

24 AUG 07. Dear Wayne: Many thanks for your letter & enclosures of 20 AUG 07! As you say, the ANSWP smacks of money, & I wonder where from? As we know, the blightwing is a curious critter which craves publicity, but likes to keep its existence 'secret' from those it deems 'competitors.' I first learned of the existence of the ANSWP late in 'Jewlie' 07. I don't know what connection, if any, they may have with the 'troo-jooz' of Idiot Identity.

The personality cult of David Lane & his fellow members of The Order is even now being denounced by a Crazy Identity 'rabbi' named Williams, so it's business as usual in the blightwing.

In capsule, I provide a background based on my memory of the so-called 'movement' allegedly based on Adolf Hitler in the USA: Rockwell was tired of the timidity of the Birch Society, which avoided pointing any finger of blame at Jewish malefactors, for fear of being called "Nazi." Rockwell figured, correctly, that if the Jews & their Zionist stooges were going to call him a Nazi, they would give him instant recognition. Thus, Rockwell became a 'Nazi' for publicity purposes. He called his Phase One party "The American Nazi Party" for that reason. Once he had captured public recognition, he adopted more populist tactics under a new name, The National Socialist White People's Party, but in 1967 he was assassinated. The holding company for the ANP & NSWPP was Rockwell Enterprises, whose 2 shareholders were Pierce & Lloyd, who mysteriously vanished, leaving Matt Koehl holding the NSWPP & any property in its name. Under Rockwell, The Party was promoting outreach, but Koehl, who could pass for Turkish, & who may be non-White, reversed that policy in favor of seclusion & property acquisition, like Zündel. Eventually, Koehl sold the Party H.Q. in Arlington, after securing donations to purchase it. Then he took the money & ran back to Wisconsin, where he lives in a rural 'hideout' & publishes his sermons on Adolf Hitler.

As we know, Pierce went his own way, but his choice of subordinates & successors was no better than Rockwell's, as things now appear. I attempted to start The White Power Movement back in 1976, which would have an NS program tailored for U.S. Whites, for which I composed the White Power Manifesto & the White Power Hymn. There were some obstacles. Our H.Q. (printing office) was in a ghost-town with semi-White zombies, who could not be rallied for much other than a backyard barbecue, as long as the host provided the food & drinks. Reedy, WV, was an economic, political & demographic swamp. It had been chosen by former John Birch Society member, George Dietz, precisely because it was a backwater. Additional obstacles were sabotage by Covington who spread malicious rumors & even insulted supporters by writing them on WPM stationery, once he'd infiltrated our office. Then there was the furious opposition of the blightwing, which universally deemed us as 'competitors.' We needed ONE active supporter outside Reedy. I travelled up to Boston, over to St. Louis, via Louisville, KY, to meet potential supporters who'd merely distribute our propaganda fliers & publications. Result: Nothing more than more malicious gossip. Reedy, WV, became a dead end, so I returned to Toronto in 1978 to resume collaboration with Zündel's Samisdat Publishers, Ltd. That collaboration ended in 1991, when The Zud planned to take the money & run, prompted by his 3 gods: Lust, Ego & Greed. E.Z.: R.I.P. (E.T.)

Once again, there is nothing advantageous in a 'religious' program, as opposed to a 'political' program, for both programs require people. Both programs require a change of mind, based on acknowledged 'facts.' The change of mind must lead to a change of behavior. If not, nothing is achieved beyond a brief sharing of viewpoints. The message must be dynamic & simple enough to attract 'ordinary' people. Most people would not respond to An Appeal to Restore the Phlogiston Theory, &c. Savitri Devi described the NSDAP as "a temporal manifestation of Cosmic Truth." National Socialism did not try to convey "Cosmic Truth" to the man on the street, nor to his wife nor children. It transmitted "Cosmic Truth" in terms of a program for practical living: for bread, work & honor. Otherwise, Hitler could have remained an esoteric discussion group leader, much like the German Workers' Party in the backroom of a pub, as Hitler found it. Hitler made all the difference, as we know. He was the ideal combination of Singer & Song, who could attract loyal & competent supporters. Hitler saw himself as a focal point for popular will, a symbol of that will which made everything possible. Why it took Hitler to bring popular will & power together is a political mystery, as it was to Hitler. Why is someone needed to tell a strong man that he can lift a certain weight, & that he should do so? This is the basis of The Leadership Principle. People who heard Hitler speak told me that "He could say in words what was already on our minds, but unspoken." Hence, your job is to verbalize the unspoken truth in others' minds. Good luck! ORION!
