Dear Sir,

I read the article of Mr. Johan Engelbrecht "The war of the Afrikaner" in the issue of 16/9 and must shake my head. Like many of our people who read the Bible, Mr. Engelbrecht does not understand the book. He says that we must go on our knees so that OUR GOD will help us. In other words if we pray 10 times a day, 365 days a year, God is obliged to help us. We must understand that God owes us nothing. We owe him everything we have. God is the god of 2 billion Christians, not only 3 million Afrikaners. Most of them are non-whites, therefore to whom must God listen? Our missionaries made such a good job that God is now also the God of our enemies and they pray every day for the destruction of the White man at the tip of Africa and all over the world. What must God do?

God is neutral. He is not interested in Afrikaners, blacks, Whites, Muslims, Christians or any other faith or race. God's message to man, animals or plants is simple": SURVIVE.

If the entire Afrikaner nation would die today, it would make no difference. The sun would rise tomorrow morning, the earth would turn as every day and 3 million of our people would have disappeared- 0,0005% of the world population. History will soon forget the White people at the tip of Africa who was so stupid as to give away the land that God gave them, and that just for a pension and a 4x4.

Our folk has forgotten the lessons of the Bible. God made the Earth and everything on the planet. He made also Nature and the laws of Nature. And he said : Grow and multiply. Make children. Fill the land with your own kind. He did not say:" You must have only two children, because you must make place for the children of the Black man, and give them food, medicine, and build them houses, and then give us your land also.

He said:"Grow and multiply your own kind. Do not worry about the other breeds of people. They do what they must do. They make a lot of children because they know that children are the future of a folk.

God is not on the side of the good people. Read the Bible! Abel was a good man but he was weak. His brother murdered him, but God did not help Abel or punish Kane. Abel was not strong enough to survive, therefore he disappeared from the Bible and from then on it was the story of Kane. Read also the story of Jacob and Esau. I call our Afrikaner "Esau's people" because we have given away our birthright for a pot of soup. Esau had red hair and worked very hard to feed his family. Jakob stayed near his mother in the kitchen and was scheming to find a way to rob his brother from his birthright. Esau was a White man, as only Whites have red hair. Jakob on the other hand was a Jew. God did not punish Jacob for robbing his brother. From then on, it was the story of Jakob and his children.

What about good Lot and his harlot daughter or David and Jonathan? Every story is the same. The one with the will to survive will survive. It does not matter what he does. God is on the side of the WINNERS, not the losers. In the Roman circus, the Christians were also praying, but God was on the side of the lions which ate them up. The losers always disappear from history -Point. Napoleon once said that God is on the side of the big battalions. Here in South Africa for the moment the big battalions are black, but in a few years this is likely to change. We must prepare for that and we must make children. We must not worry what will happen to them, or if they can get a "job", or how much it will cost. If we want to win, we must bring children into this world. Without it, we will be waiting for God for nothing. If our people cannot become a big enough folk, it is finish for us.

Pray as you wish, but remember: God help only those who help themselves. Be a WINNER. The way you win is not important to God. He just tell you to SURVIVE!

27 JAN 06. Dear Phil: Many thanks for your latest mailing of 25 JAN! The Covington-Williams Case is really a spectacular achievement in the 'anals' of the blighting bowel movement. What I say stands, but if the download with Metzger's comments thereon is a lie, then the condemnation goes over to the ones who created the alleged CNN report. The blighters &/or the ADL (what's the difference?) are libelling the White Cause by their mere association therewith. One could expect nothing less from the ZOG, since that's been their track record since the 1930s: obfuscation, character-assassination & literal assassination. We never seem to learn.

Thanks for the download on the alleged Homeland Security seizure of safety deposit boxes! Now there's one I can analyze in terms of its veracity: The writer who THINKS he is anonymous, claimed to have had a bank informant who is a B. of A. branch manager in Irvine, CA. Thus, the writer might as well have given HER (!) name & address over the Internet. If revealing ZOG secrets is now a crime, then there is nothing to prevent the abduction of the writer & his bankster relative. It would be easy for the NSA to trace, via its Internet surveillance methods. Of course, a savvy net-nerd would plant such a detail in disinformation, in an attempt to derail the ZOG, but what net-nerds do not seem to acknowledge is that Internet use is not anonymous, so the user can be traced, right to his basement, if need be. Sheeple do not understand what can happen in a declared state of emergency. We already know that anyone may be seized, abducted, confined & tortured by ZOG, without ever being charged. We know that trials are a 'luxury', which those who are accused by ZOG for any reason may be denied, since there is no record of their arrests. The sheeple are 'fleeing' right into the arms of Big Brother, & will they ever regret it! We would be most fortunate if our safety deposits were the ONLY things this ZOG would take. It will not stop at that, we can be assured. Warm-fuzzy fantasies may be rudely interrupted, sooner than we expect.

The rense.com download from Paul Roberts (purportedly) addresses the issue of a new federal police force created under the so-called Patriot Act. I think such a force already existed: The U.S. Marshals. Conferring labels on people does not confer loyalty, so such ZOG-thugs may be few, & they may be resisted by those in government & police forces who do not support these new ZOG policies. We shall see, no doubt, how this situation develops.

Many thanks for the recent Wall St. Journal article on Chinese dealings with oil-producing countries, including The Middle East. If the USA continues to mess up Middle East oil-production on behalf of Israel, then the USA must, eventually, answer to China. I suspect that there is much diplomatic discussion of this situation behind the curtains, but the pattern is clear: China wants oil, much more of it. Oil supplies are limited & the USA is China's competitor for oil, worldwide. Of course, were China to push the USA out of the world oil market, the USA might collapse as a major market for Chinese goods. But does China need the USA? If China can get its raw materials from other sources, it can raise Chinese pay, thereby creating its own internal market for its goods. Why trade real items for U.S. funny-money? China will likely squeeze whatever value it can by spending USA's jew-I.O.U.s while they still buy somethings, such as U.S. real estate & other countries' national debts. But the Jewnited States is not blind to such possibilities, so it may start a third world war in Iran, before this judeo-masonic entity finally sinks into the cesspool of history, where it surely belongs.

Sometimes fiction can be prophetic, as was "Ayn Rand's" depiction of Jew York Shitty's Marxist delapidation & squalor. The noxious niggers are the result of applied Marxism: From each, according to his ability, to each, according to his need. Then there was "1984", which has come to pass. I vaguely recall a 'science fiction' story, which I read as a child, in which The United States is depicted as a criminal organization, capable only of terrorizing portions of its former territory. It is as if a gang of crooks found the government abandoned, & they swiped its institutions, its weapons, its uniforms & stationery for their own purposes, amid popular apathy & loathing. There are signs that this fiction is also becoming fact. It would be interesting to use a Time Machine to visit this continent 50 years from now, for the only constant is change for the worse or for the better, but for whom?

All the best. DOWZ! & ORION!
