

28 SEP 02. Dear Phil: Many thanks for yours of 9/25 and the interesting enclosures. It strikes me that these Ostensible White female schoolteachers are smitten by mud-brats, the uglier, the better. The mud-lover LeTorneau fell for a critter from Samoa that would make a Gargoyle look handsome, and has had two mudlettes from him. I note the emphasis on the myth of 'sexual equality' in which women who give sex to young men of child-producing age are deemed 'criminals'. I can see the logic in the case of a male teacher who seduces a female student of child-bearing age, although that law may fall into disuse since the mud majority do not view statutory rape as a crime. Rape, however, is a male or lesbian prerogative, since the rapee may be unwilling. In normal heterosexuality (which is 'evil' unless multi-racial, according to ZOG) the rape of a male is impossible, for the male must be willing and able to perform. A teenage male can only dream of sex with good-looking females, even if one may be his teacher. I would have appreciated such a lesson from a knowledgeable and attractive woman when I was in my early teens, and I would have had the good sense to keep my mouth shut about it. Males are different from females, even if the ZOG pretends there is no difference.

You have reinforced my information on the U.S. rent-wage squeeze, in which a person earning minimum wage cannot afford to live in his own apartment. The wages go down and the rents go up. What can be the reason? It is obvious, we are subsidizing non-workers with our tax money. That is also why the population increases, along with unemployment. I'll pass it on. That was a good article revealing local zoglings voting to increase their own salaries, at public expense. Are their 'services' so valuable? I think not.

I forgot to thank you for the postage stamps. They allow me to send First Class letters on week ends, when the Post Office is closed, which helps me keep up with my correspondence. Many thanks!

As you say, Rough Times are here in "The Great White Hopeland", which is swarming with "Indians" of the ugliest variety. If we go back far enough, we might find out that the Chinese deported them all because they couldn't stand to look at them: "You now choose from column one or column two: you leave or you die!" Those who could emigrated, and now infest North America. No wonder the "Indian" greeting is "How" and "Ugh!" That is Injun English for "How ugly!"

The latest racial research reveals that so-called American Indians are mestizos, that is, Eurasians, and they were so in pre-Columbian times, long before 1492. Kennewick Man reveals a predominantly Caucasian heritage, with a dash of Asian, just as the predominantly Asian "Indian" reveals a dash of White ancestry. The "Indians" themselves have a "White God" tradition on both continents of the Western Hemisphere, so Whites appear to have lived in the Americas, before or simultaneously, with the Amerasians. Were all things to remain equal, as theoreticians say, the population of the Western Hemisphere would resemble that of pre-Columbian times as the majority Asian population reabsorbs the genes of the White Remnant. A new Aztec or Inca Empire may arise, and Whites will once again become creatures of myth and legend. I do not anticipate such a gradual change, but if Whites cannot defend themselves and their living space, then the demography of North America will indeed become pre-Columbian, with Asian predominance.

Yes, the demographic situation is serious, but not hopeless, whereas the blightwing situation is hopeless, but not serious. There is the distinct possibility that those you mention are ZOG-agents, who may be using their alleged rivalries as 'cover'. On balance, their track record reveals that they have not helped Our Race one iota in all their years of 'activism'.

In regard to Pierce, my assessment that he was a publisher, and not a political leader, is merely confirmed by the blightwing-style break up of his so-called "National Alliance". The 1st job of a real leader is to scout for a good successor and to establish a chain of command, so that his ship can remain on course, without him. As you point out, Pierce wasn't even a good businessman, for it seems that the most obnoxious of his cronies are carrying away the pieces of his former business. Even Enron has an order of succession, but not the blightwing! DOWZ! & ORION!

P.S.: Roper reported that the NA's "friend", Pierce, snitched to the yids about the time and place of an NA demo (to get publicity), so his NA supporters got ambushed. The proper name for NA would have been "The ADL-Alliance". Good riddance to bad rubbish!
