

WASHINGTON STATE SPONSORED TERRORISM

Similar terrorist tactics are widely utilized right here in the USA: nearly every state's DOC (Department of Corrections) as well as the USBOP (US Bureau of Prisons) are pitting races and religions against one another in their totally misguided and disastrous – not to mention immoral and illegal – "management" practices: DIVISA ET EMPERA (divide and rule.) Instead of the civilized and effective management of prisons found in most other industrialized countries, these highly paid "professional" DOC officials not only condone, but often mandate these bestial "management" techniques – summed up centuries ago by Machiavellian: A ruler need not fear that his subjects hate him, so long as they also hate each other.

Add to the above the ever-present threats, and actuality, of guard cliques' (such as Bowman and Knight & company) brutal beatings, poisoning and adulteration of food with saliva, feces, metal filings and other things, life-threatening manipulations of temperature, indiscriminate life-threatening use of gas and chemicals, and so on ad infinitum – and the DOC reveals itself to be a murderous TERRORIST STATE WITHIN A STATE, lavishly supported by Washington's unsuspecting taxpayers.

Along with manipulating inmate on inmate extortion, assault rape and murder, and the manipulation of gangs – this pretty much describes the ACTUAL (as opposed to the stated) "penological objectives" at WSP – and at the hundreds of other "WSPs" all across the land. (Last year the government of Norway discontinued extraditions to the US, citing such barbaric conditions condoned in US prisons.

Please consider sending this plea for freedom of religion and freedom from terrorism to your Washington state senator and representative and governor, and to any other person who might be helpful in remedying this horrific state of affairs. ADMISSIBILITY OF RELIGIOUS LITERATURE AND PARAPHERNALIA MUST BE DETERMINED ON A CASE BY CASE BASIS ACCORDING TO REGULATIONS: NOT ARBITRARILY BY ILL INFORMED AND/OR BIGOTED EMPLOYEES!

CONTACT:
Gina Alvarez
Christmas Town Communications
215 B Arcadia Ave
Shelton, WA 98584-1603
Justjames@ourchurch.com

The opinions and viewpoints expressed in this Article, are those of the author. They do not necessarily reflect the views of PrisonerLife.com. PrisonerLife.com, its owners, employees, volunteers, or affiliates, PrisonerLife.com do not assume any legal responsibility for any information, but merely provides the forum in which the author may place their article on the Internet. PrisonerLife.com does not guarantee that any statement has NOT been misstated nor verified by PrisonerLife.com.

SUBMIT An Article

COMMENT On Article

PRINT This Article

©2001 - 2004 PrisonerLife.com

Created by Prisoners - Maintained by Ex-Prisoners

Please contact the WebMaster if you have any problems
P.O. BOX 1904 * VOORHEES * NEW JERSEY 08043

Material on this site may be copied for personal use, but may not be distributed to the general public, reprinted, or reposted without permission.

11 SEP 06. Dear Shappa! It sure was great to receive your letter of 6 SEP 06. I wondered how you were getting on. "Intimidation" is in the eyes of the beholder, especially one with the rank. A California law student explained that "assault" is likewise subjective on the part of the person who thinks he or she is being assaulted. This is common when one sees another make a threatening gesture, after saying words which indicate hostility. If the assailant says something like, "I've heard enough of your crap." Then he puts his hand inside his jacket, which could be interpreted as him going for a weapon. In California, an assault is said to have taken place, which you would recognize as "intimidation," with no bodily harm at that point. The perception of "assault" justifies the "assaultee" to defend himself, according to the law student. In an extreme example as mentioned above, the assaultee might think that the assailant is about to draw a gun & shoot him, so he may draw his gun & shoot the assailant, legally! Of course, if the assailant is merely joking, or is reaching for a handkerchief, & is killed, then the assaultee has lots of defending to do in court, for which he will need witnesses as to why he killed an unarmed man. I noticed that people from Britain took lots of risks with strangers in bars. I said I'd never seen such behavior in U.S. bars, for a stranger can be danger. He may not interpret one's words & behavior as being humorously intended, so his reaction may be violent & lethal, so in the USA, you'd better watch your words & behavior in the company of strangers. When I was a student at Berkeley, I went with some colleagues to a favorite restaurant in San Francisco. We were approaching a bar on the way, when an ambulance pulled up in front & attendants rushed into the bar with their stretcher. Soon, they appeared with a customer who was bleeding profusely. His face was unrecognizable. I asked a patron what happened. He said matter of factly that "The guy got into an argument with a stranger, who used a broken beer bottle in his face." As I recall, the police hadn't arrived, & I suspect that the attacker had fled out the back door. I did not go into the bar for a look, since we did not want to partake in any leftover violence that evening. To my surprise, I noticed that Brits often went on pub-crawls in search of a fistfight! "In the USA, no way, Jose!" I told them. I hope this letter does not intimidate anyone, for I am just recounting one of my learning experiences for the readers' benefit. As for me, it was pretty scary.

I hope you are receiving your proper medications. I recently heard on the radio that for many years, over 100,000 (count 'em) U.S. citizens die of improperly prescribed medications (wrong drugs, wrong dosage). 100,000 per year is higher than traffic deaths, I hear.

I wonder what was in the letter which your zoggies grabbed. I take care to avoid offending your zoggies with letters I write, so my guess is that I included something which upset your zoggies' kosher sensibilities. I have received no notification from them what the offensive item may have been, for I always want to know if I have broken one of their rules, to avoid doing so in future mailings. They behave (1) as if the letter was very important, or (2) that they are incompetent in handling mail. It seems pretty strange to me. Maybe they lost it & are too embarrassed to admit it. I cannot locate my original of such a letter, so I may not have made a copy. In that case, the letter would have been brief, so the other items in the envelope would seem to pertain to the seizure. You may be assured that I shall keep a copy of this letter!

It was surprising how quickly the ZOG pulled in its horns in regard to their "Victim Awareness Education Program", which violated the ZOG's own Genocide Treaty, as ratified by Congress. I hear that they are now beginning a new program called "RIP," which I also want to know about, as a U.S. citizen & tax-payer, as everyone should also know. I have a reasonably good background for addressing such matters, since I have studied anthropology, international relations, propaganda techniques, Communist brainwashing programs on U.S. prisoners, war crimes & crimes against humanity & history. I have been a bureaucrat for various governments, & I have practical experience in Anglo-Saxon justice. I have worked for years as a journalist & researcher, so I can determine the facts & express them for the benefit of the public.

I understand what it must be like to have hostages. That is one reason I have none.

It does seem strange that Sigdrifa's letter had no postmark. Was the stamp cancelled? Maybe the affirmative-action employee forgot to run the letter through the cancelling machine. At least you got it! So let me know if you get this letter. All the best & ORION!

Eric