

23 JUNE 06. Dear Tom: Many thanks for your letter of June 14th! I appreciate the work you do, printing so neatly. I wonder if you have ever timed your words per minute. My last typing test resulted in a score of 62 words per minute. That allows me to cope with my considerable correspondence. When the jews took over our elementary school curriculum in 1944, they abolished handwriting drills. They also abolished reading. Fortunately, my American grandmother taught me reading & basic math, but my handwriting was so bad, I took typing when I was 11. I achieved 50 words per minute on a standard manual typewriter, so my speed is not much to brag about. Typing saved me lots of money when I attended university, since all papers had to be typed.

I do appreciate a good argument, for all positions should be defensible, & one should be aware of basics, when one espouses a point of view. Many people presume that everyone is in basic agreement, as do academic liberals, who believe there is only one possible point of view: their way or no way. You are the first to inform me that I am a "propaganda colossus." That might lend itself to a new version of the Cold War Domino Theory: If I fall over, then all the other propaganda dominos fall, too.

As I understand, but please correct me if I'm wrong, You wrote to a leader of The Immigration Control Platform who replied in person, with a scruffy, insulting, nearly illegible scrap of equally scruffy paper, after taking an inordinate amount of time to do so. My first impression is that the ICP is a scruffy outfit, with no chain of command, nor proper secretary. Like you, I am a 'one-man band' who answers the telephone, sees visitors at the door, & handles my own correspondence, which I hope is legible & intelligible. If they are "the guardians of Ireland's gates," then Ireland is open to invasion.

I'd be happy to write to Mark Kelly, whom I think I know pretty well from your description of him. As for an essay on an Irish perspective, I'd have to rely upon you for the informational input, never having been in Ireland, myself. I can imagine the school-boy 'howlers' I could put into such an essay, as when Mark Twain wrote for an agricultural journal, about such things as "pumpkin trees." Of course, you'd be welcome to use whatever I write in any way you see fit. That's what I say to all my readers, who obtain my writings on the Internet sites such as www.FAEM.com & VNN. If Mark can access the Internet, he should log onto those websites & download whatever he wants, if anything. Your idea of running for election in order to spread the word is outstanding, for it gives you 'a foot in the door', which you'd lack otherwise. Here in Brownest Yakima, you'd have to speak Spanish & you could not be White! Spanish is my second language, but I'm obviously a 'Gringo,' so it's no go in local politics. Egad! You needed 15 signatures to get on the ballot. Here, one needs around 100,000 signatures! That's why there are companies which are in the petition business all over the USA. It is well said that timing is all-important in politics & in comedy, so it's your judgement call. It is as important to get the word out as it is for you to be elected. It's called 'winning hearts & minds.' A candidate must become known to voters, by all means available. I've known many 'media candidates' in the USA, like Ronald Reagan, the Grad B movie actor who became Governor of California & U.S. president. He was well-known from all his movies, & being an actor, he always appeared sincere when he read his jew speechwriter's lines. He was a dimwit, but good at reading cue cards, unlike the really deadly dimwit, George Bush II, or "King George II," as some call him. Many former newscasters are also well-known, so they go into politics, usually successfully. As it is said in saleswork: the salesman must 'sell' himself to the prospective buyer of his wares. In politics it is called "the Singer" & "the Song." Most voters vote for the Singer's personality, instead of the "Song" or political platform, greatly to their cost! It seems that you are lucky, for your platform is simple: IRELAND FOR THE IRISH! Is it "racist" to be Irish in Ireland? What sort of nonsense is that? Where else should one be Irish? if not in Ireland! Congratulations on your successful return to the airways. Perhaps Irish media people need exposure to foreigners, so they may respect your viewpoint, to some extent, provided their bosses allow them to show you any respect. The U.S. jewsmedia is extremely regimented in regard to their minions' opinions, which must be in strict accord with their editorial policy. Their opinions must appear to be their own, but they are not. Their opinions & attitudes are those of their bosses. Otherwise, they are off the air. I think it was Yockey, who wrote "Imperium" & other titles, who said that politics (people-power) was a multi-media, multi-tactical field, which the perceptive, creative "man of politics" could exploit to the fullest advantage. Bismarck said that the politician must grasp History's skirts as she rushes by, & hold onto them as long as possible. Leon Degrelle of Belgium's Rexist Party of pre-World War II saw his otherwise successful nationalist campaign engulfed by the wider war issue, so he enlisted in the Waffen SS to fight on behalf of Europe, in which he became a general. Lose Europe & one loses Holland, Belgium, Latvia, Estonia, Lithuania, Denmark, Norway, France, et al. That's why thousands of Europeans volunteered to serve in the Waffen SS, to stop the Red invaders. There were & are those who wish to 'cook their own soup,' as Europeans say, by just looking out for their own immediate land & their perceived interests. This was the reason the Reds had such an easy time before Hitler appeared, for when Europe was unified to some degree, "Stalin" had to fight for his conquests. By 1945, the Germans & their allies were defeated, but the Reds were too weak to conquer all of Europe, as "Trotsky" & "Stalin" had intended to do. Read "The Icebreaker" by Suvorov, which confirms my interviews with German high altitude aerial reconnaissance observers, who told me of Soviet invasion preparations against Europe in 1941. That's why Hitler attacked the USSR. He had no intention of invading Britain. Operation Sealion was a hoax which was designed to fool "Stalin," & it did. I use quotation marks on those names, because they are not the real names of Lev Davidovich Bronstein & Josip Djughashvili ("Trotsky" & "Stalin" respectively). Hitler saved Europe from "Stalin," but he could not save Europe from herself, as events proved. Of course, the Western Allies gave the Soviet Union what it lacked the means to conquer during the war. No need to tell you that there are ample studies on politicians, how they achieved power, & what they did with it. Mussolini was not a totalitarian dictator, for example. He came to occupy his shaky position by an instant plebiscite, "The March on Rome," which had been called by the king. Thereafter, he ruled by consensus of the powers that were in Italy. Hence, his rise to power was swift, as was his fall. I style Mussolini as an example of 'authoritarian consensus,' whereas Hitler was a 'totalitarian populist.' "Stalin" was Rothschild agent for Red Russia. Jew-banksters, most notably in New York City, funded, fostered & fed Red Russia from 1917 onwards, on behalf of their Khazar kosher cronies, who are a national group within the Russian Empire & the Soviet Union, just as they behaved ever since they arrived in America.

Don't say that you'll "never be a leader," for there are at least 3 types of leaders, according to the Chinese: The leader who coerces, the leader who inspires, & the best one of all: the leader who teaches, so his followers can say, "See, we did it ourselves!" Just do your best. If you show love for your people, they will respond favorably.

By all means, take any ideas you see, regardless of source, & put them into a palatable form for Irish consumption, which you would know best how to do. You know the issues which are important, & you could best express them in terms which your people can understand. In your most informative & insightful letter, you mention some issues, such as multi-lingualism, which is rampant in North America, where tax-payers must pay for documents, signs, brochures, pamphlets, fliers, interpreters, &c. in all languages, <sup>including</sup> English, as if this were the United Nations H.Q. I note that "Irish" is being equated with "racist" by your powers that be. You should be able to take that issue head on, for it's still Ireland! By all means, pick anything you like from my writings, but don't say that I wrote them. One fellow in New Zealand had me saying that "jews are White," which I have always denied, based on genetic studies done by the jews themselves, as well as their official statements. Jews like to rule by means of shabez Goyim (Gentile frontmen), so my rule is: if it's a jew policy, then it is being implemented on their behalf by people who may look like you, but whose loyalties are not with you. Every government with which I've had any contact is of this stripe. One day, in Toronto, Ontario's jew-loving Attorney General, Roy McMurtry, had his photo taken on the steps of a local synagogue. He was wearing a sheeny-beany or kosher crash helmet, & he proudly announced that he was "a Christian Zionist." A Zionist is a jew supremacist. Zionists need not be jews, but jew-serving. Since Roy McMurtry had not run on a Zionist platform, he had taken office under false pretenses, on behalf of "all of the people," not some of the people. Therefore he was an occupier, not a representative of those he promised to represent. Hence, I described what I saw: a Zionist Occupation Government, ZOG for short. The term, ZOG, is banned in Canada, & U.S. jewsmedia avoid mentioning it. One writer in a kosher 'history' magazine said that "ZOG summed up the entire program of radio-priest Father Coughlin, Dudley Pelley et al." Politics is people-power, & is a conflict. As Clausewitz said, "War is politics by other means." Sun Tzu said politics is war & vice versa. Read his "Art of War," which is concise, cogent & entertaining. Not bad for a Chinese translation! You are correct in surmising that I would not like to be made to appear as other than I am. You could, for example, imagine an Irish promoter of Adolf Hitler, who would make him out to be a comedian. After all, he did have a Charlie Chaplin moustache, as portrayed in "The Great Dictator," in which Chaplin played a Hitler look-alike. Hitler also told jokes appropriate to the circumstances, but I don't think he would have approved of visiting Ireland as a music hall comic! At this stage of the game in the Ireland of your description, the Irish have lots to learn, & lots of 'tuition' to pay before they start taking steps for their biological & cultural survival. Suppose that I had spent years & great effort to learn Greek, but most people were not at all interested in what I had learned, so they'd like me to lecture on some other subject, drawing only minimally, if at all, from the great body of my learning. Would I accept such a job? Not if I were in my right mind. One must address symptoms of social ills, but one must also understand the disease which gives rise to such symptoms. In regard to parochial Irish interests, I doubt that a "European" appeal would be better received than a racial appeal, so it would seem best to stick with an Irish appeal, as you could do best, as the man on the spot, with the requisite knowledge & experience. Don't sell yourself short! The issues you have listed are those I am attempting to address over the last 40 years. Your idea for a concise, cogent essay on one or more of these issues is a good idea, which I shall consider. One correspondent wanted me to write a condemnation of "democracy," which I observed as an illusion, rather than a political reality on a one-man-one-vote basis, especially in the USA, from its foundation onward. In the meantime, I shall supply you with essays which pertain, to some extent with the issues you have raised in your letter. I hope they are useful & informative!

Re ORION! You entirely miss the point of its relevance. The reason the Irish are losing Ireland so rapidly is their lack of racial awareness, as Whites in general & as Irish in particular. Nationality must reside in the mind before it can reside on the map. Lack of mental nationality causes Whites to be thinly-dispersed over the globe. Our Race Is Our Nation! (ORION!) means that we should seek to live with other Whites, on behalf of Our Race. It does not advocate 'splendid isolation' en route to racial extinction, as you appear to surmise. If Nation exists in our minds, then defense of our living space follows. If Nation does not exist in our minds, as in the past, then we shall fail to defend our Living space & Way of Life, just as we are now NOT doing. Hitler described Germans as "a race of the loins," whereas Jews were "a race of the mind." I can say the same for Gypsies, whose nation & state, i.e. government go with them, wherever they live. This concept is what we also must adopt, since we have lost control of our living space in which our nations dwell. How German is Germany; how French is France; how British is Britain? How White are formerly 'White' countries like Canada, the USA & Australia? Those lands were never nations, which are peoples, just as the Irish are still a people, wherever they live, even if the majority do not live in Ireland. The confusion of place with nation is absurd, for any race can be "Americans," "Australians," or "Canadians." What is also true is that any race can now be deemed Germans, British, French or Irish. If Irish people lack the ORION! concept, they will suffer the same multi-racial invasion as other Whites in other places, which they believed to be 'theirs' without defending them. It reminds me of the old Grade C science fiction thriller, "Invasion of the Body-Snatchers," in which alien entities occupy human bodies, so as to betray the human earthlings. Another great movie entitled "They Live" reveals how Jews disguise themselves as 'earthlings', but have an alien agenda for the enslavement & destruction of mankind. Some viewers say it was a satire, but others say it revealed way too much! The Jew-like aliens even use Hebrew script in their tunnels. When sufficient Blacks & Yellows become "Irish," the Irish may wake up to racial reality, but it will probably be too late. Tranquility, ease & material abundance tend to produce fat-headed fools, particularly amongst Whites, I have observed. Do lemmings find safety in numbers? ORION! is no form of false comfort. It is a battle cry which will enable us to save Our Race & capture our living space as a White Homeland. Without this concept, the Irish will perish as a majority in Ireland. This is not a 'theory', but a fact which I've observed & experienced. Non-Whites are now imperialists, intent on capturing our former territory, so territory is essential, as you say. Too bad Whites don't know that! Neither do the Irish Whites. I understand that you are a former teacher. You should therefore understand that what is in one's mind guides his behavior. If learning fails to guide behavior, then it is wasted & useless. Truth can make no one free, if he does not act upon it. I dwell in Brownest Yakima for lack of ORION! not because of it. If I knew of pro-White Whites, I would certainly wish to be with them, but we are widely dispersed, as you noted, for the lack of ORION! in our thoughts, words & deeds. How would you propose to defend Irish territory, when the enemies who control Ireland have made Irish ashamed to be Irish, in defence of Ireland? Why are Irish so indifferent or so skittish about preventing the anti-Irish alien invasion? Sun Tzu would say that loss of land to invaders is defeat in war, which is politics, & which never ceases in one form or another. Politicians often must be educators as well as leaders, for their responsibility is their people, not merely their political posts in government. Your slogans are great in that regard. As long as Irish are White, it is redundant to speak of White Nationalism in Ireland, as you say, but it is most relevant in countries where Whites are THE identifiable minorities &/or the threatened majorities. Lands populated by White immigrants need White Nationalism, which Ireland will need in due course, if Irish apathy persists. Yes, by all means, export your pacifists to the lands of the warring wogs & nig-nogs, with instructions not to come back. What a good idea! I also recommend "Camp of the Saints" in this regard.

Thanks for the ideas on an "ORION!" badge. As you say, simplicity is the key to power in communicating meaning. I first want to see "ZOG-Busters" T-shirts made for sale, along with "Goy Power!" apparel. The blightwing is asleep at the cash register, for it loves to grub shekels from regalia, badges & other propaganda goods, & the blightwing exists for shekel-grubbing & from it. So far the Zionists & their darker minions have not recognized the meaning of ORION! but when they do, it will become an open invitation to racial brawls. This also applies to being White, all by itself. Whites must be accompanied by non-Whites to prove they are 'politically correct' in public. Yes, it has come to this in my lifetime. I understand that most "Nazi regalia" is made in Israel, but now the Asians are getting in to the act. It was funny to learn that jews banned Yahoo from advertising Nazi regalia made in Israel. Which jews are "anti-Semitic?" the ones who banned a jewish business or the jews who profit from "Nazi regalia?" Ask your rabbi!

Why would your ICP flunky object to calling a group a "party" because no candidate has yet been elected? If you are a candidate, you must run for a party, so winning or losing an election is irrelevant. If a 'party' never runs a candidate for election, then it becomes a question of its name-choice, like a 'football' team which never plays football. I hope you do not object to my Hitler quotes, but he was a politician in your present position in regard to insincere, incompetent, dishonest associates in the early years. He said that "10 cripples do not make a gladiator." He also mentioned that "he is strongest who stands alone." This connotes that a leader should be able to stand on his own two feet, without needing others to lean on, rather than living in isolation. In politics, like usually attracts like. Activist leaders attract activists.

The choice of a name which accurately reflects a group's objectives & their identity is very important as a propaganda tool. I chose The White Power Movement, since we were not a party capable of running White Power candidates at that time. A movement can take any form or shape, so it is not restricted to a single tactic. "Organization" has sinister overtones. Imagine a "White Power Corporation." Most people would think it was something like Enron which purveyed electric power, as its guise for theft under false pretenses. A name should be short & thus memorable. I recall Red groups calling themselves such things as "The Ad Hoc Committee to Defeat Running-Dog Imperialists." Now that certainly trips off the tongue, if it can be remembered. You may consider "The Irish Forever Party," for land & people are different. One Brit said, "There'll always be an England." I replied, "Yes, but will there be any English people?"

As you say, a leader must be focussed, with an order of priorities, but not tunnel-visioned. Dr. Goebbels said: "Don't forget the main line of battle!" & Frederick the Great said, "He who would defend everything defends nothing." Politics is "the art of the possible," in the present. We can use our knowledge of the past in our program, but we cannot return to the past by pretending to ignore the present. Unless we can bring people of the past back to life, we are stuck with present-day people. It is no good pretending otherwise. Every era has its advantages & its disadvantages. I have lived in different eras by going to different places, where old technologies & practices exist, so I have travelled in time & in place. In Brownest Yakima, the structures & artifacts of previous eras remain, but the demographics have put these things in a Mexican context for the present. We all search for environments in which we may be most effective, doing things we like to do. I have succeeded in that quest to a large extent, so I have no regrets. Life is also the art of the possible, so I am a sort of Lebenskünstler or Life-Artist who fashions my own life like a work of art, comprised of chosen experiences. I would not trade my life for anyone's, even if I could do so.

I guess David Duke is having too much fun to bother answering your letter. If I had all the fun he allegedly has, I'd be too worn out to keep up with my correspondence, too. Duke promotes Duke. If you do not promote him, especially with shekels, he has nothing to say to you. Yes, I met him & his partner, Don Black, now of Stormfront, when they were KKK promoters, on their visit to Toronto. As I understand, Duke left his Klan for newer, broader horizons as leader of the National Association for the Advancement of White People, if I recall the name correctly. Its precursor is the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, which enhances name recognition & objectives of both groups.

I agree that Black people should be returned to Africa, which apparently needs all the 'talents' Black Americans have to offer. The Tubmans tried it in Liberia, but they were wiped out by Blacks from the bush. Jefferson wrote that Blacks & Whites could not live together, as did Lincoln, so I also favor repatriation, as did Black Nationalist Leader, Marcus Garvey, but the jew, Franklin Roosevelt, & his kosher commie cronies wanted to use U.S. Blacks as their battering-ram against White society, so they ignored the 300,000 names on Garvey's Repatriation Petition & deported Garvey to the Caribbean. No one, Whites included, has a 'right' to live anywhere. As jew president Teddy Roosevelt proclaimed, "Might is right!" We are taught that, "If it comes from a jew, it must be true." So there!

The empire called the USA was established by Freemasons who want to be jew-slaves, as their mythical founder, Hiram Abiff, was for the mythical King Solomon, whose temple has never been found, to my knowledge. Solon, the great lawgiver, did exist, however, & his laws remain on clay tablets, along with ruins of his palace in Tyre, present-day Lebanon. The Freemasons played their Bank of England-serving role in the U.S. Civil War, after which, they established the Ku Klux Klan, for the masters of Freemasonry wanted the Blacks to remain in America, under White domination or White Supremacy. The KKK was designed to 'keep Blacks in their place' by terrorizing them. Top-ranking U.S. Freemason, Albert Pike, was a founder of the KKK, & also the so-called Washington Monument, which was symbolically begun before the Civil War, & completed afterwards. It is an obelisk, a gigantic phallus for Egyptian sex magic, as favored so much by the Freemasons, who like to plant obelisks everywhere they have power, even in Rome's Vatican. Peter Tompkins' "The Magic of Obelisks" refers. Tompkins applauds Freemasonry's Satanic bias, displaying Satanist A. Crowley's 33° certificate in his well-illustrated book. The 33° is 'honorary,' so Freemasonry's highest degree cannot be earned, but conferred on grounds of 'special merit.' Albert Pike wrote that Freemasonic doctrine must "be maintained in its Luciferian purity." Franklin D. Roosevelt was a 33° Freemason, as were other 'notables.' Relatives of mine founded the USA, including Charles Thomson, the secretary at the signing of The Declaration of Independence, who also drew up "The Great Seal of the USA," featured on the back of the U.S. $1 bill, which fellow founder Samuel Adams correctly called "a tawdry, Freemasonic device." "The Brotherhood" by Knight describes the Bank of England, Banco Ambrosiano, Freemasonic-Vatican connection, if you are interested. That book is very hard to obtain in the USA. Knight, with whom I corresponded, died suddenly after his book on Freemasonry came out, allegedly of 'natural causes' at age 33. There is nothing quite so natural as poison. Otherwise, he'd have to be dead of 'supernatural causes.'

Black Nationalists & White Nationalists have worked together on some matters, as when Rockwell & Malcolm X appeared together on stage to advocate racial separation. Both men were killed shortly after that stage appearance. The enemies are those who want Blacks to live off White taxation, which maintains Blacks in a subordinate status. I'm all for White & Black independence, as were Lincoln & Jefferson. As a White Nationalist, not all Blacks are my enemies & not all Whites are my friends. The crimes of history remain crimes, regardless of the passage of time, since the descendants of the criminals & victims are still paying for the crimes of the past. The USA was based on the myth of 'cheap labor', as it is today, & there is no such thing. As one bumper-sticker stated: "If I'd known the trouble it'd cause, I'd have picked the cotton myself!" To my knowledge, neither Zündel nor Irving are concerned with racial matters in general, nor with U.S. history in particular, & Duke is having too much fun to be concerned about anything, so you may be stuck with me & Louis Farrakhan of Nation of Islam, who is a very good speaker, by the way.

In regard to alleged theft of funds, I understand that as Zündel was destroying the anti-Zionist movement we were attempting to build in Toronto, with measurable success, around $10,000 in various currencies 'disappeared' from his upstairs bedroom at Samisdat Publishers in Toronto. Zündel's jewish dominatrix had full access to the bedroom at all times, even in his absence, sometimes spending several hours therein, by herself. No such thefts of any kind had ever occurred at Samisdat previously to this alleged 'disappearance.' Zündel told me I was a "suspect," along with several others who worked on the premises over the years. Hence, a poisonous atmosphere was generated by this strategically-placed jewess, who, as it turned out, had taken the money home for 'safe-keeping.' When the money was returned, Zündel entrusted me, as always, to take the cash down to the jew money-changers, to convert into Canadian dollars & to deposit it in the Samisdat bank account, which I did, as always. I was never accompanied, nor followed, so were I the scoundrel which Zündel said I was suspected of being, I could have converted the money into U.S. $ & headed over the border, into the USA. Nothing I had was worth $1,000 & certainly not $10,000! I knew that, but I was not tempted to 'take the money & run,' for I was devoted to the cause, & I am not willing to sell my reputation for $10,000. Zündel contrived to take the donors' money & run, foolishly believing that he could retire from politics on his supporters' funds, which he got under false pretenses. Some organizations have ways of dealing with conmen & traitors in high positions, but Zündel took care to prevent the formation of an organization. As a U.S. citizen living in Canada, without independent means, I was in no position to takeover the operations. My first job in the USA, after leaving Canada on the correct advice of my colleagues was as a groundskeeper on a beautiful 30-acre estate in Louisville, Kentucky. After which, It was one part-time, minimum-wage <sup>job</sup> after another, until my unplanned retirement, when my last job left for India. Since then, I've never had it so good, as contrary as that may seem. At present, Germany's Zionist Occupation Government has Zündel in a gulag, pending trial, so he is being punished by the wrong people for the wrong reasons, but he is being punished, just as he deserves. Time wounds all heels, I guess. Zündel said "I am the cause!" But in my experience, a great man must serve a cause greater than himself. His name may be identified with his cause, but only if he serves his cause & not himself. Zündel is living proof of this statement. Had he put his cause first, he might now be dead, but he would not be disgraced in the eyes of those who worked with him, on behalf of the Cause of Truth, Freedom & Justice. I saw Zündel degrade that cause into "me-me-me" & "gim-me-gimme-gimme," a shameful end of our best efforts.

The aim of our 5-step program was to defeat Zionist domination, on behalf of White Power. This is still our aim, that is, those who believe in ORION! Revisionism was, in Zündel's own words, a tactic by which to realize those aims. That's why I supported him. Again, you seem to confuse place with nation & race. You are correct in your assessment of the demographic situation in North America, not just the USA. It would be folly to believe that the remaining Whites in North America could preserve the official boundaries of such empires (multi-national states) as the USA & Canada, whose Zionist regimes do not want to preserve such boundaries in fact, from alien invasions. I can foresee the concentration of North American Whites in a defensible area, as Thomas Chittum describes in "Civil War Two." The USA is already fiction, so its breakup is not a matter of IF, but of WHEN. As long as our version of decadent Rome can pass out the bread & circuses, its denizens will pay it lip-service, to the extent they do not already denounce it, as I hear on the jewsmedia frequently. ORION! is no more "ethereal" than life itself, for it acknowledges reality & tells us what we now need to survive as a race. It is no more ethereal than telling passengers to man the lifeboats on The RMS Titanic. What deters us is the comfort of our cabins, the darkness of the night & the chilly dampness of the ocean. It appears that most Whites will go to the bottom by choice. Good riddance! Jewry is not the sole cause of our problems. We are. That's why no change of place can save Our Race. Only change of mind can save Our Kind. ORION! is the goal, & the solution, which we must fight to achieve with every means available.

I am advised that I shall be arrested under the U.N. Resolution on the Holohoax if I travel outside the USA. So I must take a rain check on your invitation to visit Ireland. Thanks all the same! Suggestion: ORION! = White Unity, so why not a United Irish Party?

Again, I agree with your demographic picture of the USA. My advice to Whites in Africa was to leave Africa to the Blacks, until the Blacks had eliminated themselves; then come back & populate. That is my advice for Whites in America: withdraw into defensible positions. Let the wogs & nig-nogs fight it out for turf, so we can populate it. The Chinese invaders pose another, bigger question, however, as I have written on The Yellow Peril, so the future of The Western Hemisphere may not be White, Black or brown, but Yellow.

Thanks for M.K.'s address. I shall write him as soon as possible.

All the best & ORION!

Eric
