

4 OCT 06. Hail Osred! Many thanks for your latest RENEWAL & your great letter of 21 SEP. I note that you advertise McNallen's multi-racial version of "Asatru." A recent prison killing in the USA has been linked to "Asatru," which I place in quotes, since the gulag version may be off the mark, as is McNallen's. According to my information, our ZOG has thus deemed "Asatru" as "STG", which is ZOG-gulag jargon for "Security Threat Group." In the article on the killing, McNallen weighs in to tout "Asatru" as being open to all races, & therefore not a "White supremacist STG." You may wish to contact him directly in order to dispel any encrustations of blightwing exaggerations which usually occur. I enclose a letter which briefly describes calumnies which have been circulating about me on the Internet. I want to know where my back-pay got to, during my stint as "CIA supervisor for Mossad hit-teams!" If I had those zogbucks, you can be sure I'd be living in a civilized place, with a few White people I could talk to.

The first copies of Instauration (Dinosauration?) I ever saw were after my return to North America from my period of exile in Africa, thanks be to ZOG. I'd obviously missed out on lots of good reading, but the FBI told me that it would be "healthier" for me to leave the USA, back in 1969, after their confiscation of my doctoral dissertation on the USA-USSR role in Latin America. After my return to Peru that year, the USSR embassy in Lima told me that my stay in Latin America would also be "unhealthy," so I wound up in rebel Rhodesia, during the Smith regime, which allowed me to catch my breath. An Interpol contact informed me, in 1982, that members of the ZOG with whom my research was 'hot' during the former Cold War period, "were all dead," & nothing nasty about me remained on the computer. In fact, my "hard-copy" file from the Jewstice Dept. arrived with some 200 pages entirely blackened out, so they were even useless as scrap paper. "Nice zoggies," as we say. I subsequently passed my background check for the Washington State Gambling Commission, which is quite strict in regard to felonies, outstanding arrest warrants, misdemeanors, fines, debts, child-support payments outstanding, &c. I am thus "squeaky-clean" in terms of the law, unlike most successful holders of public office. This is despite the fact that I have been deported from five countries, as of now, including the USA, of which I am a citizen by birth, but as we learn (if we live to tell about it), law & politics (people-power) are two different things, so different rules apply.

Maybe some day, if current racial & demographic anti-White trends continue, an ostensible White girl may be found in North America, but not if the Blacks find her first!

We are certainly in agreement in regard to America's phantasmagoria of concocted-cults. It has been observed that the British consigned their religious nuts to America & their honest criminals to Australia. One crazy-cultist, Arch Edwards, has attempted to combine all Aryan Gods & Goddesses, including Odin, under the kingship of Yahweh, &c. I presume he is on the Internet, to which nuts take like ducks to water, to broadcast their blather. I have considered from my information that religions either emanate from the believers therein OR, they may emanate from gods who exist apart from their believers, but whom their believers can 'tune in to' because of their blood, that is, their genetic make up. Mechanistic, rationalistic 'religions' appear to lack the appeal to one's blood which is essential for a philosophy to become a religion, in my opinion. My religion does not come from books, but from my feelings derived from my perceptions. I trust that others, my kinfolk, mainly, would have similar perceptions & feelings, without attempting to put such impressions into words. Judaism & its mongrel proponents must put their cult into words, since they appear to lack similar perceptions & feelings. They have to learn what their perceptions & feelings 'should' be. Thus do jews & their ilk make clever sophists & lawyers, as well as liars. The jew attempt to make up for their lack of understanding with one book, which they all read, is an abject failure, as proven by the plethora of pernicious Semitic cults which emanate from that one book, from which everyone derives his own meanings. As Rabbi Elmer Berger said in a lecture which I attended in Toronto, Canada, "Judaism is a contractual religion." How alien that idea is for my religion! Imagine that a family were run according to a contract: How is love to be apportioned? In jewish families, love seems to be equated with food, which can be doled out in measurable quantities. The jewish mind & its ilk has no comprehension of quality, apparently, only of quantity. As stated in "The Protocols," "everything must come down to a matter of numbers."

In this regard, several writers, like Werner Sombart, have called America "the distilled essence of Judaism." Calvinism equated wealth & worldly well-being to being 'close to "God,"' in his terms. Since Calvinism was the basis for most religions in the USA, the

2) popular cult known as "The Gospel of Wealth" served to justify the pernicious predations practiced by the Robber Barons, or "malefactors of great wealth," since they were "closer to 'God,' alias Mammon." Uncontrolled immigration has successfully destroyed the power of the labor unions to mitigate, to some extent, the abuses of boundless greed in the USA. I seem to recall, before the savings & loan scandal, i.e. bank robbery by bank CEOs, in the 1970s that "Greed is good!" according to those who had their hands in the till. Too bad for the productive members of society who lost the fruits of their toil to the self-righteous thieves. This abuse was repeated with the Enron Swindle et al., & shows no sign of abating. H.L. Mencken correctly described "The American Dream" as "living for the day in which an American can steal something." Americans have no compunction against stealing from future generations, including their own offspring. How far we have distanced ourselves from Odin & from our Folk! Our Folk have wandered far into the serpent-infested Dismal Swamp of Semitism, so the way back to our being & our nature will likely be arduous, if not impossible. One of my German friends, a World War II vet, would say: "Nicht Hrgern, nur wundern!" or "Don't fret, just wonder!" That is how I feel toward our current status as dumb, ignorant 'sheeple' who seem quite content to be fleeced & slaughtered by our kosher shepherds. We definitely need a religion which teaches us to be men, not sheep, children nor dogs, to quote "Jesus," since that is what he allegedly wants us to be, as I read in the jew-book.

On a lighter note, I recall watching a Hebrewwood 'Viking epic' starring the jew, "Kirk Douglas" alias Isadore Demsky, in which he plays the Viking leader! If that were not sufficient to kosherize the farce, the hebes included a Black "Viking," whose memorable line was: "Let's give him a Viking funeral!" The live cinema audience actually laughed & booed! In a large theater in Toronto, I attended a showing of "Excalibur", which had an all-White cast, as I recall. It even showed Whites reproducing their own kind! Several non-Whites walked out in the middle of the feature, I noted. For them, it must have been a "real holocaust." Oy veh!

Speaking of 'warm-fuzzy recollections,' I recall a trial, among many, which I was required to attend in Toronto, during my days with The Zud, before he went 'thud' in Zionist Occupied Germany, on thought-crime charges for things I wrote. The victim of "assault with bodily-harm" was Paul Hartmann, an avowed Odinist, for whom I wrote "The Awakening." He was attacked on a main street, downtown, by a motley gang of Maoists, who carried pipes wrapped with newspapers for concealment. They clobbered his girlfriend, pushed another girl (White) through a large plateglass store window & surrounded Paul when he tried to defend the girls. Because all the Maoists were involved in the murderous assault, the Injun judge could not find any ONE of them guilty for striking the injurious blows. Apparently, there was no collective guilt connected with a collective assault, in Zionist Canuckistan! The Maoists' Black attorney, Mr. Roach (yes, that was his real name!), argued that Paul was an Odinist & that Odinists believe in "always attacking superior numbers of foes." Therefore, the Maoists were "being attacked" by Paul, "from whom they were barely able to defend themselves," although Paul had no weapon. "Fortunately," at least one beleaguered Maoist was able to hit Paul on the back of his head with the newspaper-wrapped pipe, thus knocking him unconscious. An amateur photographer who was on the scene to photograph the Maoist parade down Yonge Street that day, recorded the whole event: Picture #1 shows the Maoist gang crossing the street to attack Paul & his friends, who were spectators, only. #2 shows the pipe-wielding Maoists belaboring the two girls. #3 shows them surrounding Paul, with their pipes raised. #4 shows Paul, on the sidewalk, bleeding profusely from his head wounds. The 5 or 6 Maoists were all found "innocent." The one Black Maoist assailant was never brought to trial. That was my first taste of Canadian 'jewstice.' There was a veritable 'banquet' of Canadian Kangaroo Court Trials to follow! I participated in trials for war crimes, 'hate crimes,' mail-crimes & property-damage crimes. Then I participated in immigration hearings for NASA scientist Arthur Rudolf & myself for alleged illegal entry & espionage in Soviet Canuckistan alias China-duh. Canada failed to deport me when I offered to give the Canzoggies Gouzenko's list of Communist agents in the Canadian Government, which they had received from him previously, in case they lost the original. With that, my immigration hearing concluded in general uproar, & I was free to come & go as I pleased. Anything for the quiet life, as I frequently say.

All the best to you & yours, as always. ORION!
