

21 Jewlie 07. Howdy Jason! Many thanks for your cogent selection of Wall St. Journal items. I enjoy their reports, even in their kosher-capitalist context, because of their scope & substance. Journalism in any medium is largely a matter of focus. Up close is 'fast news', the fastest of which would be E-mail. Further back allows us to see a larger context, including some analysis, which is 'slow news.' Of course, liars & propagandists can direct their journalistic camera lenses away from the important to the unimportant, so as to conceal an issue, & they can edit their coverage on behalf of outright lies, as our ZOG has done with 9-11, with arrogant disdain for the Goyim, whom ZOG deems unable to comprehend & unable to do anything relevant about it. So far, it appears that ZOG is right.

China is aiming to take control of the Wall St. Journal & the Dow Jones stock exchange, through their non-Chinese frontman, Rupert Murdoch, who ostensibly denies that his ownership will influence The Journal's editorial policy. Goyim are expected to believe that, just as they are expected to believe that jewish ownership of The Federal Reserve Racket is economically 'neutral.' Apparently, ~~WSJ's~~ present owners, the Bancroft family, who may be Goyim, are expected to do the normal Goy Thing: Sell out. This is, in fact, The American Dream. H.L. Mencken said that "Every American lives for the day he can steal something." When I arrived in Brownest Yakima in 1993, denizens told me with suprising candor that they lived for the day in which they could sell their delapidated dwellings to Latino druglords at inflated prices, so they could skip town with their loot. Maybe they C.D.ed on "Miami Vice" episodes. Well, the Latino druglords are here in what is now called "Yakimexico," & the dumb Gringos don't know what hit them, since they are too busy buying Mexican meth & marijuana. During a recent presidential campaign in which Al Gore ran against Presidente Bush, Gore blurted out, in no apparent context: "We mustn't say it's every man for himself!" I recall his statement vividly, as one can recall a Hindenburg fire out of all the uneventful airship flights. The jewsmedia, to my knowledge, did not elaborate on Gore's shocking words, not even with a sheenie-spin. In historical context, "Every Man For Himself" should be the official motto of the Jewnited States. Such a creed would serve to 'justify' American irresponsibility & mindless ruthlessness. The denizens of America exemplify the jewish Legend of The Golem (Goyim), in which a monstrous creature made of mud is animated by the insertion of a piece of paper on which magic symbols have been written by a rabbi. The Golem obeys the rabbi's orders to "kill Goyim." So it has been ever since the Rothschilds & Company wrote 'magic' numbers on pieces of paper alias money, which caused Goyim to kill Goyim by the millions in 2 World Wars + . A local Yakimoron bemoaned the fact that the USA is no longer a White country, but I said it was ALWAYS an anti-White country. As long as we serve alien masters, our numbers are not important, as our genocidal, anti-White wars have proved.

Thanks for the item on "rewriting Russian history." That reminded me of the current rewriting of U.S. history to cast the Whites into the villains' roles. "History is written by the victors," someone said. The jew 'historian' (liar) Raul Hilberg said that his method in examining The Holohoax was to select that which supported his thesis, & to reject all the rest of the evidence. With such a jewish criterion, history may be rewritten indefinitely, or simply fabricated to please the people who hire the hack-writers. One example of fabrication is the Ashkenazim, who are not Semites, who call Arabs (Semites) "anti-Semitic!" A Semite is an Arab, not one who has adopted an Arab religion like Islam, Christianity & Judaism. If a jew calls a Moslem "anti-Semitic," he is accusing one adherent of a Semitic religion as an "anti-Semite." Mirror mirror on the wall, who is most Semitic of them all: Those who believe in a Semitic religion or those who are Semites, that is, Arabs?

The article on elitist education in Israel is quite the opposite of what ZOG practices in the Jewnited States, which has a long tradition of anti-intellectualism. "Book-learning" is best taken with a lot of practical experience, so as to separate the b.s. from the facts. But to reject recorded learning per se, in favor of how high one can jump, how much one can lift, how far one can throw or how fast one can run is to adopt simian values in a society which can only survive on technology (applied science). Oh, I forgot tree-climbing ability. 'Our' jewsmedia of education, information & entertainment laud simian role-models for White youth, as exemplified by Black athletes, but Asiatics, including jews, are not fooled by such idiocy. As it states in The Protocols of Zion, "We shall promote ideas which we know to be false." All the best, & ORION!
