

2 DEC 05. Hail D.R.! It was great to receive your letter of 23 NOV & the informative download; the Generation of the German Conservative Revolution." Some political analysts have described successful revolutions as "conservative", since their mass appeal lies in their promise to restore real or imagined 'good things' of the past. They argue that Marxism & Anarchism advocated the 'restoration' of madman Rousseau's mythical "state of nature", in which Man, who was deemed "basically good" would be able to resume his life as a "noble savage." Hence, Communism, which predicted "the withering away of the state"; Anarchism & Nihilism, which advocated the violent destruction of the state, were arguably the most conservative of revolutionary movements. Similarly, it has been argued that politics is "defensive," that people don't bother to engage in it unless they see that they have lots to lose by not participating therein. That explains why the rich are so involved in politics. If the masses perceive that they have nothing to lose, & that their status quo is tolerable, they remain politically inert, which appears to describe the U.S. denizens today.

In most cases, politics is the purview of minorities, such as guerrilla fighters & revolutionaries. In the so-called American Revolution, I've heard that approximately 1/3 supported the rebels, 1/3 were against them, & 1/3 was indifferent to both sides. The Yugoslavian, mainly Serbian, resistance which pinned down German forces in World War II represented a very small fraction of the entire Yugoslavian population, as I understand. That did not mean that the partisans, as they were called, were at all ineffective! Dr. Goebbels was mistaken when he believed that the Germans would carry on partisan warfare during the Allied occupation, on German soil, via the Werewolves. Partisan warfare succeeded in multinational empires, but not in homogeneous populations in which reprisals would be effective. Eisenhower fulfilled his anti-White bloodlust in many ways, but his order for the killing of 200 Germans for every Allied soldier killed or wounded in occupied Germany apparently deterred the Werewolves from acts of violent resistance, along with the intentional mass-starvation of the defeated Germans, under the Allied starvation ration program, based on The Morgenthau Genocide Plan for Germany. I agree that little or nothing will be done to correct the ZOG's misgovernment until the ZOG disintegrates. Then, survivors must pick up the pieces, toward the formation of their respective nationstates on former ZOG territory.

The idea of a White migration to any place, without the formation of a White government or state, nor even a pro-White ideology, is a useless exercise, as I have seen so far in "The Great White Hopeland" of the NW USA, right under the shadow of China-duh! North American borders are merely lines on the map, without substance, so to presume that the Chinese would abide by a line dubbed "The U.S.-Canadian Border" is to believe in the Tooth Fairy. Our first step must be to establish our own government of our own people, regardless of zoglines or borders, just as the Jews have done for centuries!

The download was, for me, a real trip down memory lane, in regard to the intellectual ferment before World War I. It is difficult, perhaps impossible, for us to put ourselves into the past in order to understand the views of the times, but we can work at it. In music, the themes were romantic; so, too, in painting. In philosophy, the Frenchman Bergson likened life to an immense cavalry charge. The French were still smarting from their 1870 defeat in the Franco-Prussian War. They believed that they could win with "elan" in the next conflict with Germany. The Germans who were partially unified under the Kaiser, believed that they were invincible, militarily, commercially & industrially. The British feared that the Germans were right, & schemed to destroy them. The Russians were being paid in gold, to support French revanchism against Germany, in alliance with Serbia. Austria-Hungary was a shaky empire, fearful of losing territory if it did not expand into Serbia. The Young Turks wished to modernize the Turkish Empire in an alliance with Germany. In that area, the Brits feared for the Suez Canal & lusted for Turkey's oil in Kirkuk & Mosul, having already seized Kuwait, in order to block a German railway to the port of Basra, which would give the Germans easy access to the Indian Ocean, in competition with British trade. The Germans needed trade in order to feed their people. That's why Hitler wanted to avoid war with The British Empire by seizing farmland from the USSR, so Germany would be self-sufficient in food, thereby avoiding trade competition with the Brits. It was this trade competition which gave rise to the belated German colonization of Africa: to obtain coaling stations for their merchant ships. This is merely a sketch of pre-WW I political-economic factors which I recall from my readings of history.

The psychology of this period was at least as complicated & important to the genocidal conflict of 1914 to 1918, which continued to bleed Russia & Turkey into the 1920s.

2) Nationalism was coming to the fore, but perhaps the most ambitious nationalism was the concept of Pan-Slavism, as championed by Russian writers & composers of the time. Of course, cynics could argue that this idea was to take the form of Russian imperial expansion under the Tsar. What it turned out to be was Pan-Slavic slavery under a Khazar-ruled Soviet empire, but this is merely the rule of history: that reality differs from hopes & wishes, regardless of sacrifice & effort. Hence, the conservative idea of restoring the past in some ways winds up as revolutionary in outcome, since it is impossible to turn back the clock. That's why life is full of surprises. All of us live in hope that some of them may be pleasant! European nationalisms were not nearly so ambitious, nor as expansive. In fact, European multi-national empires of the pre-war period were seen as decadent obstacles to true European nationalism. In my U.S. public school indoctrination, my teachers told me that World War I was "caused" by multi-national empires which denied self-determination to their peoples, & that was why empires were always unstable, even if "empire" is not what they are called. "Yugoslavia" was therefore "good", according to these propagandists cum teachers, & the USSR was "not" an empire, as was the evil tsarist regime which 'poised' the Russian people. Yes, many of my teachers were jews. After all, I lived in Judeo-California, right next to Hebrewood!

With the intellectual ferment of those times, Darwinism, romanticism & nationalism combined with a mass need for heroism: a radical way of escaping the ratrace of the times, with its capitalist emphasis on quantity, rather than quality. The U.S. author of "The Little War of Private Post" describes the youthful enthusiasm which accompanied the U.S. war against Spain in 1898. Young men were anxious to enlist, because it was going to be "the last war," their last chance to be heroes, the last train to adventure, &c. Pre-1914 Europeans also romanticized war as being "heroic, glorious" & proof of one's national superiority. Writers of the time described war as "a swimmer jumping into cleanness", &c. A. Conan Doyle described the oncoming war as "God's own wind," which included clouds of poison gas. To others, a great war meant great profits, along with the expansion of colonial & commercial empires. To still others, the war meant a revolutionary redistribution of power & wealth. These included the jews, of course, who were the real winners of World War I. Those who fought were the losers, who fought for more, only to achieve less. These were the ones who survived.

Just as pre-war arts, literature & philosophy had contributed to the conflict, the post-war reaction rejected those ideas in favor of cacophonous 'music', Dada art, materialism, hedonism & anti-patriotism. Heroes were deemed suckers. German soldiers returning from the front were insulted, spat upon & beaten by recently-converted Marxists, many of whom were jews, who quickly moved to take over Germany. Weimar was an inferior attempt to return to a pre-war past, & it was also ineffective, although it purported to be "revolutionary". By curing the ills of Weimar, National Socialism was truly revolutionary, & it worked for everybody, unless one were a subversive &/or a criminal. Even non-Germans prospered under National Socialism in Germany, but not the international banksters!

Our Weimarization accelerates for the benefit of the few, at the expense of the many. Along with GM, Ford is closing factories & reducing its employees in the USA. No doubt they have shifted operations to China, so their dividends will continue to flow. For years since my return to the Jew Ass Oy Veh, I have noted the continued rise of stocks with the continued loss of U.S. jobs. It's an obvious war against the producers, on behalf of the stock speculators & plutocratic parasites. The USA is withering under this plague of locusts, but the sheeple do not respond, as yet.

In regard to the ubiquity of the media jews, I believe that the blighting mantra of jews comprising no more than 2% or 3% of the U.S. population is just kosher crap. I think, as did Mark Twain during the Reconstruction Period, that jews are much more numerous. For one thing, it is forbidden to count jews, according to their religion. For another, jews like to claim they are not. The kike, Armand Hammer, claimed he was not a jew, because he helped establish & fund The Unitarian Universalist Church. The Rockefellers claim to be Baptists or some such, although J.D. Rockefeller's father was a rabbi. The jews play the old shell game with Goyim, jumping from nationality, to race, to religion to gull the Gentile rubes. Cardinal Lustiger proclaimed that he was a Christian, but he remained a jew. The first was his alleged religion, the second his real nationality. Then there are degrees of jewishness in terms of religion: orthodox, Hasidic & "secular"! No wonder the Goyim are confused, just as the jews intend. Non-jewish Zionists who do the jews' bidding are numerous as well, so their influential positions reflect numerous & ORGANIZED support. The fact that they now use Black frontmen, rather than Whites to a growing extent informs us of our

3) declining position on the ZOG's totem pole in this plutocratic empire, as you observe. One possible advantage in this displacement of Whites may be that Whites will no longer see the ZOG's Black faces as representing their interests, although the ZOG teaches us to love & honor the Blacks, but not Whites! A boomerang effect may result if this Bush regime & its Black stooges are discredited. Who wants to be First Mate on The Titanic?

As you say, French Nationalists must await the proper time for action. One problem with Le Pen's party is that some high-ranking members are married to non-Whites & deem "legal" aliens to be "French". Thus, the racial rotters are in place to sabotage a Nationalist revolution, unless they are dealt with. Similarly, Jared Taylor is being dubbed a "racist", but he may not be White & he deems Jews as "White". So much for his "American Renaissance". Nation is not place, it's race, a matter of biology, not geography. As you say, in this period of disintegration, the attempt to create a mass party is poorly timed. Political activists must prepare for the opportunity which will stem from major events, for people must be mentally prepared to adapt to radical changes. They refuse to consider radical thoughts until they undergo radical circumstances, which they so far refuse to see coming. As has been said, "The prospect of hanging concentrates a man's mind wondrously." The majority may not even focus their minds when the noose is placed around their collective neck, as it now is. The absence of such featherless bipeds will be one key to progress, so spring the trap & "bring it on", as King George II has declared.

Thanks for the info on the African influx. That's what we need, more niggers! According to NPR Jewradio, an outfit called American Jewish World Service is sponsoring this invasion at Gentiles' expense. It's always nice to know who the real enemy is.

I enclose a recent item from The Detroit News in regard to the so-called wilderness in which edible plants & animals exist. It turns out that our "wilderness areas" are already crowded. The article refers to poachers, but people in The Great White Hopeland who have flown over alleged wilderness areas, including "national" parks report an abundance of squatters who live scattered throughout these places, in addition to the even more numerous Injuns. If we ever have to 'head for the hills', we'll have lots of company, & they may not be too friendly. Yes, "the hills are alive with the sound of poachers!" I can imagine Julie Andrews meeting the hill folks from "Deliverance". Ouch! She'd wish she were with the Nazis from "The Sound of Music"! The meth industry is growing apace, just as a DEA agent sang: "Methlabs are bustin' out all over!" Although they are said to proliferate in rural areas, there are many labs found in small towns & places like Yakima. Meth seems to be an Anglo business, rather than Hispano. Anglos are specimens who look like Mexicans, but show a Confederate flag on their pickups. Anglos drive rigs with big wheels & Hispanos drive rigs with small wheels. Both use boomboxes with which they bombard their neighborhoods with dreadful decibels. Between Anglo-mestizos & Hispano-mestizos there is nothing from which to choose. Anglos seem to be the perpetrators of hold ups, as I gather from the local Jewmedia, & Hispanos go for car thefts & break ins, as well as home-invasions.

Remember: these are the good times! You seem to be getting a whiff of the bleak new world of the oncoming inflationary depression. Maybe we can become gardeners on a Chinese-owned estate. To kowtow is to show the required respect for one's Oriental boss. One gets down on all fours & lies face down on the ground or floor, as the case may be. Jesuits do this for the Pope in some of their ceremonies. This posture allows the boss or ruler to kill or abuse his employee or subject conveniently, so it is a sign of defencelessness as well as subservience. Enjoy! as the Jews say. The new America will be an S & M paradise of poverty, violence, suffering & cruelty, remedied by death. If this preview is correct, it will be the cost of our doing nothing when we had even minimal means to defend our interests by attacking our oppressors, but if the masses remain apathetic, it ill-behooves an activist to go to bat for them. That's why timing is essential in comedy & politics. Think of Rhodesia & White-ruled South Africa, when the means were there, but the Whites abandoned them & their own right to live, by their own consent. It can happen here, & maybe it has already. DOWZ! & ORION! E.T.
