

14 MAY 05. Hail D.R.! At last, I can reply to yours of 22 April & your enclosures.

Yes, the woods convey the message of the Germanic Gods far better than any Christian 'translations' of the purported Eddas, although I do not discount them. When we feel our oneness with Nature & the Universe, we become saner & stronger. As with Atlas, we draw our strength from the natural earth, & we recharge our physical & spiritual batteries thereby. We can remember that the Jew, "Karl Marx", described Nature as "a wet place, with birds." Savitri Devi characterised all Jew-cults as opposing Man to Nature. That's the rule of thumb which I go by. Christianity, capitalism & communism all oppose Man to Nature, as is obvious, & all are of Jewish origin. No, you are not 'escaping', you are energizing for the struggle ahead. As you say, your love of the woods may be essential to your survival when the cities erupt. The coming changes will require us to be swift & adaptable, so we should hone our animal instincts accordingly. Your present disgust with the Judeo-American ratrace & its denizens reminds me why I left the U.S.A. to experience something different & to develop a lifestyle suitable to my instincts, especially my personal freedom, in which I had no one to answer to, save myself. I decided that my means were limited, so I did not waste my time acquiring things, but doing things. On reflection, I chose the wiser course. I see others whom Henry David Thoreau described as "working themselves sick to save up for a stay in hospital." So it was that I avoided such folly by good fortune & good judgement.

Re Bush: One writer defined his appeal as follows: he panders to the Armageddonist fanatics as well as the capitalist criminals who screw the future on behalf of present profits. All his supporters believe that "there's no tomorrow." One fellow said that we have a huge job ahead of us to 'restore' the U.S.A. I said that was as possible as restoring the Roman Empire. Sorry, the train has left the station. We might just as well raise the Titanic while we're at it. Ha! The Jewmedia convey The Theater of the Absurd in regard to the U.S. border issue. Half the speakers talk as if there were no law for the enforcement of border control. The reality is that there is a law, but the ZOG does not choose to enforce it. The Freemasons claim that "we have a government of laws, not of men", but it takes men to enforce the laws, so there is no substitute for human quality, regardless of Freemasonic blather about "liberty, equality & fraternity". That's just more rubbish for the rubes to consume. When I step back from the milling mob, I can readily see that the U.S. system was designed to deal with people who are very stupid &/or very cowardly. That's why it has worked so long. As a preacher-for-profit once said, "Sheep are meant to be fleeced." Baah!

Hey, if you can make it out this way, I'd enjoy showing you around Yakima, the Bulawayo of Central Washington, such as it is. That way, you'd save a trip to Mexico & you could experience Harold's Great White Hopeland of the NW. Such a deal! Do not be confused by the sign on the highway which states that Yakima is "the Palm Springs of Central Washington". I asked a local politico why we could not get Palm Springs to declare it to be "the Yakima of central California". He said we were already twinned with some town in Michoacan, Mexico. The Spanish conquistadores never discovered The Fountain of Youth, but it was Michoacan where they discovered The Fountain of Ugliness. That is easily proved!

Yes, it could be that a Black pope is on the horizon. One lesbo-nun depicted Jesus as a Black female, so it would not be surprising. The mestizos say that one of them should be pope. As Bush would say, "Bring it on!" Christianity was never a White man's religion, so it's time to remove the mask, as was done to the Jew-like aliens in "They Live". What the White dopes & dupes will do then is anybody's guess. They may be too Jew-dazed to save themselves. Stay tuned!
