

22 DEC 06. Hail Jason! Many thanks for your letter of 14 DEC 06 & the great enclosures. Thanks for the last issue of NSV Report. You may have heard, as I did recently, that Rick Cooper is dead, or maybe he is hiding somewhere with Elvis, if we can ever believe the blighting blather about anyone.

Re "They Were White & They Were Slaves": My Scottish grandmother said that Britain never believed in the old adage, "Charity begins at home." It was always the reverse, for Whites were treated as worthless by their Judeo-Christian rulers. This genocide underlines the fact that Christianity = Hypocrisy; a religion for suckers & scoundrels. Our real God has been Mammon: the god of greed. It is good to blow away our cloud of illusions, for a proper view of reality will lead us to Truth. One colleague of mine in historical research said that "God is Truth." I agreed. That would logically mean that the Devil was ignorance. The Babylonian Talmud, the law of Judaism, states that "a lie kills 3 persons: the one who tells the lie; the one who believes the lie & the one who is lied about." Now we can ask why lying is such a large part of the jews' religion. It's like smokers who consume their product on which there are clear health-hazard warnings, as if to say, "If it's deadly, let's do it!" I'm glad you liked the book. It gives another meaning to USA: the Underprivileged Slaves of America. As a kid, I wondered how it was possible for Britain to capture soldiers & sailors for service in the British Army & Navy. Later, I learned that the captured men were not volunteers who suddenly changed their loyalties from one king or regime to that of Britain, they were slaves who were given the choice: work or be whipped to death. The Big Lie is in the words of the song, "Rule Britannia," which declares that "Britons never never shall be slaves!" when they always were. Imagine slaves singing that they were not slaves. That sounds like something out of Orwell's "1984." I believe it was called "double-think."

I also think that pompous titles are silly, for they invite derision. I met some Mormon missionaries who introduced themselves as "Elders." They were kids! I said that I'd agree to call them elders if they would call me Your Excellency. I think they could see the humor, even if it left them with a sour taste. I don't address anyone as "King," either. Unfortunately, COTC uses "Pontifex Maximus" as the title of its leaders, which is the Roman title for their god-emperors & is now the title of the Pope. I find that title pompous &/or tongue in cheek, so it tends to discredit the one who uses it. As I understand, Pontifex Maximus means "Biggest Bridge-BUILDER," although my knowledge of Latin is minimal, rather than maximum. As far as I know, Kent has written some good material, but I do not know the status of his "kingdom," which seems to be smack in the middle of Mexicans, whom the Bush regime supports. The article on "The Race" (La Raza) refers.

The Jew World Ordure appears to want a "North American Union" comprised of Mexico, Canada & the USA. This political entity is developing rapidly with free trade & the massive Mexican invasion, which the U.S. tax-payers are subsidizing. Imagine being paid to invade someone else's country! Whites are paying the mestizos to take our land & our jobs. Such a deal! I gather that the real definition of "patriotism" for Americans is: leave the USA to die in Iraq, to make more space for alien invaders. The sheeple are bleating, but they are being herded toward their fleecing & slaughter, at the bloody hands of our kosher butchers. The Democrats appear to support our jew-serving role in The Middle East alias The Muddle East, so Bush's anti-American policies seem likely to continue, no matter who occupies The White House in The District of Corruption. As usual, White sheeple are worrying about things which have already happened: the country has been given away, so our job is to take it back, if we can. Of course, we can't do that if we continue to serve the ZOG. Many individual decisions must be made, & fast. If not, we shall be passive spectators to a replay of Rome's Fall, for we have been witnessing a modern version of Rome's Decline for many years, already.

Keep up the good work by staying fit for the struggle. DOWZ! & ORION!
