

YOM KIPPUR — What Is It?

On the evening of October 12, Jews around the world gathered to celebrate the most holy day on the Jewish calendar. It is called Yom Kippur, or Day of Atonement. At synagogues everywhere worshippers recited the so-called Kol Nidre prayer. Taken from the first two Hebrew words of the prayer, "Kol Nidre," it means "all vows."

The *goyim are told that Yom Kippur is an occasion when pious, saintly Jews approach their Maker in a penitential rite to beg his forgiveness for wrongs they have committed during the past year.

RUBBISH! The occasion is nothing less than a time when Jews ask for and receive absolution for all the sins and wrongs they are about to commit—IN THE COMING YEAR! In so doing, they cut a lawyer's deal with their god (whom they call YHWH, or Yahweh) which gives them an exemption in advance from all wrongdoing.

Here is the actual text of this outrageous "prayer":

"All vows, bonds, devotions, promises, obligations, penalties and oaths wherewith we may vow, swear, devote or bind ourselves: From this Day of Atonement until the next Day of Atonement, may it come unto us for good,—lo, all these—we repent us in them. They shall all be absolved, released, annulled, and made void and of no effect; they shall not be binding, nor shall they have any power. Our vows shall not be vows; our bonds shall not be bonds; and our oaths shall not be oaths."

That's pretty clear, unambiguous language. What we have here, in fact, is nothing less than a one-year, renewable license to lie, cheat and steal with impunity, all based on a decree from the Jews' so-called holy book, which says:

"And he who desires that none of his vows made during the year shall be valid, let him stand at the beginning of the year and declare, 'Every vow which I make in the future shall be null.'"

(Babylonian Talmud, Tractate Nedarim 23a & 23b)

Among those who will be reciting the Kol Nidre oath are the many Jewish politicians, judges, lawyers, corporate executives, businessmen, journalists, commentators and spokespersons disproportionately represented in public life today. It should be noted that any oaths they may take to uphold and defend the Constitution or otherwise tell the truth are, as of this occasion, "abandoned, cancelled, null and void" and rendered "without power and without standing."

Isn't that nice?

* A derogatory Hebrew word for non-Jews

Lost Tribe found in India

More than 2,000 years after they claim to have first set foot in India, the mystery of the world's most obscure Jewish community—the Marathi-speaking Bene Israel—may finally have been solved with genetic carbon-dating revealing they carry the unusual Moses gene that would make them, literally the original children of Israel.

Four years of DNA tests on the 4,000-strong Bene Israel—now mainly based in Mumbai, Pune, Thane and Ahmedabad—indicates they are probable descendants of a small group of hereditary Israelite priests, or Cohanim, according to results of a new study.

The priests are scattered worldwide but genetically related in a distinctive fashion that leaves just a billion-to-one chance of a mistake in identifying who the Bene Israel really are, says Tudor Parfitt, Jewish Studies professor at London's School of Oriental and African Studies.

Parfitt, who initiated and led the research, says this is the first concrete proof that "exiles from Palestine made it as far as India and managed to maintain Judaism in the sea of Hinduism and Islam."

In the early '50s, 30,000 Bene Israelis returned to the so-called Promised Land, soon after the state of Israel was created. Their Indian appearance, cricket-playing, sari-wearing, curry-eating and Marathi-speaking habits led to a bitter battle for recognition as "real Jews."

The name Bene Israel literally means "Children of Israel," and their legend of origin holds their ancestors to be Jews fleeing persecution in Palestine in 175 BC.

According to the legend, seven men and seven women survived a shipwreck near Navgaon village on the Konkan coast. Their descendants became thoroughly Indian, except for observing Saturday, the Jewish sabbath, as a weekly holiday. The practice led them to be known as Shanwar Teli, Marathi for "Saturday oil-pressers."

It was only 1964, that the Israeli prime minister declared they were genuinely Jewish and should be allowed to return to Israel and intermarry.

But now, the new study goes one better. By studying certain genetic markers in the DNA chain, found only in male descendants of Aaron, Moses' elder brother, who founded the line of Jewish priests, the Bene Israel could well claim to be the purest of the pure.

The new research has also found preliminary genetic evidence to show the declining community of Black Jews of Cochin left Israel in remote historical times.

The new data, which has been featured in leading Western scientific journals, comes after painstaking efforts to genetically source the origins of India's other, self-professed "lost" Jewish tribes, including the Manipuri Jews and the Telugu-speaking Jews of Guntur.

"And thou shalt consume all the people which Adonai thy god shall deliver thee; thine eye shall have no pity upon them . . ."
—THE TORAH, Deuteronomy 7:16

"This is the saying of Rabbi Simon ben Yohai: 'Tob shebe goyim harog.' ('Even the best of the Gentiles should all be killed.')
—THE TALMUD, Soferim 13, Rule 10 (q.v. Jewish Encyclopedia, Funk & Wagnalls, 1907, p. 17: "Gentiles")

4 AUG 07. Hail Leif! Thanks for your letter of 30 Jewlie 07. It appears that your zoggies are slow readers, since I wrote to you on 14 Jewlie 07 with a few writing tips for your essays. Previously, I got a mysterious mail rejection notice dated 3 Jewlie 07 which alleged that I'd sent you "publications not mailed directly from the publisher/retailer." I wonder how I'd forget that restriction. Maybe I did, but I suspect that I may have sent you a photocopied page or two from a publication, which I thought was permitted by ZOG. Hey, ZOG works in mysterious ways its blunders to perform.

Many thanks for the addresses where I may find anything outstanding from my Dept. Of Jewstice files, which turned black 'miraculously' after J. Edgar Hoover's death. I'll keep them in mind for future reference. One colleague is reading through the Internet files of the CIA's "Family Jewels," which may contain some possible reference to yours truly. So far, nothing.

The Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion appeared around 1897, at the time of The World Zionist Conference in Basel, Switzerland, which featured a big Israeli banner, as I recall of a photo taken at the meeting. No author's name appears, but some readers thought it was a summary of Zionist leader Herzl, who organized previous jewish ideas, & aimed them toward the destruction of Gentile or Goy governments. In my reading, I gathered that the first part was how the jews would overthrow the Goy governments, & then how they would govern, on a Jew World Ordure basis, not merely in one country, as they had done in the Russian Empire. Henry Ford had The Protocols researched, & the findings reported in The Dearborn Independent newspaper. The stories were then published in book form under the title: "The International Jew." If I had time, I'd like to compare Herzl's book, "The Jewish State," which was published around the same time, by the Rothschild banksters. I suspect there'd be similarities with The Protocols if Herzl were their author. Because no one signed as author, the jews claim The Protocols to be "a forgery." But a forgery is something copied from a previous source. Research shows that there are abundant jewish writings which contain the gist of The Protocols, so if they were written by the Russian Tsar's police, The Okhrana, as the jews allege, they don't disagree with anything the jews wrote previously, including their Babylonian Talmud, which is a long hymn of hate against Gentiles, as well as interpretations of jewish law, which is the jewish religion. The Old Testament purports to be a tribal history, & is venerated, but The Law or Talmud is what Judaism is all about. The Talmud says that "The best of the Goyim ^{should} be killed."

The Protocols are full of evil wisdom, which make Machiavelli look like a Boy Scout. They are concentrated, like the text of a math or chemistry book, so they cannot be skimmed, nor speed-read. Each passage must be read carefully & assimilated, then analyzed. One is then surprised to see how The Protocols are being applied today, in regard to jewish control of 'our' media of information, edjewcation & entertainment, for The Protocols mention the necessity for jews to control the press, & to distract the Goyim with amusements & entertainments, which is done most efficiently by TV, rather than "amusement palaces" at the time when The Protocols were written. Drugs & alcohol are aimed at "bemusing the Goyim," to make them stupid & more easily herded. The Zionist (jew-supremacist) choice of political or religious leaders who have some "Panama" or scandal in their background, by which they may be blackmailed into submission is stated. Woodrow Wilson was such a Zionist puppet because of his love letters to Mrs. Peck, the wife of a fellow professor where Wilson taught. That's why Wilson could refuse Samuel Untermyer of The World Jewish Congress nothing which he desired: Brandeis as Chief Justice, The Federal Reserve & Income tax Acts, passed in 1913, & U.S. entry into World War I. Sammy had those letters, & their publication would have ruined Wilson. Such a deal!

As I understand, the State of Bavaria owns the copyright to "Mein Kampf," but I have no idea what happened to the original manuscript.

I hope you enjoy your new address. I'll send this letter & enclosures off to you a.s.a.p. so it arrives soon, ZOG willing. All the best. ORION!
