

12 April 05. Dear Brian: Many thanks for your latest, greatest mailing! Pretty soon we can start referring to "Darkest Europe". I believe that Thomas Jefferson must have been imbibing some quality moonshine when he wrote that "the equal treatment of unequals is the worst of inequality!" Well, the more we ignore Nature, including racial facts, the bigger our problems therefrom will become, much like ignoring gravity. I'm enclosing a download which you may have read, entitled "Preparing for World War III". I believe that it is relevant to current events, since the U.S.A. has used Islam against Europe, & Europe may use China against the U.S.A. Tit for tat! Obviously, neither EuroZOG nor US-ZOG have White interests at heart! National definitions have become quite kosher, since the Jew Boas taught that Nation = Location in regard to Goyim, but Nation = People in regard to Jews. The English Nation was mostly comprised of English people, just as Ireland was populated by Irish people. Now anyone can be "English" if he is born there or has the proper passport. I hope Ireland does not join this lemming rush to national suicide. It would be great if we could find out who finances your race-traitors in Ireland.

Thanks for the beautiful pictures of Rosa Luxemburg et al. No matter how they are taken, she makes The Wicked Witches of The Wizard of Oz resemble beauty queens! Several thinkers have pondered the philosophical question: Are Jews mean because they are ugly, or are they ugly because they are mean? One sage remarked, "Isn't being mean & ugly enough to know?" The correlation is sufficient without the possible causal relationship. How nice of FrancoZOG to deliver such 'nostalgia' to your door, at tax-payers' expense! Here, it's Martin Lucifer Koon. One fellow said that he celebrates MLK's birthday, but he calls it "James Earl Ray Day". I can relate to that. The Mexican invaders of former California alias Mexifornia do not see why they should celebrate a Black Commie's birthday when they have their own commie hero, Cesar Chavez. As I understand, the former Black "ghettos" of Los Angeles are now "barrios". Yakima is Los Angeles in microcosm, so it is no surprise that the Black neighborhood is now brown. It's like being back in Mexico, right here in the state of Washington. Now I can listen to the Afro-DVD. If not, I'll see who can, along with your instructions to duplicate it. Thanks for the 'cultural' experience! It sure saves airfare.

Back in 1964, I arrived in Paris with visions of "The Artists' Life", not that I was an artist, but there were post-World War I images derived from my reading of Hemingway, Pound, Joyce et al. I thought I might be able to teach English & thereby learn French, but I soon discovered that this was the ambition of EVERY foreigner I met in Paris! After a tour of Europe, I wound up working in Barcelona, "The Poor Man's Paris". The only reason I left was my desire to see more of the world, so I saved up my pesetas & embarked for The Middle East & then, India. In Barcelona I met an American who aspired to become Hemingway. Since he could not write very well, he decided to duplicate Hemingway's alleged consumption of alcohol without regard for his brave & long-suffering wife, who had the good sense to leave him before he outdid his hero's drinking record. I did manage to practice some fractured French when I sold Spanish pullovers in the Arab quarter of Marseilles before I returned to Spain on the night steamer to Ibiza, thence back to Barcelona. Since I was on a tourist visa, I had to leave Spain every 3 months.

I note from your letter that the French no longer seem to be very interested in 'policing' foreign languages in defence of French, or maybe that was in Quebec. The sign showing Black Africa superimposed upon White Europe is very descriptive. I'm sorry to read that French cities are becoming so dangerous, largely because of the Arab invaders, occupiers & colonists. In the blightwing/White Nationalist circles, those with dough don't do & those who do don't have dough. It was the same when I was in Rhodesia, & it is the same in this Land of ZOG. All the best, as always. ORION!

Eric

HITLER SAVED EUROPE FROM STALIN, BUT HE COULD NOT SAVE EUROPE FROM HERSELF!