

15 MAY 05. Dear Tom: Please pardon the delay in my reply to your letters of 27 December 04, 16 Feb. 05, 24 Feb. 05, 16 & 18 April 05. I recently returned to Brownest Yakima from my required job as house-sitter in Kennewick, WA. This is an unfortunate obligation which I have incurred, & it does interrupt my correspondence. Yes, I recall that scene in "Dr. Zhivago" in which the White Russian boys walk into the Red machinegun fire. Too bad they had not learned better infantry tactics, but remember how long it took the Western Front troops to learn that brave soldiers are not bulletproof. A much better version of The (kosher) Russian Revolution is called "Nicholas & Alexandra". I recommend that over "Dr. Zhivago", which is about as 'historical' as "Gone with the Wind" re the U.S. Civil War. The film, "Nicholas & Alexandra" teaches us that Russia could not afford long wars, for large military call ups depleted the peasants necessary for producing crops & lack of peasants meant food shortages, which led to civil unrest & bolshevik attempts at revolution. Tsarist Russia was unprepared to fight a modern war of the World War I period, for its transportation & production facilities were sparse, compared to those of Germany. In brief, war produced Lenin's "objective conditions for revolution". As you say, the jews have an infinite number of lies to excuse their depredations, but we are fools to believe any of them. So many Christians, but so few who heed Jesus' words about the jew-liars. Poor, dumb sheeple!

I saw kosher versions on TV of Ruby Ridge, The Waco Massacre & the Murrah Bldg. The U.S. government did not come out looking very good, even with the editing out of federal fire-bombers who turned the Koresh compound into a holocaust. I'm sure Janet Reno did it TO the children to serve as a lesson to separatists. I saw another feature on the "Move" firebombing by Philadelphia police which destroyed an entire block of apartment buildings. The ZOG favors firebombing its perceived enemies, whom it then shoots as they attempt to escape the flames. These tactics should be remembered for future reference.

I agree that the U.S.A. is a banana republic, even if it must import its bananas. The rampant corruption in the police & armed forces sure resembles that of Mexico! Well, with all those hispanic names, that is no wonder. On TV I noticed that the governor of Arizona has a Mexican flag in her office. No wonder she wants open borders! I also saw a large menorah on display in Bolton's office, so we may see lots of Zionist fireworks in the U.N.

Indeed, Venezuela bears watching in its dealings with China. I heard that there will be a summit meeting of Latin American countries to which the U.S. is not invited. Methinks China is working to gain control of Latin America's natural resources. I also read that China has offered to BUY Argentina's national debt. That is like buying Argentina, with its open land & natural resources. Such a deal! The U.S. is becoming odd man out. Word has it that the U.S. is trying to enlist Colombia to invade Venezuela, so stay tuned! According to a download I read a few years ago, but which I could not confirm, the Chinese war plan against the U.S.A. is simple: we are to be sucked into wars designed to overextend our logistic capabilities, wear out our equipment & exhaust our forces, which will be farflung & spread thin. Israel is making sure the Chinese get all advanced U.S. weapons technology, even as the U.S. expends its substance on behalf of Israeli interests in The Middle East, which include attacking Iraq, Syria & Iran. When it is convenient to China, they will make us an offer we can't refuse. Since our ZOG is already giving away North America to China, it appears as if the hebes are preparing their exodus from the Western Hemisphere, as they did from South Africa, when they got their Black majority rule. As I read, lots of jew-rats are pouring into Germany, whose Zionist Occupation Government is giving them lots of goodies at Goy tax-payers' expense. As you may know, the blue lines at the top & bottom of the Israeli flag represent the Tigris-Euphrates River & the Nile, between which lies "Greater Israel". The jews are content to let us do the fighting for them, with Bush & his Hebrew-cons happy to oblige. One writer thought that Bush was pandering to the capitalist criminals & the Armageddonist fanatics of the U.S. on his kamekazi quest for U.S. destruction. The former want to wreck the future on behalf of quick profits & the fanatics want their doomsday, pronto. Neither of these groups believes in the advent of tomorrow, which suits Bush just fine. The torpid sheeple are showing signs of unrest, currently by non-enlistment in ZOG-forces, so we may see the return of the draft. The Blacks seem most aware of ZOG's hunger for Gentile cannon-fodder, so their enlistments are way, way down. What the U.S. sheeple will do next is anybody's guess. I really wonder if sheeple will sign up for military service when the economy goes 'south'. We shall see! The hippies would say that the U.S.A. is on a "death-trip", & I would not disagree with them. We have committed all the Roman follies much faster than did decadent Rome, so our fate should be swift. As you described, the jews' war against racial evolution is ongoing, but the outcome will probably resemble post-communist Russia after decades of jewish genocide & Lysenko insanity, if the jews are permitted to do their thing. If they do not stop, they must be stopped, one way or another.

The U.S.A. always was a bastard empire run by Zionist (jew-supremacist) plutocrats. Some refer to it as an "experiment", just as they referred to the former USSR. Both these entities show their jewish origins. Jews make their fortunes off such failed experiments, at the expense of the dumb Goyim, as long as we let them.

As you say, the currency is being debased in the decadent Roman tradition, which is quite appropriate. Why should the regime's money be sound, if the regime itself is unsound? I'm sure the Chinese know what to do with our worthless zogbucks. Trust them to make the most of our jew I.O.U.'s before they finally dump them. I think they are using zogbucks to buy property & influence in countries whose land & natural resources they covet. That's what I would do if I were stuck with money about to go the way of the Confederate dollar. It is hard to see the future, but it is likely to be violent. That is why I enjoy the doldrums while they last. As long as the sheeple do not take our situation seriously, it will remain hopeless. I wonder what can snap them out of their jew-daze. Rhodesian Whites did nothing long after it was too late, so such apathy & inertia here would not surprise me. What a bunch of ZOG-zombies!

As I see it, the reason sheeple cannot comprehend that great events can be planned well in advance is their fear of being dubbed "conspiracy theorists". In truth, "conspiracy" = "causal", meaning that all events are caused. Let us consider the absurdity of "uncaused" events before we reject causal theory as "conspiracy". I know that is too much to expect from Goy sheeple, but thinking people should be aware of this jewish word-game for their own benefit. Both Lincoln & FDR proclaimed themselves as conspiracy theorists. As Lincoln told reporters who asked him if the Civil War were not caused by a conspiracy, Lincoln told them that if they could believe that a house could construct itself from a random assembly of building materials, then they could believe that The Civil War DID NOT result from a conspiracy. FDR declared that "in politics, things don't just happen, they are MADE to happen!" This means that two of the jews' foremost American icons were "conspiracy theorists", but they don't like to mention that! Memory is the enemy of tyranny.

A recent event has revealed the quality or lack thereof of American sheeple versus the Afghan Moslems, who may cause the U.S. empire to unravel in that region: According to the jewsmedia, a 2-paragraph statement in Jewweek magazine mentioned that U.S. interrogators had desecrated The Koran in Guantanamo, among other things, by flushing one down a toilet. That news got to Afghanistan & it so inflamed the masses that big anti-U.S. demonstrations have occurred & may be still ongoing. Obviously, they take their religion seriously & we do not. I wonder what could so mobilize American masses who seem to have no dignity as people. It stands to reason that people with no dignity could hardly show indignation about anything.

Some correspondents advocate a 'new approach' to political persuasion, by deeds rather than words. The assumption seems to be that the sheeple can be made to drink once they are led to water by showing them examples of drinking. Such correspondents lay blame on self-styled leaders who have failed to communicate in ways sufficiently enticing, but I see politics as people-power in the form of leaders & those willing to be led. One can do nothing without the other, so politics is a two-way street. As long as ego & greed rule our would be leaders, & as long as apathy & inertia rule potential followers, words & deeds will fail to inspire action appropriate to White Nationhood. Nor is there any guarantee that a crisis will drive the sheeple onto the right path, toward their own salvation, as I saw in Rhodesia, where Whites did nothing, even when it was too late. A political program or ideology is like the words of a song, which any bad singer can spoil with a poor rendition. Similarly, a good singer with a bad song can produce equally bad results. Nor can a good singer with a good song achieve anything when his audience is deaf or unwilling to listen. History shows us that a rapport must exist between leaders & followers & that rapport depends upon mutual trust & shared values, which include agreement on the meaning of words. As I see it, our major obstacle is that we live in a dystopian individualistic, multi-cultural society in which one man's good is another's evil, all expressed in a Babel of words which lack a common definition because their meanings are often intentionally distorted by those who consciously abuse language in order to exploit the public. As long as we don't mind being victims of such distortion & disinformation through our willful ignorance, we will lack the essential ability to communicate with those in our midst, even when a crisis is non-verbal. This brings to mind another factor in our political paralysis: the fact that many sheeple view information as an item of consumption, that is, entertainment, so truth or falsehood are irrelevant. The key is to find out what Whites want, & if some of their wants are actually pro-White. That is the riddle we must solve. All the best. DOWZ! & ORION!
