

16 JUNE 06. Dear Michael: Many thanks for your letter of 13 JUNE 06 & the original (?) of your letter to Earl Hale of 25 MAY 06, which I have already copied, so I return it herewith. I hope you have received my letter to him dated 31 MAY 06, to which I received a reply on 5 JUNE 06, but not from him. I am advised that Mr. Hale has departed his job. The letter from Kathy Goebel, which I enclose, refers. The genocidal course is also quashed. I suspect that we have achieved a victory, thanks entirely to your capable work! Congratulations, & my thanks, on behalf of all of us.

Sorry, but I no longer have a copy of The Covingtonian Red Lines. I made copies & distributed all of them, which resulted in a resounding silence from the blightwing.

Re thievery: An uncle of mine managed a warehouse for El Paso Gas Company, mainly staffed by mestizos, i.e. "American Indians." They had a tradition of theft of such items as work-gloves, cans of paint, tools; virtually anything in stock which was grabbable. My uncle asked them why they would want paint which they could not use, or would not want to use on anything, because of the color, or why they would want to accumulate 100 pairs of work-gloves, pliers, et al., which they rarely, if ever, used. To his knowledge, none of them had opened a trading post in order to sell such stolen goods on the reservation, where there was no demand for such items, so to my uncle, it was a mystery. The Indians could not explain why they did it, either!

Wolfgang Droege mentioned his gulag experience in the USA. One day, he saw some prisoners stealing quarters from the washers & dryers in their laundry room. He said, simply, that if the owners of the washers & dryers saw that they were losing money on the equipment, they would take them off the premises, as they had already done with the softdrink machines, because of theft! DUH!

The "Prison Nazis" remind me of a speech I heard in Toronto by Rabbi Elmer Berger, who had the same criticism of Zionists, who know nothing much about Judaism & could care less, so they used their support for Israel as their qualification for Jewishness. Berger didn't mention the fact that a person's mother must be Jewish, or it's no deal for Israeli citizenship, according to Jews I met in Europe, or I should say, non-Jews who thought they were Jews, until the Israeli government told them otherwise.

You are observant & wise to make the connection between corruption & one's own lack of self-respect therefrom. Too bad the U.S. Congress does not understand that principle! One Congresswoman, Pelosi, I think, described Washington DC politics as "a culture of corruption." Maybe she has read my description of the U.S. capital as The District of Corruption. When she starts using the term, ZOG, then we'll know for sure that she reads my stuff!

Why would a loutish-loser choose to be a "Nazi?" The Jew writer, Toland, was interviewed on a radio show by another Jew, in regard to "Nazis," about whom Toland had written. On the show were two self-styled "Nazis," the Jew pervert, Franky Collin-Cohn &, perhaps, the exact opposite of Hitler: Matt Koehl! The Jew host let them say a few irrelevant words. The most eloquent "Nazi" was the Jew, Collin-Cohn. The host told him he was a Jew, & Collin-Cohn's irrelevant retort was, "There you go, grandstanding again!" When the show was 'denazified' by the departure of the two unworthies, the two Jews, host & guest, discussed the Dysfunctional Duo. "How did you feel, Mr. Toland, about being in the room with, gasp!, Nazis?" Toland replied: "If they had been real Nazis, I'd have been scared, but these were not!" Toland said that Hitler would have made use of his radio appearance, for Hitler did not say much at all about Jews, but he addressed popular interests. If he had such air-time as did these two specimens, he'd not only have listeners, but some who'd support him!" The Jew host asked why characters who'd likely be Nazi concentration camp inmates would style themselves as "Nazis." Toland blamed Hebrewwood alias Hollywood for creating the image of a "Nazi leader" as a total loser in society, a dysfunctional nobody. "This was anything but the case," said Toland, "for all the leaders of the Third Reich were 'somebodies,' without the NSDAP. Even Hitler was a 'somebody', while he was a 'nobody!'" As with any sincere believer, a Nazi is an outward manifestation of inner conviction, not vice versa. The display of a Swastika is no substitute for knowledge, belief & consequent behavior, as you observe with so-called 'Prison Nazis,' whose degenerate behavior apes the image of the "Hollywood Nazi villains," usually played by Jew actors! I understand that the Hell's Angels, many of whom are Jews, adopted Nazi insignia to show how 'bad' they were, so others who can't afford motorcycles equate such insignia with instant 'badness', a ready-made reputation, albeit phony. For the ZOG, their gain is the negative-stereotyping of sincere pro-White Whites, ZOG love 'em, just as you mentioned. Symbols on the outside do not equate with inner substance, & nasty does not equal "Nazi," ZOG to the contrary. Behavior equates with one's beliefs, not one's regalia.

2) As you say, building one's self-respect also builds respect for others. Acknowledging personal responsibility helps one earn that self-respect. It's grotesque that the ZOG wants to instill prisoners' sense of personal responsibility while denying it in the "Victim Awareness" course. Apparently, the ZOG suffers from schizophrenia by wanting 'responsible-irresponsible' inmates. Many thanks for your compliment in regard to any contribution in thinking I may have made in your favor. Two heads are often better than one, as I have learned from the observations of others, also. It is indeed gratifying to feel that one is making a worthwhile contribution to one's society, however modest that contribution may be, when one is in adverse circumstances, with limited means, as some of us are. Yes, all U.S. citizens should be journalists, to one degree or another, by informing ourselves & then by informing others, as prescribed by our rights & duties in The Constitution, or "that damned piece of paper," in the words of 'King George (Bush) II'. You have done great service in revealing what goes on in our publicly-funded prisons, so the information may be made available to the public who pay for them. This information allows us taxation WITH representation, if the public desire it. As you state, community support is up to us, & I hope all of us will do our best. Here is Phil Hruskocy's address: P.O. Box 899, Hayden, ID 83835.

I think it revealing that Truth would offend anyone. As an Aryan, Truth is something I can like or not, but it remains truth. A Jewish revisionist said "God is Truth." I agreed with him, of course! Then we can ask, "What is Truth?" There are ways of finding out what is true or false, & it is up to us to use them to decide. If a White must not say things, be they true, then a Black must not say things which offend a White, either. I appreciate Truth from any source, however, so I would not consider a tit for tat arrangement. The petty behavior on the part of the female zoggie about your Hitler picture shows acute retardation on her part. Why not swap? Your Hitler picture for her MLK picture! Ha!

In regard to alleged 'pressuring' of fellow ZOG-POWs, it would appear that the zoggies point 3 fingers back at themselves when they point one finger at you. I detect similarities in your zoggies' behavior with the Red Chinese captors of U.S. POWs in Korea, who segregated potential leaders, teachers & examples from the sheeple, just as your zoggies seem to do. It is no coincidence that 'progressive', i.e. Communist-style messages & tactics would be used in this land of ZOG, since the Bolshevik Revolution in Russia was founded, funded, fostered & fed by the USA, from 1917 onward. Hence, it is no surprise that Communist methods would appear in so many ZOG practices in schools & prisons. When I was in elementary school, in California, the hebes who ran the L.A. City School System were introducing Soviet-style "centralized democracy," under the guise of "student government." I objected to it because we had no say in what we'd do, just on who we'd vote for. That was back in 5th grade, & I'd have to go see the principle, Mrs. Jones, a rather Asiatic-looking version of a female skeleton. I told the women teachers & the principal that "student government" was a "puppet government" because it lacked sovereignty. You should have seen how big their eyes got when I used that word. One mestiza teacher demanded that I define it. I said it means that we can choose what we will vote for, not just who we will vote for. Oy veh! the teachers did say, so my parents were called in by the principal. When they were asked if they had indoctrinated me with my politics, they said, "Oh no, he indoctrinates us!" That's because I read the newspaper & listened to the radio. The Cold War was underway in the late forties, so I read about "phony elections" & "puppet governments." People had no sovereignty under Red dictators, &c. so these Red school indoctrinators were getting Westzog's propaganda back in their faces, from me! I did not even know they were Reds! Not bad for a nine year old Nazi! Nowadays, they'd call me a "terrorist." I also called their scheme "stupid government." Otherwise, I was a model prisoner, er, student. I was just intolerant toward hypocrisy in the name of "democracy," as I am now. Maybe that's why my parents agreed that I was "born old." I heard that there was another like me at the same school: one of our Episcopal vicar's sons, whom I never met, since he was younger than I was. I'm sure ZOG put down such relevant information in our records: "To be shot at dawn."

It seems blatantly contradictory that ZOG wants your compliance with their rules, & that zoggies object to your compliance on the basis of "do as we do, not as we say." It's time to put the little rodents in the legislative spotlight. The DOC is in need of corrections to bring it into compliance with its own rules! Let's all sing a rousing chorus of "Get along little zoggies." My services, such as they are, are at your disposal. All the best, as always. DOWZ! & ORION!
