

27 Jewlie 06. Dear Brian: Many thanks for your 'fireproof' letter & enclosures of June 27th & the great Pictures! Your letter & contents arrived, still wet, from its possible baptism in one of the castle moats in the Vendee. I'm retaining my reply to your letter until I receive word that you are back, as explained in my postcard, which I hope you receive. I hope you have a great trip.

In regard to "who's a jew," you need to keep certain facts in mind: (1) Biology: a jew is anyone born of a jewish mother, according to jew tradition. A jewish father only, means one is a 1/2-jew or mamzer (bastard). On some occasions, Israel makes exceptions to this rule, but they are rare, such as the acceptance of a murderer as an Israeli, who had a jew father, but not a jew mother. (2) Religion: jews like to switch between biology & theology to escape justice. Most jews are not religious, as they admit, but they are deemed to be jews under Israeli law. (3) Personal preference. If a White man wants to be jewish, he can say so, just as a jew can claim that he is not. In Israel, biology takes precedence, regardless of what people think about themselves. Schocken Books of New York City has two books entitled "The Book of Jewish Lists," which identify people from history, acting & politics as jews, including their cover names, as "Trotsky" alias Lev Davidovich Bronstein, et al. The Jewish Encyclopedia is also a good source for who's jewish. * Or "The Jewish Book of Lists."

Of course, one can lie. I do not know that Eustace Mullins made "fake quotes." I don't approve of such things, for lies can spoil an otherwise truthful discourse. Some jews like to claim that all great historical figures were 'jewish,' whereas Goyim like to accuse all historical villains as being 'jewish,' without any proof.

I think we can avoid confusion by relying upon DNA testing for proof of Whiteness, rather than moods, geography & wishful-thinking. Sickel-cell anemia is not a sign of "genetic drift," which I take to mean some process of inherent mutation. Tay-Sachs disease is prevalent ONLY in Ashkenazim, just as sickle-cell anemia is only prevalent amongst Blacks or those with Black genes. Again, DNA should be our basis for race, as medicine & forensic science illustrate. Telephony may also play a role in the acquisition of Negro characteristics which show up in DNA, just as HIV infects heterosexuals, but I've never heard of Tay-Sachs being transmitted from casual sexual contacts which do not result in offspring. Promiscuity is not good for genetics.

As I understand, Canaris alias Meyerbeer (?) was executed for treason; Manstein was of jewish origin, but was adopted by Goyim of that name. Milch, a typical jewish name, has been recognized as jewish or 1/2-jewish. The Third Reich was very liberal about conferring "Aryan" status on high-ranking political & military officers, such as Heydrich, Eichmann, Funk, Ley (formerly Levy) & Streicher. Those executed at Nuremberg by the Allied victors were loyal, & those rewarded, like Speidel, Rommel's adjutant, were traitors &/or deemed useful by the Allies after the war. Speidel, allegedly, did not report the Normandy Invasion to German Headquarters (OKW) when every minute counted. The jew author, Hilberg, wrote that The Nuremberg Race Laws were not so much based on biology as they were on loyalty. They were composed by the Third Reich leadership with Zionist assistance from such notables as Rabbi Leo Baeck.

Wall Street help for Hitler was not absurd, according to David Irving, whose speech I have in which he cites Chancellor Bruning's statement that the same banksters who financed Hitler were the ones who'd previously financed Bruning, as well as Churchill, Roosevelt & Stalin. Germany had to be strong enough, not to win, but to invade Britain. Read "The Ice-breaker" by Suvorov. Hitler broke the banksters' rules by attacking the USSR before Stalin was supposed to invade Europe. Had Hitler sold out to his jew paymasters, Germany would have attempted to send its forces across the Channel, thereby leaving all of Europe open to the Red Army's invasion. Operation Sealion was a hoax which fooled Stalin, according to Suvorov & one other historian, as I recall. When Rudolf Hess landed in Britain, Churchill knew that Hitler had no invasion plans for Britain, but he lied that "Britain stood alone," like the phony weight-lifter whose huge 'weights' are really balloons.

I see how easily one can attribute jewishness to Whites who serve jewish purposes, but the jews may not accept them as 'kosher.' That's why Zionist (jew-supremacist) is more accurate, since it includes Whites who serve Israel, but who are not jews. Then, there are righteous jews who do not serve Zionism. Those are in the AZA Network (The Anti-Zionist Alliance), along with anti-Zionists of all races & mixtures thereof. See if you can find La Voz de Aztlan on the Internet. As I understand, they were promoting a diamond-boycott, since diamonds are a jew's best friend.

As for blighting blather, the homo accusations are apparently universal. As I understand, Fields sent thugs to beat up Rockwell, who had the pictures to show for it in "This

2) Time the World," his autobiography. Fields has also been accused of being a Jew, but that accusation seems to be less frequent than the 'homo' canard. As you say in regard to abuse of the 'Jew' accusation, it is like the boy who cried 'wolf' too many times. The blighting could think up other epithets if they had better vocabularies & pronunciation. The curse of the blighting is that, if they ever find out something true, no one will believe it, because of all the calumnies they've spread, for so many decades.

Your impression of the 'ugly American' is on par with mine. Most Americans I've met in other countries travelled, probably because they heard that others did it, but they seemed appalled to encounter so many "foreigners!" I travelled for work & for knowledge. I did not judge other peoples in American terms because I, myself, detested "American Culture." That is, of course, an oxymoron. On my walk to the post office, I can collect bags full of "American Culture" off the sidewalk, as I did in upscale Louisville, Kentucky. Since "American Culture" is trash, I deposit it in the nearest trash collection bin. Then the sidewalks begin to look civilized. It is interesting that Chinese call non-Chinese "foreigners" when they live in countries with non-Chinese majorities. It is all right to be called a "foreigner" in Hong Kong, but it is surprising to be called a "foreigner" in California, by native born Chinese Americans. Now, it is more common to be called "Gai Lok," meaning White person or Ghost person, for Chinese see that all "foreigners" are not White.

Ostensibly White Americans impress me as mindless consumption-excretion units, whose brains are programmed with Zionist propaganda, which is anti-White. This causes many Ostensible Whites to claim Indian (Amerasian) ancestry, to one degree or another. Sometimes the Asiatic admixture is obvious, along with the behavior, which varies from slothful to savage, as revealed in frequently heard statements that "Iraq should be turned into an atomic glass parking lot," as long as others do it. Decadent savages are spectators in spirit, not blood-thirsty warriors, although they enjoy blood-sports, like the Roman mob.

Sports teams, principally soccer or football, are becoming similar in importance to the gladiatorial teams of ancient Byzantium, which were named by colors, such as greens or purples. Mass-support of these teams extended into politics in the Imperial Court, & team chariot races were major events, on par with military campaigns, in the minds of the masses. I have always seen sports in terms of games which we played as children. Feats of physical skill & prowess on the playing field are still the adult equivalent of child's play. The original Olympics featured feats of military skills necessary for good infantrymen, such as javelin-throwing, shot-putting, discus-throwing, archery, wrestling, running, jumping, &c. The modern version is the one which requires skiing cross-country & marksmanship, as is appropriate for a Finnish infantryman.

As I said earlier about Moslems, they want converts, not allies. I guess they figure, "Why not go all the way, instead of half-way?" Islam is a race-mixing cult, like most religions, so Zionist propaganda about race-mixing works in Islam's favor, just as do the millions of Moslems now invading "infidels'" living space. The Jews have been likened to monkeys, who saw off the branch on which they sit. Griffin is definitely a political prostitute, which describes 99% of those who derive their incomes from politics. I wish I knew even one of the 1% who is pro-White, & not a "paytrots-for-profit."

Pagans as well as Christians appear to flee into pseudo-reality, a world designed for schizophrenics, in which symbols take on the same importance as do substance, & wishful-thinking takes precedence over facts. Decades ago, I was told of a person who so feared earthquakes in California that he risked his life in the middle of one, by insisting that the violent tremor was 'not' an earthquake, & that the ongoing destruction was due to building code violations, & not seismic activity! I don't think he should live in California, if he was so scared of earthquakes. Gordon Liddy wrote that he feared lightning as a boy, so he went out in the woods during a thunderstorm & climbed the tallest tree he could find to 'enjoy' the storm. I have experienced thunderstorms & earthquakes, knowing what can happen, so I take reasonable precautions, & experience no phobia in regard to both natural phenomena. I also take care to look before I cross streets, without fearing that all vehicles' drivers are aiming to hit me! Most of them clearly do not care, one way or the other. Old Gringos are of no importance in Brownest Yakima. In Mexico, the mestizo drivers enjoyed seeing just how close they could come when I crossed intersections, so I had to be as agile & alert as a matador in a bullring. I suspected they were doing it for 'fun', rather than out of murderous malice, but I wondered how they would 'enjoy' it if I were the driver & they were the pedestrians.

3) Yes, take money from anyone, but don't forget your "mainline of battle," as Dr. Goebbels would say. Trimmers have no mainline nor principles, as is obvious from their chosen associates & "comrades." The means are known to defeat the ends one seeks to achieve, especially if one succumbs to wishful-thinking. Mark Twain wrote that humor is a great weapon against the pomposity of tyranny, so by all means, make use of satire!

As you&Celine both noted, Hitler was insufficiently revolutionary. He welcomed the decadent aristocrats or reactionaries, who were the 'haves' of the old regime, in preference to approaching the people as liberators, not as occupiers. If National Socialism were "for export," the outcome may well have been different in 1945. The brave Europeans & others who volunteered for the Waffen SS show what might have been accomplished, with 20-20 hindsight. When we criticise decision-makers on the spot, we tend to see things from the perspective of our world. If we saw things from the perspective of their world, we might agree with their decisions at the time, for politics remains "the art of the possible." This does not excuse mistakes leading to disaster, but it may explain how such mistakes were made by our fellow fallible mortals. Perhaps we may learn from them, as I hope. Mark Twain wrote that the older he became, the wiser his father appeared. I believe that Hitler analyzed his Germans in terms of political backwardness, which made it impossible for him to adopt more progressive programs. Quisling's secretary described the Germans he encountered as being either German imperialists or Pan-Aryan Nationalists, which is how Zionist writer George Will described Hitler, not as a German nationalist, but as a "Pan-Aryan Racist." Hear,hear! Of course, the Christian hangover was still potent in Germany, where Protestant & Catholic parasites took what they could from the Third Reich & planned to betray it, as soon as opportunity arose. Hitler built more churches for the Christ-eaters than had been built in centuries, & the Allies, whom the Jesus-blood-sippers supported, bombed more churches than had been destroyed in centuries. Maybe they sent some traitors up to The Big Sky-Jew, but most Allied victims were good Aryans on all sides, as the jew banksters intended.

Yes, if most people are materialists, why not couch our propaganda in material terms, which they can understand? Indeed, "the system makes us poorer," is a valid message. The sheeple were not alarmed in this Land of ZOG when steel prices soared 30% last year, & when concrete prices did likewise. Oil prices have done even 'better', if one is an oil-bankster. In the calm before the storm, inflation was reported as 'low,' by ZOG's jewsmedia, which repeats its lies like a mantra. I tried to point out that such items as steel, oil & concrete are essential components of the infrastructure. Oil, for example, is the basis of energy, plastics, tires, fertilizers, medicine & pavement. Steel is essential for consumer goods, housing, tires & reinforced concrete. Concrete is essential for buildings, road construction, dams & hydroelectric projects, & the repair thereof. America's infrastructure is crumbling. China spends our jew-I.C.U.s on lots of raw materials, including oil, steel & cement, leaving us with our U.S. funny-money, even more of which is necessary to pay for such things as road construction & repair. Now, admitted inflation has made such construction & repair beyond the reach of state budgets.

As I see it, the Internet has become one more distraction for entertainment, rather than being a source of information for action. I learned how I differed from other children, in regard to information: I studied maps & read about places in preparation for going there, not as a substitute for going there. National Geographic Magazine was not a source of entertainment, but a source for information about peoples & places I would eventually visit, one way or the other. So was the history of such peoples & places. Naturally, I was surprised to find myself in Central Africa, which was NOT planned for my itinerary, thanks be to ZOG! I therefore had to learn about that area after the fact, so I could understand the present, which is now the past. Time waits for no man.

Yes, anti-Zionist jews are "good" & pro-Zionist Whites are definitely bad.

Technology (applied science) is of great potential, provided it is used by the right people for the right reasons. If not, it poses even greater disasters. The dilemma of technology is the same as that of fire: useful or destructive. It is recognized that well-matched DNA is critical for purebred stocks of plants & animals. Even hybrid stocks must derive from existing purebreds. Since man is part of Nature, the law applies to us, also. Imagine if we controlled the media of information, entertainment & education as do our enemies. All sorts of quick changes could occur within our societies, as we have seen over the years in regard to race, sexual behavior, family life & 'patriotism', to mention a few. Work & recreation also show the great influence of technology & propaganda. Demographics, politics & economics are also influenced by the media, as we see by our insane acceptance of alien invaders.

4) Yes, so-called Nordics are the biggest suckers for jew race-mixing propaganda, in theory & in practice. Mixed breeds tend to be more critical, in regard to darker mates. The classic Greek statues were not so much idealized as they are true representations of Greeks when they were Aryans. The first Greeks came from the North, as archeology shows. The temples of the Acropolis are magnificent 'copies' in stone of previously magnificent structures of wood, right down to the fake 'pegs' of the cornices, previously used to hold the timbers together, according to a professor of architecture, who lectured on Greek architecture at my college. The Nordic ancestry of the founders of ancient Greece is also supported by Colin Renfrew's findings, & by the Iliad, in which Homer's characters describe fellow Achaeans as blond, fair & light-eyed. The Greeks of today are not the Greeks of the Classical Period. As Aryans become few, perhaps unity will ensue, if not in proximity, then in ideology & activity. If Aryans want to become darkies & darkies Aryans, the confusion is likely to become terminal for Whites, in fact, but the sales of skin-lighteners & hair-straighteners may thrive, as did hairbleach in post-Classical Greece, according to Dr. Oliver.

I see it worthwhile for White Nationalists to make use of Zionist slogans, with a VN interpretation thereof. I use The Genocide Convention, for example, on behalf of preserving Whites, who are an "identifiable group," according to The Convention, whereas jews are not. That's why I no longer capitalize "jew," since it is not more 'descriptive' in regard to identifiability than the word, "criminal." Ironically, the term coined by jews, "genocide", applies to everyone but jews! Since jews comprise all races & mixtures thereof, they are not a race. Since they come from all over, they are not an ethnic group, for not all jews are Ashkenazim of Eastern Europe. Nor are jews members of a religion, since they remain 'jews', regardless of religion or lack thereof, as Israeli courts attest. The jews' status is not 'semitic,' but semantic. The strategy is not "trimming," but to use the enemy's strength against him, which I call "jew-jitsu." We did it in Toronto when the hebes made The Holohoax into a major propaganda effort. All we did was to use their massive campaign, which caught the attention of the otherwise thoughtless Goyim, on behalf of anti-Zionism. When the jews shouted "Holocaust!" we shouted "...is a hoax!" Without the immense resources of Hebrewood, we could have made no such impression on the Goyim or the jews, as we did. Zündel proved to be a two-edged sword in this worthwhile endeavor, as it turned out. At present, he plays his best anti-Zionist role as a martyr, for he is no fit leader, least of all for Whites. His program is only "me-me-me" & "gimme-gimme-gimme."

Re "The Devil's Guard," which addressed SS veterans in the French Foreign Legion: I am privileged to have known a few, one of whom declared: "You mean that you actually care for whom or for what you'd fight!" I said that I did not deem military service as a career, but as subordinate to my politics, which is bio-politics, not geo-politics, in any case. I am not a "G.I. Joe." My SS friend had literally grown up in military service, beginning on The Eastern Front when he was 17. Combat was the only career he knew, & his attempts at farming in Canada looked like a recreation of The Eastern Front, from what I could see. Imagine a winter scene, a field with a broken barbedwire fence, a truck nose-down in a crater of frozen mud, semi-starved horses in a delapidated barn, accessible only by a ditch dug in the snow, &c. When I arrived to help feed the horses, I asked him when the Red Army had last bombarded the area. He just grinned, for he obviously felt at home!

Communism was more honest than Capitalism, & therefore, more instructive to its victims. When thoughts were criminalized, thinking people had to be careful about what they thought, & even more careful about how they expressed themselves. Thinking was bonded with responsibility, as it should be, so victims of Judeo-Communism did not develop diarrhea of the mouth & constipation of the brain, as so often afflicts denizens & victims of Judeo-Capitalism. Now, thanks be to ZOG, Judeo-Capitalist regimes are inflicting thought-crime laws on their witless sheeple, who dumbly deny this policy, & then accept it without a whimper. Let's give the Goy cheer: DUUH!

The danger of books like "Imperium" & "The Decline of the West," is that they posit inevitability, so those who read & heed them are prone to do nothing. I also disagree with Yockey's equation of 'race' with ideology, if I recall correctly. Soviet state capitalism was just the lefthand, as it were, of the same bankster entity whose right hand was monopoly capitalism, now morphing into the "globalist" Jew World Ordure. The USSR served its purpose, & was discarded, like a worn-out tool. As you say, the Aryan spirit is dynamic, but his energy is at the service of his enemies. That is why we must capture the Aryan Imagination. As Mark Twain advised: "Dream better dreams." ORION!
