MEXICO'S IMMIGRATION LAWS

[Translated in layman language by an expert on Mexico's immigration laws, John Carman (customscorruption.com), former INS Customs Agent assigned to the U.S./Mexico border]

1. If you migrate to Mexico, you must speak the native language.
2. You must be a professional or an investor. No unskilled workers allowed.
3. There will be no special bilingual programs in the schools, no special ballots for elections, all government business will be conducted in Spanish.
4. Foreigners will not have the right to vote regardless of time lived in Mexico.
5. Foreigners will never be able to hold political office.
6. Foreigners will not be a burden to the taxpayers. No welfare, no food stamps, no health care, or other government assistance programs.
7. Foreigners can invest in this country, but it must be an amount equal to 40,000 times the daily minimum wage.
8. If foreigners wish to purchase land, that may be approved, but options will be restricted. Foreigners are not allowed to purchase waterfront property - that is reserved for citizens naturally born in Mexico.
9. Foreigners may not protest; no demonstrations; no waving a foreign flag; no political organizing; no negative comments about the Mexican president or his policies. To do so is cause for immediate deportation to your country of origin.
10. Foreigners coming to Mexico illegally, will be hunted down and sent to jail.
[As advised previously, illegal aliens in Mexico are considered FELONS]

ACTION:

Send this to President Bush. Tell him to use Mexico's law as his guide for U.S. "comprehensive" immigration reform.

7 NOV 06. Dear Tom: Many thanks for your letter of 1 NOV 06 & the "politically-incorrect" card which depicts two (gasp!) White boys playing with a toy ocean liner on a lakeshore. P.C. dictates that the two must be a Black male & a White female, perhaps playing with inflatable Voodoo dolls.

I think Napoleon's "interests" could translate as "greed," so his observation on human motivation would include both fear & greed. In Mexico, the criminals' offer is the same: "Plata o plomo?" ("Silver or lead?") The Jew, J.D. Rockefeller, observed that "every man has his price," & Rothschild agent Talleyrand opined that "a man with family will do anything for money." History proves how true these statements are, for virtue usually fails in the face of venality. That's why pundits have long said that "we have the best government money can buy." Sheeple suffer so much because they demand so little. Prior to newspaper propaganda in Napoleon's time, soldiers fought for pay, not propaganda, & it was assumed that Judeo-Revolutionary France could not field large armies, for it could not pay them. Most countries' armies were small in comparison to the armed mobs which Napoleon put into the field! British General Fuller wrote how democracies use propaganda to inflame the masses, & how such propaganda's toxic effects linger on in their body politics, long after it is inappropriate for the countries' interests. Orwell described how such hate-propaganda may be transferred from one target to another, by keeping the 'villain' the same in regard to different countries, in his "1984." The U.S. makes blatant use of such propaganda techniques: First, our "Goldstein" was Hitler. Our political targets were always called "Hitlers." But most sheeple agree that Hitler is dead. According to The National Enquirer, he is discovered dead about every 6-9 months. Now we have CIA asset Osama bin Laden as our perpetual villain. He is allegedly alive, well, & if not, he can be digitally-animated to adopt suitably menacing poses, with "authenticated" vocal expressions. Such a deal! Whoever "Usrael" wants to attack, from one moment to the next, our proles/sheeple 'know' we are attacking the same villain: Osama. Flash Gordon was always menaced by Ming of Mongo, who'd be defeated in one series, only to return in another series. This was economical, for everyone knew that Ming was a bad guy, so Hebrewwood could get right into the story without wasting time on building up his 'bad-guy' character. Nowadays, Hebrewwood would make Flash the blond villain & Ming the hero, with his oriental features. Villains now tend to be Ostensible Whites with classic features & good diction. In fact, the proper use of English has long been Hebrewwood's Pavlovian signal for "bad guy" in their films.

I have also noticed the mestizos' love of noise, especially when they want it to interfere with a Gringo's sleep, but interfere with the mongrel's sleep, & you'll hear loud lamentations of the "injustice" you are inflicting upon the 'peace-loving mestizo.' If the long-suffering Gringo puts up with the racket, he will be deemed a sissy, a weakling or even a 'puto' or male invert. In mud societies, our version of kindness is taken for weakness. Generosity invites disrespect & even attack. That's how mestizo invaders judge us for allowing them into our former country. Gringo attempts to control illegal entry are, as you say, ineffective & despicable for the invaders, thereby increasing their hatred of their stupid, incompetent hosts, while enhancing the invaders' feelings of power.

Thomas Chittum's prophesy of "Civil War Two" may occur much sooner than he predicted, if a purported Mexican civil war breaks out over their last close presidential election, as it shows signs of doing. The creole movement for independence from Spain in 1810 quickly became a race war of "indios" versus "blancos." Their revolution of 1910 became the same, in which lighter-skinned Mexicans were dispossessed & killed by darker specimens. No doubt another version of same will have the same motif of darker versus lighter, as it crosses the border into the USA. Gringos beware!

A Zionist war in Iran plus a Mexican 'refugee' invasion of the USA might even distract Whites from their niggerball games. How unthinkable! I saw U.S. social solidarity disintegrate in 1962, with the Cuban Missile Crisis, so Al Gore is probably correct in thinking that it'll be "every man for himself," when Whitey feels the pressure of politics, economics & demographics, all at once. As Dr. Oliver wrote: Whites are much like rabbits. When the (Vicente) Fox approaches, they all run & hide in the weeds, hoping the fox will eat some other rabbit.

All the best, as always. DOWZ! & ORION!
