

17 SEP 05. Hail D.R.: Jewradio mentioned that it is the AJWS which is promoting interest in Africa, as well as the importation of Black 'refugees' from Africa, who are dispersed throughout the USA, as were Somalis in Maine. AJWS = American Jewish World Service. This policy is blatant genocide by immigration, & the kikes are so confident that they don't even use a front group with a misleading name. Like the asiatics they are, jews love to rub our noses in their shit, as well as profiting from our economic enslavement. This arrogance has been known to backfire on the hebes in some cultures, as history indicates.

18 SEP 05. Just got your letter of SEP 13th, along with the prisonplanet item on the presence of armed & unarmed Mexican troops in the USA, specifically Texas. This should cause some alarm bells to ring, although it appears that "King Apathy" has made the masses of asses blind & deaf, here in the Jew Ass Cy Veh. If true, this raises the possibility that el presidente Bush may rely upon his "Mexican friends" to 'restore order', in the absence of U.S. troops, who have been sent far, far away, by Bush! This sounds like "Civil War Two" with a twist. If our ZOG is willing to cede jobs, why not cede U.S. territory as well? Will wonders never cease? Thanks for the download. I only heard one brief mention of "Mexican assistance" for areas hit by Hurricane Katrina, including troops & one Mexican navy ship. There was no specific mention of who was supervising them on behalf of the USA in our local jewsmedia, to my knowledge. ZOG's intentions in importing foreign troops seems like a much larger version of the Spanish Civil Guards, whom Spanish kings knew would obey orders to kill Spaniards. The reason for this was simple: Civil Guards stationed in the north came from the south, & vice versa, so they would not be killing 'their' people. U.S. troops were asked over a decade ago if they would fire on U.S. citizens, but I never learned what their answer was to the military questionnaire. I guess their answers were not ZOG-friendly, so we are likely to see more foreign troops on former U.S. soil. No doubt they will shoot Americans if they are so ordered by our ZOG. New Orleans may be an experiment in 'ethnic cleansing', in which mestizos are used against Blacks. I wonder what the Black leaders are doing these days. Stay tuned!

As you observe, "freedom" defined as "no rules" leads to anarchy; liberty without responsibility becomes libertine. I define "freedom" as a set of obligations with which we are most satisfied. One writer wisely said that duty without rights is slavery, & that rights without duty is parasitism. Man does not exist as an isolated individual or as "an island unto himself", no matter how selfish he may be. He coexists with others, so he needs to hold some of his predatory behavior in check, at least some of the time. Religionists have argued that the concept of an afterlife is needed to deter people from doing as they please, by heavenly rewards &/or hellish, eternal punishments. Others argue that one is condemned to reincarnation until he finally gets it right, no matter how many lives & deaths he must undergo before his enlightenment. Even some jewish sects believe in reincarnation to atone for sins committed in previous lives. That's how Rabbi Yosef of Israel 'explained' the alleged Holocaust: divine punishment meted out by Adolf Hitler! Reincarnation is not a concept central to jewish thinking, but it appears in the Zohar, the book that is the basis for jewish cabalism. Plato has argued on behalf of virtue, as a reward in the present. In my own experience, I've never regretted exercising the virtue of courage, even when no reward (except my self-respect) was guaranteed. Virtue can make one a bigger & happier person in this life, so rewards or punishments in a fabled afterlife are unnecessary. I believe that the coward dies 1000 deaths, & the brave man but one. Imagine living a life of fear, as opposed to one of joyful anticipation of life's challenges. I could not put up with much fear, so I cowardly choose courage to avoid such discomfort! At my age & experience I want very little from others, nor do I wish to inflict harm on anyone, for they usually manage to harm themselves, if not physically, then mentally. How lucky I am not to be a jew! This does not mean that I am a pacifist, however, for I believe in just violence, when it is called for & appropriate. I simply strive to do what's right, to the best of my ability, here & now, with or without an afterlife.

Freemasons are correctly described as "the mafia of the mediocre" which serve our jewish masters exactly as did those Freemason-like traitors who served the aliens in "They Live". I despise their mumbo-jumbo & superficial symbolism, which smacks of a club for immature boys, who can relate to "secret signs & symbols", on par with Captain Midnight's Official Secret Decoder Ring, which could be obtained with so many Wheaties boxtops, as I recall. Of course, lodge rituals can also be covers for serious criminal activity, as related to me by a former London C.I.D. cop whose lodge in The City was a place for criminal collusion between cops & crooks that produced quite a scandal. He was one of several police officers who had to re-

2) sign, around the time of another Freemasonic scandal, which began at the Banco Ambrosiano, the Vatican's bank, & resulted in the bank's manager, Roberto Calvi, hanging from Black Friars' Bridge in The City of London. He was dead before he was ritually hanged, & I do not/any more about his widely-publicised murder case. know

Freemasons are foul felons, when they are not petty crooks, to one degree or another, up to the 33°. Imagine swearing an oath to obey orders, regardless of what those orders may be. No thinking man would ever sign away his own conscience for unspecified rewards based on unspecified actions, unless he were a lot less than a man. Most Freemasons whom I've met exude the sickly-sweet stench of decay, as of flowers in a tomb. If I find myself shaking hands with one, I feel that I have been "slimed". They exhibit the same fulsome insincerity in their letters to one another, so I feel that I must wash my hands after such contacts. I shudder to know that the founders of this Land of ZOG were of such stuff, even if they are my relatives.

I wonder if William Grimstad is still alive. Yes, he has delved into the alchemical, cabalistic world of our judeo-capitalists, such as the Wreckafellers. After a group of us had heard his 3 ninety-minute audiotapes entitled "Sirius Kising", one listener asked me if I believed in such stuff. I replied that I believed that certain rich & powerful people appeared to believe in it, for they put millions of dollars in support of it! Who can view the WA Monument in The District of Corruption without appreciating the amount of time, labor & money devoted to the erection of an Egyptian phallic symbol? Obviously, the people who gave us "the finger" on so large a scale had lots of cash & clout in this land of ZOG. One can marvel at their arrogant obscenity while wondering what sort of people would tolerate it. As long as it stands, we show our willingness to stand for any insult, but Nature will not, for she is Nazi.

I've received no further word from Lindstedt. How are VNN & FAEM doing? if you could check for me, since I continue to supply them with material.

It is becoming more likely that Bush & Company will receive their comeuppance, if not from "God", then from ZOG, when they decide he has served his purpose. This may occur before his term of office is scheduled to end. Stay tuned!

A relative few niggers can destroy more productive land than 100 times as many Chinese, as I have observed at firsthand in Central Africa. Were silly Whitey to become extinct, the niggers would follow the way of the dodo in short order. They are a luxury this planet can't afford, thanks to the White man's meddling.

My understanding of the broken levees around New Orleans is that a storm surge raised the water level, sufficiently to overflow & then breach the levees. I gathered that Hurricane Katrina was accompanied by torrential rain which raised the level of the sea, with its wind, & raised the level of the Mississippi with its rain. If the levees were dynamited by ZOG so as to flood N.O. purposely, then we should find clues in ZOG's subsequent behavior. At this time, New Orleans' nigger mayor wants his fellow denizens to return immediately, but the ZOG commander of FEMA operations says they should not return until flood contamination is removed from the streets, structures & water supply.

In view of the Anglo-American ZOG's abject failure to pacify Iraq, so it could plunder their oil, I think it unlikely that ZOG will have the muscle & the numbers to control all the other oilfields on the planet, especially now that there is major Chinese competition. Russia & China appear to be pushing the U.S. out of the Central Asian oil region, so I don't think a major U.S. oil-grab will succeed for very long, if at all, when U.S. collapse appears imminent.

Thanks for looking into the Booth background! I understand that he was jewish or mamzer. As you observed, jews are often actors & actors are often jews. Peter Sellers, a ½ jew, was asked how he could play so many different characters. Sellers replied that it was easy, since he did not know who he was in real life. Jews have long told me that "identity" was a major chore for them. It is typically jewish that the family of an infamous assassin would boldly advertise their name, while the heirs of the likely innocent Dr. Mudd bear the obloquy of "helping Booth escape", to the barn where he was allegedly shot by pursuers. A DNA test is called for to prove that the corpse in Booth's grave is actually Booth. As for the Lindbergh Baby Case, that occurred in 1932, a year before Hitler was elected. The trial of Hauptmann occurred in 1936, I think, which would be 3 years after Hitler's 1933 election. Charles Lindbergh Jr. was the son of Senator Charles Lindbergh Sr., who fought the imposition of The Federal Reserve, so the kidnapping may have been jewish revenge for that, & not about Hitler. Hauptmann's trial made great anti-German propaganda, as a bonus to the real criminals. Haupt-

3) was likely set up by his 'partner', the jew, Fisch, who allegedly gave Hauptmann the portion of Lindbergh Baby ransom money, & fled to Germany. Hauptmann allegedly discovered the money in a box which Fisch had left for safekeeping, & since Fisch owed Hauptmann money, he innocently began to spend it, making no secret about it. Since the bills were recorded, it was only a matter of time until Hauptmann was arrested. As I understand, some of the ransom money had been spent in Europe, so Fisch may have taken some of the ransom with him, shortly before he "died" in Leipzig, where his parents had a tobacco shop. I had requested that a friend would research the city's archives when she visited her mother in what was East Germany, but she did not do so, for whatever reason. If the Leipzig archives are intact, then Fisch's death would have been recorded. My doubts about Fisch's death are similar to my suspicions about Booth's alleged death at the burning barn. The Fisch story stinks, to this day.

Yes, the Black mobs are like garrisons of alien shock troops in our midst, but I doubt their discipline, as we saw in Black Africa, where looting & rape interfered with their taking of military objectives. Such behavior will make them vulnerable to non-Black enemies.

I got a chuckle out of Fort Detrick's lack of advertising. Why not a large sign in flashing neon which reads: "ANTHRAX IS US"? Lack of advertising makes the place look sinister. We might also suggest, "We always have the germs of an idea" or "Hazmat is our middle name!" "Visit us for free samples," & "Trespassers will be experimented on." Let's put brio into biowarfare!

Your depiction of this society resembles that of Rome before its fall, complete with bread (welfare) & circuses (elections + niggerball), & THE MOB of growing numbers of have-nots who feel 'entitled' to live off Whitey, as ZOG has indoctrinated them to believe. Discipline has vanished, along with community spirit, & feminized men are ill-suited for hard times & harsh decisions born of necessity. We now need tough-minded realists, like your father, instead of flabby fatheads who we now have in over-abundance. When the crunch comes, how many sheeple will be able to adapt in time to survive? Very few, I would think. The heedless, headless ones will suffer from their folly, but only for a short time, like a drunk driver who crashes into a bridge abutment. Suddenly, it's all over. We are foolish to waste any time worrying about them, since they do not worry about themselves or their alleged loved ones, any more than they would worry about us, their fellow Whites. I value them for their potential, but not for what they are now. Survival or suicide is their own decision, not mine.

I appreciate your favorable reaction to the efforts of James Hart, but I have received no word from him since he sent me his flier & letter, so I don't know what he has accomplished with his bravery & diligence. Going door to door can be hazardous to one's health, as we know. I used to do that in White sections of Toronto, but most of those sections are no longer White, so there'd be no point to the effort. There is a time & place for such activities, but in these times, I can't think of many such places, especially in cities. In any case, I have no zogbucks to spare, one way or the other, but I'd need to know more about such a candidate. The official political process is designed to exclude honest White candidates, whom a single ZOG judge can disqualify, if by a miracle, he is elected. I don't think I am unduly pessimistic, but realistic. Still, if one has the time, money & determination to run as a pro-White candidate, I'd wish him the best of luck.

If words fail to teach & to motivate, then dire events will have to do the job. Further to the Lindbergh Case, a DNA test would reveal the true identity of the badly-decomposed body purported to be the Lindbergh baby. I do not know how that body was purportedly 'discovered', as I understand, in a vacant field. The San Francisco attorney who was handling the cases of Hauptmann's widow & a Lindbergh baby claimant broke off contact, & I learned nothing more as to the outcomes of either case in the 1980s. The subsequent death of Hauptmann's widow was reported in the jewsmedia, but the report did not mention her case, nor its conclusion. Since Hauptmann's alleged guilt for the kidnapping & murder of the baby serves jewish interests, & Lindbergh's heirs appear to be pro-jew & unco-operative, I doubt that Hauptmann's widow could ever prove her husband's innocence, if he in fact was innocent, for the 'cui bono' factor despises guilt or innocence, when powerful interests are involved. Innocent scapegoats are part of the jewish tradition, along with usury, smuggling, & other criminal activities, for which Goyim may be punished, & jews are apparently not.

With best wishes, DOWZ! & ORION! E.T. (Copy is better than original.)
