

27 June 05. Dear Tom: It was great to receive your thoughtful letter of 22 June. Yes, the ZOG says Iraq is not a "quagmire", but it sure seems like quicksand. The jewsmedia indicate all sorts of desperate schemes to get U.S. troops out of there, with lots of fumbling & stumbling. Imagine The 3 Stooges in charge of the U.S. State Dept., Defense Dept. & the White House, in order to have an accurate assessment of the results we are achieving so far! The Iraqi puppet regime which the U.S. wants to use as its pretext for pulling out, as it did with the South Vietnamese puppet regime, is taking too many hits from the insurgents to become viable, even to the extent that the South Vietnamese regime was. Of course, there was already a South Vietnamese regime before the U.S. forces arrived, but not so in Iraq. It appears that the U.S. petro-bandits miscalculated the determination of the insurgents to drive the Zionist pests out of Iraq. The ZOG makes mistakes & we pay for them. Such a deal! I said before we went in that invasion would be easy, but our occupation would be fatal for us, militarily & financially. It is abundantly clear that the ZOG doesn't care about such losses. Our Zionist regime in The District of Corruption is willing to fight to the last Goy, provided we let them. Amerizog policy is best explained in Engdahl's book, "A Century of War", which I heartily recommend, despite its LaRouchie tidbits. Iraq may not be in "the Fertile Crescent", but the U.S.A. has purposely placed Iraq in "the Crescent of Crisis", on behalf of oil & Israel. Had U.S. puppet Saddam remained in power, our present oil crisis might have been lessened, but this crisis we have brought upon ourselves, with the worst intentions, thanks be to ZOG.

Of course, the U.S.A. is no longer the biggest actor on the petroleum stage, thanks to its policies which fostered China's industrial development, & China's growing thirst for oil. Now, China wants to buy the U.S. oil company, Unocal, & U.S. oil-banksters have the heebie-jeebies. We should watch this situation closely, for China has lots of worthless zogbucks to throw around, in its quest to buy real wealth with fake riches. If ever there were grounds for a world war, these economic issues would suffice. Should the U.S. balk at selling out to China, armed conflict could well arise. The U.S.A. is already defeated, economically & demographically, for the Chinese are here in strength, & more on their way. Just today, I experienced what could be set to music: "The Streets of Laredo". As I was out walking the streets of Yakima, the streets of Ya-kima on this lovely day, I spied two Chinese rapt in conversation, in their native lingo they were having their say... They looked like native Amerasians alias Indians, but they were speaking Mandarin. We were walking on the sidewalk across from The Yakima (Ghost) Mall, & I wondered if they were sizing up the vacant premises for bidding purposes. Why not buy a real building with some of their jew I.O.U.'s? If I were them, I would! Yakima has had a Chinese enclave since they came to build the railroads & their accompanying opium tunnels. Additional Chinese are coming in to enlarge this enclave, so why not takeover vacant business property? It's an open invitation to Chinese commercial conquest.

Jewsradio reports admissions by ZOG-mercs in Iraq that the U.S. is talking with insurgents to work out an exit plan from Iraq. The insurgents insist on a timetable for U.S. withdrawal, but Bushy wants no such thing. Meanwhile, ZOG's grunts get caught in the middle, & our casualties mount on a daily basis.

Yes, "democracy" should be pronounced "demon-crazy" in order to get its true meaning. Bush reminds me of some demonic mixture of Napoleon, Caligula & Phillip II of Spain. Napoleon made his conquests on behalf of "Liberty, Equality, Fraternity". Bush makes his on behalf of "democracy". Caligula wasted the Roman economy on imperial showmanship. Bush wastes the U.S. economy on imperial showmanship. Phillip II wasted the riches & might of the Spanish Empire to quell Protestantism in the Netherlands, only to see it spread into Brazil, under his rule. Bush wastes the U.S. Empire's riches & might to quell "terrorism", which arises wherever U.S. globalist imperialism treads.

I recommend a new, true oath for U.S. forces: "Hail Halliburton! We who are about to die salute thee!" Maybe that would straighten out the minds of a few ZOG-grunts, & it would sure make Bush & Cheney happy: "By George, they love us! (The dumb suckers.)"

On good days, Iraq has been compared to Death Valley: "Lots of sand, but no surf." On bad days, people want to be "under the sea, in an octopus's garden in the shade." My father was glad to escape when his oil company contract expired, shortly before a former Iraqi dictator, Karim Kassim, was assassinated. He watched Iraqi forces advancing toward Kuwait as he stood on top of an oil derrick, so he knew that his contract had ended none too soon! Dad said that there were the usual 4 seasons in that part of the world, with the addition of at least one sandstorm season & two fly seasons. As you say, "The Thief of Bagdad" might not be a good training film for grunts about to go to Iraq. More appropriate would be a Hunter S. Thompson production entitled, "Fear & Loathing in Bagdad". All the best & ORION!
