

2 SEP 06. Hail John Paul! Many thanks for yours of 28 AUG. Unfortunately, the titles listed, which you mentioned, are from a book-dealer in New Zealand, with whom I correspond. I do not have the publications, as yet, but I am familiar with the topics. When the jew-Bolsheviks invaded the Baltic countries of Latvia, Estonia & Lithuania, they murdered "the smooth-handed Goyim," as they had done in Russia during the Red Revolution. If they found a Gentile with smooth hands, it meant that he worked with his mind, not with his hands. It also meant that the Gentile was an intellectual & a potential or actual leader. As it says in the jewbook, Gentiles are "beasts of the fields," so they should only have hands roughened by manual labor. Rough-handed Goyim became jew-slaves, but smooth-handed Goyim were killed, often after torture.

I have several copies of Winston Churchill's newspaper article in which he spoke of The International Jews & their support of Bolshevism in Russia, but I am not able to locate one suitable for photocopying, as the print is too small to read. For now, I can sum up the article by saying that Churchill, a half-jew himself, described the "international jews" as a threat, but not, supposedly, "loyal jews," whoever they might be.

British journalist, Douglas Reed, stated that the jews would abandon Communism for Zionism. Russia was a state run by jews, for jews, but Israel is a jewish state, for jews only. Reed was correct, as he was about South Africa being ruled by Blacks. Most of Bush's "neo-conservatives," "neo-cons" for short, are jews who were formerly leftwingers. Suddenly, they became Zionists, which one liberal writer, Joseph Sobran, called "fascists." He wrote that such jews had "betrayed liberalism." I pointed out that a jew does not stick to any single belief or political program, unless he believes that it is "good for jews." If capitalism is good for jews, he is a capitalist. If Communism is good, he is a Communist. If Christinsanity is 'good for jews,' they will use that cult for their benefit. Cardinal Lustiger proclaimed: "I am a Christian, but I remain a jew." One is a religion; the other (jewishness) is a nationality. Only Goyim (Gentiles) are confused, for they believe that jews are a religious group, like Christians or Moslems. Most jews are NOT religious, but "secular." This means that they do not practice the religion of Judaism, so being "jewish" does not mean being religious in any way!

"Hate H.Q." was our nickname for the building at 206 Carlton Street, Toronto, Ontario, Canada. This was the home of Samisdat Publishers, Limited, but the jewsmedia called it "the home of hate-lit," so we adopted their title. The place was bombed & attacked by a Red arsonist, who did most of the damage to the building & its contents. Our boss, Ernst Zündel, received a very suspicious package in the mail, which he turned over to the Toronto Police Bomb Squad. Boy, were they upset to discover that it really was a bomb! The Toronto Police did not like to do their job, as I gathered from experience with them. On one occasion, there was a bomb scare in the city. Someone left a bag of laundry at a streetcar stop, so the police conscientiously blew it up! Imagine: In most cities you have to put your laundry in a washingmachine, but in Toronto, you just leave it & the police will blow it up! What service!

In 1981, over 2000 irate jews rioted in front of the building. We knew what they had planned, for we read the jewish newspaper. We had our own group of demonstrators in front, with signs denouncing The Holohoax, much to the jews' consternation, for it was all on TV news, as well as our own videotapes. The JDL ("Jewish Defence League") led the assault, for they had intended to catch us by surprise. The regular jewspapers, intended for Goyim, announced a big anti-KKK demonstration for the same day, but the jews' real target was Samisdat. We had our spies & cameramen among the jew mob which assembled in a nearby park, before they marched on Samisdat. One jew rabble-rouser spoke in Yiddish, which those of us who spoke German could understand. I recall the fellow raving in Yiddish that "Samisdat had Arab financial support." Unfortunately, we were always broke, so that wasn't true! The jew mob was aflame with hate, blind hate, which we could see in their eyes. They hissed & spat like serpents. Suddenly, a large contingent of police arrived between us & the jew mob, so they were really frustrated! Carlton St. is a main thoroughfare, so the police had to push the jews back across the street, where they were supposed to be. I don't know what the tour guide said to the streetcar full of tourists when it passed through the mob: "You see, Toronto is a real cosmopolitan city. We have our jew-Nazi riots on week ends!" Maybe they passed by the Reds' anti-KKK demo as well. I wonder what a tourist would have thought! All the best & ORION!
