

19 SEP 06. Dear Brian: Thanks for your mailings of 24 AUG & 13 SEP! Many thanks, also for the informative photos & great enclosures. I'd been told that the German weapon from which the Soviets copied was an "MP-44", but it was the Sturmgewehr 44 (Assault rifle 44), which is the prototype for the Soviet copy: the AK-47, including the banana magazine! At least on that item I thought the Eurasian, Mikhail Kalashnikov, was original, but not so. White men invent & forget. Yellow men copy & remember. Black men destroy.

The contorted verbiage associated with the concept of 'nation' serves to paralyze the users & to justify their inaction &/or their irrelevant actions. Those who misuse the word are not nationalists, but territorialists. Nation = People, not Place. Ireland is a place, & the land would do quite well without the Irish or anyone dwelling thereon. The Irish are a nation, wherever they live, so if we wish to deal with the Ulster Mess, we need to sort out who is Irish & who is not. I have been told that the Prots are Scots, not Irish, so they should leave, & go back to be close to their Jewish queen. Nationality is biology, not behavior, so wogs & nig nogs who can speak Irish are not Irish, anymore than my ability to speak Spanish makes me a Spaniard. We must see that the errors of the past are errors, & they deserve no homage from us. The gist of nationalism is to ask: "Is this good for the Irish?" If we ask, "Is this good for the church, the land, the language, my wallet, &c.?" we entirely miss the wellbeing of our nation. Nation must come first & the community derived therefrom. As you say, it's like attempting to herd cats if we are addressing nationalists who are not, but merely say they are, in error. It would be like trying to organize a cricket team whose members think that "cricket" means something like golf, tennis, soccer or baseball, so they all show up wearing different garb, with different equipment.

As you observe, the wide use of English allows our enemies to broadcast their lies to us, but if we can use our minds, then we may also use English to broadcast our truths to all English-speakers. English is a means of communication, like a telephone, which can be used to convey enemy propaganda or vital information. Jews have the advantage of being international, so they can tell their lies in any language, as well as English. Isolation merely limits communication. It cannot protect us from lies & ignorance. I listen to enemy broadcasts to learn what lies the enemy deems important enough to broadcast. We must know what the ZOG says, as well as what it does, so we may prepare our defense & our offense by doing what is "good for Whites."

Nietzsche opposed the leader to his people, but leaders do not exist as individuals in isolation from their folk. Earnest Sevier Cox noted the NECESSITY for White leaders to have White followers in order to maintain a White Civilization in his book, "White America." He used South Africa as an example in which White & Jew leaders hoped to maintain a White Civilization on a Black workingclass. Now that the South African Experiment has failed, we can see how right he was, but our alien ZOG persists with its domestic diversity dementia as it exports essential jobs to more aliens, & imports aliens to take the remaining jobs. True nationalists put the good of their people first, & not their selfish personal good. It would be great if one could do what is best for himself & do what is best for his people at all times, but we usually have to make choices in this regard. The results show that people in general & Whites in particular usually choose the selfish course, which means we lack a White Nation, a White Community & a White Future. Beethoven confined in a Black African kraal comes to mind, for without community, we have no one with whom we may share the benefits of our culture: no one to create & no one to enjoy. I'd be in a similar state if I had no correspondents, for there is no one here with whom I can have an intelligent conversation. After all, I live in Brownest Yakima, the Bulawayo of Central Washington, that is, Covington's Great White Hopeland. In this regard, I gather that he thinks White Migration to the NW USA is the panacea for White ailments. Well, he should gaze down from his ivory tower. White flight is creating all sorts of jobs for illegal aliens, as reported in the building industry. Rising property values make it impossible for White workers to live where they still have jobs, & White property owners, including farmers & fruit-growers are hiring the hordes of mestizo invaders. Covington to the contrary, some Whites are 'more equal' than others. Most Whites here are anti-White, & most of them claim some Injun ancestry. White Nationalism must begin in the mind, for an assemblage of pale bodies does not a nation make, although Covington would like to think so.

I note that your kosher design for the Brit-banner or Union Jack resembles Ulster postage stamps, as I recall, which featured the Jewish queen Elizabeth plus a Death Star with a black hand therein, obviously fraught with Freemasonic significance.

In your letter to Mr. X, you wisely point out, or attempt to do so, that our future

2) will be dire indeed, if the jews get what they want in The Middle East, at our expense, of course. How easily the scent of jew money swayed the 'patriots-for-profit'. "British Neocon Party" is quite accurate! I see no particular difference between Nick Griffin & Tony Blair, who both sold out their constituencies on behalf of 'style', rather than substance. Blair made Labour into a U.S.-style party: no difference in policy; merely a different politician. As you say, being defensive is the best way to lose. I had that impression during the last U.S. presidential campaigns in which the Democrats could only say that "We aren't as bad as the Republicans." That is all they say now. Such a deal!

I wonder what the Pope was smoking when he quoted the Dark Age emperor's view of Islam, as a religion spread by the sword. I guess he had no knowledge of Charlemagne alias Karl the Saxon-Slayer who declared: "Baptism or Death" for Whites. Christinsanity conquered Europe by force & fraud, on behalf of centralizing political power, & its role in the Crusades was no more moral than was Islamic conquests in Europe. The Pope can always say that "The devil made me do it." That would be a better alibi than his current confession of senility, for if he did not choose to quote the emperor, who did? & why did the Pope say what he did, if that was not his intention? Holy hokum, Batman!

If you recall watching the movie, "Excalibur," you may remember the danger in the long run of getting what you want in the short run. Arthur wanted Merlin to save the dying Lancelet. Merlin asked, "Are you sure?" & Arthur thoughtlessly says, "Yes!" The result nearly cost Arthur his kingdom, & eventually cost him his life. The same shortsighted results can be seen with the great multiplication of defectives in our societies, due to medical greed. In England of the 1920's, defective babies were "set aside," to die of exposure, much as the wise Spartans had done, for the good of their families & for the good of society. Not so now! The fit are taxed on behalf of the unfit, so the numbers of the fit & productive can only diminish, relative to the multitudes of parasites. ZOG-stats reveal that over one hundred thousand Americans die each year from incorrect medication &/or incorrect dosages. Maybe predatory physicians can undo their proliferation of parasites, for personal profit. Such a deal! Would that be "the best of all possible worlds?" Stay tuned!

For decades, I've mentioned the need for "ZOG-Busters" logos on T-shirts et al. It would feature the Death Star with "ZOG" therein & a diagonal line running through "ZOG". In Rhodesia, we made bright orange T-shirts with "GOY-POWER" in large white letters. Boy, did that agitate the hebes!

I agree that most Ostensible White Americans are anti-White & pro-Zionist. "Kamikaze Christ-eaters" want to bring on "Armageddon" & the alleged "Second Coming," a.s.a.p., Bush included. The demented actor, Reagan, was also a member of the Armageddonist cabal, as I understand, as well as some of his generals, so we are fine ones to accuse the Moslems of being Jihadist Fanatics. "Mirror, mirror on the wall, who is the maddest Mahdi of them all?" U.S. policies aren't much different than those alleged of the Arab airplane hijackers who allegedly flew into The Trade Towers & The Pentagon, all by themselves.

As you compare untravelled native Irish with Whites who have foreign experience, you can see why I told Tom that America's present is Ireland's future. America's present may worsen drastically at any time if the possible Mexican Civil War breaks out. That will mean millions of refugees pouring into the USA, with violent repercussions here. For me, it's like being back in Latin America, without having to pay airfare. Hoot mon! It's a Scottish delight, so I'll enjoy it if it kills me. Nothing like saving airfare, eh?

Yes, we need W.N. songs. I wrote one to the tune of The Horst Wessellied or Die Fahne Hoch, which I enclose, if I forgot to send you a copy. The Internationale would also be a good tune for W.N. lyrics. That could trigger quite a few kosher commie coronaries!

As you say, when Whites fear to be seen in their own countries, they will soon cease to exist. "Excuse me for living" is not a viable slogan for the future, nor for the present. Thanks for sharing your biopolitical information. I once 'translated' "Fiddler on the Roof" as "Embezzler on the Roof," since Americans do not know what a 'fiddle' is as the Brits use it. Ha! Yes, I've read that the Kurds & the Ashkenazim or Khazars were related, so we should stay tuned in regard to an independent Kurdistan.

RE C.I.: alias Christian Identity alias British Israel alias Israel Identity alias Idiot Identity. I first learned of this insanity in Africa when I read a book announcing that the Anglo-Saxons, i.e. the English were "the true jews." I wondered who had published it, & I noted the publisher as "Her Majesty's Printing Office." In other words, this crap was official British propaganda! The gist of the book was that Germans changed their tribe when they crossed the 22 miles of saltwater known as The English Channel. Those Germans who

3) remained in Europe, including the Angles & Saxons, were dubbed "The Tribe of Judah," whereas the Angles & Saxons who moved to Britain became "Israelites." This neo-kosher crapology was written before the First World War, around the time the British House of Hannover changed its name to "The House of Windsor" & the Battenbergs became the Mountbattens. No Germans here! Since the USA was founded by religiously insane people, the idea of "British Israel" was touted in North America as a means of splitting the Germans into righteously killing Germans in Europe. According to former Rothschild et al. bankster, Benjamin Freedman, the jew banksters wanted war with Germany to smash German trade rivalry with Britain, so it was no wonder that British Israel got abundant funds for its mischief!

I felt alienated when I worked as a wage-slave in an insurance company, which prompted me to get a job in Colombia, South America. At last I knew the freedom of being captain of my fate. Compared to the stress of the Judeo-American ratrace, a civil war in Colombia was a rest-cure! I do not exaggerate. Civil wars & political upheavals I can stand, but never the trivia, tension & tedium of the Ratrace, which is 90% b.s. & 10% survival. There was also the knowledge that one's life was futile, into the bad bargain, for one would never realize his personal interests nor ambitions outside the narrow confines of one's company. I saw what that knowledge did to my co-workers, who were only a few years older than I was. They were trapped, & they knew it, but they could see no way to escape. One older fellow took ill on the job & he died on the way home. The talk at lunch was, "Did you hear about the one who got away?" I felt that some actually envied him. That's when I decided to leave that place & also the alienation of life in the USA, which I did. Here's another example of fate: Had I not worked in that office, I would not have met the contact who provided me with my job in Colombia! As Savitri Devi said, perhaps I am a "karma-yogi," for now I trust my fate. I have been quite lucky, as I look back over my life, through no fault nor virtue of my own. This encourages me to think that I have been preserved for some important purpose in the scheme of things, although that is hard to imagine as I sit at my typewriter in the middle of The Computer Age.

I agree with your evaluation of Brecht versus Eisenstein, who I liken to a 'motion-sculptor' of epic proportions. Leni Riefenstahl captured the majesty of the moment with a lighter touch, I think. As for Brecht: I feel he was semi-DA DA, an anti-artist of sorts. If a remake were made of Wouk's "The Caine Mutiny," I'd cast Bush II as Captain Queeg. Bush could just play himself. See if you can find "Sex versus Civilization" by Pendell. It's a great presentation of eugenics.

Back to the Computer Age: I realize that all the clerks & typists who worked in that dismal insurance office could have been replaced long ago by a single laptop computer. I'd be surprised if the office still exists, unless it were reduced in size & staff, considerably! One visitor said of my livingroom/office that it looked like a 19th century newspaper office or maybe a post office, with the pigeonhole filing system for my correspondents. When I showed him his pigeonhole he was impressed, which contained his correspondence file & his outgoing mail, which he took with him. He remarked that kerosene lamps would not look out of place in my place, but I can make do with candles if the lights go out.

Do you think that Covington would be suitable as a "Great White Novelist?" Our very own Herman Wouk! I can't imagine how Wouk would demonstrate that "Communism was anti-jew", for I heard one Moscow jew interviewed on CBC-TV in Soviet Canuckistan. He said in Yiddish: "Stalin wahr sehr gut für die Yidden." "Stalin was very good for the jews." I liken Stalin to Meyer Lansky who headed the mafia: a jew can kill jews & still remain jewish, for some jews are 'more equal' than others. In fact, Džgashvili (Stalin) did have Trotsky (Bronstein) killed, just as a jew killed Israeli premier Rabin, if I recall the name correctly. I guess we are therefore expected to believe that jews no longer run Israel, as sheeple say about the USSR under Stalin, whose resident father-in-law, Kaganovich, was definitely jewish! As for "Stalin," some claim that he was not a jew, but a DNA test would reveal that he was of Khazar stock. Certainly, his marriage to the jewess who spawned his children would make them jewish & therefore entitled to 'special treatment' here in the Jewnited States. The USA deems "jew" to be "a nationality," regardless of the jew's country of origin, which gives all jews special visa privileges. In other words, a jew from Iran would not be an Iranian, even if he has an Iranian passport. For U.S. policy purposes, he'd be deemed a jew & therefore eligible for a U.S. visa, pronto. It reminds me of B.Traven's account of the Romanian jewess in Paris's U.S. Embassy in his book "Death Ship." She obviously bribes the U.S. official to receive her "pacepot", as she pronounces "passport," as the U.S. sailor waits in his vain attempt to have his lost passport replaced. Since he has no money, he is

4) stateless! B. Traven wrote "The Treasure of the Sierra Madres," in addition to other novels & shortstories, all worth reading. In many respects his novels parallel my own experiences, although his were in the 1920s & 1930s & my Traven-like experiences were in the 1950s & 1960s, but in the same places. He was familiar with Barcelona & Durango, Mexico, as I later learned from reading his books. How does one travel by death-ship? A death ship is over-insured & destined to sink so its owners can profit thereby, so one should learn the value of its cargo before embarking, as I normally did when I travelled from South America to Panama, although I've had my share of scares, like the time my rustbucket was without power, out of sight of land, somewhere near the Equator, with cargo hatches open. I'd been in violent storms in the same area of the Pacific on previous voyages, so open hatches were a definite liability, especially without power! Still, I prefer to travel by death ship, rather than death aircraft. Beggars can't be choosers. As a Barcelona travel agent assured me: "The only cheaper way to go to India is to swim!"

Hebrewood is on a pirate kick, but pirates or maritime bandits, are not nice, nor galling, as portrayed in fiction. Indeed, they are murderous cutthroats. They operate in the Caribbean, the Malacca Straits & off the coast of Somalia, just to mention a few of their business locations.

Castro-Cuba was definitely in the Soviet orbit, regardless of recent denials during this latest "non-aligned summit" in Havana. As one commentator pointed out: Soviet subsidies for Cuba were a big chunk out of Soviet income, so they did not want to see another Cuba in Latin America. I was banned from Cuba, as well as all Soviet Bloc countries when I was banned from the USA in 1969, so how would Castro-Cuba be "non-aligned?" When one toes the Moscow Line, we can reasonably conclude that Cuba would be aligned with Soviet policy. Our Zionist rulers, that is, the Rockefellers & Rothschilds, do make their intentions known through a few organs, such as "Foreign Affairs", which is published by the U.S. Council on Foreign Relations. I wrote a critique of one article which announced the Soviet policy of enlisting the support of "the national bourgeoisie of the third world" in its 'proletarian struggle' against the bourgeoisie of the first world. Within this context, Soviet participation in the death of Che Guevara & the "bonfire of the idiots" in Chile, as well as Soviet-U.S. co-operation in Peru, when I was there, is entirely explicable. The local library does not carry "Foreign Affairs," which I recommend as 'must' reading. Thus did we see the former Soviet Union pulling the wool over the eyes of its commie true-believers, much as the British Neocon Party is attempting to do with its supporters.

Ostrovsky is likely back in the Zionist camp, which he might never have left, even when he came out with his two books: "By Way of Deception" & "The Other Side of Deception." Dr. Oliver wrote that a clever tactic used by liars is to wrap many layers of truth around a kosher kernel of untruth, to be swallowed like a poison pill coated with sugar, by its intended victim. If one wants to be paranoid, one could reason that Ostrovsky wrote his anti-Zionist books so as to gain the trust & access to anti-Zionists. The bottom line is that he remains alive, after doing so much purported damage to Zionism.

With all the jews & Moslems invading Europe, it would seem a good location for pogroms of the sort celebrated in "Fiddler on the Roof," if I recall correctly. The Yiddish cinema made a predecessor of that film, as I understand, entitled "Da Yiddle mit da Fiddle." The Nazis made "Die Ewige Jude" or "The Eternal Jew" from Yiddish films & also from Hebrew-Wood's "The House of Rothschild," with the addition of some Nazi narrative. CANZOG was in a kosher quandary about the film, for they would have to say that a jewish movie was anti-jewish! Some choice essays of Karl Marx would also be deemed "anti-jewish", were their writers Goyim.

Yes, whores are used as currency in international relations, as well as spies. The Profumo Scandal in Britain, during the early sixties, involved a Soviet diplomat & two high-priced whores, one being Mandy Rice-Davies, who fled to Israel. Profumo had to resign his post as Defence Minister, if I recall correctly, for I was in Colombia at the time. Brits are hypocrites, so scandal is often their undoing. One such scandal destroyed their Liberal Party, whose upcoming leader, Jeremy Thorpe, as I recall, was denounced by a male prostitute. I encountered Thorpe's name in a jewspaper report on a British consulate in Colombia, where he apparently was working. The Brits like to sing, "We're all queers together," which I understand to be a rugby song. What a 'high culture' they have: NOT!

Sex has always been a currency in espionage, for blackmail purposes. In the sixties,

5) as late as that, homosexuality & marital infidelity were grounds for denial of a security clearance. Homosexuality was linked to subversion & treason, which was borne out by the NSA's Martin & Mitchell Scandal & Britain's MI-6 or S.I.S. Scandal involving Burgess & Maclean, all of whom fled to the USSR. The tipster in Britain was Kim Philby, who allegedly warned Burgess & Maclean that MI-5 was after them. Later, all the commie-queers were revealed as part of The Rothschild Circle, including Her Majesty's art curator, Blunt. As I gathered, Martin & Mitchell were two of "the Frankfurter boys" planted in U.S. government by the jew, Felix Frankfurter. J. Edgar Hoover was another notorious pervert, whose buddy, Tollson, was inseparable. Apparently, Meyer Lansky, chief of the mafia, knew all about it, so Hoover denied the mafia's existence! I recall his declarations in the press that "there was no Cosa Nostra." I understand that Hoover got mafia payoffs from his betting at race tracks. Hoover would ostentatiously place his $2 bet, while a confederate would put down real money on the horse designated to win.

Investigative reporter, Frederick Selig, of The Los Angeles Examiner, began to do a series on homosexuals in U.S. politics during the JFK regime. He reasoned, according to U.S. policy, that if queers were security risks, what would happen if one became president & Commander in Chief of the U.S. armed forces? He was aware that a "Queer Whitehouse" existed in Beverly Hills, owned by a notorious jew-fag, whose parties were equally notorious. Apparently, this was where chosen queers were selected for political candidacy. The jew-fag apparently caught "The Hero's Disease," & died of AIDS, years after Selig's attempted expose of fags in politics. This reminds me of the pervert, Mountbatten, of whom it was said that one could advance in The Royal Navy by bending over for Mountbatten. Bobby Kennedy had Selig kidnapped by U.S. marshals. He was confined in Marion Maximum Security Prison, where he was tortured sufficiently for him to have heart attacks, so he was released on the assumption that he would quickly die. He did, but he lived to write the story of what had happened to him, entitled "Destroy the Accuser," with a foreword by Dr. Oliver.

I wrote the above to show how times have changed. Homosexuality is not only open, but deemed 'progressive' by our Zionist liberal establishment, & one blatant jew-fag is still a member of The U.S. Congress. This media-borne change seems to have succeeded in changing most sheeple's opinions of queers, as I gather from sheeple I meet. Now, "security risks" are White heterosexuals married to Whites, with White children. I guess sheeple really are as dumb as jews say they are. How can anyone be concerned about the survival of such critters as these? Yet, I see the masses of asses in the way I perceived sandbars, in which there was the possibility of gold. At least this perception keeps me busy & out of gang-related activities! Politics is deemed as 'dirty' by many, for politics is people-power, & no critters can be as dumb nor as dirty as people, but then, no critters can be as noble & heroic as people, IF THEY WANT TO BE!

Your "WOE to ZWO (Zionist World Order)" is great propaganda, for it explains what Goyim need to know, since we all live under ZOGs in the West. As jew writers have said, the use of Zionists, rather than jews, overcomes the Pavlovian response of Goyim to the word, "jew," which makes them switch their minds off.

North America is a racial dunghheap which pollutes the planet with toxins & disinformation. A recent jewsradio report on the Canadian tarsands in Alberta crowded over the "wonderful diversity" of the in-swarmling workforce around this oil-boom, most of which is imported from Africa & Asia. Yet, there is high & growing unemployment in Canada, so why aren't unemployed Canadians hired? Maybe they are all living well off unemployment benefits, so they are unwilling to go to Alberta. ZOG only knows, & the jewsmedia aren't telling us. Maybe the alien invaders receive lower wages, as they do in the Jewnited States. That would be a good kosher-capitalist reason for importing hordes of aliens, rather than hiring natives. Stay tuned!

As you observe, "Western Civilization" has very little in the way of western culture, & Whites appear to prefer all that is alien in art, religion & behavior. An Irish fellow who visited Canada asked where was Canadian culture? All he could see was nigger music & jewish humor. Nobody he asked knew or cared about Canadian culture in Canada. He told me how surprised he'd be to visit China & see Chinese entertainers wearing red wigs, leprechaun garb, playing harps & bagpipes, while dancing Irish jigs. He might well ask where was Chinese culture? One writer described ancient Carthage as a society devoted to commerce, with no trace of culture, nor civilization. The USA is such an entity, with a big addition of Babel. As I wrote, the last vestige of White civilization is our crumbling infrastructure, upon which all of us depend for our existence. When that goes, we go.

6) The "petty statist," like Tom, or the "territorialists" as I call them, deem anyone to be French if they reside in France, which I liken to defining a woman as a 'man' if she enters a men's latrine or men's room. The label supposed^{ly} determines the substance, rather than vice versa. Nationality is biology, not place nor behavior. One can like or dislike a family member, but he remains family, which is biological rather than emotional.

Re The Night of the Long Knives: Hitler had no time to revolutionize Germany, so what might have been accomplished if he'd been able to eliminate disloyal members of the Army is in the "what if" category. There was simply no time for that. Germany's enemies wanted to bring about a civil war in Germany, which an S.A. versus Army fight would have done, thus rendering Central Europe vulnerable to Stalin's planned invasion. It is something of a miracle that Hitler was able to achieve what he did, considering the men & means he had with which to do it. In a table-talk, Hitler evaluated his Germans in regard to how many centuries behind they were in their thinking, in view of the contemporary realities they faced. I understand that Halder held up the German offensive in the USSR, & his like probably withheld the weapons from Germany's allies on the Eastern Front, or such as the Romanians took them for their own use. According to my sources, obtaining even token military support from such people was exorbitant. I recall that Romania wanted a cement plant for so many troops, &c. Hitler remarked how foolish it was to subordinate one's fight against the Red Monster to such petty haggling. As usual, he was right. He also said that if Soviet Communism were to take over Eastern Europe, it would most likely cure them of any pro-Communist sympathies they had.

On another time & on another front, invading Union forces following Lee's surrender were surprised to find all the supplies which Confederate armies at the front had so sorely lacked, safely hoarded in Confederate state capitals. The South lost for lack of central government, which is what they fought to achieve, albeit ineffectively, for they lacked a strong central government &, hence, a unified military strategy. Apparently, unity on behalf of anarchy is self-defeating. The words of Tacitus refer, which I enclose.

Your description of France reminds me of San Francisco, where everyone I met was from somewhere else. I don't think I ever met a native San Franciscan. As you say, muds are bad for one's blood pressure & the^y disrupt one's concentration. In fact, most people I know are so distracted that they need to go to concentration camps, where they may be taught how to concentrate. Ha!

Your wog experience will prove valuable. Tom to the contrary, it appears as if White Nationalism is presently possible, even in Ireland, from what you say about the ubiquitous Russians et al. Once a W.N. group is formed, perhaps even Irish may join, since they seem so unwilling to join Irish Nationalist groups. Irish seem to be as contrary as the Dutch, & the Scots! I advised Covington that Whites would likely migrate to the NW USA if he'd dissociate himself therefrom. No one wants to be close to Covington after attempting to work with him, in my experience. Whites coming here do not want to establish a state, for their only reason is to escape the mud-flood they helped to bring about & are still facilitating by hiring them.

Your admonition not to collaborate with reactionaries reflects the words of The Horst Wessel Song: "...comrades shot by the Red Front & the Reaction(aries)..." This unwholesome alliance between reds & reactionaries, including the so-called nobility, pervaded Europe during World War II. A friend of mine was in the SD. He worked as interpreter for Kesselring in Italy, & he told me of the competence of Fascist officers, as opposed to the incompetence verging on sabotage of the 'nobility'. He expressed joy at their capture of a 'red noble' who deserted to join the Red Brigade in northern Italy. Von Seydlitz apparently got away with his treason at Stalingrad, & pulled von Paulus in with him. The 'noble' parasites could not abide popular leaders like Hitler & Mussolini, as if they could have done better! They had their chance in 1918, & they failed miserably & selfishly: after all, the people existed for their benefit, & not vice versa. That is rascality, not nobility. As you say, Hitler should have dealt harder^{with} the churches, but, again we have a 'what if' of history. It is hard to know if we are using 20-20 hindsight, or if those on the spot, at the time, had a better view of what was possible & what was not. Now that events have happened, can we say that we really know more than those who were there? Is our knowledge superior in quality, as well as quantity? It seems possible for people to be loyal, to a degree & turn traitor later, so how does a leader know when to act, so as to prevent betrayal? How can I know what is in a person's mind if they don't know themselves? Hitler worked on an 'innocent 'til proven guilty' basis, & Savitri Devi wrote that he had "too

7) much sun & not enough lightning." But if Hitler had the 'proper mix' of sun & lightning, would he have achieved what he did? All things do not remain equal if a single factor is changed. The famous singer, Leila Andersson (sp?) who captivated Axis & Allied troops with her song, "Lili Marlene," allegedly wanted to have her teeth straightened, but her dentist warned her that such dental work could alter her otherwise perfect voice, so she'd best leave well enough alone. Good advice!

Does degeneracy begin in the mind, or does it reside in the genes? Family histories appear to show that a dynamic relationship exists between heredity & environment. My observation is that environment can help or hamper one's good genes, such as intelligence, but Nurture cannot replace Nature. Criminals & crazies tend to reproduce more criminals & crazies, as the jews have amply proved, so let the receiver beware of all jewish contributions, as you advise.

As I understand, Kurt von Schleicher lived down to his name: Schleicher means Sneak in German. Apparently, he was "too clever for words," entirely on his own behalf, as a schemer & individual opportunist, usually hovering at the fringes of power, in view of his "von" spectators of his 'old boy club'. His behavior reminds me of Ernst Zündel, of whom it is also said that "a man without principles must be awfully clever." Otto Skorzeny observed that brave men see only two choices, but a man who thinks himself clever may see a 'third' choice, as did Schleicher, Zündel & now, Griffin.

So, do you think that the Haitian Dirt Diet will halt the obesity epidemic? Macdonald Mud Milkshakes don't sound very great, so a new name will be in order. Maybe Elmer Fudd Frappes would draw more (oink!) consumers.

Yes, leaving personal information around is often more valuable to crooks than leaving money unattended in public. A jew-scam in Jew York Shitty was well-placed: the kike crooks placed a 'smart card' scanner under a fancy restaurant's pay counter, so the crook at the cash register could record all the information on customers' credit cards. A Paki did the same to service station customers in Canada, reaping mucho dinero as a result. Imagine if you could work a month as a filling station attendant & then retire on all the money you stole from customers' accounts via electronic banking 'services'. A local resident of Yakima discovered he'd purchased land in Florida, then mortgaged it for cash & taken off, despite the fact he never went to Florida in his life. The scam had been a matter of identity theft. One day, while I was working in my parkinglot attendant's booth, my landlord drove by to let me know that my basement apartment's window was open, so someone may have broken in. I thanked him for the news & said that I'd investigate when my shift ended. He wondered why I did not hasten over, there & then. I said there was no need for hurry, except for my curiosity as to what anyone would want to steal from me. Most thieves would demand payment for hauling it to the dump! In this regard, I wonder what would happen to the poor thief who'd steal my identity, if he were so dumb & unfortunate to do so. Maybe there should be a warning label on my credit card: This person has been deported from 5 countries at last count & he is persona non grata in the following countries, if he is not wanted for thought-crime: Canada, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, Zimbabwe, Israel, Cuba, France, Germany, Austria & all other members of the EU. I don't advise anyone to steal my cellphone, either, unless he doesn't mind a hellfire missile beaming down on him. One thing we can say about African ingenuity: they sure learn quickly how to steal!

Yes, I understand that David Duke was with Rockwell for a time. When he is asked about it, he usually seems surprised & flustered, & he asks how his questioner found out.

Thanks for the information that the gangs who are carving each other up in Scotland are still Scottish, with the usual Christian overtones to justify their internecine mayhem. Imagine what the Moslems could achieve if they did not fight among themselves on the Sunni-Shia issue! I gather that the jews would be killing each other if the Arabs would just leave them alone, but being Arabs, they are not very wise; but they are far wiser than those who let them into their countries. I met my first Iraqi here in Brownest Yakima in which there are two mosques at last count & two Mexican chambers of commerce. Yakima qualified as "An All-American City" when it was determined that English was not the only main language spoken here, in Covington's Great White Hopeland.

When you can conclude that the situation is hopeless, but not serious, you can enjoy your day in good humor, as I do. Lenin dubbed religion as "the opiate of the masses," so can we dub opiates as "the religion of the masses?" Stay tuned! All the best & ORION!
