

Our American Cultural Decline

Some Thoughts By Eric Thomson

Eric is an unstoppable advocate of European-American rights. Among other interesting things about him (some of you have asked) is his service in Rhodesia and other foreign lands. Many of his essays appear on First Amendment Exercise Machine www.FAEM.com. He also carries on a traditional correspondence with several individuals, and shares some of these epistles with others, including us. [Written 21 February 2002. PARALLELS WITH WEIMAR GERMANY

"The German people were dying under Weimar decadence, just as the Whites are dying of Judeo-American decadence."

It has taken Judeo-Americans over a century to become practitioners of Jeffersonian anarchism, hedonism and irresponsibility. What I see is a Babel combined with an orgy of self-indulgence; a wild party in a madhouse, with thieves stealing all the furnishings and tableware. Yes, if you would take away any Nazi's idealism, you would likely have the sort of degenerate values and behavior as one saw in Weimar Germany and in the USA.

The Germans were quite disillusioned with the calls for idealistic nationalism during World War One, just as were many people in the "victor's" countries, who'd been fed with "glorious war" propaganda. One poet of the pre-war period described the soldier bound for the front as "a swimmer, jumping into cleanliness." There were many similar statements in the public domain, which were equally grotesque and unrealistic. I recall watching silent films taken of German, French, British and Russian soldiers gaily, in the original sense of the word, marching into the infernal meat grinder of the first clash of arms at the fronts. I was saddened to see some of them wave cheerfully at the cameraman, for I knew that even a combat veteran of a few hours hence could not have deterred these lemmings.

This is one aspect of the zeitgeist or spirit of the times. Pre-World War Two Germany was ready for heroic sacrifice. Weimar was beaten, exhausted, cynical, corrupt, materialistic, despairing and hedonistic. Worst of all, it was no longer German, but becoming Judaized from the top down via Capitalism and from the bottom up, via Communism. The unemployed consumed the state budgets and young Germans were committing suicide, while others left for other countries, merely to survive. The Weimar Germans wallowed in a Jew [Eric always uses the lower case j] cesspool of disinformation, exploitation and degeneracy. The German people were dying under Weimar decadence, just as the Whites are dying of Judeo-American decadence. There were sufficient Germans who were not afflicted by a mass death-wish, and they shook off the decadence and recoiled from the deadly Weimar Disease in revulsion. Life is struggle and these Germans embraced life, along with Hitler. I am merely stating observed facts and behavior. What occurred in Germany could occur elsewhere, if people were to change their minds. There is no guarantee they will, but a change of mind is possible, especially when people perceive that their Judeo-Capitalist god has betrayed them and left them to starve.

AMERICAN-STYLE DEGENERACY...

I have been exposed to American-style degeneracy for decades, and I find no satisfaction in ceaseless consumerism, even if I could afford it. The people I have known who sought satisfaction in material possessions turned out to be empty vessels possessed by their possessions as the servants of their property, rather than vice versa. Their lives have been stolen by things they have acquired, to the detriment of their personal and inter-personal relationships, and their ability to cultivate themselves into mature and well-rounded individuals. My mother used to say that "a person who is all wrapped up in himself makes a very small package." By living amongst foreigners, I learned to appreciate the value of community, for we are, indeed, social animals and we achieve our best as members of a community, as Mozart or Tesla would quickly discover if they were confined in African villages.

...AND A POSSIBLE ANSWER

Judeo-Americans do not yet think in terms of community, nor of a public interest. Right now they only think of themselves as disparate and as desperate, isolated individuals who can only look forward to a dubious slice of heavenly pie from a Big Sky-Jew. Believing in such big twaddle, it is no wonder that hordes of self-seeking suckers fell victims to dot-com blarney and Enron scam-artists. Are Judeo-Americans capable of growing up and growing out of their degenerate values? We shall undoubtedly see, so stay tuned! The best of men know that we must behave according to Nature's Rules. This means we must cull our own scrubs, duds and parasites so as to limit and improve our numbers. National Socialism was both populist and elitist, for it mobilized the populace on behalf of racial improvement: man working on behalf of superman, to improve our relationship with Nature and achieve our destiny in the Universe. Eric Thomson, ORION! [Our Race Is Our Nation].

"I am only one, but I am one. I cannot do everything, but I can do something. And because I cannot do everything, I will not refuse to do the something that I can do. What I can do, I should do. And what I should do, by the grace of God, I will do."

HOW RUSSIAN-JEWISH "MOGULS" GOT POLITICAL POWER TO LOOT RUSSIA DURING THE 1990s?

[One of the most interesting writers with whom we correspond regularly is C. Cunningham, author of the epic and far-reaching series of books called THE SECRET EMPIRE. I recently asked him a question about the name, "Rasputin" and its variant, "Putin." Without belaboring the point, the root word is perhaps most familiar to us in the border lands of the Southwest as "puta", a well-known and well-worn Spanish word for whore. Oddly enough, there is an intriguing similarity in Slavic languages such as Russian. Cunningham has lots of "reliable sources", and one of them, a Russian, provided some fascinating details on modern Russian history.]

Hail Stevie! Thanks for your letter of 4 NOV 07. You make a great case for charging our ZOG 'school system' with child-molesting, in regard to its 'edjewcation' of Gentile children. I was sure one of those when I began elementary school in 1944. What we got was very similar to Soviet Jewnion-style miseducation: propaganda. The only useful knowledge I obtained from my grandmother at home, who taught me how to read, do math & tell time. Our overpaid jew school administration could not & would not do that for me. Of course, being a White kid, I knew that I was not learning what I needed & wanted to know. At first, I believed that it was my fault, until my grandmother explained the basics: That the written word was intended to represent the spoken word. Then I was off & running. In college, I remember 3 things I was taught over a 6 year period: (1) That we had no excuse for being bored, since we were cursed to live in "interesting times." True! (2) That we are all self-educated. Yes! (3) That there were no BIG secrets, since they are right in plain sight, like our ongoing alien invasion, sponsored by our ZOG. Of course, my parents were typical Goyim. They followed the lemmings onto the Talmudic Treadmill to Oblivion, but I could smell a rabbi lurking behind the scenes, like the phony Wizard in the movie, who is revealed by the girl's little dog.

My parents taught me no survival skills which I needed in this Judeo-American society. I had to be lucky & alert to avoid being snagged by all the sheenie scams. Once I began to learn, I grew better at spotting the rackets aimed at fleecing & slaughtering the Goy sheeple. Of course, I had to unlearn many of the lies which I was indoctrinated with in school. One lie which I not only believed, but was fond of, was that "A U.S. citizen has both the RIGHT & the DUTY to inform himself & to inform others." Had our ZOG been honest, I could have avoided offending the zoggies by following their instructions. I've lived under dictatorships, so they are usually honest: They tell people what they SHOULD NOT do. Our ZOG tells us the opposite, then punishes the fools who believe their propaganda. I truly dislike hypocrisy. If I am told by an armed thug NOT to cross a line, I respect that warning, but if the armed thug invites me to cross the line; that it's O.K., I am greatly disgusted to hear him chamber a round & see him aim his weapon at me, for crossing that line.

I long wanted to be one of those heroic journalists portrayed in the jewsmedia. Teaching & journalism have much in common: the journalist wants to learn things & pass on his knowledge. So does the teacher, assuming both are honest & love their readers & students. Others, too many others, are liars-for-hire. I could not live with myself if I had such a job, so it's just as well that I learned about ZOG when I did.

As a college student, I entered the wondrous world of reading. I naively believed the authors to be independent-thinkers, & did not suspect them to be affiliated with groups who had vested interests, such as political-economic agendas, nor did I suspect that they could be paid to write material on behalf of such groups. I knew I was ignorant. That's why I went to school for 16 years! But schools were not where one obtained important knowledge, for much was disinformation. This was cured by my non-school education, but why did I have to pay to learn so much which I had to UNLEARN, pronto? That's the difference between education & edjewcation, the latter being intended to screw Goyim (Gentiles).

Now I ask the old Roman question, whenever I read anything: "Cui bono?" Who benefits? The jew, Shirer, wrote lots of b.s. which he intended to discredit Hitler & The Third Reich. Henry Ford wrote that we'd be better off if every idea flew its national flag, so we knew its source, rather than flying false flags. If a Gentile knows his source is Jewish, he can be critical from the beginning, as he should be with all writers. In regard to 'false flags', there is "black & white propaganda." White propaganda comes from the source it claims to be. Black purports to come from a different source than the real one. Propagandists like to put words in their opponents' mouths, for example. One trick I remember is that done by a political flier-distributor. He was walking across a porch to put his candidate's flier inside the frontdoor, when he realized that the porch floor had been freshly-painted, & he'd left ugly footprints thereon. So, instead of leaving his candidate's flier in the door, he left his opponent's flier! That's black propaganda.

I'm glad you enjoyed "The Awakening." I hope you can receive "Return to Spring Island!" I enjoyed writing both of them. No, I never heard of any "Nationalist Coalition." Which nations are involved? As I asked the Piercites of "The National Alliance," which nations are allied? No answer, of course. Out here we have many Indian nations, for example.

Zionists are known to set up phony groups to knock over, to shake shekels out of the dumber hebes, to whom they say: "See, we saved you from the Nazis! So donate, already."

All the best. All Whites need to read The Protocols of Zion on behalf of 14 & ORION!
