

GLOBAL LONGFORD

Providing support to ethnic minorities living in County Longford, IRELAND

We are here

We are waking up now, out of the past, to dream a bigger dream
We are friends and equals
We are diverse and unique and we're united for something bigger than our differences
We believe in freedom and cooperation, abundance and harmony
We find our own guidance and we discern our own truth
We go in many directions and yet we refuse to disperse
We have many names. We speak many languages
We are local. We are global
We are in all regions of the world. We're everywhere in the air
We are building a world that works for everyone
We relate to each other in peace, with compassion and respect, we unite in community.
We are the new civilisation

Five Continents—One People

AIMS AND OBJECTIVES

- To be a means of extending a welcome to ethnic minorities who come to live in County Longford
- To provide support for refugees, asylum seekers and ethnic minorities living in Co. Longford.
- To identify their needs and concerns both personal and social and be proactive in addressing these needs and concerns
- To network with national and local voluntary /statutory agencies to achieve the above and to pro-actively encourage a multi-agency approach
- To raise awareness through the media, events and campaigns
- To monitor personal needs and social concerns and maintain and update resources available and to ensure provision of services where gaps exist.
- To maintain links and network with other similar groups on a regional and national level—North East & Midlands Regional Network, Integrating Ireland, Irish Refugee Council etc.

HELP at E.T.
PLANNING.

Fri 2 P.M.

Just AFTER GETTING THIS IN LONG. TOWN

SHOPPING CENTRE MINUTES AGO - HAD ENVELOPE

LEFT OPEN TO ENCLOSE YOUR POSTAL COST

Big TABLE OUTSIDE IN TESCO'S FOYER AREA !!

SELLING ALL SORTS OF BADGES ETC @ €1 SO JNAT SO FROM

7-7-06. Hail Kevin! It was great to get your letter of June 30th & the $20. Much appreciated! I was going to send you another "pack-o'-hate", but I thought I'd wait until I had a full one to send you. The U.S. Postal Service now has a Flat Rate for Hate, so I can send almost the same volume of words as Sean can say in one telephone call. Well, almost! I've heard it said that talkative people have kissed The Blarney Stone, but others claim they were vaccinated with phonograph needles. Sean has a long list of victims of his telephonic tirades, most of whom are dead. Might there be a connection? I think it is healthier for one's phone to go dead, than for one to drop dead listening to Sean's incessant rants & ramblings. You have my sincere condolences! Mercifully, he does not phone me with his stale gossip & sour slanders. It is inconceivable to imagine a blightwing without its tales of woe & betrayal, as in the country & western "Somebody done Somebody Wrong" songs. My last contact with Sean was when I did not obey his 'order' to correspond with David Lane. Since I know what David has to say, & since David is godlike in his omniscience, there is nothing I could tell him that he doesn't already know, so I see no point in writing to him nor vice versa. Godlike beings can just use telepathy, as I understand, without using paper & cellphones. I am not surprised that Sean's wife would hang up on him. Poor fellow! If I were a psychiatrist, I might suggest to Sean that he "get a life!"

Of another person, one woman said that "he had diarrhea of the mouth & constipation of the brain." A mutual acquaintance of Brian & myself, Tom Nee, writes 12-page letters, both sides, in small, neatly-printed script. If Sean would agree to write, instead of speak, Tom would be just the correspondent for him! Tom Nee lives in County Longford, Ireland. If you'd like to write to him, here's his address: Tom Nee, New Towncashel, County Longford, Ireland. The jews of Tesco* are promoting non-White invasion of Ireland, as the enclosed flier refers. I included my latest letter to Tom in regard to the meaning of ORION! in terms of White Unity. I also tried to point out that our lack of racial consciousness is what disperses us all over the world, & causes us to let aliens invade our living space. "Nation" must exist in the mind, before it exists on the map, & if "nation" does not exist in the mind, that nation will have no place on the map. Brian seems to understand the pernicious role played by the Prots & the IRA-niks in creating White/Irish Disunity in Ireland. Naturally, the churches & the jews are behind this non-White invasion, as they are in North America & elsewhere, & the Freemasons have always been in the jews' pockets. The Freemasons' role was well-portrayed in "They Live!" as traitors to humanity.

Sean should write a book, a sort of memoir, one part consisting of what he saw himself, the other part comprised of what he heard. Suggested title: "Blightwing Insider." A more poetic title would be "Voyage of the Blightwing Voyeur" or "Going for Gossip." "Sean's Sour Slant on Hearsay" would set the tone throughout, for he seems prone to interpret things he allegedly heard & then add his own peculiar twist of lemon. His tale of my "lost opportunity" was one example, since the alleged 'opportunity' would have been a distinct liability for me. If I were someone else, it may have been an opportunity, but I doubt it. Yes, I also lived in San Francisco. On week ends I often walked across the Golden Gate Bridge, into sunny Sausalito. Sean might say that I missed many opportunities to jump off the bridge! If Sean is short of shekels, he could take all his tales to Morris Dees &/or the ADL who could put them into book form, with proper editing, segments of which could be published as separate articles for their subscribers. Then, the whole Sean Saga could be turned over to Hebrewood for movie-making &/or a musical entitled "Winter for Hitler." Sean could make the rounds of the (hic) Borscht Belt. With a new twist, he could perform as a stand up comedian & talk for hours. Such a deal!

It goes without saying that if Sean knows anything important, & if the blightwing were up to anything serious, Sean would be shut up, pronto, & would wind up in conference with Jimmy Hoffa. Gossip-gatherers & disseminators are also known as snitches & finks, so what they do not know cannot harm others. In my brief contact with Sean, his only concrete achievement was mischief which brought on unnecessary attention & trouble from the authorities, thereby endangering anyone who associated with him. Sensible savants shun Sean, so you might consider changing your cellphone number, for your own peace of mind & hearing!

Don't let Sean & the ZOG grind you down! All the best & ORION!

*Tesco is allegedly derived from Tessa Cohen.

Eric