

7 MAY 06. Hail John! Many thanks for your letter of 28 APR 06 & enclosures! I may have mentioned that I met Ben Klassen in Reedy, WV, in 1976. He wanted me to lend him $3 million so he could start up a COTC franchise coast to coast. I asked him what made him think that I had so much money, & he said he figured I must have lots of zogbucks since I put out a real good publication. I said, "That's why I'm broke. The money goes into the publication, which makes very little money in subscriptions." I asked my partner, George Dietz, if he had $3 million to spare in petty cash, but Dietz said, "Sorry, I left my wallet at home!" Our first impression of Klassen was that he was pretty strange. In fact, he seemed naive, as if he could be conned into buying the Brooklyn Bridge, or some offshore real estate in Florida; you could try it yourself: just visit some strangers & ask them for a loan of several million dollars up front! Ha! You'd do better selling Kirby vacuum cleaners, I can assure you.

I am flattered if your zoggies are fans of my letters. Knowledge should be shared, & as long as you receive your mail, including my letters, I don't mind. The more readers, the merrier!

Yes, it will be interesting to see what "new discoveries" the hebes have concocted for Holohoax propaganda at The International Tracing Service in Arolsen, Germany. 17 million is a new jew figure for camp inmates, so I look forward to reading what the kosher crowd has to 'reveal' to us. When the USSR released the Auschwitz death records, the kosher death figure was "4.2 million." The Death Records of Auschwitz totalled 74,000 from all causes. Oops! Now the Holohoax tablets at Auschwitz have been erased. How embarrassing! Arolsen has had the camp data for decades, but only jews or other 'specially-authorized people' were allowed to see the records. As you say, they've had plenty of time in which to forge lots of data.

Thanks for the info about Internet's "Guerrilla Video" feature. It sounds like an Internet equivalent of Britain's Hyde Park Corner, in which all nuts are welcome to say nutty things, & all wise men's words are drowned in the babble. As you suggest, it may also be a method for ZOG to gather names of real dissidents, for later round up.

I enclose some info on The Holohoax. The photocopied article from The Barnes Review on "The Final Solution," or "Haavara Agreement" (Transfer Agreement) should throw light on the National Socialist-Zionist collaboration before & during World War II, as well as identifying Heydrich & Eichmann, both of whom worked with their Zionist counterparts, including Joel Brandt, to smuggle jews into British occupied Palestine. The Zionists murdered Joel Brandt who was an Israeli jew, to keep him quiet about Third Reich-Zionist collaboration. Eichmann, who had done nothing wrong, made the mistake of giving a magazine interview, so the jews kidnapped him from Argentina, so they could murder him, after a phony trial. Eichmann was kept in a glass booth in the courtroom, so he couldn't hear the questions asked of him in the courtroom. He answered the questions he heard in his earphones. So, in court, the question would be "Did you kill 6 million jews?" But the question Eichmann heard was, "Is your name Adolf Eichmann?" Eichmann's answer, "Yes," would be heard in the courtroom.

In regard to a new government for the USA, the first thing I'd propose would be the abolition of The Federal Reserve Racket & the confiscation of all wealth belonging to the racketeers under the RICC Act (Racketeering Involved Criminal Organizations). Since the USA is a multi-national empire, unity would be hard to establish. A practical consensus similar to Mussolini's corporate state might be possible with the existing U.S. population mix, but as emperor I'd recommend that all laws be enforced equally, regardless of sex, age or race. Do the crime & you do the time. If one is sane enough to do evil, he is sane enough for punishment. If he is old enough to commit a crime, he is old enough to pay for it. Punishment would be in the form of public service, not years spent marking time. Death for those who refuse public service. Everyone would have the choice. Those who feed at public expense would not be allowed to breed more of their kind, as occurs now. Citizenship must be earned by everyone, not given as a matter of birth. Voters would need to be educated to a certain level, speak English & have a suitable record of public/community service. That's just for starters.

It seems that there are already good prisoner publications & book dealers who could supply ZOG-gulag inmates with information, books & other educational items. Fidelitas is one of them, so I suggest you contact them at their address, or, wait until they get back to you, since I'll send them your request. Yes, it's good to have chronologies so you can place events in proper order. I have one for 1933-1944, which I acquired in Africa, & which has accompanied me everywhere since.

Jew-liars usually claim that others, such as Heydrich, interpreted "Final Solution" to

2) mean "gassing jews." In the real world it is inconceivable that anyone could initiate a program of extermination involving millions on his own. Someone would blow the whistle on him, so his program would not be secret from Hitler. In court, one jew-liar wrote a book claiming that Hitler had "issued two orders to exterminate the jews," but when cross-examined by our defence attorney, Doug Christie, the squirming sheenie admitted that there were no such orders in writing, but only "inferences," because Hitler seemed to dislike jews. The jew, Hilberg, deleted the phony "Hitler orders" from his book when he republished it! "Liquidation of the jewish question" did ^{not} mean liquidation of the jews.

Bormann either died in Berlin or he escaped with Hitler, depending on which source you prefer. Stalin claimed to jew ambassador Averill Harriman that Hitler had escaped to Argentina. Kaiser Wilhelm II was German emperor during World War I. U.S. President Wilson made him & the Emperor of Austria abdicate after the armistice was signed, so the Kaiser took a train to Holland & lived in exile. "Hang the Kaiser!" was Allied propaganda in World War I, but the Kaiser was a cousin of the King of England, who was also a cousin of the Russian Tsar Nicholas II whom the jew-Bolsheviks murdered. Germany signed a "war-guilt" statement at Versailles, but the Kaiser escaped a kangaroo court trial, unlike the German government of World War II.

Admiral Karl Dönitz was head of the Third Reich, following the alleged death of Adolf Hitler. He was appointed Hitler's successor by Hitler, himself.

The Polish uprising in Warsaw toward the end of World War II was a Soviet plot to have the German occupiers kill off Polish nationalists, as the Soviets had done in The Katyn Massacre in 1940. The USSR told the Poles to pin down German forces in Poland so the Red Army could advance & liberate Poland, but what the Reds did not say was they intended to liberate Poland for the Reds, not for the Poles! The Poles rose up & fought the Germans, but the Red Army did not advance across the Vistula. Instead, the Red Army waited until the Germans had quelled the Polish uprising. The USA did the same by encouraging Soviet satellite countries to rebel against their Red occupiers. When the East Germans & the Hungarians did so, the USA did nothing to help them, as US propaganda had claimed we would.

The "illegal war in the Ruhr Valley" was German patriotic resistance against the plundering French occupiers of Germany's major coal & industrial region. One patriot, a teacher named Leo Schlageter, was shot by the French for derailing trains loaded with loot destined for France.

Red Russians were the Bolsheviks. White Russians were those who resisted them in the civil war which followed the Red Revolution during World War I. In 1917, Tsar Nicholas II abdicated & was replaced by a provisional government under the jew Menshevik leader, Kerensky, whom I met in California, where he lectured at my college in 1956. Kerensky let his Bolshevik sheenies take power in Russia's wartime capital, Petrograd alias Leningrad alias St. Petersburg. Kerensky was in a similar position to George Bush: his loyal armed forces were far away at the front, so the Bolsheviks were able to hold him prisoner in his own capital. U.S. Blacks could, for example, hold Bush prisoner in The District of Corruption if they wanted to, & if they could get their act together.

Molotov replaced Litvinov (Finkelstein) under Stalin, who wanted to purge the Soviet regime of all Trotskyist influence, so it was a kosher conflict with one gang of jews versus the other. Trotsky alias Lev Davidovich Bronstein had committed the crime of losing, so he had to go, so Stalin alias Josip Djugashvili (Jewson) could prepare to invade & conquer all of Europe, which Trotsky had failed to do in the 1920s. Stalin finally had Trotsky killed in Mexico, in 1941, if I recall correctly.

The Gleiwitz Incident has been blamed on the Poles or on the Germans, whichever story one prefers. Polish forces or German forces disguised as Poles purportedly attacked the German radio station in Gleiwitz, on German territory, to get World War II started.

"The Night of the Long Knives" was Hitler's answer to the attempted Röhm Putsch of June 1934, which Hitler nipped in the bud, not a minute too soon.

Austrian Chancellor Dollfuss^s apparently resisted Austrian unification with Germany, which Austria's parliament had voted to do in 1919, but the Allies refused to support Austrian democracy. I seem to recall that Dollfuss^s was assassinated.

Yes, the news is getting pretty interesting. As for illegal aliens in Brownest Yakima, the ZOG knows all about them & assists them every way it can, so the fatcat felons who employ them can get their "cheap labor," paid for by the U.S. tax-payers, not the employers! All the best & ORION!
