

15 NOV 05. Dear Claude: I really appreciate your letter of NOV 4th & the most informative enclosures. You have given me a current overview of the international chessboard, & the current players. My question is, as usual, whose side are they on? Their racial kinfolk, or themselves, on behalf of alien interests? If your sources are to be believed, it appears that Putin is not on the side of those who rule the USA, but whose side is he really on? That really means, is he pro-White, or just pro-Putin & his clique of Kremlin cronies? The question may be asked about any leader or ruler, & it may never be answered until the proverbial 'end of history', as we know, for immediate gains can turn out to be losses in the longer term. David Duke's article on Putin & his policies was credible, but the question looms: who will succeed Putin? Pardon me, but since I know Duke personally, his definition of a "Russian" is anybody he wants to be a Russian, as long as it suits Duke's purposes. He told me how he 'knew' that Russia was 'not' ruled by jews: On a tour of SE Asia Duke met a man from the USSR, whom he asked if Russia was ruled by jews. The man ran a finger along his nose & said, "You mean...?" & Duke nodded in affirmative. The man said, "No," & that was enough to satisfy Duke. I asked Duke if he'd ever met one man from the USA & asked him if the USA was run by jews. Duke said he had not. I then asked him if one man told him that the USA was not run by jews, would Duke believe him? As I recall, he changed the subject. Duke, at that time, was still a KKK leader, but I may be correct in assuming that he was soon to dump the KKK, & his deadly Freemasonic Klan Oath of eternal fealty, as a man with 'principles', #1 being: Is it good for David Duke? Rumors are already surfacing in the U.S. blighting that Duke is receiving money from Moscow. This does not necessarily mean that his Putin Report is false, but Duke's track record shows that money takes precedence, as his 'principle' #1a, for it is so close to #1 as to be indistinguishable: His bread I eat, his song I sing. I reviewed his book on "Jewish Supremacism", & I recommend it.

My own firsthand experience with representatives of the USSR was thoroughly kosher: A jew was in charge of the Cuban Embassy in Mexico City, another spoke to me at the Soviet Embassy there; a jew gave me his card at the Soviet Embassy in Lima, Peru, & told me to get out of Latin America, "for reasons of health". After being kicked out of the USA, I discovered that I was persona non grata in all Soviet Bloc countries at the same time. The jew head of the DDR's Stasi, Markus (Mischa) Wolf, kicked me out of East Germany in 1969, so you can understand why I doubt the "Judenrein" status of the USSR after Stalin, whose ancestry is jewish, although he was born in Georgia. Please finally understand that "jew" is a nationality, conferred by biology. It is not conferred by place of birth. Otherwise we are talking nonsense. More than one jew told me that, & that national status has most recently been confirmed by the U.S. State Department, which considers jews as jews, not by their place or country of birth. This policy contradicts official U.S. policy of considering anyone a citizen of his country of birth. My source is the Internet, Rense.com. If you refuse to believe my statement, I can look it up & send you a photocopy, then you can ask the U.S. Embassy! Before we talk about jews, we should at least know how to define them. I note that you still have not consulted The Canadian Jewish News website for their article (s) on Putin. An Irishman in Boston found their website quite easily on the World Wide Web, & so can you! Of course, the longer we remain in doubt about Putin's kosher connections, we can prattle on until he picks his replacement, as you apparently desire to do. Putin may well be an enemy of the Jew Nighted States, but is he pro-White? That is the bottom line if we really believe in ORION! Wishful-thinking will not alter reality, one whit.

In regard to The Zud, whose nutty behavior I witnessed for 16 years: I don't think you even met him in person, let alone attempted to work with him during his pro-White phase. If my descriptions of his nutty behavior make me a nut, also, in the views of similar superficial consumers of the Zuds' current blather, then so be it. To use an analogy, I was the man on the spot who saw that your emperor wore no clothes, regardless of his current statements. If you wish to exercise your wishful-thinking so as to imagine that he has a truly magnificent wardrobe, be prepared to incur considerable embarrassment, for you are building up the fictitious reputation of a man you don't know very much about, as you do with Putin. I sincerely hope that you are neither embarrassed nor disappointed! Imagine how embarrassing it would be for people to proclaim The Zud as "pro-White", only to find out that The Zud had renounced that 'phase', just as Duke renounced his allegedly unshakeable KKK 'loyalty', after which, he allegedly sold his mailinglist of KKK members! I warn you not to accord The Zud heroic martyrdom before he becomes a dead hero, for he may do exactly what he did with his previous positions: abandon them, & his supporters who believed that he believed in them. Will he renounce his disbelief in the Holohoax, or will he finally stand up for his previous position that the Holocaust is indeed a hoax? Stay tuned, for 'the moment of truth' should occur during his Zionist kangaroo court hearing^s this month! The Zud's ultimate service to Our Race would be as a dead hero, rather than a live traitor.

On the matter of courage, you would know, as well that I took the same risks as he did, when I fought the jews in Toronto to protect his courthouse entrances & exits, & watched out for him in the corridors & the courtrooms. My ZOG-line crossings between the USA & Canada every week or so were pretty scary in regard to my immigration & citizenship status, as well as the contraband thoughts which were in writing, in my possession. I knew what could happen, but The Zud neither knew nor cared, until it happened to him, big time. Poor fool! I went where angels feared to tread, but I knew the risks, & I took them anyway. The Zud did not, or refused to recognize such risks, whatever his ego-driven mania of the moment. You should know that The Zud has no monopoly on physical or moral courage, which were the attributes of all the activist comrades he dumped, on behalf of his own (mistaken) selfish interests.

My dreams have sometimes been prophetic, as with the JFK assassination & the fall of the USSR. On the night of NOV 14th I dreamt that The Zud was dead, unlike his appearances in previous dreams, associated with recollections of Toronto. As a ghost, The Zud was useful in scaring away unwelcome visitors at my residence! If he does not renounce his Holohoax stand, the ZOG may do him in. Then we can all heave a deep sigh of relief & proclaim him as a revisionist hero, but not a White hero.

The Zud said that it is folly to "get mileage out of creeps", so we must use his story as a learning experience. The bad must be learned, as well as the good, just as we must learn from our mistakes, & if we refuse to teach them, we will surely repeat them. I do not bear a grudge, any more than I would be^{by} telling a child that fire burns & burns can hurt you, or by saying "Beware of jews!" I just want his dupes to stop schlepping their hard-earned shekels to his former Nazi-hunter wife & her jew colleague, Mark Weber, who uses his money to persecute Willis Carto, his former (foolish) employer. By posing as an Aryan leader, The Zud gained an undeserved reputation as such, which the jews refuse to let him escape from, as is entirely just. He made his own coffin, under false pretenses, & now he should lie in it, truthfully, for a change. I have nothing to gain nor lose, personally, by imparting the truth of which I was a firsthand witness, unlike The Zud's superficial acquaintances. I call an end to such Wahnsinn, for it is now up to The Zud to prove what he stands for, if anything beyond his own selfish interests. E.Z., R.I.P., E.T.

The relationship between Putin's Russia & present-day industrial, commercial, oil-thirsty China is indeed interesting & important. The USA has performed its Freemasonic role as a force for "world-destabilization", the alleged thesis of Freemasonic-Satanist apologist Peter Tomkins, who wrote the revealing book, "The Magic of Obelisks". If we take a capsule view of U.S. relations with Japan & China, we see a series of flip-flops worthy of Orwell's "1984": In 1858, the U.S. sent Commodore Perry to blast open Japan's doors to trade. The Japs learned real fast. The USA & Britain supported Japan against Russia during the Russo-Japanese War, after which, Russia was almost overthrown by the kosher commies in its 1905 Revolution. Britain has long supported jewish interests, rather than British interests, just as post-Tsarist Russia has done, & the USA has done from its beginnings in 1776. When Japan continued to be perceived as a threat to Red Russia, the USA backed the Chinese jew bankster Soong family's chosen one: Chiang Kai Shek, against Japan. After World War II came Mao's Red regime, so the U.S. chose Japan as its ally, but during the Vietnam War, Nixon chose to switch to China! This resulted in the USA helping to industrialize China on a much more gigantic scale than it did with Japan. But now, the USA is resuming more cozy relations with Japan, in an attempt to ward off Chinese might, as well as with former friends of the Red Chinese in Pakistan & the former friends of the former USSR, India. The political chess moves resemble patterns in a kaleidoscope, but the bottom line is demography: Europe is fast becoming a Moslem region, which was originally perceived as in jewish interests, but there appears to be doubts, as expressed by the jew Interior Minister, Sarkozy, of Flaming France. The outcome could become a Europe for the Europeans, but the jews so hate the Whites that they may prefer that it become Moslem territory, after all, as the French government considers some form of 'affirmative-action' for its Moslem invaders & colonizers. Perhaps the jews are intending to rely upon aⁿ Oriental Alliance of China & Russia versus the Moslem world, since Israel is reported as selling U.S. military technology to China. The idea of a "Fortress America" in The Western Hemisphere is already eroded by Chinese presence & influence. We do live in "exciting times."

You are getting a fan-following amongst my correspondents, so keep up the great work! All the Best, as always, & ORION!
