

25 MAY 05. Hail Doug! Many thanks for your letter of May 18th. My sacrifices go into the work I do best, which is informing others who may or may not decide to work on behalf of Our Race. I spend whatever I can obtain, therefore I am in no position to donate to strangers, whatever their pretensions. I have no hobbies nor vices, for all my resources go into my informational efforts. I have no guarantees of success, for my success lies in the fact that I struggle. My victory lies in my struggle, so "winning" or "losing" do not matter. As our Aryan ancestors used to say: "It's not whether you win or lose, it's how you play the game that counts." Or, as the ancient German proverb goes: "The gods provide victory or defeat, but you must provide the courage." As I say, I have been burnt by inferior people who styled themselves as leaders. These people were inferior in most respects to my own leadership abilities, regardless of their financial resources. I therefore will never, ever subordinate myself to any other person who claims leadership, unless they can prove to me that they are worthy of leadership. I can, however, offer my own services as leader, as a matter of consensus. We must first agree on our identity & then on our objectives. Then, we can confer on our methods to achieve our mutually-agreed upon objectives. As the Chinese say, "There is the leader who coerces & the leader who inspires, but the best leader is one who teaches, for his followers can say: 'See, we did it ourselves.'"

In regard to my 40 years + worth of essays, I welcome everyone to read them and they can then organize them into topics, such as eugenics, &c. This is easy with a computer, as opposed to my typewriter! You are also welcome to choose any of my essays you wish for publication in a compendium or conglomeration of essays on similar topics. If I had more resources, I could offer more, but "politics is the art of the possible", & I must work with all resources available, within the realm of the possible. As you wrote, I have weathered many diverse situations, & I remain the same person, just as a ship can navigate through storms, while remaining on course, regardless of superficial damage. I expect nothing less from my comrades, for I ask them to do nothing I, myself, would not do.

The program or manifesto I have received from Frontline seems worthy, BUT I must know the people involved, for nice words do not equate with reliable White people, in my own experience. As I say, once burned, twice shy. I am no longer motivated by wishful-thinking, for I want to see results. Nor am I motivated, at my age, by personal ambition, that is ego, but only by the principle of serving Our Race, which I view as a cosmic struggle. I can offer my life, but damned little material wealth in terms of land, possessions & zogsbucks. Sure, I'm interested in sharing my knowledge & abilities, provided you are interested in obtaining them. So far, my writings appear on 3 major websites: FAEM, m.Lindstedt & VNN. At last count, I have over 100,000 readers, so feel free to take advantage of my output.

All the best & ORION!
