

CREDO

National Socialism is the social conscience of Socialism without class hatred and outmoded economic dogma.

It is the productive efficiency of Capitalism without the cruelty and exploitation of unrestrained greed.

It is the reverence for tradition and history of Conservatism without inflexibility or petrification.

It is the rationality of Liberalism without its emasculated rootlessness and its blindness to deeper modes of perception.

It is a patriotism which transcends narrow nationalism and embraces the Race.

It is a profound love and reverence for Nature without shallow sentimentality.

It is a religion without superstition—without magic and magicians, without the supernatural, without a sick and treasonable hankering after Other Worlds.

It accepts the inevitable quantum of pain in Existence with joyous fortitude—not with poisons and anesthetics and comforting delusions.

It is an affirmation and a yea-saying. It knows that for the brave, for the strong and for the healthy, life is always joyous.

It knows that the ugly of spirit create only Ugliness; the beautiful of spirit, only Beauty.

It knows that there are Aristocratic Races and Rabble Races and that its highest values must always be incomprehensible to Rabble Races—thus the object of their hatred, fear and mockery.

It is unimpressed by noblemen but it respects above all the Noble Man.

It knows that the most despicable of all sins is treason—treason to the Comrade, treason to the Race, treason to Life, treason to the Earth.

It calls to the Highest Men and to that which is highest even in the Lesser. But to fat and greasy souls, to the soft, to the cowardly, to the lovers of despicable ease, to the greedy, to the skraelings, it is a thunder-cloud and a hurricane.

One should ask first not, "Is National Socialism worthy?", but, "Am I worthy to be a National Socialist?"

Let the bugles of National Socialism summon the great ingathering of the Folk.

Beyond this age of Fenris-Wolf and Midgard-Serpent, the skies are red with a new dawn. After the Fimbul-Winter comes anew the great spring-time of our Race.

With our eyes upon the farthest galaxies—O divine hunger—and our feet upon the necks of the sub-men—O divine contempt—who durst say what we cannot yet do?

O Ye Great-of-Heart and Splendid-of-Soul, where else is your lost Homeland but in our serried phalanxes?

CALL US, O WAR-FATHER, TO THE RAVEN'S FIELD AND TO RAGNAROK. WE SHALL NOT COME HALTINGLY ON LAME FEET TO VICTORY OR TO VALHALLA!

HAIL VICTORY!

14 June 07. Hail Jason! It was great to receive your Gulagogram of 9 June 07. Thanks for letting me know you got my mailings to your previous address. I gather that your new residence is much better than your former lodgings. Don't get too much sun!

As you know, time passes fast when you have lots of things to do, so I'm glad you can do all sorts of things which you couldn't do at your previous place, thanks be to ZOG. Just remember to treat your zoggies nice, since they must be thinking of you in everything they do. Ho, ho! It won't be long now, until you 'graduate', so keep up the good work.

Pick up all the skills & knowledge you can, whenever you can. Cabinet-making is a well-paying skill. I knew a fellow who was a good cabinet-maker from Germany. He figured he'd make more money as a lawyer in CA, so he studied & passed the law exam in San Francisco. To his unpleasant surprise, lawyers were much more numerous than cabinet-makers, & his salary as a clerk in a law office was much less than what he'd earned as a cabinet-maker, so he went back to his well-paid trade. He did lots of custom work for rich people who wanted built-in furniture 'just so' in their dwellings. He never had to advertise his services, for his satisfied customers did that for him. I knew a blacksmith who had more rich customers than he could supply with such things as wrought iron (steel) furniture, ornate gates & window grates, &c. He was also a great welder. Maybe he builds jails nowadays. German slang for jail or prison is "Swedish garden," since lots of their steel came from Sweden.

So far, no word from Rev. Masten. Thanks for the paper on Creator Skins. It's a good description of goals & organization, but the organization itself may be a liability, for it gives ZOG a handle to grab. Rick Cooper described the demise of a big & growing group called Hammerskins. They had their logo & name copyrighted by ZOG, so they were a legal outfit with officers, &c. All of a sudden they stopped sending me mail & no longer received it. This is typical skin-behavior: here today, gone tomorrow & no explanation to supporters. After a year or so, I learned from Cooper's publication that the Hammerskins were no more, because a Black fellow got roughed up at a party in CA, so his attorneys went after the Hammerskins organization, for ONE of the members alleged to be a Hammerskin had been involved in the brawl. One member was all it took to destroy the org, as Cooper informed us. You may remember that ONE member's action destroyed Pastor Butler's Aryan Nations & lost him all his property. So whoever wrote that The Church would not be blamed for the actions of its members is ignorant of recent legal precedents. I understand that Hale's initial problems were due to jew-like behavior by Creators who held the copyright on COTC property & books. Whoever speaks in the name of COTC must have copyright, or he can be sued by other jew-like Creators. All you need is for a jew to copyright "Skinhead," & he can sue people for using that name. Such a deal!

I note that the goofball who wrote the program wants everyone to have an I.D. tattoo, so ZOG will have things much easier. It's hard to know if you are being set up by a zoggie, or if you are setting yourselves up for easy-picking by the ZOG. Such I.D. will make it easy for ZOG to sort White skins from ordinary Whites, just as ZOG wants to do. The first skin I met in Canada had BRAINDEAD tattooed on his head. Maybe he wrote the program you sent me. I'll send it to former COTC acquaintances for their information.

My feeling is that you will learn what you need to know about such people on the outside, & if you're smart, you'll avoid them, so you'll stay on the outside. All it takes is ONE member to get everyone branded by ZOG as "terrorists," just as ZOG has been doing recently.

I enclose my text to "The Hitler We Loved & Why." The rest of the book was pictures. I don't have a copy of the book, just the text, so you'll have to imagine the pictures. Sorry!

Yes, kosher food is served in ZOG's gulags. Many inmates claim that "it's better" than regular food, so they claim to be jews in order to get it. It may just be that some gulag inmates are really jews. After all, 'miracles' do happen.

Raising a White family in anti-White "Usrael" is extremely difficult, so I wish you all possible good luck in that department, & you'll need every bit of it. All the best & ORION!
