

cording to Pierre Lellouche, Sarkozy's foreign policy advisor." Another said, "The European Commission believes that Sarkozy offers a better plan for the revival of the European Constitution."

It remains to be seen if a 'tough-guy' image on crime, and offering a plan to revive the EU constitution will be enough to serve France's best interests. It also remains to be seen if Sarkozy will be able to withstand pressures from Washington.

LE PEN

THIS article by JÉRÔME BOURBON was written before the presidential election took place. It shows how France managed to cheat the Front National once again. Furthermore, it gives a background to how the System works . . .

THE number of new voter registrations increased phenomenally. Final voter lists show that the number of registered voters broke all records in the big towns; in one it rose more than tenfold. In Paris the figure increased by 32%, and in some "exotic" suburbs there was an increase of 90%.

There has been nothing spontaneous about this huge increase. It is the result of a campaign mounted by the left and by showbiz and sports personalities ... They have been beating the drum, reminding people in the occupied suburbs that Jean-Marie Le Pen of the FN made it into the presidential runoff in 2002. They also did their best to make sure Nicolas Sarkozy lost in the run-off in May.

Leftists of all stripes can no longer count on the votes of native-born Frenchmen, whom they have continually betrayed, despised, and fleeced, and are looking to a new electorate: immigrants. This cynicism, which amounts to a crime against France, has born fruit, with immigrants voting massively for the left. Even the leader of the FN came to understand the importance of the non-white vote and tried to appeal to it by means of a controversial poster. Whether it was a good tactic, we can judge by TV and press interviews with the new voters [and by the election results].

Our rulers have been ruthless in keeping out splinter candidates, thereby herding everyone behind Sarko and Ségo. At the same time, we see this massive registration of freshly naturalized citizens.

We have also seen in recent

Some of Le Pen's views – blueprint for the future . . .

"ALL European countries have presently a demographic deficit ... The end of this process will be purely and simply the disappearance of thousands of years of European civilisation. All civilisations rest on a genetic, bio-anthropological base and not purely on culture per se. Faced by this danger, no European government envisages a birth policy in favour of the local population, none is trying to limit the migratory invasion, but all have one enemy: racism. The crime of racism is wanting to defend one's own identity, one's right to biological perpetuation ... In other words, the elites of the European peoples are committing the crime of genocide, auto-genocide ...

"The policy we need is one against the migratory invasion, for a French birth rate increase, and the dynamism of the French people ... This is a policy of welcoming life, taking concrete means to reduce abortions and re-launch the French birth rate."

Le Pen promised to repatriate illegals without ceremony and cut off welfare benefits for legitimate immigrants which would, effectively, make it impossible for millions to remain. To ensure no more East Europeans arrived, Le Pen would quit the EU. He denounced mixed marriages, the unfair allocation of low-rent housing; and a soft penal system; the EU agricultural policies, horrific for French farmers.

"We will have to re-establish border control, re-negotiate certain international treaties like Maastricht, Amsterdam and Schengen, which cause us to renounce our sovereignty and national independence. We will have to develop policies in such a way that – by revising our economic, commercial and political accords – we can encourage would-be immigrants to stay in their own countries. Furthermore, when they come here to study, they will have to go home instead of settling here permanently."

how massive voting by immigrants, especially in places like Antwerp blunted the Vlaams Belang's drive and kept it from winning a single mayoral election in Flanders.

Despicable Methods

Even when the System doesn't succeed in completely betraying the electorate and the nationalist right wins an election – as happened in Italy with Gianfranco Fini and in Austria with Jörg Haider – the System fights dirty by using some administrative trick to invalidate the results or finds some kind of retrospective ineligibility. We saw this in the French cities of Toulon and Vitrolles ... where winning mayoral candidates were declared ineligible one after another.

Republican France has frequently played this trick, not scrupling to violate the principles it is supposed to venerate: Less than five years after the Republic was established, the coup d'état under the Directorate of 4 Sept. 1797 simply invalidated the results of every Royalist deputy elected, and then went on to sentence most of them to banishment in Guiana. Only supporters of the Republic kept their seats.

We can count on the System: It will show the greatest ingenuity when it comes to strangling any nationalist renaissance in its crib.

The Culture Crisis

THE present crisis in our culture is the product of a mechanistic and reductionist school of thought, in which tradition, myth, ritual or ceremony, and legends no longer have a place. Reductionism represents 'the triumph of the Modern' and its deification of technology. An organic view of the world has (Brian's letter of 15 June 07): Hail Eric, P.O. Box 455, Limerick (Ireland) is now my only address, (following) police raid at Wolfe Tone St. address. Thousands worth taken by police, including my computer. Ten years of stuff gone.

The landlord stole my rent money, as he knew the police were coming and worked with them to set me up. Here I have learnt (that he) employs niggers. The police kicked in my bedroom door to get at my stuff.

Who was the first to use the term, "White Nationalism?" (Eric Thomson coined the term in 1976, along with "Our Race Is Our Nation!" E.T.)

Tom Nee is back in touch. No sign of any donation from him. Simply impossible to get this going without minimum of funds. Trying to find a solicitor.

It was a jewess, Ronit Lentin (sp?) behind the raid, amongst others. The politicians wanted me leaned on. ORION, Brian.

20 June 07. Hail Brian! I just got your letter of 15 June 07 re the ZOG-raid on your home. That certainly 'brings home' the truth about 'freedom' in Ireland for a pro-Irish Irishman. It is absurd & disgusting. Your ZOG operates like all ZOGs since Weimar, & probably before: It uses thugs & hooligans to attack Nationalists, & if that tactic fails, it uses the cops. Current ZOGs tolerate the thugs & hooligans under the guise of 'freedom' & cops are used to 'keep order,' with the blatant exception of its thugs & hooligans. The German National Socialists knew all about such ZOG ploys, for they suffered them. Under ZOG, White Nationalists live in a war zone.

To my knowledge, your only possible 'offense' is your exercise of legal freedom of expression in terms of the U.N. Charter on Human Rights. I think Article 119 refers in regard to the communication of ideas. Therefore, your ZOG's actions in punishing you for exercising your legitimate human rights makes ZOG the offender, not you! But, as the jew, Teddy Roosevelt, proclaimed: "Might Makes Right." Hitler remarked that "The more we hear of 'human rights,' the fewer there will be in reality." We do live in an Orwellian world. Double-double ungood, as they'd say in Newspeak, if they dared.

Obviously, your ZOG wants to silence you, so I shall do my best to publicise your ZOG-inflicted plight. The Goyim who believe ZOG-propaganda that they are 'free' have never exercised the freedoms they think they have. When they do, as I did, they are unpleasantly surprised. I hope your costly lesson serves to teach other Goyim that they are free to consume, but there are definite limits on their freedom to communicate. A tentative tourist brochure states: "Welcome to the Land of Soviet Canuckistan, where pot is legal, but thought is not. When here, remember that you may toke, not talk. Let your worries go up in smoke, you stupid Gentile bloke!"

We see obvious parallels with such works of 'fiction' as "1984" & "Fahrenheit 451," in which the regime burnt all books, because books made people think & thinking was the source of all unhappiness. The "451" regime kept its inmates 'happy' with TV distractions & drugs. Doesn't that sound like some regimes we know?

All the best. ORION!
