

18 SEP 05. Dear Tom: Many thanks for your insightful letter of 9-9-05! National Socialist Germany was well aware of the importance of a healthy diet. Britain, on the other hand, preferred a Malthusian genocide diet for the poor, 'surplus population'. This did not deter the poor from multiplying, but it insured that they would be in poor health. Britishers have told me how Britzog reacted to the German workers' tour ships, like the Wilhelm Gustloff: They prevented such workers' vacation ships from docking in British ports. When the first German prisoners of World War II were brought to Britain, the British civilians were not allowed to see them debark, for these young German soldiers were indeed supermen as compared to the runty British starving troops, who came from Britain's downtrodden working class. The Zionist British rulers did not want their subjects to see how National Socialism helped the German workers! Yes, those who equate Hitler with the Devil advocate the opposite of everything Hitler advocated: If Hitler was kind to animals, we must be cruel, as with kosher slaughter, which is not particularly sanitary, as you & others have noted. If Hitler knew that smoking & cancer were connected, we must smoke like chimneys. If Hitler forbade race-mixing, we must commit racial suicide, by inflicting this form of genocide upon our own families. If Hitler opposed debt enslavement, we must borrow every cent, & live well beyond our means. If Hitler advocated sports & exercise for everyone, we should drop gym class from our schools & leave sport to the niggers. If Hitler wished to keep jobs in Germany, we must export our industries & import aliens to do the few jobs which remain. If Hitler supported patriotism, we must support global imperialism. If Hitler wanted to benefit the many, we want to benefit the few, by making them richer, at public expense. If Hitler wanted men to earn sufficient to support their wives & children, we should make sure that workers cannot earn that much, so their wives must also work, leaving the care of children to strangers & aliens. If Hitler wanted schools to educate children for productive adult roles, we want our schools to dumb down our children & teach them to 'relate' by adopting African values. We can count additional ways in which our Jewish 'gods' have been leading us to disaster & extinction, so it's high time that we heeded our 'devil', Hitler!

I agree that times are bad enough, without exaggerating how bad times are, & how close danger lurks, as do many blightwing propagandists, whose very exaggerations serve the ZOG, like the fabled boy who cried 'wolf' too often. A couple of Idiot Identity conmen, Swift & Comparet, declared in the 1950s that the Chinese Red Army was "marching into Oregon, via Siberia & the Bering Strait" at that very moment! Other blightwingers were yelling about U.N. military forces "taking over" the USA. I recall reading such blather in 1952, while we were being allegedly invaded by the U.N. More recently, the Christling lemmings were hysterical about Y2K, & ecstatic about "the end of the world", "the rapture" & "the second coming." It reminded me of the hysteria engendered by Orson Welles' radio show, "War of the Worlds", which featured a Martian invasion, in 1938, if I recall correctly. Hitler remarked that any people who believed that they could be invaded by Mars could be persuaded that they could be invaded by Germany! The members of the Reichstag laughed at the absurdity, but Roosevelt did persuade many American asses that a country the size of Texas could actually mount such a trans-Atlantic invasion by marching German troops from South America, up the Andes! FDR was guilty of many such Big Lies, which Hitler had tried to warn us against in "Mein Kampf". Jew-liars say that Hitler advocated "the Big Lie", when he actually tried to warn us about it! Yes, Savitri Devi correctly described our rejection of Hitler as "the world against its Savior." There are many varieties of guilt: sins of commission & sins of omission, about which we have been adequately warned. One example is that evil triumphs when good people do nothing, but that fails to address the evil men do when they think they are 'doing good'. Graham Greene wrote in his "The Quiet American" that true evil stems from innocence, not from mere badness, as we see when personal greed is touted as a 'holy cause' in Iraq. The foremost evil-doers are those who believe that their cause is 'holy' & therefore 'good', regardless of its cost in lives & suffering, & its destruction of our own country. Such innocent evil-doers don't even do it for their own profit, but at great risk to themselves. Evil disguised as good is probably the most evil thing I can think of, for it is truly anti-Life, & best described as Liberalism & Christinsanity. I believe that Rudolf Hess said that 1945 did not mark the last of the past, but the birth-pangs of a new world. We shall likely see what sort of new world it will be, if we can put forth our best efforts to achieve it.
