

12 AUG 07. Howdy, Jason! Thanks for your letter of 8-8-07. Blackima would be appropriate if the demographics were not so brown. Somebody, probably a space alien, put up a big sign as one drives into Yakima which welcomes us "To the Palm Springs of Central Washington." I am surprised that our local Mental Health patients have not protested that the sign is 'dis-orientating,' as they did with a big sign which advertised Seattle's Best Coffee near one of the Mental Health building entrances. The sign vanished, along with the Mental Health premises, to another location. I don't know what happened to the sign, however. When I arrived in Brownest Yakima in 1993, I was impressed by the large number of people of dark hues who wandered about, talking to themselves, in English. It took awhile to discover that they were patients of a mental health clinic located in what used to be 'downtown' Yakima, in a former Freemasonic temple. With the removal of the clinic to the other side of the railroad tracks, one now encounters dark-hued denizens talking in English & Spanish, but with cellphones. Ah, progress! One hispano-mestizo berates inanimate objects, such as light poles & brick walls in clear Spanish, in view of his years of practice, while another of his persuasion kicked a large, decorative boulder, while cursing it with incoherent sounds. Mental health is USA's growth industry, due to downbreeding & drugs, as it was when I was in Reedy, WV, in the mid-1970s. The population of WV is mainly non-White, mostly mestizo, which inbreeds & downbreeds so as to produce the need for muchos medications & mental health jobs. The first denizens I knew from WV were Scotto-mestizos in CA, who took the White Man's pay, but had lots of bad things to say about him. They were typical mestizos whose 'ideal' society was their concept of The Indian Way, but since they weren't Indians, only part thereof, they were stuck in between, loving the social values of a nonexistent society, while hating the values of the society in which they lived & worked. Wacko-Jefferson wanted such a population: An "American (mestizo) Race." White Freemasons, like Jefferson, were never pro-White, always pro-jew.

Many thanks for the Polish pun joke. This shows us how times have changed. When I showed the joke to a fellow about my age, he understood it immediately, & we both had a good laugh, but few denizens of this American version of Rome know who Cole Porter was, & what the hell is a "steam locomotive?" I used to believe that Amerizombies had a common jewsmedia experience, since we watched old movies on TV in the 1950s, onward, but I was wrong. I discovered this 'gap' when I mentioned Charlie Chaplin in a conversation with some younger critters. "Who's Charlie Chaplin?" they asked. Hey, welcome to Planet Earth.

As you say, reading enemy propaganda which is touted as 'information', & knowing that it is enemy propaganda, provides us something of a screen to remove kosher crap content. It is exercise for the mind, at the very least. The obvious problem, of course, is to figure out what is omitted. So far, most of what we have to go on is sheenie-spin. One acquaintance who went to post-Katrina Louisiana said that he received more gunfire in "Nawlins" than he had in Bosnia, & that much was not reported by the so-called 'news' media. My experience is that local events with major themes are often reported locally, but nothing is reported outside the locality, for fear of informing the Goyim. Educating Goyim is a crime in The Talmud. Education, not edjewcation, is our major job, in regard to our fellows, & in regard to our children, who are the future for our Folk, if there is one.

The Internet is a revolutionary factor in breaking the ZOG's control of information, but the same caution applies, so that we may sort out information from disinformation. I am receiving dire downloads from correspondents in regard to the U.S. debacle in Iraq, which I would suspect as being true, but are such items true, partially-true, or exaggerations, i.e. black propaganda, to influence the reader to disregard what he finds on the 'net? I've been places where the jewsmedia reports vastly differed from the realities I saw at firsthand. When I lived in Colombia in the middle 1960s, it was touted as a tourist attraction. That it was, but there was also an ongoing civil war, which was both violent & bloody. The jewsmedia world was quite different from the real world. The same applied to Rhodesia, where a civil war was portrayed by the jewsmedia as being both violent & bloody, 24-7. SLIME & JEW-SWEEK carried stories & photos, which I read before I arrived: Black bodies strewn about in downtown Salisbury (now Harare). They were allegedly "shot by racist White cops in Cecil Square." The truth was that these bodies, the same ones, were "shot" & resurrected everyday, after their lunchtime naps in the park. Then there were the pictures of the streetcars of Bulawayo, which had been burnt by Black 'freedom'-rioters. In fact, there never had been any streetcars or "trams" in Rhodesia. These burnt-out trams were photographed in Bogota, Colombia, following the terrible, bloody riots in 1948, which led to the present ongoing civil war there. Rhodesia was under a "state of emergency," but it was much more peaceful than any U.S. city in terms of violent crimes & killings. I advised the Rhodesian government of this fact, that they were fuelling the international media hysteria thereby, but they insisted that there was a state of emergency, in their view. I asked one fellow civil servant what he would have called the Berkeley People's Park situation in 1967, when 5 people were shot by CA National Guard troops & persons unknown; the town was occupied by police, sheriff's deputies & National Guard, which manned checkpoints, &c., but this was not at all considered a state of emergency! "I guess Yanks are different," he replied. In my entire residence in Rhodesia, I never saw such a show of force as I saw that time in Berkeley, CA. It is likely that FEDZOGUSA will experience a Roman-style defeat in Iraq, but the jewsmedia will say nothing about it, until it deems the time appropriate for declaring "victory," as it did in regard to Vietnam.

In regard to aping Rome with Latin, my view is that Rome is best to show us the outcome of mistakes. As Tacitus wrote in his "The Agricola & the Germania," Rome was doomed to expand, like^a bubble, ever in need of more resources & more slaves, with none to ask, "Why?" Several writers have noted that Rome's empire caused Rome to perish "for lack of Romans." Tacitus equates "civilization," Roman style, with slavery, if not by chains & whips, then with seductive decadence. Tacitus was himself a Roman, so he was no outsider. He contrasts German virtues with ^{the} degeneracy of Rome's empire, which recall the uncorrupted morals of old Rome. With the conquest of fallen Rome by Christian usurpers, imperial titles were retained, such as Pontifex Maximus, by popes, as well as Latin. The decay of fallen Rome became a virulently infectious disease which completed the enslavement & exploitation of Whites under jewish Christinsanity & its rapacious thugs, like Charlemagne alias Karl the Saxon-Slayer. Tyrants found it profitable to justify their rackets on the basis of the slave religion, under which the enslavers were themselves enslaved, rather like dope addicts forcing others to become dope addicts. No achievement of Rome was worthy of a single drop of White blood, as our Germanic ancestors would attest. I doubt that Mr. Klassen knew much about Roman history, nor especially about Hermann's victory over Roman occupation, & the destruction of Varus' legions, which were good for White people, unlike Charlemagne's treacherous 'victories' over the best members of Our Race.

The USA adopted Roman institutions under its founding felons: A republic for the rich, with an insatiable lust for more power, more wealth, more slaves & more territory. George Bush II would like very much to become our emperor, as he admitted, when he spoke of being a dictator, so he could do as he pleased, with no opposition to put up with. How odd of Klassen to ape the Roman model, if he claimed to be pro-White. Rome was pro-rich, but not pro-White.

I have attempted to explain why our enemies are Zionists, not merely jews, the best of whom are anti-Zionist. Churchill called himself a Zionist (jew-supremacist), as did the jew-serving Canadian politician, Roy McMurtry, who proclaimed himself a "Christian Zionist," as reported in Canadian newspapers of the time. What is wrong with naming the enemy what he calls himself? What would Klassen call those who served jews, but were not themselves jews? No one needed to explain what a Zionist is, nor why 'our' government is occupied by them, but few of them are overtly jews. When jews become the majority in the U.S. regime, then it would no longer be a "jew-occupied government," but a jew government. "Zionist" includes the jews' Goy allies, who make their kosher policies possible. Jew slaves are our most immediate enemies, for they follow jew orders, & are not themselves jews, but Zionists.

In regard to zapping the ZOG, as you described, one may risk being charged with mail-fraud, under ZOG.

In regard to registering copyrights, under ZOG, which become the focus of ZOG ops vs. the registered group, the importance of politics (people-power) is clearly revealed, over paper documents. When a struggle is being fought between a stronger & a weaker opponent, what policy remains to the weaker? The Romans who were defeated by the Carthaginian commander, Hannibal, adopted "Fabian" harassment tactics, as did the defeated Spaniards under French occupation, who called such tactics "guerrilla," or "little war," the essence of which is surprise, mobility & omnipresence in the eyes of the occupiers. One would not register one's name, organizational structure nor uniform with the occupier, unless one were a Creator or Hammerskin. Compare the debacle of Pastor Butler with the success of the jew, Roy Cohn, whose nickname was "So Sue Me:" Butler trusted the ZOG & lost his property to ZOG agents, as did Tom Metzger. Cohn trusted no one, except for those he personally trusted. Officially, he owned nothing of value. All of that was in others' names, so he could enjoy his penthouse, his limos, his yacht & his Florida beach house unmolested by court orders.

Here, it seems appropriate to exclaim, "Such a deal!" The USA has a huge underground economy. There are gangs who are not registered as copyright-holders, who exist & function successfully, & upon whose turf zoggies fear to tread. They exist in fact, but not de jure, without a paper trail. Essentially, they are guerrilleros, & they fight with knives & guns. So why do some Whites have this penchant to officialize their status with ZOG? It is this very status which seems to generate the court cases used to harass the members of such groups, with ZOG's Fabian tactics. This error indicates that we do not know who has power over us, so we are like guerrilleros who pretend otherwise, by parading down the street with uniforms & flags flying, while the powerful enemy confronts us with concealment & camouflage. Goofy is as goofy does, & we have the defeats to show for it, regardless of any touted personal courage, like the poster of the defiant German sailor of World War I who clings to his sinking ship with one hand & clenches his fist at the British battle-ships with the other.

White Unity is impossible if we support White Folly. When we do not take our would be leaders to task, we risk going down, with unity, as did the passengers & crew of The Titanic. In my experience, those who grab the mantle of leadership seem to know least about it, & hence endanger their followers unnecessarily.

It is well asked, here in Judeo-America, that if I'm so smart, "why ain't I rich?" It is also pertinent to ask, "If someone is so smart, why is he in prison?" My sociology prof. stated that "Only dumb crooks go to prison." That was a shock to those of us brought up on the mantra that "Crime doesn't pay." I never say in print what I would not say to one's face.

The disadvantage of the religious approach to politics is that too much time is taken up with 'hanging out' & learning irrelevant religious ritual, including Latin, when we must educate ourselves & our children, first & foremost. My experience proves that it's what's on the inside of the person, not the uniform (tattoos, &c.) he wears on the outside. If that person is a dolt, then he will achieve doltish results, whatever his title & uniform. The ZOG hires & promotes military morons, for instance, who are paid to declare that "We are winning" in Vietnam, & now in Iraq. If they had informed, honest opinions, they would have a different message for their Zionist masters. General Gavin announced that U.S. policy in Indochina was unworkable, so he resigned. General Odom who formerly headed the NSA said we should "cut & run" from Iraq, not today, but yesterday. We need to be learning history, from a White Nationalist standpoint, rather than cultish mumbo-jumbo, like a bunch of Freemasons. We have no time. A sound knowledge of our past gives us firm ground in the present. Without a firm grounding of knowledge, we/the means to march toward a future more to our liking. Ever march in quicksand? lack

As I wrote to another skinhead, the problem to solve is to survive on the outside, so as to avoid adopting a "prison-prep" lifestyle. The goal is to achieve the 14 Words, but that is not possible inside the gulags, as should be obvious. Anti-Zionist jew, Rabbi Elmer Berger, whose lecture I attended in Toronto, said that Zionism is for lazy jews who don't want to spend all the time required for becoming real jews. They want to believe that support for Israel absolves them from all the tedious study necessary to assimilate the contractual nature of Judaism. He said that jews were not "God's chosen people, but God's chosen SERVANTS." Be that as it may, I see parallels with skinheads & so-called Nazis on our parts. Hey, why read books when you can put on a uniform, shave your head, get tattoos, &c.?

No gulagnik may receive The 88 Precepts in the Land of WAZOGDOC, according to censors. But thanks, anyway. Censors are calling me things I am not, as my letter to Sr. Cedeño refers, & there appears to be a tighter clampdown on ideas & info here. Thanks for the additional info on jews in China. I understand that the present North Korean dictator's mom was a jewess from the USSR. WAZOG bans any publication they deem pro-White, regardless of content, as they have been doing most recently with my correspondence.

Liberty Bell began as a John Birch publication, but was never a KKK pub. I have never supported the KKK because they NEED Blacks, for their own self-definition. "White Supremacists" are usually inferior Whites, as I've experienced in White-ruled Africa & in the U.S. south. Suggested reading: "A Century of War," by F.W. Engdahl, re the politics of oil. The stamps are always appreciated. I hope that you find yourself on the outside, one day, so you can see the social context, & put Klassenism into proper perspective, on behalf of Our Race. All the best & ORION!

12 AUG 07. Hail Jason! Many thanks for your letter & enclosures of 7 AUG 07 + the 2 41¢ stamps. Much appreciated. I'm real glad to get your good news of your progress for life on the outside. There's an old prize-fighter saying that "You never learn anything until you get tired." That's something I also learned when I was a fire-fighter in the U.S. Forest Service, for there's nothing like physical work to teach us about reality: what we can do, & how much effort it takes to do it. That's why NS Germany promoted the honor of work in their National Labor Service (Reichsarbeitsdienst). When I assisted at Arthur Rudolf's immigration hearing in Soviet Canuckistan, I told my female attorney colleague that the jews who accused Rudolf of "war crimes" wanted to have their kosher cake & eat it, too: They accused the Germans of 'starving' the labor draftees (who were paid!) & also forcing them to 'do hard labor.' I told my colleague that one cannot get hard labor out of starving people, no matter how much one whips or otherwise punishes them, any more than you can make a car run with an empty gas tank by kicking it. University 'edjewcated' sheeple did not know that.

I'll enjoy meeting you after you get out, here in Brownest Yakima, whenever you can arrange a visit. Let me know when you can make it up here. This month, for example, I must testify as witness in a court case, following a mestizo-bandido invasion of my residence. It just proves how little control we have over our lives: I was planning to go downtown, but all of a sudden, a cop appears at my door to deliver a subpoena. So much for my plans this month! Life is full of surprises.

Ron McVan is very busy with his Albion Publications, his artwork & his music, but I think he will write to you, whenever he has time.

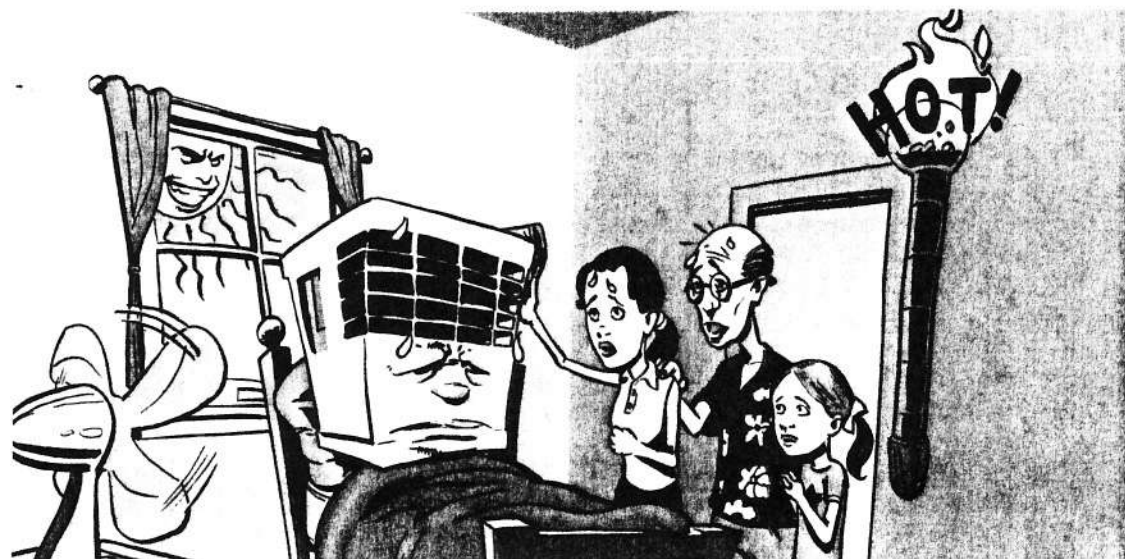

Yes, liars say all sorts of things about Hitler. The fact they couldn't keep their lies straight caused me to become curious about a man who could be (1) A jew-hating jew; (2) A brave coward; (3) An honest liar; (4) A Communist-Capitalist agent; (5) An anti-Capitalist Capitalist; (6) A woman-hating skirt-chaser; (7) A man who so many Austrians hated, that they came out in the thousands to cheer his unification of Austria with Germany, according to the newsreels I saw. Hitler achieved something attributed to Jêsus: He 'died' in 1945, but 'escaped' to Argentina, where he 'died' several times since then, according to the Allied liars of ZOG.

The 88 Precepts are banned in WAZOG-gulag land, so I return them to you with thanks.

Things are falling into place for ZOG's North American Union of Canada, USA & Mexico. The list is, so far: Massive invasion & occupation of the USA by Mexicans; the North American Free Trade Agreement, & now, cross-border collaboration between U.S. & Mexican ZOGs versus Mexican narco-terrorists. One caller to NPR jewsradio questioned the choice of "Homeland Security." Why not "U.S. Security?" She said "Homeland" is a Nazi term, & she was right! The Germans sang about their "Heimat," or "Homeland." I'd guess that the use of "Homeland," instead of "U.S." is a step to prepare us for the North American Union.

When you leave the gulag, you may be living in a different country, thanks be to ZOG! All the best, as always. ORION!
