess the U.S. is now in from Iraq to Afghanistan to Saudi Arabia to Palestine...the whole 'Clash of Civilizations' and all the still-growing hatred for the U.S....can be traced back to Israeli policies, the Israeli-Jewish lobby, the top owners of the complacent and complicitous international media, and the interconnected effect of all on the policies and attitudes of the United States Government. Earlier this week an al-Qaida leader was quoted threatening that 100,000 Americans will soon die in a 'spectacular operation'. Daily now...sometimes hourly...Americans are dying. And the vast American reservoir of resources and goodwill is fast depleting; American society itself being seriously undermined for the future. When will the cry be raised "Who Lost the Middle East?"; and maybe another cry as well, "Who Did This To America?"

YOUR "CHOICE" FOR OUR NEXT PRESIDENT - SKULL AND BONES BUSH OR... SKULL AND BONES KERRY?

It's looking like the Democrat Party will have Sen. John Kerry as its nominee. Sen. Kerry has recently "discovered" that he is of Jewish descent. Additionally, he is also a "lodge brother" to GWB in Skull and Bones Society. Our readers will recall that G.W. Bush, along with his father, are members of this American branch of the Illuminati. Among other things, the initiation includes lying in a casket and masturbating (or having sex; it is unclear), sharing your life history of sexual experiences with your "brothers". A photo (the date appears to be 1982) now circulating on Internet shows a younger Kerry having a friendly chat at a fundraiser with the infamous founder of the Church of Satan, Anton La Vey. (Perhaps he should be called "Anton Oi Vey" as he too is a crypto-Jew.)

Draw your own conclusions.

PLEASE, ALLOW ME TO INTRODUCE MYSELF: Anton La Vey, high priest of the Church of Satan, meets with noted attorney John Kerry at CISPES function

Fundraiser: Strange Bedfellows

(Fundraiser from B-1)

Among the notables was congressman John Kerry, a former Massachusetts district attorney, who was in town for a fundraiser sponsored by CISPES. The flamboyant La Vey, who has never shunned the company of celebrities, obviously relished the opportunity to have himself photographed with Kerry, who gained fame for spearheading the Missionary not his first encounter with the noted attorney.

For his part, Kerry averred simply that he supported all forms of religious freedom. "I believe that God is within each of us, that each individual possesses of divinity." In response, La Vey pronounced this position congruent with the spirit of "true Satanism." Pressed for further details about his own theology, La Vey insisted: "We believe in neither God nor the Devil. We believe in the power of the human mind."

WILL THE NEXT PRESIDENT BE A REPUBLOCRAAT OR A DEMICAN?

By Mark Franklin Exclusive to The Eagle Newsletter

When you flip a coin in the air, it always lands up as heads or tails. But, despite on which side it lands, it's still the same old coin. Such is our "choice" for President: In essence, we have no choice. It's just that same old coin being flipped in the air. Indeed, the President is chosen for us by special interest plutocrats, who will do whatever it takes to see that their little puppet continues to do their bidding--that they continue to pull the strings. So go ahead and vote for the Republocrats or Demicans. And let the charade continue. Or tell AIPAC and its stooges to leave this country, the USA.

MOST EUROPEANS VIEW ISRAEL AS BIGGEST OBSTACLE TO WORLD PEACE

EUOBSERVER / BRUSSELS - Over half of Europeans think that Israel now presents the biggest threat to world peace according to a controversial poll requested by the European Commission. According to the same survey, Europeans believe the United States contributes the most to world instability along with Afghanistan, Iran, Iraq and North Korea. The specially commissioned poll which asked citizens 15 questions on "the reconstruction of Iraq, the conflict in the Middle East and World peace"; has caused controversy in Brussels.

The European Commission is coming under fire for publishing the results of a number of questions - relating to Iraqi reconstruction - while failing to publish the results which revealed the extent of mistrust of Israel and the United States in Europe. A Commission spokesperson today (30 October) denied that the decision to withhold some of the results until next Monday was politically motivated, adding that some of the results not yet published are still "unstable". He did, however, add that a decision was made to publish a preview of the questions pertaining to the reconstruction of Iraq, to coincide with the Iraqi donors conference in Madrid, which took place at the end of last week. This admission has raised questions about whether the Commission sought to suppress the results that would have come at a particularly sensitive moment. One pollster involved in the survey told the EUobserver that some questions being raised about the poll were unfounded. "The questions were decided upon by both the polling organisations and the European Commission", the source said.

Israeli officials dismissed the results of the poll as propaganda. According to El Pais, a massive 59 percent of Europeans said they believed that Israel is the biggest obstacle to world peace. The poll, conducted by Taylor Nelson Sofres/ EOS Gallup Europe, was conducted between 8 and 16 of October.

"NOT-FOR-PROFIT" ADL PAYS BIG BUCKS SALARY FOR HEADMAN ABE FOXMAN

According to statements filed to continue their tax-exempt status, obtained through open records laws, the ADL - Anti-Defamation League, better known to us as the "Ashkenazi Disinformation League, pays old Foxy Abe in excess of $357,000 per year. Since he led the charge against Mel Gibson's movie, a series of inept moves that has, so far, done little other than shoot themselves in the foot by drawing more attention to the project than it probably would have ever received otherwise, perhaps he won't get a raise this year. Yeah, right!!!! Abe's inspiring visage is below.

1984 IS HERE, BUT 20 YEARS LATE!

By Cushman Cunningham

[Leela Publishing. Company. 2004] The United States is being herded towards 100 years of war against the whole world. Two items this past week make absolutely clear that the Bush government is determined to plunge the U.S. into an endless World War III. They closed the door on an alliance with the majority Shiites in Iraq and on free Iraq elections, stating their determination to impose the Israeli-controlled "Governing Council" on Iraq. The Shiites, who heretofore have been neutral, or at least non-combatants against the Anglo-American invaders, will now take up arms against us. The Middle East will become a major battleground. Russia and the Islamic world will come in against us, as will eventually also Europe, China, Japan. The Bush administration knows that. That is why the administration is preparing to reinstate the wartime draft... to call up our young people for a major war. Pending legislation S89 and HR163 would provide for starting to draft men in Spring 2005... just after the 2004 elections. We have no use for a large standing army to combat "terrorism". How would a massive army stop something like 9/11? Or any other type of suicide bomber? No. That draft is intended to beef up our army for a large war, a world war. And that is precisely what the administration is provoking by provoking the Shiites, who have been trying to be our friends. This will be a war made in Israel.

DID THEY REALLY SAY THAT?

"I don't know something called International Principles. I vow that I'll burn every Palestinian child (that) will be born in this area. The Palestinian woman and child is more dangerous than the man, because the Palestinian child's existence infers that generations will go on, but the man causes limited danger. I vow that if I was just an Israeli civilian and I met a Palestinian I would burn him and I would make him suffer before killing him. With one hit I've killed 750 Palestinians (in Rafah in 1956). I wanted to encourage my soldiers by raping Arabic girls as the Palestinian women is a slave for Jews, and we do whatever we want to her and nobody tells us what we shall do but we tell others what they shall do." [Ariel Sharon, current Prime Minister, In an interview with General Ouze Merham, 1956]

"DROWN PALESTINIAN PRISONERS IN DEAD SEA"

Another interesting quote, this one from 'Israel's' Minister of Transportation, Avigdo ["Boxcar"] Lieberman:

[Jerusalem Post, July 7, 2003] Transport Minister Avigdor Lieberman clashed with Arab MKs in the Knesset on Monday, following up his remark to the cabinet on drowning Palestinian prisoners in the Dead Sea by telling Balad MK Jamal Zhalka that he would have him "sent to prison." "You are much worse than [Yasser] Arafat or Abu Mazen. If it was up to me, you would be sitting in prison at the least," Lieberman told Zhalka while appearing before the Knesset to report on traffic accidents.

RETIRED U.S. GENERAL CAN NOW SPEAK

"I've never seen a President -- I don't care who he is -- stand up to [the Jews] ... They always get what they want. The Israelis know what is going on all the time. I got to the point where I wouldn't write anything down. If the American people understood what a grip these people have got on our government, they would rise up in arms." INTERVIEW OF NUMEROLOGY

By Eric Thomson

"NEWS II" Your Nation

A great mathematician, pointed out that logic: that 2 x 2 is another way of saying 4. Numbers are symbols, not substance, just as a menu is not a meal. Words are not intrinsic value and, just like numbers, describe things which we see, hear, taste, and numbers can also be used to mislead owners, and can even be valued beyond reality, until the latter hits one in the face. In science, formulas are usually derived after the fact. First, they are descriptive, then predictive. Aryan science, as opposed to Jewish science, relies on observation. There are no a priori mandates as to the results of chemical and physical reactions, for reality remains more or less outside the parameters of our verbal and numerical descriptions. People have been misled by numerical projections, such as the absurdities that "bumblebees can't fly" (their wing area is insufficient for their body size and weight!) and "dragsters cannot exceed the coefficient of friction; so their acceleration is fixed at a certain maximum" (the 'good old boys' in the garage invented racing-slicks and broke the engineers' slide-rules). Words and numbers can serve like the pressure gauge on a boiler, to describe the reality inside the vessel. Too often, people make the mistake of attempting to raise or lower the boiler pressure by manipulating the gauge, instead of tending to the fire. An obvious example is the reduction of zeros on a country's inflated currency, without correcting the socioeconomic malaise which caused the inflation. Soon, the zeros return. Words and numbers have power only to the extent that they can influence human actions. If I write a check for $1 and I ask you to perform some task for me, you would likely refuse, but if I add one or two zeros behind the $1, the number would likely affect your behavior. If I were to write you a check for a trillion-trillion dollars, however, you would be wise to refuse my job offer, for the numbers are no longer descriptive of reality. Moreover, you would conclude that I was nuts. That would be a commendable use of your critical faculties and it is tragic that more people do not use these faculties in their daily lives. Millions accept the existence of a Big Sky Jew and shower shekels on any huckster who claims to be his spokesman. None of them ever ask themselves why the Big Sky Jew chooses to talk to a trumped-up used car salesman, instead of the multitudes. Why must Yahweh use a mouthpiece? Is he shy? Has he lost his voice? How does the showering of shekels on a holy huckster benefit The Jew Who Has Everything? There are many more such questions, but the real question is why do the people not use their minds?

Words and numbers can be used to build fantastic philosophical constructs and equally fantastic universes and they can even influence madmen to attempt to subordinate Nature to these imaginary designs. Many are the victims of these madmen: the great forests and members of the animal kingdom, of which Man is a part. We see the squalor and destruction wrought by such Jewish myths as capitalism, communism, Christianity, Judaism, Zionism and Islam, even in areas predominantly populated by Aryans. Why are all things Jewish so contrary to Nature? Aryans know there is no sense in opposing Man, who is part of Nature, to Nature. But this is the Mark of the Jew who always seeks to "conquer" or even to "destroy" Nature with his unnatural formulae and abstractions. This reveals to us the Jewish nature of such cabalistic concepts as "numerology" or number magic. A Chinese sage was supposedly asked why he did not participate in the rallying of a city's populace against the enemy who besieged it. He replied that there was no point in fighting the enemy outside the city, for the enemy was already inside! One would infer that the rulers of the city were as much vicious tyrants as the enemy, so there was no point in fighting, unless the vicious tyranny within the city's gates could also be defeated. The warning here is to take care that we do not become our enemy when we seek to fight him. There is nothing to be gained by seeking to become Jews in order to defeat Jews. Remember that the most formidable of our Jewish opponents are the Khazars or Ashkenazim who adopted Judaism around 700 A.D. Although they are not Semites, they adopted the most virulent Semite religion. Look what it has done to them and to us! Christianity is the variant of Judaism adopted by Aryans. Christianity is merely a glove which awaits the intrusion of a Jewish hand in order to strangle what is left of Our Race and some ostensible Aryans would like to become Jews! Not only do they immerse themselves in the Old Testament parts of the Jew-book, but they descend into talmudic cabalism combined with Egyptian hocus-pocus. Can one advance the Aryan Cause by stooping so low? Wise men know that a means can thwart the ends one seeks and I am fully aware that no Aryan should attempt to become a Jew, for that is exactly what has brought us down to this miserable present.

Aryans must return to their roots, to the best that is still within them. We must cast off alien cults and customs in order to become whole, as we were before we succumbed to the criminal hucksters of Christianity. We did not appreciate the value of what we gave away so carelessly, just as Aryans often race-mix, because they take their Aryan qualities for granted.

In order to regain our natural, Aryan selves, we must learn from Nature. We need to reintegrate our minds with the sea, the sky, the fields and forests. From such sources do we receive our strength and our inspiration. We must rediscover our kinship with our fellow creatures, for they have much to teach us. In this way we can learn our place in Nature, for we have been displaced from reality by means of a Jew-I.O.U. which promises a Pie in the Sky in the Sweet By and By.

Our Race is under an evil spell which threatens our being. The essence of this spell is our own wish to be non-Aryans. Each one of us can break the spell by throwing out that which does not belong to us: Jewish books are for the Jews, and Jew messiahs, too, so if you're not of Jewish blood, what good are they to you? ORION! Our Race is Our Nation.

TV AND THE "WISE MEN" OF TEL AVIV

By Yancy Ames

Pat Robertson's 700 Club is the quintessence of Judeo-Protestantism. He never misses a chance to bewail European anti-Semitism without, however, considering the well justified reasons for that anti-Semitism. Robertson will, of course, endlessly recite that well-known Biblical passage which says "I will bless them that bless thee and curse them that curse thee". It therefore follows that Jew worship is ordained by the "Holy Bible". Perhaps Pat Robertson should go see Mel Gibson's new film. Then Patrick can learn how the Jews made Pontius Pilate nail Jesus to a crucifix. Blessing the Jews would seem to be equivalent to blessing those who nailed Christ to the cross. As a "Judeo-Christian" Pat Robertson would never buy that. Pat will blab all day about how a fetus should be allowed to descend from its mother's womb, but let the truth about the crucifixion ascend to the silver screen and Pat will supinely bow to the "Three Wise Men" from Tel Aviv.

AMERICAN KARMA & THE RIVER OF TEARS

by Bill Morgan prema@prahlad.org

One shudders to think of the terrible karma America is reaping throughout the world as a result of its actions. "Karma" is a Sanskrit word which simply means "action," but it carries with it the implications of the Biblical phrase, "As you sow, so shall you reap." In other words: the consequences of your actions will come back to haunt you. The "new" America is now a rogue nation, considered by increasing numbers of people around the world to be one of the greatest threats to world peace. It is gradually taking over the place once held by the former Soviet Union as the world's greatest "Evil Empire." It destroys lives all around the world, [continued on page 8, column one] destroys what people had built up, their homes, their institutions, the infrastructure on which they depend. It kills the sons of mothers whose grief shall know no end.

Said one Iraqi mother whose son was recently murdered by the Americans: "Those soldiers have turned everything America has ever stood for into one big lie." This is the reaping of what America has sown, and it is the just result of America's actions. Her 19 year old son, Zaydun Al-Samarrai, was murdered by American soldiers on January 3, 2004.

ISRAEL CLAIMS 'LOST PROPERTY' IN ARAB COUNTRIES

GAZA CITY, August 17 (IslamOnline.net & News Agencies) – In a bid seen as trying to get a bigger slice of the grand Iraqi cake, Israel has drawn up a file on Jewish property and money allegedly left by Jewish immigrants in Arab countries, particularly Iraq. The Israeli justice ministry spokesman said that the government would ask Jews in Israel and all over the world within the few coming days to present information on their purported belongings in Iraq, the Palestinian Information Center (PIC) said Saturday, August 16. Israeli sources put at $10 billion the value of the so-called Jewish property in Iraq alone, noting that Israel expects the would-be Iraqi oil minister return this money calmly and without any media fuss.
