

OUR ANCIENT RELIGION

by
A. RUD MILLS

ONCE upon a time, our Nordic ancestors, striving continually with Nature and natural forces, gained vivid ideas of the Great One who inspired and expressed Himself in men and all other manifestations of Nature.

They called the Great One 'God'. They felt that though they knew God existed, he was yet extended beyond their powers of understanding and description. But, still, there was something of God which in some measure they could understand. They called that something Odin, Góddin, Woden or Wotan, a diminutive of the word, God. Thus it was that our ancestors prayed to that of God which they could understand, and which was manifested to them; they prayed to Odin, and they called themselves Odinists.

They perceived the Thor or Christos power in God — the power which moves the Sun and brings to all things, including Man, life and death.

They perceived the Freyga — the beautiful mother power — the healing, the ever-forgiving. They saw the Freyga power in the love of a woman for her child, the love of a tigress for her cub, and even the hard shell the tree provides for its seed.

They worshipped their Father in God — that is, their Father Spirit — whose representatives in the flesh they were. They believed that all creatures were expressions of various Powers in God, and believed that all races of Men had their different and valuable parts to play in the mighty orchestra of God.

The early Greeks and Romans were Nordics. Then, they and their Northern brethren were the light-givers of the world.

Their chief days for religious festivals were the Winter Solstice, the so-called Birthday of the Year (December 21), the day on which was most light (Midsummer Day), the days of the equinoxes (21st of September and March), May Day and Eostre, when Nature manifested its resurrection after the harsh Northern winter.

But then in Nordic Greece—over 2,000 years ago—arose a philosophy which has since demoralized and all but ruined our own civilization.

This ruinous philosophy taught that the Good was separate from this world; that Man was separated from God; that Heaven and Earth were opposites; that all Men were equal and equally evil; that God was disgusted with Man and regretted that he had ever created him. It taught that Man was lost, and had no health in him, and that God ruled only in Heaven, and that the Earth was accursed.

This philosophy split Man's attitude towards Reality into two parts, and made Man, instead of a proud part of God's world, possessed of a will to excel in this life, a cowering dwarf, pleading for mercy for himself and utterly careless of the disastrous social results which such paranoiac neglect of Reality brought to the world.

This presented a great opportunity for some learned Jews. One of them — later called Saint Paul — declared that a fellow Jew from Palestine had come from Heaven to save Man, and that this personage was the Christos, or Thor power.

Paul and his fellow Jews travelled as missionaries far and wide. They and their teachings were eventually accepted by the Nordics. Gradually, Nordics forgot their ancient faith and beliefs. Even the sign of their religion — the cross, symbolizing the Hammer of Thor — was stolen by the new religion. It thus changed its meaning from strength, manliness and pride to suffering, shame and sorrow; in other words, from life to death.

Now the Nordics cry, "Salvation is of the Jews". Palestine has become their "Holy Land" and its inhabitants have become "God's Chosen People". Differences among Mankind are attacked by stern laws and priestly edicts. Thus has arisen the grave problem of racial intermixture. In order to destroy forever differences among men, many fanatics work tirelessly to bring on wholesale intermarriage between races.

The Nordic people have lost their Father Spirit and their knowledge of God and of themselves. They have lost their source of strength by losing their God. While they shout and sing at their worship of the "Chosen People", their identity becomes forgotten, their will to live ever more diminished and their kind faces imminent extinction.

The Odinist view of Life can save all Mankind, not only the Nordics. Odin's dawn is stirring and the Hammer of Thor, smiting fear and confusion, will bring sanity, health and the beauty of natural order to an anxious world.

The British Swastika

PART TWO

CONTRARY to popular misconception, the swastika is not a foreign symbol, peculiarly German, but one which is as anciently native to Britain as to anywhere else in Europe, throughout which it has appeared as an Aryan sign for thousands of years.

The National War Savings Committee in Britain during the first world war used the swastika. It appeared on its war savings coupons when they were introduced in 1916, as the illustration on the right shows, and continued in use for about two years. The Committee's circular metal badge, about the size of a penny, also bore a large swastika in the centre.

The Boy Scout movement in Britain also once used the swastika. Its original Thanks Badge, awarded to those who had rendered outstanding assistance to the movement, was, until 1936, in the form of a swastika with the Scout fleur-de-lis badge in the centre.

1 AUG 07. Hail Osred! Many thanks for your great letter of 24 Jewlie 07. I think I understand what you mean by "proto-Odinist." I knew a fellow who was a "proto-Hemingway," because he couldn't write like Hemingway, but he could drink like Hemingway. Your research, or whoever researched Jefferson, the agribusiness slave-owner, seems to have relied upon Jefferson's words, rather than his recorded deeds, such as his fathering a non-White family line by his Black maid servant. As I wrote, I used to think highly of Jefferson, because he was praised in school. This is to be expected of a young regime which requires 'heroes', but subsequent information reveals Jefferson as a wealthy hypocrite whose credo in practice was "Do as I say, not as I do, & not necessarily as I say, either!" You may remember his statement that "The tree of liberty must be watered with the blood of patriots & tyrants every 20 years:" More of his words which he did not follow, nor did he want any one else to follow them in his lifetime, to my knowledge. If Jefferson was representative of the hypocrisy of his time, then we should hardly tout him as 'unique' in terms of principles & wisdom.

Thank you for confirming that Odinism is for Whites only. I did not gather that from reading your publication, although I understand the workings of Zionist thought-crime laws prohibit such statements. I was gaining the impression that Odinism was for everyone.

As to "Stalin," alias Djughashvili or Jewson in the Georgian dialect, he was sufficiently kosher to make him a non-White. Jews like to gull the Goyim by lying about someone's jew ancestry, which is traced from the mother's side, as in the case of Vladimir Illych Ulyanov alias "Lenin." This was like the Britzogs liars who claimed that the House of Hannover was 'really' the House of Windsor around World War I. Hence, Battenberg became Mountbatten.

The jewliars wanted to divorce Communism from Judaism, despite Rabbi Wise' observation to the contrary, which appeared in the jewish communist newspaper "Forward" or "Vorwärts:" "I don't call it Communism. I call it Judaism!" This occurred after Trotsky (Bronstein) was defeated in his attempt to impose jew-Bolshevism on war-torn Europe in the 1920s. That's when "Stalin" was given his jew-bankster orders to send Europe back to sleep by proclaiming "Communism in one country!" Under "Stalin," the Comintern became the Cominform & old Bolsheviks were trotted out for show-trials to show that "some of its members can be wrong, but The Party is always right," as Orwell wrote. Meanwhile, the jewish apparat & the Ashkenazim remained in their positions of power: Kaganovich, Beria, Ehrenburg et al. "Stalin" intended to lull Europe, while he prepared for the most massive invasion of Europe since Genghis Khan. Hitler saved Europe from "Stalin's" bloody scheme by attacking Red Russia just a week or 2 before the Soviet invasion, according to German high-altitude aerial recon observers with whom I spoke, & according to former Soviet military intelligence officer "Suvorov" who compiled Soviet archives to confirm the massive Soviet military build up which my Germans had seen. Roosevelt & Churchill knew what was planned for Europe, but Hitler broke the banksters' ballet choreography for World War II by NOT invading Britain, as he was supposed to do, but by attacking the USSR. In his book, "The Icebreaker," Suvorov writes that "Operation Sealion," the code name for Germany's invasion of Britain, was largely radio traffic, intercepted by Soviet monitors, to the effect that all effective German combat units were being deployed on The Channel Coast, whereas they were really forming up under the noses of the Soviets in Poland. Britain had already deeded Poland to the USSR, by treaty, & subsequent Foreign Office correspondence reveals this policy as ongoing, as of August 1943, but it appears that Britain & the USA had deeded to the Red Russian Empire much, much more: all of Europe. This seems to be why Zionists have made Hitler into such a villain. Hitler saved Europe from Communism, but he could not save Europe from herself. Was Hitler a "proto-Odinist?" In my book, deeds count, especially when they contradict words. If Jefferson were "pro-White," then I see nothing in his behavior to justify that contention. Jefferson never "put his money where his mouth was," to use a Judeo-American expression. He wanted to repatriate his Blacks, but only after he was done with them. If he were so 'original' a thinker, why did he not convert his plantation into a White-run co-operative? I apologize for beating a dead horse, but we should not promote dead horses as "Odinist heroes."

In my opinion, National Socialists were more relevant & hence, more Odinist than those described by Hitler in "Mein Kampf" who wore furs & Wagnerian costumes, but who would scamper off when a Red thug cocked a fist in their direction. Once again, thanks for confirming Odinism to be a White religion. Wayne Macleod dare not use the word, "White," in regard to his touted religion because of CANZOG restrictions. All the best. ORION!
