

LET'S YOU & HIM FIGHT by E. Thomson, 17 FEB 06

The date seems important, since we may have little time in which to save ourselves from another one-way tour of the kosher slaughterhouse, which is being prepared for us by our jew bankster masters & their Zionist gangster stooges, our ZOG, for short. A recent turn of the kosher kaleidoscope has caused certain pieces to fall into place, in which the sheenies are actively promoting animosities amongst their chosen Goy targets, in this case Whites & non-White Moslems, whom the jews have assisted in invading our former living space as 'guest-workers', 'refugees', &c. Moslem immigration has also been promoted in the cause of 'diversity', the old divide-&-rule formula, which so often explodes, as we have seen in the former Yugoslavia, Iraq, post-colonial Africa, Indonesia, & now, European countries such as Holland, Denmark, U.K. & of course, France. Since wars are the jews' harvests, & Gentile conflicts weaken the jews' hosts, & distract them from the jews' exploitation & depredations, the more diversity, the better for the kosher vampires. Australia is not spared these vexations, which are sure to worsen unless Whites take all necessary measures for their self-defence. Our foremost enemy is not the wogs, but our respective ZOGs. Our enemy is at home, not abroad, so the best way to fight is here, on our own soil, while we still may call it "our own." It's a clear decision: Die for ZOG or die fighting it. Which will it be, sheeple? The choice is yours. You had that choice in all the wars you & yours fought. In fact, you have had that choice for millennia. As usual, sheeple follow their Judas Goat leaders or shabez Goy frontmen, so as to achieve the destruction of their own people, as in ancient Greece. Therefore, what I write now is not "news," but it is as true today as it was in 500 B.C. The jew vampires don't need to change their tricks because we refuse to learn, obviously! This 'secret' of the jews' success against us is due largely because our parents refuse to teach us, as mine did. Dad would mention his run-ins with scammers & exploiters, whose names I only later learned, on my own, were jew names. With 20-20 hindsight, I now realize that I was being groomed by a local jew family to be their shabez Goy. As a 10 year old, I earned some change by mowing their lawns in San Fernando, California. My parents knew they were jews all right, but to my dumb Goy parents, jews were just people who went to a different church! It's quite possible that they might say the same of mafiosi! They were too 'good' to see any badness in others, so I had to learn that lesson on my own. Fortunately, they did teach me that rattlesnakes are poisonous, but that's about all. Well, Dad did advise me not to stand behind a horse, so I never got kicked in the head. I don't know why so many sheeple behave as if they'd been kicked in the head. Perhaps their parents never warned them. I like to give sheeple the benefit of the doubt.

When I received news that a jew in Denmark, Flemming Rose, had drawn the anti-Moslem cartoons & is now hiding in Usreal, & that a jew posing as a Moslem cleric is inflaming Moslems in England, by the name of Sheikh Omar Bakri Muhammad, I opined that a new jew crusade was being prepared in which Goyim would fight Goyim to enhance the jews' power & wealth. I recalled that this very same ploy was used to foment the first crusades, & I recall (correct me if I'm wrong) that the reigning pope had urged Emperor Frederick Barbarossa (Red-beard) to secure the passage of Christian pilgrims into their 'holy land'. Frederick said he'd get right on it. As I recall, he was a well-educated man, quite unlike Bush #2, so he contacted the relevant Moslem rulers of the so-called holy land for reassurances that Christian pilgrims would be welcome to visit their holy sites, just as Moslem pilgrims did. I guess the Moslem rulers replied, "Sure, come right in. Bring your money & don't bust up the place." Frederick went to the pope to tell him, "It's a done deal. Is there anything more you want, Your Excellency?" Much to Frederick's surprise, the pope was apocalyptically apoplectic: "What? No invasion, no blood, no hate, no slaughter? For shame, you sinner!" I recall that Frederick caved in & agreed to the first violent incursion into Palestine, but he was made to stand outside, in the cold, for several days at Canossa, before the pope would see him. The ostensible idea behind the crusades was to kill or convert all unbelievers in the Jesus business, & to seize lands occupied by such unbelievers, exactly as the Moslems had been told to do by their leaders. So, the crusaders hastened to do in the unbelievers in The Middle East, while leaving the jews, i.e. unbelievers, behind in their European homelands, under the protection of the Church which had commanded them to "slay unbelievers". Do you see what I see? Yes, folks, it's the old jew-screw in which Goyim kill Goyim & the hebes count the shekels resulting therefrom. Now the churches have collapsed like an edifice made of silly-putty, before the God of Tolerance & Diversity, so the jew warmongers must goad the new crusaders to kill Moslems in a 'holy war' against "terrorism." It's our choice: fight for ZOG abroad or fight for us at home. DCWZ! & ORION!
