

21 Jewlie 06. Hail David! Many thanks for yours of July 15th. I should say Jewlie 15th, since the jews have a month named in their 'honor'. After all, who's more important, the kikes or some long-gone Roman emperor? I don't think Julius is afflicting us very much, now, as compared to the jews.

I think we both note that the gross Orwellian tactics of ZOG become more obvious as our population dumbs down &/or becomes more indifferent & apathetic. The 'privatization' of the current wars in The Middle East is not seen to affect the population of the USA as a whole, any more than Roman imperialism affected the Roman welfare mob. We are becoming the sort of brutes & cattle which the jews like to call us: "Goyim." Churchill claimed that he craved "the simple life," so the removal of Hitler became his be-all end-all, thus simplifying his life, while ruining the British Empire. An experienced Vodka-drinker conferred the following wisdom upon me when I worked at The Sports Center Casino: "All we need to know in life is in The National Enquirer & on X-Files." Ah yes!

It should be obvious to all that Osama bin Laden is not 'hiding out,' as ZOG knows. In a Profil article on Wiesenthal, the jew president of Austria, Kreisky, told the interviewers that in wartime, one does not drop out of view, "like a U-boat." This is also true in ZOG's surveillance society of today, with all its tracking methods & informants. Even in Brownest Yakima, the Bulawayo of Central Washington, I can be on camera as soon as I leave my apartment, all the way down the street to the post office & back. Since I have nothing to hide, I know that such surveillance gives me an alibi as to time, place, & activities, unless ZOG decides to portray me digitally walking hand in hand with Osama! How do we know if anything audio or visual is not faked these days, even to the duplication of fingerprints & the transfer thereof? While we all use & admire modern technology, we are (some of us!) learning that it is a two-edged sword, for our media permit rapid communication & storage of data, but also permit theft & forging thereof much easier. A cellphone is a great thing to have in an emergency, but it is lethal to have if someone wants to home a missile down on you, or send thugs to grab you. Ancient Greeks argued that reliance on written words would "destroy men's memories." There is truth in that, since written words may be rewritten, as occurs with "history" books these days. Memory is the enemy of tyranny, as Orwell noted in "1984", & the printed word is the next best thing, as "the book-people" of "Fahrenheit 451" knew.

As to feminine men, it was said that the negroid-looking Jimmy Carter was "our first female president." Nature is not merely warm & fuzzy, she also has claws & teeth, & the urge to use them, as in hunger, & in defence or conquest of territory, whether some of us like it or not. Life & struggle are synonymous. As long as life exists, there will be struggle, as Nature, in Her wisdom, has decreed. I note the examples of military commanders who were not fighters, as McClellan, the admirals of World War I in The Dardanelles, Capt. Langsdorf of The Graf Spee, General Townsend who surrendered to the Turks at Kut, & General Percival who surrendered to the greatly outnumbered Japanese at Singapore. Military men must be warriors, not uniformed bureaucrats, & as soldiers, they must act on behalf of their state. An admiral's job is not to preserve his ship, but to advance the interests of his state. Non-fighter officers have usually caused more losses on their own side than they have caused the enemy.

As for any power-sharing between North America & China, I think the strength & thus, the lion's share will go to the Chinese, who have already bought Canada's tar sands, as I read. China is allegedly over 700,000 strong in the oilfields of The Sudan, & is cozy with Saudi Arabia & Venezuela. Chinese influence is also felt in the oilfields of Asia & elsewhere, albeit on a gradual, but firm basis for now.

The U.S. shadow government would likely be an out for the ZOG, if Bush II is to take the blame for ZOG's disaster in The Middle East, followed by a Zionist regime-change in the USA. The bureaucrats are mercenaries, so they will obey their paymasters in The District of Corruption, as will the CON-gress, & The Supreme Court jesters.

The USA has a long history of false-flag ops, The Maine explosion being one, Pearl Harbor, another, with the involvement of Japanese aircraft, The Tonkin Gulf 'Incident', The Murrah Bldg. & 9-11. If we ask "Cui bono?" the chief beneficiary of these ploys has been the ZOG & no one else. The variability of those whom ZOG blames for the latest attacks indicates that it has used the attack to justify its own attacks in The Middle East. In 9-11, Osama was blamed, then Saddam of Iraq. Benjamin Netanyahu said publicly that the USA would suffer terrorist attacks as did Israel, but the U.S. State Dept. pooh-poohed him.

2) After 9-11, I heard him say on the radio that "this was very good for Israel!" His accompanying crocodile tears on behalf of the USA did nothing to counteract his admission that "9-11 was good for Israel." As I point out, 9-11 more than made up for the jews' failure to sink the USS Liberty & blame it on Egypt et al., back in 1967. Those who cannot understand "Cui bono?" invite their own victimization from false-flag ops. It is not ZOG interests they should protect. It is their own interests.

Apparently, the Blacks don't like Bush, if reports of their behavior at the NAACP convention are correct. The next question is: what will they do about it? Vote Democrat? A lot of good that will do them. Blacks are becoming 'surplus to requirements.' Maybe they should learn Spanish, before it's too late. Caramba!

Thanks for the correction about Graham Greene & his "The Quiet American." Yes, he was a misfit, but his peculiar melding of socialism & Christinsanity revealed what they had in common: "From each, according to his ability, to each, according to his need." As others have also noted: Christinsanity is Marxism with a god, & socialism is Christinsanity without a god. Liberalism is a watered-down version of the same Marxist doctrine. At least one writer said of liberals that "they approved of anything, as long as it was compulsory." Remember Prohibition? & before that, compulsory public education? That was enforced by federal bayonets after The Civil War, with home-schooled children being taken off to one-room schoolhouses. With all the zogbucks thrown into The Black Hole of U.S. education, I still had to learn reading, writing & arithmetic from my American grandmother at home, as well as how to tell time. The well-funded L.A. City School system could not teach me those essentials, from whence all learning follows. The school jews had replaced methods which worked with methods which did not work, at least, for me. In my case, 19th century methods worked best, such as phonetics, instead the idiotic 'look-say' method of Dick & Jane, which is rote-learning at best, & unsuccessful at worst. I was taught how to analyze word-construction, which allowed me to read & to spell reasonably well, but I keep two English dictionaries handy whenever I type anything, since English varies in spelling & is only "85% phonetic," unlike German or Spanish, which are 100% phonetic. In one hour, we learned how to read German correctly, by learning the rules of pronunciation, even if we couldn't understand what the words meant. Same with Spanish. I wondered how Spanish-speakers could be illiterate, when I was in Colombia. Teachers told me that they did not speak Spanish, even if that was their only language, so they did not know what words meant when they read them out loud. Apparently, their Spanish vocabularies were as limited as mine after a month of German studies, but theirs remained limited their entire lifetimes! As my grandmother said: "Speaking comes first, reading next, for written words are supposed to resemble spoken words, at least 85% in English." In the main, Americans' seat of learning is in their bellies, not their brains, so hunger is most likely to inspire the new have-nots in the Land of ZOG. I am always bemused by jewsmedia mouths who tell us that "inflation is under control, EXCEPT in the volatile food & fuel sectors." This appears to mean that most critters are only concerned with prices of things they don't eat or burn. I wonder who they are, space aliens? I guess They Live, after all. Forget the stack of pancakes & munch on these CDs!

As you observe, the jews have a penchant for trashing defenceless Lebanon. I recall Lebanese boasts that they had no army, so they could concentrate on trade, investments & tourism. Beirut was "the Paris of The Middle East." It turned out that this boast was the red cape in the faces of jewry, which cannot tolerate wealth & the means of making it in the hands of Goyim. Being defenceless, Lebanon could not cope with Shi-ites or Palestinian PLO refugees, as had Jordan, so Israel was practically invited to trash all of Lebanon, as it is now doing. The lesson is that you cannot keep what you cannot defend. DUH! As always, Israel & its US puppets make the best anti-Zionist propaganda. If they keep that up, everyone else could take the day off.

Many thanks for the typewriter. I'll let you know in what condition it arrives, ZOG willing. All the best, as always!
