Mr. Michael Nelson 908546 H340L
191 Constantine Way
Stafford Creek Correction Center
Aberdeen, WA 98520

Dear Mr. Nelson:

Thank you for contacting me to share your concerns about the Washington State Department of Corrections. I appreciate hearing from you. Unfortunately, I do not have jurisdiction over the state-run facilities.

In order to make sure your voice is heard, I have taken the liberty of forwarding your letter to your state representative, Dean Takko. I know it is important for Rep. Takko to hear concerns of constituents, and I have asked that he respond directly to you.

Thank you again for keeping me apprised of the issues that are important to you. If I may ever be of further assistance, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

9 Jewlie 07. Hail Michael! It was good to receive your letter & enclosures of 5 Jewlie 07. I'm glad to see that a U.S. representative has noted your concerns, at least in writing. WAZOGDOC is putting the U.S. into disrepute as "a government of laws, not of men," with a constitution 'guaranteeing' equality of due process. No doubt China has made note of our hypocrisy in terms of 'human rights' in our gulags. A tweaky zoggie in another WAZOG gulag has censored an item which I sent to a resident, on the alleged grounds that it was a "publication not sent by the publisher." I'm aware of ZOG policy in regard to books, magazines, booklets, newspapers, &c., so I wonder what this zoggie's definition of "publication" is in this case: a flier, a jewspaper clipping? We shall have to shine the spotlight on this zoggie to find out what he/she/it felt justified in censoring.

I always answer your letters, so your zoggies may be sitting on my latest letter to you, dated 24 June 07, so I hope your zoggies are okay! I know how hard it must be for them to read high school level English wid all dem beeg words. I enclose a copy of my letter with this mailing, along with the items you specified.

Jewsflash! NPR jewsradio announces that we will be accepting more "Iraqi refugees." My solution would be to send Bush & Company to Bagdad, so they could enjoy the fruits of their iniquitous machinations at firsthand. That would be justice, but their stay would probably be brief, like those Africans who are nominated "President for Life."

Your latest quotation, allegedly direct from Jesus, demonstrates that Old & New Testaments combine to form 'cognitive dissonance', although the N.T. performs that function all by itself. Perhaps it would be more obvious if the sentences were not so far apart, so we could read: "The meek shall inherit the earth, so sell thy garment & buy a sword." "Forgive them, for they know not what they do, so they shall burn in everlasting fire," &c. The jewbook is on par with The National Enquirer, which few sane readers would take seriously. Obviously, zoggies prefer that certain passages are not read & not heeded. I wonder when someone will write a 'politically-correct' version of the jewbook. I understand that there is a 'gender-neutral' version out already. Double-double good?

I'd be happy to copy your PRP, to make sure Liberty Rights Advocates receive a complete copy. Others I shall ask to know if they are interested in receiving a copy. I'm sure it will make good reading, & I look forward to receiving it. My old International Relations prof. spoke of "the information explosion" in which the volume of data & b.s. is so great that no one can read & assimilate it. Not only is volume increasing, but it is increasing faster than ever. "Explosion" is therefore appropriate to describe it, & that was in 1968! Your PRP will be a worthwhile addition to that explosion. It goes without saying that I'll send one copy to you & the original to WA Supreme Court a.s.a.p.

I enclose my latest reply to Wayne for your amusement. He is back to Square One on religion: a world of words without substance. My religion came from Nature, not from any book or verbal construct leading into addlepatet abstraction. Its message is meaningful to me, & if others cannot receive it from their own experience, then I could care less. Religion, in my definition, must appeal to one's blood. If one's blood is mixed, then the message will be lost or muddled. I suspect that is why we have so much religious discussion on interpretations of words, & what the writer there of 'really' meant, factually, symbolically &/or selectively, even if it requires the redefinition &/or mis-definition of the words themselves, such as "adultery." Hey, never let a commandment spoil our fun nor our incomes! Religions based in books make good schooling for lawyers. That's why priests of Semitic cults are also called 'judges'. No wonder courtrooms resemble synagogues! Many in the religious racket derive their incomes from evaluating which passages are 'more equal' in meaning than others. That's how the Babylonian Talmud got started: Rabbinical interpretations of The Torah or The 5 Books of Moses, into 63 books in the Talmud's English Soncino Edition. Such a deal! Anyone who can read & assimilate all 63 books will become (1) A lawyer; (2) A liar; (3) A pervert; & (4) Nuts. It is healthier to stick to The National Enquirer & to believe that "you may have won The Publishers' Clearinghouse prize already, worth $500,000!" All you need to do is wait for the arrival of the truckload of prizes outside your door, driven by Elvis. Now I believe in The 2nd Coming, for I saw "Elvis" singing in Brownest Yakima, on my way to the post office. He sang like Elvis, looked like Elvis, dressed like Elvis, so I must conclude: It was really Dr. Mengele in disguise! Will wonders never cease? Yakima is indeed the wobbling hub of the Universe, for I met Yahweh, a white-maned jew, on a street here, who told me who he was. I'd recently met his son, Jesus, who said that he'd beam back up to his father, if it weren't for his meds. Yahweh boomed out: "I have no son!" Obviously, they need counselling from their buddy, Satan. DOWZ & CRION!
