

Paranoia grips the U.S. capital

Eric Margolis explains how President Bush has turned spying over to the Pentagon

THE FILM Seven Days In May is one of my all-time favourites. The gripping 1964 drama, starring Burt Lancaster, depicts an attempted coup by far rightists in Washington using a top-secret Pentagon anti-terrorist unit called something like "Contelinpro."

Life imitates art. This week, former military intelligence analyst William Arkin revealed a hitherto unknown directive, with the Orwellian name "JCS Conplan 0300-97," authorizing the Pentagon to employ special, ultra-secret "anti-terrorist" military units on American soil for what the author claims are "extra-legal missions."

In other words, using U.S. soldiers to kill or arrest Americans, acts that have been illegal since the U.S. Civil War.

This frightening news comes as Washington is gripped by reborn, Cold-War-style paranoia, ominous threats of war against Iran from the real president, Dick Cheney, and a titanic bureaucratic battle just won by Defence Secretary Donald Rumsfeld.

Instead of being fired for the grotesque military-political fiasco in Iraq and the shameful torture scandals, Rumsfeld has just managed to create a new, Pentagon spy/special ops organization, blandly named "Strategic Support Branch," that will replace or duplicate many of the CIA's tasks.

The CIA has been sent to the doghouse. Too many CIA veterans criticized or contradicted Bush's and Cheney's phony claims over Iraq and terrorism. So Bush has imposed a new, yes-man director on the agency, slashed its budgets, purged its senior officers, and downgraded CIA to third-class status.

Rumsfeld's new, massively funded SSB will become the Pentagon's CIA, complete with commando units, spies, mercenary forces, intelligence gathering and analysis, and a direct line to the White House. The Pentagon has just effectively taken over the spy business.

Used terrorism hysteria

Mind you, the Pentagon and its Defence Intelligence Agency have been deeply involved in intelligence around the globe for 50 years. U.S. Army intelligence and its covert sub-branches have long conducted "black ops," including missions in the U.S. as well as assassinations and sabotage abroad. The Pentagon consumes three-quarters of the total U.S. intelligence budget.

Rumsfeld has skillfully used terrorism hysteria to wrest control of intelligence and make the Pentagon supreme in Washington's bureaucratic power struggles.

The Pentagon's new spy arm will be largely excluded from Congressional oversight or media examination. Its special operations teams will roam the globe, all under cover of "deep black" missions of which no records will be kept, and no questions asked.

Equally worrying, the Pentagon's new special-ops units are headed up by notorious religious fanatic, Lt. Gen. William Boykin, who calls the U.S. Army "the house of God" and Islamic insurgents "agents of Satan." He warned Muslims, "my God is bigger than your god, which is an idol."

Boykin's command will now dispatch post-modern Christian crusaders to cleanse the world of Satanic Muslims and other miscreants. The Pentagon's new special forces will be able to run operations of which the CIA knows nothing.

The 9/11 Commission called for improved intra-agency co-operation and data sharing — instead, the U.S. will get far less co-operation, as the Pentagon goes its own, secret way.

Now, George W. Bush, who clearly believes he holds the mandate of heaven after being re-elected by the less mentally active half of American voters, has decided to "unleash" special forces and all sorts of irregular units, including mercenaries, uniformed bounty hunters, and mutants sporting t-shirts proclaiming "kill 'em all, let God sort 'em out." These militarized thugs and video arcade Ramboes are sure to run amok, dragging America's once good name ever deeper into the mud.

We have evidently learned nothing from the wars in Indochina and Central America.

Have we reached Seven Days in May?

Not yet, but the second Bush administration has been taking dangerous steps that continue to curtail personal rights, further emasculate the supine, cowardly U.S. Congress, and empower ideological or religious extremists and shadowy agencies with unrestrained powers that endanger Americans at home, and all abroad suspected of troubling the Pax Americana.

30 NOV 05. Dear Shappa: Thanks for your letter of NOV 27th! Yes, I did receive Religion & Literature in D.O.C. & the DTO4 printout. I also returned the originals as instructed, so they should have been received by M.N. by now, unless your zoggies are swiping or sitting on mail in your gulag. The cooler heads will prevail, it is said, & I hope it is true! I believe that there are better things to do than picking fights, but I know that there is often no choice in the matter. If it's up to me, I avoid them, when possible.

Thanks for the news about the recent U.S. invasion of Syria. I have received no news about that from any of my sources, least of all the 'mainstream jewsmedia'. That may mean the U.S. will step up its military involvement in The Middle East, & if that requires conventional forces, an alien enlistment program may be expanded, since it exists already. When I was in the U.S. Army, those deemed illegal aliens were kicked out. I wonder how the ZOG can give security clearances to illegal aliens, for I had to get a clearance before I qualified for the Army Security Agency in 1960. As you say, the U.S. flag will become as irrelevant as the Roman SPQR standards carried by the non-Roman legions for the non-Republic of imperial Rome. The USA rose much faster than Rome, so it may fall much faster, as it appears to be doing right now.

Re events in "Aztlan": As you say, fugitive Mexicans have large Mexican colonies in which to hide. A few years ago, the INS was busing illegals back to Mexico from Brownest Yakima. One agent said, "They'll be back here before our buses return." I said that it appeared that we were deporting Mexicans from one part of Mexico to another, say from Guadalajara to Mexico City, for there seemed to be as many Mexicans here as in parts of Mexico. The local head of INS was also Mexican. I asked one INS fellow to answer a simple question: If we "naturalize" sand as sugar, tar as chocolate & talcum powder as flour, how long will we make "chocolate cake"? The whole concept of naturalization is unnatural, since nationality is biology, not geography. He said, "I just do my job." Spoken like a mercenary! Chinese colonies in North America pretty much govern themselves, so they can hire or hide their own people from the alleged authorities of FEDZOGUSA. Time is on the side of the illegals, since their offspring born on U.S. territory are automatically U.S. citizens, & that's what they produce the most of! As you say, police forces are splitting along racial lines. The Wall St. Journal reported, years ago, that few Blacks are ever convicted by Black juries, especially if the crime victims are not Black. As Tom Chittum wrote, the pieces of our multi-racial puzzle are coming together as "Civil War Two", the title of his book. Black offenders are given appeals if they claim that they had White juries. Yes, Yakima is merely an extension of Mexifornia, so what happens there happens here. I enjoy the good times while they last, since local Whites (Ostensible Whites, that is) don't seem to know or care about the demographic volcano we sit upon. I lived in the Yakima of Central Africa, so now I live in the Bulawayo of Central Washington, neither of which would be a good spot to own one's home. If one had any zogbucks to spare, it would be a good idea to spend them before they became worthless. One correspondent advised that we should stock up on beans.

All Saddam needs to do in his trial is to testify as to the USA having put him in power, & what he did for FEDZOGUSA ever since. He did everything we told him to do, including invade Kuwait. When we told him to get out, he got out. We shot up his retreating forces once they were in Iraq. Any "weapons of mass-destruction" he ever had, we gave him! I suppose that he has been told not to reveal such painful truths, if he wants to live a little while longer. It is indeed a show-trial, & a kangaroo court, just like Nuremberg. Saddam was the Iraqi Lincoln, because he killed so many Iraqis to keep Iraq together. The U.S. has started a civil war by toppling Saddam & his Arabs, who are the minority. Kurds & Shi-ites are the majority, & Iran is a Shi-ite Moslem country, so guess who the Iranians back! We did it all for Israel.

Yes, now is the time for you to take advantage of your time for education. Few sheeple have any time for reading outside the ZOG-gulags. They can't even finish a sentence without being interrupted by their cellphones, & they rush around everywhere. I knew people who had 2 or 3 part-time jobs, just to survive & support their kids. Car expenses eat up the income from one or even two part-time jobs, & a car is necessary to get to work. That's a real rat-race, & I don't know how people survive it. The enclosed financial newsletter refers.

Take care & best regards to the "squares"! ORION!

P.S.: Mexo-radio just advertised that there is a $6000 reward for tips leading to the capture of Yakima's 2 alien escapees. Stay tuned!
