

YOM KIPPUR — What Is It?

On the evening of October 12, Jews around the world gathered to celebrate the most holy day on the Jewish calendar. It is called Yom Kippur, or Day of Atonement. At synagogues everywhere worshippers recited the so-called Kol Nidre prayer. Taken from the first two Hebrew words of the prayer, "Kol Nidre," it means "all vows."

The *goyim are told that Yom Kippur is an occasion when pious, saintly Jews approach their Maker in a penitential rite to beg his forgiveness for wrongs they have committed during the past year.

RUBBISH! The occasion is nothing less than a time when Jews ask for and receive absolution for all the sins and wrongs they are about to commit—IN THE COMING YEAR! In so doing, they cut a lawyer's deal with their god (whom they call YHWH, or Yahweh) which gives them an exemption in advance from all wrongdoing.

Here is the actual text of this outrageous "prayer":

"All vows, bonds, devotions, promises, obligations, penalties and oaths wherewith we may vow, swear, devote or bind ourselves: From this Day of Atonement until the next Day of Atonement, may it come unto us for good,—lo, all these—we repent us in them. They shall all be absolved, released, annulled, and made void and of no effect; they shall not be binding, nor shall they have any power. Our vows shall not be vows; our bonds shall not be bonds; and our oaths shall not be oaths."

That's pretty clear, unambiguous language. What we have here, in fact, is nothing less than a one-year, renewable license to lie, cheat and steal with impunity, all based on a decree from the Jews' so-called holy book, which says:

"And he who desires that none of his vows made during the year shall be valid, let him stand at the beginning of the year and declare, 'Every vow which I make in the future shall be null.'"

(Babylonian Talmud, Tractate Nedarim 23a & 23b)

Among those who will be reciting the Kol Nidre oath are the many Jewish politicians, judges, lawyers, corporate executives, businessmen, journalists, commentators and spokespersons disproportionately represented in public life today. It should be noted that any oaths they may take to uphold and defend the Constitution or otherwise tell the truth are, as of this occasion, "abandoned, cancelled, null and void" and rendered "without power and without standing."

Isn't that nice?

Lost Tribe found in India

More than 2,000 years after they claim to have first set foot in India, the mystery of the world's most obscure Jewish community—the Marathi-speaking Bene Israel—may finally have been solved with genetic carbon-dating revealing they carry the unusual Moses gene that would make them, literally the original children of Israel.

Four years of DNA tests on the 4,000-strong Bene Israel—now mainly based in Mumbai, Pune, Thane and Ahmedabad—indicates they are probable descendants of a small group of hereditary Israelite priests, or Cohanim, according to results of a new study.

The priests are scattered worldwide but genetically related in a distinctive fashion that leaves just a billion-to-one chance of a mistake in identifying who the Bene Israel really are, says Tudor Parfitt, Jewish Studies professor at London's School of Oriental and African Studies.

Parfitt, who initiated and led the research, says this is the first concrete proof that "exiles from Palestine made it as far as India and managed to maintain Judaism in the sea of Hinduism and Islam."

In the early '50s, 30,000 Bene Israelis returned to the so-called Promised Land, soon after the state of Israel was created. Their Indian appearance, cricket-playing, sari-wearing, curry-eating and Marathi-speaking habits led to a bitter battle for recognition as "real Jews."

The name Bene Israel literally means "Children of Israel," and their legend of origin holds their ancestors to be Jews fleeing persecution in Palestine in 175 BC.

According to the legend, seven men and seven women survived a shipwreck near Navgaon village on the Konkan coast. Their descendants became thoroughly Indian, except for observing Saturday, the Jewish sabbath, as a weekly holiday. The practice led them to be known as Shanwar Teli, Marathi for "Saturday oil-pressers."

It was only 1964, that the Israeli prime minister declared they were genuinely Jewish and should be allowed to return to Israel and intermarry.

But now, the new study goes one better. By studying certain genetic markers in the DNA chain, found only in male descendants of Aaron, Moses' elder brother, who founded the line of Jewish priests, the Bene Israel could well claim to be the purest of the pure.

The new research has also found preliminary genetic evidence to show the declining community of Black Jews of Cochin left Israel in remote historical times.

The new data, which has been featured in leading Western scientific journals, comes after painstaking efforts to genetically source the origins of India's other, self-professed "lost" Jewish tribes, including the Manipuri Jews and the Telugu-speaking Jews of Guntur.

"And thou shalt consume all the people which Adonai thy god shall deliver thee; thine eye shall have no pity upon them . . ."

—THE TORAH, Deuteronomy 7:16

"This is the saying of Rabbi Simon ben Yohai: 'Tob shebe goyim harog.' ('Even the best of the Gentiles should all be killed.')"

4 FEB 06. Hail John! Thanks for your letter of 31 JAN 06! As far as I know Tay-Sachs is only found in jews, because "jew" is biology, not theology (religion). What the jews say is usually the opposite of the truth, even in regard to themselves. A jew is a mongrel comprised of all 3 races, to one degree or another, as their own studies report. There is no such thing as a 'pure' mongrel. The funny thing is that jews are also inbred mongrels! They resemble their host peoples wherever they lived, allegedly, because jew men too. Gentile women as wives, according to a jewish source, but after that, they became very exclusive & clannish, so they bred amongst themselves. The Khazar jews, or Ashkenazim, got their White genes from Scandinavians who drank & whored down the Volga River on their way to trade in Arabia. Other major rivers, such as the Don & the Dnieper flowed through the Khazar Empire, so Nordic people visited ports where they also traded, whored & drank. The Blacks were cargo, that is, slaves, which were also traded. That's how the Khazar jew got his Afro-Eurasian genetic make up. The Asiatic Tartars also went through that area of southern Russia, so their genes also mixed with the Khazars. Around 700 A.D. the pagan Khazars converted to Judaism, by order of King Bulan, who wanted to avoid strife between Moslems & Christians. This conversion causes lots of confusion amongst the Goyim or human cattle, as jews call us, for suddenly, the Khazars became "jews". This is not only a change of religion, but a change of nationality, in the way the words are used by the jews. Suppose that the English, on their conversion to Christianity, chose to call themselves "Christians" instead of English. That's what the Khazars did, although they still call themselves Ashkenazim, a Hebrewized word, when they refer to other jews, such as the Sephardim or Falashim. In Russia, their internal passports called them "Zhids", Russian for "jew" or "yid". This racial mixture was also cultural, for the former Khazars spoke a trade language based on German, with many foreign words. This language was also written in Hebrew letters. It is called Yiddish or Yid-Deutsch, which means jew-German, similar to "pidgin English", or kitchen Kaffir. These are mixed languages which developed from long contacts amongst trading peoples. In Spanish, the jews have "Ladino", the Spanish spoken by jews, also written in Hebrew letters as a code to conceal messages from the jews' host peoples. The Cockneys of London have a dialect of English with lots of jewish words throughout, like pepper on scrambled eggs. It is also interesting that these jewish versions of English, Spanish & German are known as "criminal dialects", for criminals, whether jew or non-jew tend to use them! Gentile thieves usually sell their loot to jews, who make the real money off the stolen goods, not the "dumb goyim" who do the work & incur the danger of being caught & punished! Such a deal! In conclusion: there are Russian jews, Arab jews, Black jews, Indian jews & Chinese jews. Khazar or Russian jews also moved into countries of Western Europe, so we can find Swedish jews, Dutch jews, &c. I've met them, in & out of Europe. Because I speak Spanish & German, I can follow most parts of Yiddish or Ladino, for most of the words are German or Spanish. Although I speak English, I have the same difficulties in the other languages if I encounter a foreign word. Cockneys use such words as "nosh" & "schnorrer" which mean "meal" & "moocher". Would you understand the meaning of "We had a great nosh"? Or, "he's a right schnorrer"? One has to learn a new vocabulary. The cops do!

Modern DNA testing can easily identify a person's race or mixture thereof. Some jews have claimed that Hitler was jewish. I reply that he still has relatives, & he had, I think, two sisters & a brother, whose remains could be tested for the presence of Afro-Asiatic genes. If they are present, then Hitler would be a biological jew, but if not, then he'd be Aryan or White. Now, it would be simple to do. So what do the jews say? They shut up. They will wait awhile before they trot out that same old lie again, as they always do. Gentiles forget. Jews don't forget because they always chant: "Never forgive! Never forget!" That's how they can keep all their lies straight, although they have failed with their many contradictory Holohoax Hokum, such as "burning bodies in deep pits at Auschwitz", where the water table is barely four feet below the surface. This would mean that the bodies were burned under water! Hey, if the jews' god can part the Red Sea, then the Nazis can burn jews under water. Miracles are miracles! Well, the Holohoax consists of too many such 'miracles' to be credible, if we think about it. Most Goyim do not think, so we get the old jew screw, time after time.

All the best & ORION!
