

6 FEB 05. Dear Paul: Many thanks for your great idea! There is no doubt in my mind that all those who grew wealthy under the ZOG are creatures of the ZOG. My suggestion is that your ballot initiative include ALL LEGAL PERSONS, which would be the tax-exempt foundations & trusts used by the rich to keep their ill-gotten gains. Bush & Company seem to favor the few fatcat felons in his taxation policies, & devil take those who 'merely' earn $100,000 or less per year! That's why it would have to be an initiative, followed by a referendum by the voters.

As I recall, back in the late 1970s, a fellow named Maurice Palmer filed a civil suit on behalf of people who pay the kosher taxes on food & food-related items like aluminum foil, dishwashing detergent, cleanser, &c. His attorney, Fusillier, betrayed him at the last minute by not showing up for the trial & the jew lawyers laughed Palmer out of court. Fusillier later ran for Sheriff of L.A. County, a political plum job at that time, with a very well-funded campaign, but he lost. That sounded like a quid pro quo to me. Later, Fusillier 'defended' Willis Carto in the Mermelstein case of 'breach of contract', in which the judge took "judicial notice" that the "Holocaust" was a fact. Such a deal! When Carto thinks he is clever, he is usually screwed by the jews who are at least as clever, but much more powerful. As we know, 'might makes right', especially in ZOG courts.

A voter initiative taking on the illegal kosher tax racket would be a better option, at least for the publicity it would generate.

As you noted on the NOCAT download, technology may prove to be Whites' savior. We might call it our 'deus ex machina'. Ha! In this case, the Internet would be the ideal vehicle for promoting such voter initiatives. You should also have your text in Spanish, as well as English. The propaganda & publicity accompanying the exposure of the issues is a brilliant way of getting one's message to the public, & the voters. Obviously, those who earn more from their society should pay more to support the source of their wealth. That sounds fair to me. As you say, it's worthwhile doing in any case.

My advice is to go for it, with the widest possible publicity on the Internet. If I have any more ideas, I'll let you know, but that's all I can think of now. Congratulations!

All the best, as always & ORION!

Eric

P.S.: You should contact La Voz de Aztlan on this matter. They could even translate the text of your initiative into Spanish. This is why I try to promote The Anti-Zionist Alliance, in which all peoples can collaborate to zap the ZOG. I don't see why hispanic voters would reject your plan. They may be the foremost ones to support it. La Voz is on the Internet.
