

9-9-06. Hail Chad! Many thanks for your letter of 6 SEP 06 & the great picture of A.H.! The simple thing to remember is that an Anti-Semite is anyone who kills Arabs, since they are the only Semites. If I convert to Confucianism, it does not make me Chinese! I'd not have any right to say that someone who dislikes me is "anti-Chinese," any more than a Khazar of Russia can claim that his critics are "anti-Semitic." Judaism, Christianity & Islam are derived from Arabs, so they are Semitic religions, but believing in a Semitic cult does not make a non-Arab into a "Semite." Just as most jews are not Semites, most Christians are not & most Moslems are not. Jesus called the jews "children of The Father of Lies" alias Satan, so we must wake up to the fact that our Zionist (jew-supremacist) regime usually lies to us, most of the time, if not all of the time. Truth & knowledge are potent weapons, as you say, & I enjoyed reading how you defended yourself, when your would-be brainwashers came up with the lie that the Swastika originated with the Asians of America. The Swastika was introduced by Aryan conquerors of India, long before the jews were heard of: They were first known as "Habiru Sagaz" or "Desert Cutthroats," from which "Hebrew" is derived. Alexander the Great brought the Swastika with him, into the Orient, so Hitler did not "steal" the Swastika, which has been closely associated with the White Race for many thousands of years. Buddhism, a heresy of Hinduism, also uses the Swastika, which they "stole" from the Hindu religion, which is Aryan in origin, as is Buddhism! Your "teachers" had better improve their own knowledge of the subjects they claim to know about.

It is interesting that your zoggies equate any pro-White affiliation as a "Security Threat Group." Would such a principle apply to any other race? "La Raza" ("The Race") is officially recognized as a legitimate organization by FEDZOGUSA, which funds them with our tax dollars. The enclosure about "The Race" refers. Since the article was written by a Chinese married to a jew, your zoggies HAVE to believe it is correct! In Zionist Occupied Germany, any jew may deny the Holohoax, but no Gentile may do so, without going directly to jail, to await trial for Thoughtcrime. According to U.S. military findings in Korea, fewer than 1 out of 20 is NOT a sheep. The 19 out of 20 are sheeple, herd critters whom you described appropriately.

I have all the items you mention, so it's merely a matter of sending you copies, in hopes that your zoggies will let you have the information. I enclose the National Geographic article by Colin Renfrew re Europe being much older than we thought. Apparently, his findings indicate that Western Civilization, that is Civilization, began where my people come from: The Orkney Islands. That was a surprise. The recent discovery of thousands of White mummies in NW China, apparently ancient Tokharians, who had a high civilization over 10,000 years ago, would support Renfrew's findings that Civilization flowed from NW to SE, not vice versa, as we have been taught. Another strange fact is that NW Europeans lack a gene common to all peoples who allegedly originated in Africa. I am not discounting the theory of evolution, nor of migration, but it seems odd that Whites typically lack this particular African gene. Ancient Indian texts refer to space travel & epic battles in space & on earth by "gods" & human allies, using weapons which we are still developing, including aircraft capable of space flight. One can dismiss the many ancient tales as "myth", but what a strange myth, if that is all there is to it. Even more remarkable are ruined cities which are mentioned in these Hindu texts, which were blotted out by great battles. So are deposits of "atomic glass" which is only created by thermonuclear blasts, as occurred at the Trinity Site in New Mexico. Atomic glass is found in places where no such blast occurred in living memory. I believe von Däniken is the author of "Chariots of the Gods", & the material I describe is in another of his books entitled "Weapons of the Gods." In the jew book's "Genesis" chapter, "children of the gods (elohim) descend to earth & take human wives. The Aztecs & Incas worshipped "White Gods," so there is lots to study. I enclose a letter from South Africa in this regard. Knowledge & truth are dangerous fields for zoggies, for they may discover their doctrines are based on very shaky premises, at best. Your zoggies remind me of the computer in "Logan's Run," which conked out when Logan said, "There is no sanctuary." I'm glad you enjoyed "Return to Spring Island," as I enjoyed writing it. All my fictional writings are taken down from dreams, which I record on paper, including "The Awakening." Such dreams are exceptional, since they have solid characters & a coherent plot, which requires no editing nor rewriting on my part. I just write them as I remember them. I look forward to others. I cannot write fiction without such inspiration.

Best regards, as always, & keep up the great work. The Life of the Mind is a great adventure. DOWZ! ORION! & 88!
