28 MAR 06. Hail Harold! Many thanks, as always, for the historical background material. I enjoyed the article on Dreyfus. It reminded me of a professor who made the pessimistic remark that "People believe what they want to believe, regardless of truth or facts." It appears that the Dreyfus Case still has its supporters on both sides. I tend to accept the items featured in the Wernick article, although there is one dog that did not bark in the night: As I understand, the Western Allies seized the archives of the German War Ministry in toto, according to one source. When they allegedly did that & where, & under what circumstances, I do not know. Clearly, the USA has tons of German documents at Suitland, MD, which were carted off after World War II, & many of which have yet to be translated or even read, as I have been led to believe. Surely, the "Hitler Order" for gassing all the jews will be 'discovered' in that mountain of paper someday! Ha! The plethora of 'evidence' surrounding The Dreyfus Case, along with jewish involvement reminds me of the growing encrustation of disinformation accruing to The Protocols, as to it being a "forgery" or not. The question not asked by very many is how it can be that a "forgery" so closely resembles history. Henry Ford said of The Protocols, "They fit (the facts)." Ford is falsely accused of apologizing for his expensive project involved with affirming or denying the truth of The Protocols, regardless of their origin: "The International Jew," which I've read. Yes, The Protocols do fit the facts in regard to jewish policies, no matter who wrote them. The origins are present in The Old Testament & The Talmud, for the most part, but Goyim are usually too dumb to put 2 & 2 together. As Dietlieb Felderer said of the sheeple herded through the Auschwitz Museum: "They are already in a reverent trance when they enter, & exhibits are kept in semi-darkness to enhance the trance, rather than enlighten viewers so one might ask a question." Dietlieb visited Auschwitz 52 times & took excellent slides of places where normal visitors were not permitted, because authorities thought he was a commie, whose wife was Philippina, whom they thought was Vietnamese, during the Vietnam War! Actually, Dietlieb was a reformed Jehovah's Witness after discovering that the cult avowed the Holohoax. Dietlieb was so devout that he believed "bearing false witness" was really a sin! His passion for truth got him into the Swedish ZOG-gulag. Thanks to him, we made the video on "Genocide by Propaganda," in Toronto, now suppressed by the blightwing, as usual. Some things never seem to change!

Thanks for the download on the post-WW I "Red Scare", the Wobblies, et al. Once again, we must ask "cui bono?" when "anarchist bombs, &c." are discovered. Who funded the stunts? Imagine someone attempting to send bombs through the mail with postage due! Well, there are "useful idiots," as well as agents provocateurs. There are also dysfunctional "true-believers," as we know or should know by now. "Cui bono?" remains the question to ask, always, before, during & after a deed of omission or commission. Is it good for Whites? we should always ask. Our present situation proves that most Whites have never asked that question, & still do not do so, in their own interests. Obviously, that's why jews have succeeded so well, for that is the first question they ask: "Is it good for jews?"

Thanks also for the biographical article which updates recent adventures or misadventures of the Du Pont family. Ah, can money buy happiness? I tend to agree with a Black songstress who opined: "Ah've bin rich & Ah've bin po', but rich is best!"

The omnipresent bankster-ZOG is likely to perpetrate similar violent provocations & round ups of dissidents in the forthcoming crises on the domestic front, as occurred during the ferment following the end of WW I & the advent of jew-bolshevism. It's all theme & variations under the direction of the same kosher conductors. It appears that we are listening to the slow build up in their latest symphony of slaughter. Ravel depicted such a collapse in his "La Valse." American sheeple do not know what is about to hit them, & they do not want to know. Religion was the Russians' opiate, & niggerball is ours, as circuses were to the decadent Romans. Now that the U.S. Frankenstein's Monster has opened his living quarters to mass invasion from Latin America, there is quite a line up of contenders. The hispano-mestizos may rush in first, but the Chinese want North America, & they will likely get it, since they are patient, as well as opportunistic. Since they know who they are & who they will be, they can plan in thousand year terms. That is their chief advantage over us, as I see it. All the best & ORION!

'...we must keep our eyes on the distant horizon and at the same time master the day-to-day problems that lie immediately before us. We must be a step ahead in our thinking — never once believing that we have reached perfection in anything. We must be ready to move quickly in any direction to meet new conditions of a progressive world.' Jim Casey, 1948
