

18 DEC 05. Dear Brian! Many thanks for your mailing of 13 DEC 05, including your great letters & enclosures! Two subjects seem to crop <sup>up</sup> repeatedly via Zudnik sources: (1) The alleged glorious Putin & (2) The alleged revisionist hero, Zündel. Since Putin endorses the Holohoax, Zudnik support for Putin would appear to negate their support for The Zud. Of course, NEITHER of these personages has much of a track record for White Nationalists. Indeed, with Zündel, who endorses a list of muds, there is no positive record at all. It appears that Putin is striving to maintain portions of Russia's empire from his position in Rump Russia. Since the jewsmedia are similar to a pair of spectacles with one lens covered up & the other out of focus, it is difficult for us Goyim to know what is really going on, especially in ZOG's areas of particular interest, such as countries with oil-fields, as in the former Russian Empire. The latest jews reports claim that there is a Moslem - Moscow conflict which is spreading outside of Chechnya, into the northern Caucasus regions. The profile which such reports describe is that of a Moslem nationalist movement, in which the majority Moslem population seeks self-determination & land for the Moslem majority. The vicious killings of masses of non-Moslems in return for their vicious military campaign against the Moslems indicates a major turf battle brewing, rather than a mere Chechen separatist movement. Putin may be drafted as a Christian crusader, but there are lots of problems with that, for Western Europe is already a Moslem colony. One would think that Putin & Bush would get along, but both appear to be using THEIR Moslems on behalf of oil interests. It does appear that the U.S. ZOG is supporting the Chechen rebels, as it did the Taliban, when the Soviets were in Afghanistan (again, over oil routes). On the other hand, just from a "cui bono?" aspect, Russia & China may be supporting the anti-U.S. forces in Iraq & also in Afghanistan. Remember, Pakistan was a Chinese ally during the "Cold War", whereas India was a Soviet 'friend'. Israel & Pakistan seem to be in close contact, while Israel supplies China with the latest U.S. technology, especially military technology. Although I am not from Missouri, I would like to be shown what Putin is really doing on behalf of the White Race & on behalf of the Russian people, as distinguished from the denizens who dwell in Russian territory. For whom does Putin toil? The Russians or the 'others'? Until now, all I gather is wishful-thinking in regard to Putin.

This same wishful-thinking goes for The Zud, who actually sabotaged his own Holohoax trial in Toronto, by ignoring Hilberg's book when Hilberg was on the witness stand, for 'fear of the jews'. My essay, "Hilberg versus Hilberg on the Holohoax" refers. If you can't find it on www.FAEM.com or VNN, please let me know. I shall supply you with a photocopy in due course, hopefully with this letter. One aspect of this Zündel business is that hardly anybody who invests such wishful-thinking in The Zündel Myth has ever met him, nor attempted to work with him. Few met his jewish mistress, "Anne Burton", who <sup>was</sup> every bit his dominatrix. She not only told him what to do, but she could reconstruct his memory of his own experiences, as in some movie about mind-control. I saw it firsthand. Not only that, but I attended both Holohoax trials, so I know about Zündel's revisionist commissions & omissions. I was there, & those who sing The Zud's praises were not.

My motive for pointing out this folly is to warn wishful-thinkers that The Zud may betray them, just as he did with White Nationalism. The Zud is a most reluctant hero, for he seeks ego-gratification via publicity & profit by self-promotion. Whatever satisfies these objectives has his support. My translation of Fieldmarshal Milch's sworn statement in 1947 reveals the sort of temptations which the ZOG may offer him, & my knowledge of The Zud does not include the degree of personal bravery & integrity which Fieldmarshal Milch demonstrated. Observers of Zündel's behavior after his second incarceration in Toronto described him as "scared", as if he had been told what the ZOG would do if he pursued his creation of an organization. In any case, Zündel was a changed man after he was freed the second time & won his case, finally, in The Supreme Court of Canada. After that, he seemed to fall to pieces & he worked actively to alienate those of us who'd fought on his behalf so he could enter the courthouse during his trials.

Zündel is a myth, largely of his own creation & that of the jewsmedia. As a myth, he is a symbol, justified or not, as one who differs with the kosher partyline. What he is as a person is not important to the ZOG, unless he proclaims that he now believes in the Holohoax. If the ZOG is desperate, they might just kill him & claim that he no longer denied the Holohoax, via a forged statement. He may not live to be tried, with or without a statement. Let us consider what he could do if he were to accept a ZOG offer: He could recant. He could say that he was a "self-hating jew" as his motive for Holohoax denial & "pro-Nazi" statements. He would be "one more victim" of National Socialism! Think of the publicity he could get as a

2) 'born-again' Holohoax-believer, along with an endless flow of sheenie shekels. Knowing The Zud, as I do, such an offer would be a huge temptation: life, 'fame' & fortune, if he would just say the word. He already has admitted that he owes no loyalty to any particular people, including White people, so what is loyalty to a principle, such as truth? If he were to think of others, for a change, he might think of his hostages which the ZOG could deal with, mafia-style, just as I warned him in 1976. At that point, his jew dominatrix told him to "banish negative thoughts," so he did. ZUndel proceeded as if he had nothing to lose by his course of action. Now he knows that I wasn't joking, for he has experienced worse than I'd warned him: deportation plus incarceration. I always hate to be right, but it had already happened to me in terms of more deportations (a present total of 5), but shorter incarcerations, so I'm not an idle spectator. I already knew what the ZOG could do. The Zud did not want to know, so he found out in terms of his own behavior. I knew that I was expendable, but ZUndel did not want to know that. In his case, ignorance is not bliss.

What I want to see is that he will live up to his myth; that he will show the same sort of bravery & integrity as Fieldmarshal Milch, who was also a jew, as ZUndel has hinted in his own case. I do not want his supporters to be embarrassed nor disappointed as I was when ZUndel renounced his White Nationalist position. Will he renounce his anti-Holohoax position as well? Stay tuned! My advice is for people not to presume ZUndel's revisionist heroism until he proves it. If the ZOG wants to crucify revisionists, a Judas will do as much as a Jesus to impress the Goyim.

A complicating factor is the number of other revisionists now in ZOG's bag: Verbeke, Rudolf & Irving. Will the ZOG try to play one off against the other? Will it snuff one or more before trial? Will it give them the Christian option of renunciation or death? These are, after all, "thought-criminals". After they serve their time in the ZOG-gulag, will they be freed on the condition that they go & say no more about the Holohoax? What is the current relevance of the Holohoax in today's multi-racial, multi-cultural mess? Apparently, Israel & its Zionist stooges want to make the Holohoax an issue for the masses, but other issues are more likely to intervene in terms of politics, economics & demographics.

You have raised a classic issue with the politician: can he be right in terms of his principles, & also relevant to the constituents? Enoch Powell was correct in regard to foresight, but those who should have supported him could not see far enough. Savitri Devi wrote of men IN time, ABOVE time & AGAINST time. Successful politicians most often succeed by selling out to the highest bidder. They are men IN time. A man like H.L. Mencken or Buddha was ABOVE time, having no concern for the fate of the masses. Men like Hitler, Rockwell, Tyndall & Jordan were AGAINST time, for they struggled on behalf of Golden Age values in the midst of The Dark Age. Men IN time tend to be "trimmers" who sell out to one degree or another, usually to achieve personal success. Can one claim to support a people or principle in terms of degrees, or is that like being "a little bit pregnant?" Bismarck said that politics was a matter of time & place, in which one could grasp History's skirts as she rushes by, & that the politician must struggle to hang on as long as possible. In my own experience, I know it is necessary to decide if an objective is worth pursuing, if necessary, to death. If the objective is deemed that important, then one must go all out to achieve it, like a soldier in battle who throws his own body across the enemy wire, to speed the advance of his comrades. There are no second chances, no excuses for half-measures nor pulled punches. Politics or people-power is not a game nor a practice exercise. It is serious & should be taken seriously by those who participate. The Zud showed that he did not take it seriously, but the ZOG did! I doubt that his jew judges will believe ZUndel if he claims it was just a 'joke' & he never really meant it. It does not matter to them if he did or did not mean it, for he is now on their sacrificial altar, no doubt to his surprise. Now he must decide if he will squirm to avoid the knife, or if he will bravely accept his fate, like Fieldmarshal Milch. Maybe, in the last moment, he will regret that he did not do what he could have done, when he had the opportunity, or maybe he will decide that such fame & fortune as he has achieved came at too great a price. Such a deal!

The jew, Sarkozy, may try to play both ends against the middle in France, as in a one-man 'good cop-bad cop' act, in which he punishes & panders to the Afro-Moslems & pulls the wool over the eyes of the French, who should do themselves a favor by sobering up!

The jewsmedia have suddenly become silent about the Arab-White racial confrontation in Australia. Did all the rioters get tired & go home to watch themselves on TV? When can we have the jew-spin blarney on the matter? Maybe it is deemed a 'non-event'. All the best. DOWZ! & ORION!
