

7-7-05. Dear Mr. Walton: It was good to receive your letter of "Jewlie" first. Just call me Eric. As I said to one ZOG functionary who was impudent by addressing me by my first name: "You can address me as 'Mr. Thomson', but 'Your Excellency' will do!" Ha! I bristle whenever some telephone sheenie solicitor uses my first name, when I don't know him, don't care to know him & do not want to do business with him. First names in English are like the familiar forms in Spanish & German: one only uses the "Du" or "Tu" forms when speaking to one's god, dog or family members, with the exception of one's father, who is traditionally treated as a more distant figure of respect. Close friends & comrades are normally addressed in the familiar form, after mutual agreement, but not before. It's not Jewish custom, I know, for it is an ancient Aryan tradition of respect, as well as friendship. Brothers & sisters usually use the familiar form without asking one another, however. Jews deem us to be animals, so they address us as we would address a domestic critter: Fido, go fetch! It's off the subject, but one day I got a full sheenie spiel on the phone. I don't know what garbage he was trying to sell, but I let him unwind, saying nothing. Finally, he woke up to the fact that I might not be listening. He said, "Well, what do ya think, Eric?" I replied with my best Jewish accent: "You're pretty good, kid; but next time you should try it on a Goy." "Oh, sorry!" said the sheenie. The hebes strive incessantly to impose their words & attitudes on non-Jews, which is dangerous, for a wise Goy (or Guy) can fool them, maybe when it counts, by using their expressions. It's a survival skill called "Know Your Enemy".

I don't wish to offer any false hope, but from what I gather about your experience which resulted in your conviction, you have no recollection of what it was you actually did or may have done, in an apparently intoxicated state of mind. It reminds me of the old film, "The Lost Weekend", in which the hero wakes up in a dingy hotel room in bed, next to the body of a dead woman. All he recalls is getting drunk. Two days are missing entirely from his memory! This is called "alcoholic blackout", in which a person seems aware of his or her surroundings & actions, & appears to be functioning normally, but the memory center or hippocampus of the brain is disconnected during that period. This state is not that of passing out, but prior to it. In the movie, the protagonist or 'hero' understands his situation, but has no idea how he got into it, so he must be his own detective, on the double, before he is apprehended by the police. He must find out where he was & what he did over the previous two days. I'm surprised that Hebrewood does not do a remake of that film. Maybe the hebes don't want sheeple to know what "recreational substances" can do! In law, the definition of "insanity" was posited on one's ability to distinguish 'right' from 'wrong'. When one is in a semi-conscious state, under the influence of drugs, his behavior could be construed as "temporary insanity". Well, it may be worth your while to look into this avenue of appeal. The ZOG, by the way, does not like people messing up its drug-dealers, especially White people whom it expects to just behave as slaves, then to roll over & die without any fuss, just as in the movie, "They Live". One former G.I., a Vietnam vet, described the 'drug-culture' as "chemical warfare". That is certainly a valid observation.

Christianity tells us that we are "weak", "sheep" who need our shepherd, "children" who need a Jew papa figure, & "dogs unfit to eat crumbs from beneath the (Jews') table." I therefore learned, in my church experience, the 3 Christian dialects: "Baah, baah." "Goo-goo, da-da." & "Arf, arf!" Then we are told that we are "sinners," but not because we were so created by the big sky-Jew, in his own image, of course! One theologian whom I had asked about the obvious contradictions in the Jew-book replied that the contradictions were purposely introduced so that the believer would have to grease the palms of rabbis, priests &/or pastors to obtain an 'explanation'.

National Socialism, in contrast to Christianity, preached that "life is struggle" & that only fit men & women are wanted for life. Strength of character, mind & body were promoted, not weakness & dependency. Children were not left to rot, as in North American society, but were welcomed to play body-, mind- & character-building roles in THEIR society. As Hitler declared: "The state protects the race, & the race protects the individual member thereof." Children are not mere byproducts of sexual activity. They are OUR FUTURE. For us to enjoy political independence, we must have economic independence (self-sufficiency), just as the ancient Spartans knew. General welfare must come before personal welfare, unlike the U.S.A., in which selfish criminals can destroy the environment & the wellbeing of others in order to make themselves rich. As a youngster during World War II, I found it hard to distinguish between the U.S.A. & Germany. Germany's youth & military were shown as White & clean-cut. So were the youth & military of the U.S.A. Germany had laws against dysgenic reproduction & race-mixing. So did we. In fact, Germany's eugenic programs were copied from existing U.S. laws & programs after Hitler was elected. On AM radio, we heard mainly White man's music, with lots of classical music which Hitler was also listening to, on

German radio stations. Wagner & Strauss were frequently played throughout the war & both Germany & the U.S.A. claimed to be "fighting for civilization". Both sides looked the same, but in 1946, the U.S.A. dropped its mask, first culturally: classical music began to disappear from AM radio in favor of 'pop' music which grew increasingly African. One 'hit' tune of that early postwar period was "Cement-mixer, puttee, puttee", followed by "Open the Door, Richard." That would be in 1946 & 1947, while the Nuremberg Kangaroo Court was in session & our "Soviet allies" were still "gallant". It turned out that the U.S.A. had not fought on the side of civilization! Even 1/2-jew Churchill declared that "We killed the wrong pig," referring to the fact that we should have fought Stalin, rather than Hitler. As a firsthand witness of wartime U.S.A., I can testify that there was far less anti-German hate propaganda during the war, than there has been after, particularly after 1960, with the incessant promotion of the Holohoax, on behalf of Zionist genocide programs against Whites & Palestinians. The jew-serving propaganda against Germans is being used against all Whites, as I predicted, with the advent of the movie, "Holocaust". The Holohoax has been written into law, notably with the so-called Genocide Convention, which is the basis of all thought-crime laws. The Genocide Convention has also been adopted & ratified by the U.S. ZOG, so it has the full force of the U.S. Constitution, as a treaty. Typically, the foremost victims of genocide, in terms of The Genocide Convention, are Whites! Every example of 'genocide' cited by The Genocide Convention is being perpetrated against Whites by the criminal Zionist regime in The District of Corruption, but no one complains. Least of all the ZOG's White victims. That tells us more about ourselves than it does about our self-sworn jewish enemies & their Zionist stooges. We are indeed 'sheeple,' in the Christian sense of the word.

It is good to know that you may receive books from your family members. Right off, I can think of some great sources of information & wisdom: "Sex versus Civilization" by Pendell; "The Theory of the Leisure Class" by Veblen; "The God that Failed" by former Communist authors; "None Dare Call It Conspiracy" by Allen; "The Green Felt Jungle" by Reid & Demaris; "Jewish Supremacism" by Duke; "An Empire of Their Own" by Gabler; "Hitler's Secret Book" by Hitler (published by the All-lies after World War II, with an introduction by Telford Taylor); "Germany Must Perish!" by Kaufman; "Germany is Our Problem" by Morgenthau; "What to do with Germany" by Nizer, & many more, but for now, any of those titles would be useful in providing you with background on Things to Come. Oh, yes, I also recommend Tom Chittum's "Civil War Two", to bring you further up to date.

Currently, China & Russia object to U.S. presence in Central Asia, including Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Uzbekistan & Tajikistan. These members of "The Shanghai Co-operation Organization" want the U.S. & its stooges to set a deadline for a pullout from Central Asia, due to the lull in fighting in Afghanistan. "The U.S. rejected the call for a deadline," according to yesterday's Associated Press report. Oil was the major cause of World War I. Roosevelt's oil embargo against Japan triggered Pearl Harbor. So now that China is as thirsty for oil as the U.S.A., we are intruding into their back yard & encroaching on their oil interests in Central Asia. This could be the beginning of World War III, as the Jew World Ordure hits the fan of history. Stay tuned!

Prison can be similar to life in a college dorm, in which one must make time available for learning & study, despite the many distractions in the environment. Life with other students or prisoners is also an important learning experience, from which one can benefit, if he makes proper decisions, as you seem to be making. Always have a goal in mind, & assign that goal top priority, for in this way you will succeed. It is said of unsuccessful people that they make their minds up quickly & change them often, whereas successful people do the opposite: once they have made their decision with due consideration, they stick with it & subordinate all resources thereto. This behavior is not only possible in a controlled environment, but it is totally appropriate.

Today, I awoke to the radio's reports on the terror-bombings in The City of London's public transportation system, including subway trains & one doubledecker bus, which were similar to the bombing of the Madrid subway, which caused more deaths & casualties than has London's bombing, so far. ZOG's chickens are coming home to roost, & they lay some real noisy eggs. All the best. DOWZ! & ORION!
