

2 MAY 07. Dear Paul: Many thanks for your mailing of 30 APR 07, including the card, for which I am most grateful. Your outstanding selection of downloads was appreciated, as always, & they are worthy of comment: Our anti-Zionist colleague, Israel Shamir, is very good, as usual, & I'm surprised he has not been bumped off by his pro-Zionist congeners. Jews usually kill their own when they know something dangerous, like Rabbi Kastner & Joel Brandt who knew about Nazi-Zionist collaboration. First they snuffed Brandt, then Eichmann. Opinion is tolerated, knowledge is not. Bugsy Siegel was, of course, impossible for Meyer Lansky & Co. to leave unsnuffed*, because of his knowledge & his behavior, which attracted unwanted publicity for the Kosher Nostra, even though J. Edgar Hoover denied its existence. Frank Sinatra must have come quite close to the edge in that regard. If I recall correctly, Bugsy was blown away in North Hollywood while I was in San Fernando, CA. My parents would have provided me with an alibi. They would not have sworn under oath that I was a nice guy, for I was a mean little kid, but they could have testified as to my whereabouts that evening, for they had learned not to let me out of their sight. Some people think that children are visited upon their parents in order to punish them for sins in past lives & vice versa. I think I played that role with my poor parents. What can one do with a kid who plays with a steam engine & plans to explore the Amazon? I guess I was just a typical "Valley Kid," with a normal interest in T.E. Lawrence, whose book I read when I was 10. I also read "Tea Planting as a Career," & I asked why one must have polo ponies for that job. It took me 20 years to discover why. As a British colonial civil servant in the rebel colony of Rhodesia, I was told that I should adopt my boss's sport or pastime, if I wanted to 'get on' in my career. Churchill complained to his mom that polo ponies were expensive, so he needed money from her. His salary as a lieutenant in The Indian Army was quite insufficient. Perhaps the salary of a tea planter would have covered that expense. I can imagine asking my mom for polo pony funding! Fortunately, my boss played ping pong!

Shamir points out the usual Jew tactic for destroying their accuser: change the subject by attacking him, rather than the issue he brings up. I warned Fred Leuchter that they would not refute his evidence, nor his testimony; they would attack his qualifications. That is exactly what the hebes did to him. Warden Bill Armontrout of MO State Pen called him "an execution engineer," which Leuchter was, but no state gives out such certificates, to my knowledge, so Leuchter lacked a piece of paper which certified him as such an engineer. The kikes hopped all over that. Later, they had the Jew, Roth, of the analytical lab, perjure himself, that Leuchter's samples did not have the HCN residue his previous report had stated! Roth was visibly shaken on the witness stand, as I recall. Ernst Zündel alias The Zud is in the ZOG-gulag for "Holocaust-Denial," (& for things I wrote, which he signed). His Jew dominatrix told him, as he said to me, that my writings would put The Zud into the slammer, so he forbade me to write anything for a 10 year period. Actually, he feared that supporters would find out who was really writing 'his' stuff, but he did go to jail, albeit on borrowed plumage, were I writing with a quill pen. Ah, memories are made of this!

Re Brits vs. Immigration: the latest scandal is that MI5 had advance knowledge about the subway bombings, but did nothing to stop them, despite the fact they were keeping the leader under tight surveillance. Now they have arrested people who were allegedly involved in a simultaneous bomb plot, after failing to arrest the actual bombers they were also keeping track of. It sounds like a Brit version of 9-11: all preplanned by the ZOG.

It appears that Jews have infiltrated & dominated several 'nationalist' parties & 'rightist' groups in France & England. I understand that BNP frontman, Nick Griffin, is in the pay of a hebe, & the Jew, Sarkozy, is the kosher 'leader' of so-called nationalist elements in France. If ya want nationalism, it's gotta be kosher! The nigger in the woodpile is sheeple's insistence that Nation = Place, not Race. Nation is correctly a biological expression, not a geographic expression, despite Boas kosher krap. The French are, like us, hoist by our own propaganda. Yakima's Maxi-Mexi-March of May 1st occurred with little fanfare, nothing like your L.A. shindig, but I got more hostile glares this May 1st than last year. When I went to Walmart today, a Mexican couple were behind me at the checkout counter. The male mestizo glared at the food in my shopping cart, as if to say, "What gives this Gringo the right to eat?" He may have had another reason for his show of hostility, but he seemed offended by my presence. Pleasant Mexicans would be more dangerous.

The download on Foxman of the ADL's feud with the Internet has Foxman denying Jew involvement in the "Danish" insults to Islam, which were the work of a Jew. The enclosure refers.

*I omitted the dynamic Jew-duo, "Stalin" & "Trotsky," the Jew killer of Rabin et al.

2) It appears that the ADL is going all-out to have a federal law passed to suppress The First Amendment, as in Soviet Canuckistan, Australia & Europe.

Thanks for keeping me up to date on dire events in Africa, which was my 'home' for almost a decade. Thomas Wolfe, who wrote, as I recall, "You Can't Go Home Again," raised the question of what "home" means to us. In my experience, 'home' is the memory of people & places, like a stage with ever-changing sets & characters. For those who stay 'home', there is a continuity in which some props remain the same, for a time, & some characters remain on stage for the next scene, but if we leave 'home' for any length of time, we see largely change, without continuity, like an individual who we knew in youth, & met much later in age. His hair gradually turned grey, but we missed that stage, & only see his hair or baldness in its final development. I last saw L.A. in 1969, so I'd be surprised to find the people & place at all like 1969. I caught a glimpse of Burbank, as a fellow TV viewer told me. It looked like a Jew York skyline, with so many skyscrapers! Change seems to be accelerating everywhere, usually change for the worse. Of course, it takes some doing to create such dire conditions as now exist in Zimbabwe, which was named, fittingly, after the ruins thereof. Maybe Black Africa should be governed by the furry Gorillas! They'd do less harm than Mugabe et al. I suspect that the only thing which prevents the USA aping Zimbabwe is inertia, for our zionist regime is certainly corrupt & growing less competent as time passes. I was not favorably impressed with former CIA chief Tenent's principles nor his intelligence. "Slam-dunk," indeed!

Developments in Spain seem to point to a Moslem reconquest. My boss in Barcelona told me: "We Spaniards are $\frac{1}{2}$ Arabs, so any law is just $\frac{1}{2}$ a law." I noticed the similarities between Spanish music & Arabic harmonies, as well as many words which Spanish acquired from Arabic: algebra, albahil (mason), Guadalajara (Wadi Lajara). You may find their word for sales tax of interest: alcabala! In Spain, we can say that some Arabs are Christians, but more Arabs are Moslems. Many Spaniards say "Ojala," which translates literally as "Oh, that Allah" (would do such & such). Christians also say that, without knowing what it really means. It's just deemed a figure of speech, like referring to the USA as a "nation" or as a "democracy." Many thanks for the Saddam Speech, which is of interest since Saddam was a long-time U.S. puppet, but he was no dummy. I was gratified to see the term "Zogbusters" or 'ZogBuster' used in that download. I have tried to popularize its use, but "ZOG" is banned in many thoughtcrime countries, such as Canada alias China-duh as "Nazi propaganda."

The cheery item on the S.F. scuffle with kosher calumnist Elie Wiesel, was indeed remarkable. I wonder how that matter will develop. Will my alibi hold up this time? Stay tuned!

It is also notable that a jewess would complain of British Holohoax indifference, as compared to Holohoax-hallowing in "Usreal." Even Zionist Britain's sheeple are growing tired of kosher kow-towing. I find such indifference in Orwellian Britain surprising. Maybe the Brits fear to upset their Moslem invaders, er, immigrants.

There seems to be no good news about the U.S. economy, & how could there be? Our jobs are exported & millions of jobless aliens are being imported. Our zogbucks are going the way of Zimbabwe's dollar, albeit much slower, for now. The housing bubble popped just like the bubble kosher economists denied it was. Which are worse, Holocaust-deniers or Bubble-deniers? The latter have cost the U.S. sheeple much more than the former. Can we learn to say "Depression?" Maybe China will ride to our rescue, by buying the land out from under us. Such a deal! Brownest Yakima has a crime wave of metal-thefts, & scrap-dealers are fencing stolen metal for China, which spends jew-I.O.U.s to buy all of it. Yakima's more notable thefts have included the disappearance of an ugly Vietnam War Memorial & the loss of tourist trolley service by the theft of the overhead wire. I understand that Mugabe's real money is stored in China.

I'm surprised to read about the jumping jews of Jew York Shitty, who seem to use The Empire State Building to prove they are Superman. At least, that's my theory. Well, at least they did the right thing, which I'd recommend to all jews: Go on, prove that you really are Superman! "Up, up & oy vey!" Jews who flock to Germany prove that Ben Franklin was right, when he said jews would not go to Israel, "for vampires do not live off vampires!" All the best. ORLON!
