

25 AUG 07. Dear Tom: Many thanks for your letter mailed on 21 AUG 07, & the 3 flier-disks, for which you are unique. You don't see the hand of the jew in Ireland's demise, for it has been there ever since St. Patrick, de Valera, & the IRA, championed by the jew, Marx, who predicted that the British Empire would be destroyed by its colonies, such as Ireland. On the other side are the Freemasons who admit they want to be jew-slaves, but your point is valid: Ireland's foremost enemies call themselves "Irish." This is why I coined the term, Zionist Occupation Government, for it is a regime run by non-jews FOR Zionism or jew-supremacy. Your foremost enemies are the anti-Irish Irish. Since when is being Irish & wanting to be Irish "racist?" How dare these race-mixing rascals insult Irish identity & intelligence? I agree with your emphasis on "Ireland for Irish, only," but it appears that there are insufficient pro-Irish Irish to do this, so it is likely that your fall-back position will be White Nationalism. In Judeo-Britain, a recent report said that Hungarians successfully battled mobs of wogs in an English town, Dewsbury, Yorkshire. White Brits don't fight for a White Britain, apparently, nor do Irish fight for an Irish Ireland. If Poles will fight for a White Ireland, then you must rely on Poles. Or would you prefer to ally with the Nigerians? Ha! Politics is "the art of the possible." My impression is that the Irish are all asleep or drunk, too much so to defend Ireland from invasion, occupation & conquest. Why that is, I don't pretend to know. What are they scared of? You are misgoverned by traitors, & they should be called such, loudly, openly & often. Pro-Irish Irish must do that, for who cares what a foreigner says? In the USA, we are all "foreigners," so I can say that about our ZOG, many of whom are proud to call themselves Zionists & Israel-Firsters. Ireland is not exempt from Zionist abuses, as occur in former White countries, even though the jews' frontmen are Irish, which makes their treason more effective.

It is interesting that your enemies use the old jew trick of defining a people out of existence. In the USA, jews have been doing this to Whites: That we are "a social convention, not a race." So now they say the same about the "nonexistent" Celts. I point out the absurd position of one who wants to destroy something which "does not exist." Will Nigerians become the 'new' "Black Irish?" Stay tuned! Apparently, Irish cannot comprehend the anti-Irish nature of multi-cultural race-mixing propaganda. Perhaps they find the exotic entertaining, but it is assured that if they continue to do nothing in their self-defence, the 'exotic' will become the commonplace, as I witness in the USA, where 'exotic' Latin America is here, in force. When I arrived in Brownest Yakima in 1993, an acquaintance asked me how it felt to be back in the USA. I replied that it was like being back in Mexico. End of conversation, but not end of reality. The Mexican invaders openly declare their "reconquest" of their territory, which the dirty Gringos 'stole' from them in the 19th century. I know what they teach in Mexican schools, because I've lived in Mexico. As one Mexican president declared: "To govern is to populate." He was not referring to Mexican territory, but to the USA, which Mexican Nationalists call "Aztlán." Isn't it nice of them to give us a new name, free of charge? Ha! I believe the Chinese call the USA "Golden Mountain," which is unfortunately populated by 'round-eyed, long-nosed foreign devils,' at least for now.

It appears that the Irish you know do not take the fate of Ireland seriously. Are there no patriots? In the USA, most 'patriots' equate Zionism with patriotism. They are serious enough to send their sons & daughters away to die for Israel or "Usrael," since they equate their interests & U.S. interests with those of jews & of Israel. Such sheeple are wrong, but serious. At least, they talk that way. Your Irish seem to think that wishing to save Ireland for Irish people is a joke; that the Irish themselves are a joke. As I say, "Only a change of mind can save Our Kind." A signature in blood shows commitment, but that commitment must invoke with it the sweat of lifetimes, on behalf of racial preservation. No Whites nor Irish seem to be so firmly committed, judging by their behavior. Most do not see that they live under enemy occupation, even when the enemy looks like them, as the Boers discovered in South Africa, or may have discovered, much too late.

The Irish need to debate their future, while they still have a fighting chance, & fight they must, preferably not only amongst themselves. As geopolitical Europe & Ireland now stand, their divisions are used by Europeans' enemies as portals for invasion. Europe is 'unified' under Zionist bankster rule, hence the "European Union" divides Europeans biopolitically, to prevent them from uniting as a race, thus allowing for invasion of their former living space by non-Whites. Biopolitics dictates that it is the Irish who must be saved, not Ireland, which is a place, not a race. White tribalism is the past. White Nationalism must be the future, if there is to be a future.

All the best for success in your mess. ORION!

P.S.: Your observation of historical leadership roles is correct. I know of no successful 'mass-movement' or revolution which has occurred without the leadership of intellectuals & money. Workers & peasants take part in great struggles, but they do not lead them. Marx depicted his 'workers' paradise' in materialistic terms, which some would describe as 'hog heaven,' in which the denizens are well-fed & frolic in bed, with booze & penny arcades for the more intellectual proletarians. Marx & his fellow jew bolsheviks probably used the term 'worker' interchangeably with Goyim (Gentiles). The Chinese Communists determined that fewer than 1 out of 20 Allied prisoners had any leadership potential. Chinese guards were ordered to look for the man to whom other men listened; the man who had a sense of humor, & the man who showed courage. By removing those men from the 'sheeple,' the Chinese had no prisoner-escapes, but 2, which I learned of only recently. This leadership experiment was carried out during The Korean War. The Chinese Communists themselves were not led by workers, nor by peasants, but by former Mandarins with good educations. Mao Tse Tung was an intellectual, as was Chou en Lai, who had studied in Germany.

In "The God that Failed," Arthur Koestler, my favorite Hungarian jew, writes of the Commies' religious veneration of a propaganda icon, "Ivan Ivanovich" alias "John Johnson," if my translation is correct. This man of soil & toil, with his rough hands was every Commie kike's idol: the ideal Goy: strong, hard-working, brave & honest. He was the New Socialist Man incarnate. The reason he was so diligently promoted in the Soviet Jewnion was that there were so few of him, like the legendary Stakhanov, who allegedly exceed^{ed} his mining quotas, much like Paul Bunyan & his blue ox, Babe, could in the U.S. logging industry fables. Only after the demise of the USSR were Stakhanov's fables debunked, & coal miners could safely admit that such feats were impossible, which they did not dare to do under the jew, Stalin.

One grave danger in leadership is the 'hothouse intellectual,' for they are usually all theory & no practice. British General Fuller mentioned some of the errors committed by the jew, Lenin, who'd apparently never worked in his life, similar to Woodrow Wilson & FDR. Fuller mentioned Hitler's practical political nature, based on the fact that Hitler had performed hard labor & had fought as a soldier in the worst of trench warfare, plus his personal knowledge of workingclass life in contrast. A competent leader needs the education & discipline of productive physical labor, so he is aware of the human condition & the needs of the people he leads. Nietzsche demeaned his folk, but the duty of a leader is to lead his folk, not abandon them to their lowest levels & to entrust them under the rule of the racial enemy. I noted that tendency amongst the rich Goyim in the USA: they expected the status of nobility, with none of its obligations toward their people. On the contrary, this elite served the enemy of their own race, including the enemy of their 'lesser brethren.' Noble is as noble does, & mere riches are no sign of nobility. Privileged hothouse intellectuals like Jefferson could wax eloquent on 'liberty,' which everyone could enjoy, provided they owned sufficient slaves & obtained sufficient income from their agribusinesses. Jefferson was no champion of 'democracy', but a champion of hypocrisy: One more Freemasonic jew-slave, with too much time on his hands.

Land ownership is important in regard to communities & politics. One can be an onshore sailor-type like me, or a man with his roots in the soil & in a stable community. America is nomadic, with a frequently-moving population. Old Dept. of Labor statistics of the 1940s & 1950s showed that most people changed dwellings every 2 years in the same town, & they changed towns every 4 years. American nomads don't follow crops nor game. They follow the dollar, moving to find jobs or to keep jobs which require them to move. A 1950s book entitled "The Organization Man" described U.S. corporations' policy of moving employees from town to town, as a test of corporate loyalty, with the additional jew bonus of disrupting Goy communities. Since everyone was likely to move on short notice, suburban neighborhoods lost their neighborliness & one could live several years next to a family one never met, nor had anything to do with. Suburban America was an ideal totalitarian society: Sheeple commuted in separate steel cocoons (cars), while listening to jewsmedia, & doing the same at home. Communication was from top-down, not from side to side. If one had time for social clubs & churches, he received 'the word from on high.' Labor unions may have had some bottom-up communications, but they fell into line when they backed the sellout of U.S. jobs under The North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA). Shortly before it was passed, jew Labor Secretary Reich giggled that "NAFTA would adversely affect 80% of the American people, but 20% should do just fine." This meant that at least 80% of the U.S. sheeple had no say, whatsoever, in NAFTA's passage. You may see great changes in the USA, as well as Ireland. Good luck! ORION! E.T.

P.P.S.: As you can guess, I reread your letter & discover more items of interest which I should properly address. Many thanks! I'm sorry to learn of your printing/photocopying difficulties. You need to be in constant attendance to supervise the little girls to save you time, labor & money. It sounds as if they had monkeys working in the copyshop.

B.W. may be raiding the BNP for recruits, rather than jumping in bed with Griffin's sold-out party. Not a word have I received from M.K. I hope he received my mailings.

In regard to names, the current fellow running or not running for U.S. presidential candidacy is Thompson, Irish; not Thomson, Scottish. I watch my Ps & Qs. Thanks for the insight on Barack Obama. The Israeli P.M. is, if I recall correctly, Ehud Olmert. Barak is another fellow. The "Black" Colin Powell grew up in a Jewish neighborhood & speaks fluent Yiddish, as I understand. In regard to race, DNA testing is the only way, as I understand. The test for Jewishness would be the presence of Afro-Asiatic genes, as opposed to White. All Jews are Afro-Eurasians in varying degrees, according to "The Genetics of the Jews" by Drs. A.E. Mourant et al. published by Oxford University Press, first in 1978. The Jew authors are hematologists, blood scientists, who describe "even the blondest Jew" as possessing Afro-Asian genes. I understand that one relative of mine, William Thomson alias Lord Kelvin, lived in Belfast, at one time or another.

It is up to Irish leadership to be aware of the Jew problem, which will become manifest whenever you attack a Jewish interest. The Jew crooks of the past are succeeded by the Jews of the present, such as Tessa Cohen of Tesco et al. Evil has deep kosher roots. Jesus said so, but no Christian ever heeds the words of Jesus, especially in regard to Jews, "the children of the Father of Lies." How the races came about is a matter of conjecture, but there is no doubt that they exist, the more we learn about them.

The Jewbook fudges aplenty in Genesis, which mentions "the children of the gods"(elohim) coming to earth & mating with earth women. Then, if Adam & Eve were the only humans, from whence came the people of The Land of Nod, with whom Caine runs off to dwell? I asked a theologian why the Jews could not keep their lies straight. He assured me that only damned few sheeple read the Bible in a fully-wakened state, rather than a trance or Jew-daze, so when someone found such contradictions, he could grease the palm of his priest or rabbi to receive an 'explanation.' Hence, religion is a racket which profits from stupid sheeple. "My kingdom is not of this earth, so gimme yer dough!"

I'm not aware of other tribes' treatment of homosexuality, incest or pedophilia in The Amazon, but the sky's the limit, as far as I know from my studies of anthropology. Incest is traditional amongst American Indians. Traditionally, the oldest daughter takes over when the mother gets a bit dowdy. Some Pacific Islanders practice necrophilia^{lac} cannibalism, thus incurring kuru, a form of mad-cow disease. In Plains Indian tradition, a male who has a certain tribal vision is accorded female status & dwells as a 'squaw' amongst the squaws. In Africa, a woman who cannot bear children may become a witchdoctor. Male-female pedophilia is not a crime in most Turd World countries, for a female who becomes pregnant is a woman, & getting her pregnant is 'fun' even if it takes a few years. In many non-White countries child prostitution is permitted. If one is old enough to penetrate, he or she is deemed 'old enough.' In Catholic countries, priestly pedophilia has long been permitted, for it is argued that a blessing from a corrupt, criminal priest is just as good as a blessing from a pure priest, as I've heard from priests. Some folks do not think priests should be permitted to molest children, which is damned 'unChristian' of them, eh? More recently, a pedophilia scandal has erupted in that paramilitary organization founded by Baden-Powell, The Boy Scouts, here in the USA. Like the Catholic Church, the Boy Scouts face law suits for lots of money, according to the Jewmedia. I suspect that perversions, like slavery, have been around for a long time in a pendulum fashion, from punishment to permission & vice versa, while remaining mostly unmentioned in 'decent circles.' My Scottish grannie said that the Victorian era in which she grew up was as vile as may be imagined, but it was hushed up with hypocrisy. One did not look behind drawn curtains, so what was unseen & unheard did not happen. In the words of a pederast priest: "Sex is evil; evil is sin; sins are forgiven, so let's begin!" Heard near a confession box: "See ya later, fornicator." "After 'while, pedophile!"

Thanks for the information about Irish sports. At least those seem to be surviving, but I hear announcements on my radio of "Afro-Celtic traditions" in music. Such a deal! U.S. sports are now known as "niggerball."

I'm glad to hear you have some sort of 'guaranteed pension.' Our 'presidente' Bush wanted to put our pensions in the stock market, but we were 'saved by the bell,' or something. Best.

Sam". It needs to be understood that opposition to US globalism is not a prerogative of the Left. US conservative syndicated columnist Joe Sobran has written:

"Anti-Americanism is no longer a fad of Marxist university students; it's a profound reaction of traditional societies against corrupt and corrupting modernisation, that is being imposed upon them, by both violence and seduction."

Turia - second thoughts on immigration

When the Maori Party was established a few years ago, party co-leader Tariana Turia had a grand vision of Polynesian and Asian immigrants uniting with Maoris into a voting bloc to dispossess the whites. Now that the Government campaign to enrol sufficient Maoris on the Maori electoral roll to justify the creation of another Maori MP has failed, this vision has soured. Turia has lambasted successive immigration policies as a deliberate plot to further reduce the number of Maoris to minimise their influence, and has demanded that Maoris be consulted on immigration levels. "I think that it's quite deliberate to ensure that Maori numbers don't grow at a faster rate than the rest of the NZ population", she said. (Dom. Post, Feb. 3, 07).

Yet in 2004 Turia was optimistically saying that Maoris combined with Polynesians and Asians would comprise up to 60% of the voters by 2050. (Kapiti Observer, June 28, 04).

Scientist affirms "race"

Dr Bob Brockie, Dominion Post science columnist and research associate at the School of Biology, Victoria University, Wellington, has questioned the dismissal of the concept of "race" in favour of "ethnicity". Stating that "race" is a reality based on gene clusters, he contends that despite the PC trend even among scientists to claim that "race" has no validity, he questions whether the 1% DNA difference among races is of no consequence. Citing the prestigious New England Journal of Medicine, Prof. Neil Risch, head of a 'high powered medical research team' at Stanford, writes that 'the scientific journals have got it wrong'. Brockie explains:

"Prof. Risch's team concur on the genetic conformity of the human race. We can all interbreed with each other, and we all share about 99% of our genes. But whether typing by proteins, chromosomes or dna, the genetic features cluster round and the deepest genetic differences lie between the five continental races - the Africans, Caucasians, Asian, Pacific Islanders and Native Americans."

Brockie states that Risch et al say "it's misleading to assume that the only genetic differences between races are genes for skin colour..." Risch thinks that these racial categories are scientifically meaningful and "medically very useful." He points out that some diseases are race specific, as are some treatments, ordinary anaesthetics being dangerous to Black S. Africans, for e.g. "Prof. Risch and co say that it's important that doctors, epidemiologists, drug companies and public policy-makers acknowledge these genetic racial differences. The Stanford researchers think that race blind or race neutral medical approaches are neither equitable nor advantageous and that ignoring racial differences will ultimately lead to disservice to racial minorities."

"Call me old fashioned but I think we are muddying the English language by supplanting the precise scientifically justified word race with the woolly polysyllabic euphemism ethnicity," Brockie writes. (Dominion Post, Jan 29, 07).
