

28 APR 07. Dear Tom: Many thanks for your letter of 20 APR 07 & the well-selected enclosures. When I saw the Walmart ad for Sam's Club Organics Expo, I thought I was seeing a Chinese Communist propaganda poster. I noted that the triumphant Chinese couple had 2 chinklettes, instead of one, which violates their official "one-child policy," if I understand correctly. No matter, there's lots more where they come from. I thought a more appropriate title for the poster would be: AMERICA: SOLD OUT. YOURS TO TAKE OVER! WALK RIGHT IN & HELP YOURSELVES! (Just push the round-eyed, long-nosed foreign devils out of your way. They don't bite.)

As you say, the armchair warriors now speak up from their allegedly secure, posh retirements as former ZOG-mercs. Like good grunts, they reveal that they worked on a 'need to know' basis, for they are quite ignorant of the Big Picture of Politics (People-Power). Soldiers are not rulers. They are instruments of rulers & their policies. Soldiers follow orders, without question. Soldiers are told only what they need to know to carry out their missions, even as expendable dupes of their rulers. Soldiers do not know Sun Tzu when they do not understand where they fit in. British General Fuller described war as "economics by other means." He characterized wars of the 20th century as "trade wars over markets." Benjamin Freedman, former bankster apprentice of Hans Morgenthau Sr., the father of Genocide Jr., would have agreed with Gen. Fuller, for Freedman knew the real motives for World War I: the trade rivalry between Germany & Britain, via the Rothschilds, which led to a truly great Jewish 'harvest'. Those who control money can never lose wars.

FEDZOGUSA promoted "The Domino Theory" to the Goyim, in which Red Russia & Red China were allegedly such loyal allies as to make them into a Marxist Monolith. One former ZOG-merc must be drinking some strong mai-tai when he writes that China was supplying the N. Vietnamese Soviet client state "with the latest & best equipment the Chinese had to offer." He fails to mention that such equipment would have come from the Soviet Jewnion via Soviet ships arriving in Haiphong Harbor, not from China, which recognized that North Vietnam was designed as a Soviet ally to open a second front in a USA-USSR war against China. When I monitored Radio Peking (Beijing) shortwave broadcasts, night after night, in California, during the late 1960s, Red China had nothing good to say about Red Russia, whom the Red Chinese denounced as "running yellow dog lackeys of the American imperialists." The Chinese broadcasts were usually jammed by a powerful CIA radio transmitter called Radio of the Andes, or some such cover name. If FEDZOGUSA wished to keep its "Communist Monolith" intact, Goyim should not be allowed to listen to Radio Beijing! Hebrewood was cranking out anti-Chinese movies in this period, in which "our gallant Soviet allies" received favorable propaganda. When Ambassador Ellsworth Bunker went to Europe to ask NATO if they would join with USA-USSR in a war against China, NATO declined to join the war party. I summed up these items in "China, the Jews & World War III" or "Secret Soviet Border Wars" (with China). True to my thesis, South Vietnam was betrayed by the USA, as we did with Chiang Kai Shek, so the U.S. bases, infrastructure & equipment would be left intact. I spoke to U.S. sailors who reported their dumping of ammo meant for Chiang into the sea, as well as their successors who dumped ammo intended for South Vietnam into the same ocean. The confirmation of my thesis was when China attacked Vietnam, shortly after Vietnamese Unification. China's message was: "Don't even think of getting tough with us!" Hence, an Indochinese proxy war was fought between Chinese client regimes & Soviet client regimes.

Rockefeller employee Richard Nixon revealed USA's truly ophidian nature when he suddenly went to Red China & thereby altered U.S. policy in Asia, much to the consternation of the Japanese. That's how we earned the title of "Jewnited Snakes of America." A whole new shuffle of dominoes had occurred, most notably when USA turned against its USSR partner in Afghanistan, by our backing of the anti-Soviet Taliban. Once the USSR was driven out of the territory, we turned against our recent allies, the Taliban, & touted CIA-asset Osama bin Laden & his Data Base (Al Qaida) as our "new Hitler." Orwell would understand, but Goyim do not read Orwell. None of my sources of information were secret, so my old professor was entirely correct when he said, "There are no Big Secrets, for they are 'hidden' in plain sight!" Is my analysis incorrect? If so, why did so many major events fit into the context which I just described? My much-better-paid colleague, General Odom of NSA, recommends that we get out of Iraq, which we should never have got into, exactly as I had recommended. Gen. Odom achieved his information from the inside, whereas mine came from the outside.

Lawrence Dennis predicted that our penchant for "foreign adventures" would bring our nasty chickens home to roost much faster than would occur if we had addressed our domestic problems caused by our failure to dismantle The Empire of ZOG. That's why our 'victories' are really defeats. DOWZ & ORION!
